PREFACE

The Mississippi Code of 1972, which became effective on November 1, 1973, is the culmination of nearly four years of effort on the part of the Legislature, the Attorney General's office and the publishers, which brings together provisions of general statutory law having a common subject matter into a more orderly and logical framework of code titles and chapters, and employing a modern and effective section numbering system. A major by-product of the code revision will be the state-owned magnetic computer tape containing the Mississippi Code of 1972, which will be of invaluable assistance to the Legislature and to the state.

The enabling act for the code was a recommendation of the Mississippi State Bar, which resulted in the consideration and passage of Senate Bill 1964, Chapter 465, Laws of 1970, signed into law by Governor John Bell Williams.

The Code Committee provided for in that act was comprised of A. F. Summer, Attorney General, Heber Ladner, Secretary of State, Representative Edgar J. Stephens, Jr., Chairman, House Appropriations Committee, Senator William G. Burgin, Jr., Chairman, Senate Appropriations Committee, Representative H. L. Meredith, Jr., Chairman, House Judiciary "A" and Judiciary en banc Committees, Senator E. K. Collins, Chairman, Senate Judiciary "A" and Judiciary en banc Committees, Representative Ney McKinley Gore, Jr., Chairman, House Judiciary "B" Committee, and Senator William E. Alexander, Chairman, Senate Judiciary "B" Committee. In 1972, Representative Marby Robert Penton and Senator Herman B. Decell, Chairman of House and Senate Judiciary "B" Committees, respectively, became members of the Committee, replacing Representative Gore and Senator Collins, Senator Alexander having been appointed Chairman of Senate Judiciary "A" and Judiciary en banc Committees. The Deputy Attorney General, Delos H. Burks, served the Code Committee as Secretary. Special Assistant Attorney General Fred J. Lotterhos, under the supervision of the Attorney General, was assigned the principal responsibility for the supervision of the recodification, including the consideration and treatment of some 16,000 sections of code manuscript.

Final legislative approval was given to the Mississippi Code of 1972 by passage of Senate Bill 2034, Laws of 1972, which was signed by Governor William L. Waller on April 26, 1972. A copy of that act is set out in Volume 1, following the Publisher's Foreword.

The Code Committee is of the opinion that the recodification has been thoroughly and well accomplished, and will result in a greatly improved repository of the general statutory law of the state.

A. F. SUMMER
ATTORNEY GENERAL

PUBLISHER'S FOREWORD

This 2009 Replacement Volume 16B of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated represents material appearing in both the original 1973 bound volume and the 1991 and 2000 Replacement Volume 17, as well as reflecting amendments, repeals, and new Code provisions enacted by the Mississippi Legislature through the 2009 Regular and 3rd Extraordinary Legislative Sessions.

This volume contains the text of Chapters 13 through 91 of Title 75 of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated, as amended through the 2009 Regular and 3rd Extraordinary Legislative Sessions.

Case annotations are included based on decisions of the State and federal courts in cases arising in Mississippi. Many of these cases were decided under the former statutes in effect prior to the enactment of the Code of 1972. These earlier cases have been moved to pertinent sections of the Code where they may be useful in interpreting the current statutes. Annotations to collateral research references are also included.

To better serve our customers by making our annotations more current, LexisNexis has changed the sources that are read to create annotations for this publication. Rather than waiting for cases to appear in printed reporters, we now read court decisions as they are released by the courts. A consequence of this more current reading of cases, as they are posted online on LexisNexis, is that the most recent cases annotated may not yet have print reporter citations. These will be provided, as they become available, through later publications.

This publication contains annotations taken from decisions of the Mississippi Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals with decision dates up to February 10, 2009, and decisions of the appropriate federal courts with decision dates up to December 23, 2008. These cases will be printed in the following reporters:

- Southern Reporter, 2nd Series
- United States Supreme Court Reports
- Supreme Court Reporter
- United States Supreme Court Reports, Lawyers' Edition, 2nd Series
- Federal Reporter, 3rd Series
- Federal Supplement, 2nd Series
- Federal Rules Decisions
- Bankruptcy Reporter

Additionally, annotations have been taken from the following sources:

- American Law Reports, 6th Series
- American Law Reports, Federal Series
- Mississippi College Law Review
- Mississippi Law Journal

Finally, published Opinions of the Attorney General and opinions of the Ethics Commission have been examined for annotations.

ADVANCE CODE SERVICE

Three times a year, at roughly quarterly intervals between delivery of Code supplement pocket parts, we publish the Mississippi Advance Code Service pamphlets. These pamphlets contain updated statutory material and annotations to Attorney General opinions, research and practice references, and recent court decisions construing the Code. Each pamphlet is cumulative, so that each is a "one-stop" source of case notes updating those in your Code bound volumes and pocket parts.

ADVANCE SHEETS

The Advance Sheets consist of a series of pamphlets issued in the spring. The series reproduces the acts passed by the Mississippi Legislature and approved by the Governor during the legislative session. Features include tables showing the impact of legislation on sections of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated, and a cumulative index. These pamphlets enable the user to receive a preview of approved legislation prior to supplement availability, and serve as an excellent source of legislative history.

AMENDMENT NOTES

Every time a Code provision is amended, we prepare a note describing the effect of the amendment. By reading the note, you can ascertain the impact of the change without having to check the former statute itself.

Amendment notes are retained in the Supplement until the bound volume is replaced, at which time notes from all but the last two years are deleted.

Amendment notes are available online from 1991 until the present in the Mississippi Legislative Archive.

ANALYSES

Each title, chapter, and article appearing in a bound volume or supplement is preceded by an analysis. The analysis details the scope of the title, chapter, and article and enables you to see at a glance the content of the title, chapter, and article without resorting to a page-by-page examination in the bound volume or supplement.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Opinions of the Attorney General for the State of Mississippi have been read for constructions of Mississippi law. Notes describing the subject matter of the opinions have been placed under relevant Code provisions under the heading "Attorney General Opinions." The citation at the end of each note refers to the person requesting the opinion, the date of the opinion, and the opinion number.

CODE STATUS

The Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated is Mississippi's official code and is considered evidence of the statute law of the State of Mississippi (see § 1-1-8). The Code was enacted by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1972, which was signed by the Governor on April 26, 1972.

Title 1, Chapters 1 through 5 of the Code contain statutes governing the status and construction of the Code.

COMPARABLE LEGISLATION FROM OTHER STATES

Notes to comparable legislation from other states appear for uniform laws, interstate compacts, statutory provisions pertaining to reciprocity and cooperation with other states, and various important statutes of general interest. Other states' statutes that are similar in subject matter and scope to those of Mississippi are cited, generally, under the first section of the chapter or article to which they pertain. Occasionally, comparable legislation pertains to only one section, in which case it is cited under that section rather than at the chapter or article level.

USER'S GUIDE

See also Federal Aspects.

COURT RULES

The Mississippi Court Rules are published separately by LexisNexis in a fully annotated softcover volume which is replaced annually and supplemented semi-annually.

The Court Rules volume contains statewide rules of procedure of the state courts, the local rules of the United States district courts and bankruptcy courts for Mississippi, and the rules of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Rules are received from the courts and edited only for stylistic consistency. For further information, see the Preface to the Mississippi Court Rules volume.

CROSS REFERENCES

Cross references refer you to notes under other Code sections, that may affect a law or place it in context. Cross references also are used under repealed provisions to refer you to an existing law on a similar subject. Cross references do not cite all related statutes, however, since these can be identified by using the General Index.

See also Comparable Legislation from other States and Federal Aspects.

EDITOR'S NOTES

Editor's notes are notes prepared by the Publisher that contain information about important or unusual features of a law, or special circumstances surrounding passage of the law, that are not apparent from the law's text.

See also Effective Dates.

EFFECTIVE DATES

Absent a specific effective date provision within an act, Mississippi laws generally take effect upon approval date, which is the date the act is signed into law by the Governor. Acts affecting voting rights and procedures take effect on the date the United States Attorney General interposes no objection under § 5 of the Voting Right Act of 1965.

USER'S GUIDE

FEDERAL ASPECTS

Notes to federal legislation that is similar in subject matter and scope to the laws of Mississippi are referenced throughout the Code. In addition, the Code contains the United States Code Service citation for any federal law that is referred to in a Mississippi statute by its popular name or by its session law designation.

See also Comparable Legislation from other States.

INDEX

The Code is completely indexed in two softcover Index volumes, which are updated and replaced annually. In addition, each volume of the Code is followed by its own index. As accurate and thorough as the Index is, your best defense against index wild goose chases is familiarity with indexing techniques. To that end, an explanatory Foreword to the Index appears in the first Index volume.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE NOTES

Joint Legislative Committee notes are included in the Code to describe codification decisions made by the Mississippi Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation. Examples of Committee actions that warrant the inclusion of a note are the integration of multiple amendments to a single Code section during the same legislative session, and the correction of typographical errors appearing in the Code.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Every reported case from the Supreme Court of Mississippi, the Court of Appeals of Mississippi, federal district courts for Mississippi, the federal Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court has been read for constructions of Mississippi law. These constructions are noted under pertinent sections of the statutes or Mississippi Constitution provisions, under the heading "Judicial Decisions." Where a decision has been reviewed by a higher court, subsequent judicial history and disposition is noted in the case note if such disposition has any bearing on the annotated material. Where two or more decisions state the same rule of law, the case citations are cumulated under one case note.

Case notes are grouped together under headings called "catchlines." The catchlines identify the basic subject matter of the case notes and assist the user in locating pertinent notes. Catchlines are numbered and arranged thematically, with "In general" first. Where there are two or more catchlines, an analysis, listing all the catchlines, precedes the annotations.

Frequently, statutes carry notes to cases that arose under earlier laws on the same subject. Case notes are retained so long as the editor believes the note will have some relevance under current law, though of course the relevance may be diminished by later changes in the law. These case notes appear under the heading "Decisions under former law."

ORGANIZATION AND NUMBERING SYSTEM

The Code is organized by titles, chapters, articles, subarticles, undesignated centered headings and sections. Analyses at the beginning of each title, chapter, article, and subarticle help you understand the internal arrangement of each Code unit (see Analyses).

Odd numbers are generally used for the numbering of titles, chapters and sections. Even numbers have been used for some chapters and sections so that a particular new chapter or section might be logically placed with other chapters and sections dealing with the same or similar subject matter. Similarly, the use of numbers with decimal points has been used for some sections in order that they may be inserted among other sections pertaining to the same subject.

The title, chapter, and section for each Code section is revealed by its section number. Thus, in the designation "§ 1-3-65," the first digit ("1") means the provision is in Title 1 ("Laws and Statutes"); the second ("3") indicates Chapter 3 ("Construction of Statutes"); and the last two digits ("65") mean the 65th section in that chapter ("Construction of terms generally").

Articles and subarticles are not reflected by section number designations.

Within sections, subsections and paragraphs usually are designated following this pattern: (1)(a)(i)1. or (1)(a)(i)A. A distinctive indention scheme is applied to suggest the relative value of each unit within this hierarchy.

PLACEMENT OF NOTES

Where a note pertains to a single statute section, it will of course be set out following that section. In many instances, however, a note applies equally to several statute sections or to an entire chapter or article. If the pertinent sections are scattered, or few in number, the note will be duplicated for each section. But where the note applies to all or most of the sections in a chapter or article, we prevent the space-consuming repetition of notes by placing the note at the very beginning of the chapter or article.

REPLACEMENT VOLUMES

The Code is periodically updated and streamlined by the replacement of volumes. Although a current set of the Code contains all currently applicable statutes, we encourage you to retain replaced volumes and their supplement pockets parts for historical reference.

RESEARCH AND PRACTICE REFERENCES

Citations to references in American Jurisprudence, American Jurisprudence Pleading and Practice, American Jurisprudence Proof of Facts, American Jurisprudence Trials, American Law Reports, First through Sixth Series, ALR Federal, Corpus Juris Secundum, various other treatises and practice guides, and Mississippi law journals are given under this heading, wherever the references appear to discuss the statute under which the citation appears, or a topic related to the statute. These citations are intended only to give you a starting point for your library research. The Mississippi law journals include Mississippi Law Journal and Mississippi College Law Review.

SOURCE NOTES

Each section of the Code is followed by a brief note showing the acts of the legislature on which it is based, including the act that originally enacted the section and any subsequent amendments.

The source note follows the section text, preceding any other annotations for the section. Information in the source note is listed in chronological order, with the most recent information listed last. If a section has been renumbered, the former number will appear in the source note. :

The tables volume should also be consulted when researching the history of a statutory section, since it contains cross reference tables that provide a statutory citation for each section of the session laws and the date each act went into effect.

STATUTE HEADINGS

Headings or “catchlines” for Code sections and subsections are generally created and maintained by the publisher. They are mere catchwords and are not to be deemed or taken as the official title of a section or as a part of the section. Your suggestions for the improvement of particular catchlines are invited.

TABLES

The Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated contains several tables that can assist you in your research. These are published in the Statutory Tables volume of the Code, and include the following:

- Sections of the Code of 1942 carried into the Code of 1972.
- Allocation of Acts of Legislature, 1931 — 1972.
- Allocation of Acts of Legislature, 1972 — present.
- Consolidated Tables of amendments and repeals of 1942 Code sections.

7. Setoffs.

1. In general.

When a chose, capable of legal assignment, is assigned absolutely to one, but the assignment is made for the purpose of collection, the legal title thereto vests in the assignee, and it is no concern of the debtor. Taylor v. C.I.T. Corp., 187 Miss. 581, 191 So. 60 (1939).

This section is not applicable to suits in equity to enforce the right of subrogation. Box v. Early, 181 Miss. 19, 178 So. 793 (1938).

The holder of a bill of exchange payable to bearer and by him indorsed in blank was prima facie a bona fide holder for value. Gillespie v. Planters' Oil-Mill & Mfg. Co., 76 Miss. 406, 24 So. 900 (1899).

Notwithstanding the section, a buyer of property from one who fraudulently purchased it might be a bona fide purchaser, although he might not have fully paid the purchase price which he promised therefor. Pollock v. Simmons, 76 Miss. 198, 23 So. 626 (1898).

If the writing assigned was "negotiable paper," as defined by the law merchant, the indorsee incurred the responsibilities incident to that form of contract; but as to other choses in action assigned, the mere transfer had no other effect than to pass legal title. Lamkin v. Nye, 43 Miss. 241 (1870).

2. Application to particular instruments or obligations.

The right to funds represented by a certificate of deposit which was assigned as security for repayment on a note would be determined by § 75-13-1. Bank of Crystal Springs v. First Nat'l Bank, 427 So. 2d 968 (Miss. 1983).

Assignee of deed of trust given to secure pre-existing indebtedness represented by note assigned to purchaser after default in payment of indebtedness receives note and deed of trust subject to same equities that could have been imposed against assignor. Buckwalter v. McElroy, 205 Miss. 54, 38 So. 2d 317 (1949).

A document given by a finance company to an automobile dealer, acknowledging receipt of certain conditional sale contracts, reciting that they were being accepted for collection and that the net amount realized would be credited to the dealer when and if collected, was an assignment for collection, coupled with an interest, and entitled the finance company to possession in an action of replevin to an automobile covered by one of such assigned contracts. Taylor v. C.I.T. Corp., 187 Miss. 581, 191 So. 60 (1939).

This section is not applicable to suits in equity to enforce right of subrogation. Box v. Early, 181 Miss. 19, 178 So. 793 (1938).

Where vendor deposited purchase money note with bank as collateral security for debt, bank agreed to credit vendor with balance due on note, with understanding that new note should be executed by vendee and wife on which vendor should become indorser, and vendee and wife signed new note but only vendee and not wife signed trust deed, bank was entitled to enforce right of an assignee including lien securing note, as against contention that vendor's purchase money lien had to be in writing to enable transferee to enforce lien. Box v. Early, 181 Miss. 19, 178 So. 793 (1938).

Unauthorized alteration of promissory note by stranger did not invalidate it. Coulson v. Stevens, 122 Miss. 797, 85 So. 83 (1920).

Unauthorized alteration of promissory note might be ratified by owner, or his duly authorized agent. Coulson v. Stevens, 122 Miss. 797, 85 So. 83 (1920).

Trade checks, expressly not transferrable, did not violate this section. Moody v. Finkbine Lumber Co., 122 Miss. 407, 84 So. 385 (1920).

Consignee could not subject funds in the hands of a resident bank for damages sustained by the failure of the consignor to deliver other goods although they might be included in the one contract of sale. Exchange Nat'l Bank v. Russell, 81 Miss. 169, 32 So. 314 (1902).

Where a nonresident national bank bought a consignor's draft with bill of lading attached, an attachment in chancery by the consignee to subject the proceeds of the draft in the hands of a resident state bank was not an attachment against the national bank, and the proceeding was not within U. S. Rev. Stat. § 5242, 12 USCS § 91, 4 FCA title 12, § 91, providing that no attachment shall issue against any national bank or its property before final judgment in any suit. Exchange Nat'l Bank v. Russell, 81 Miss. 169, 32 So. 314 (1902).

A bank which had bought a consignor's draft for the price of grain, and taken an assignment of the bill of lading therefor, occupied as to the consignee the situation of the consignor, and on paying the draft and receiving the bill of lading and grain the consignee might subject the proceeds of the draft in the hands of a collecting bank to his demand for damages resulting from shortage in weights, and the failure of the consignor to deliver all of the grain included in the contract of sale. Russel v. Smith Grain Co., 80 Miss. 688, 32 So. 287 (1902).

Where the complainant has the possession of and sues upon a note indorsed in blank, the burden of proving his want of interest in the paper is on the defendant, although it contains a subsequent indorsement by the complainant to another. Kendrick v. Kyle, 78 Miss. 278, 28 So. 951 (1900).

The holder of a note indorsed in blank who has indorsed it to another may strike out his own indorsement before or after suit, or he may sue and recover as holder without striking it out. Kendrick v. Kyle, 78 Miss. 278, 28 So. 951 (1900).

The assignment of a promissory note secured by recorded lien although the lien was transferred as an incident of the debt was not within the statute of frauds requiring grants, assignments or transfers of any trust or confidence to be in writing. Klaus v. Moore, 77 Miss. 701, 27 So. 612 (1900).

All writings for the payment of money are assignable under this section, and although payment be dependent on a future contingency the assignee can maintain an action against the maker on the happening of such contingency. Heckler v. Frankenbush, 76 Miss. 780, 25 So. 670 (1899).

A contract violative of public policy or of a positive rule of law or against good morals would not be enforced even at the suit of an innocent transferee although it be evidenced by a promissory note. Montjoy v. Delta Bank, 76 Miss. 402, 24 So. 870 (1899).

A provision in a promissory note for a reasonable attorney's fee for collecting the same, did not affect its negotiability nor impair the liability of an indorser. Clifton

v. Bank of Aberdeen, 75 Miss. 929, 23 So. 394 (1898).

While the pledgee of a promissory note held as collateral security for debt might collect it, he had no right to sell it unless authorized to do so. Boswell v. Thigpen, 75 Miss. 308, 22 So. 823 (1897).

Where the seller in a separate written contract reserved the legal title to the property, as security for the price and also took the purchaser's note, an assignment of the note carried with it as an incident the right to enforce the contract as a security. Ross-Meehan Brake-Shoe Foundry Co. v. Pascagoula Ice Co., 72 Miss. 608, 18 So. 364 (1895).

The maker of a rent-note payable to bearer and transferred in good faith for value before maturity was precluded from defense to it in an attachment thereon for rent, just as in an ordinary action. Davis v. Blanton, 71 Miss. 821, 15 So. 132 (1894).

The fact that a note was executed for the purpose of being negotiated, and that it was so negotiated, does not take it out of the operation of this section; to have that effect there must be such a sinister design as would create an estoppel. Millsaps v. Merchants' & Planters' Bank, 71 Miss. 361, 13 So. 903 (1893).

A written obligation reciting that the maker was bound to "Millsaps College or bearer" in a certain sum to be paid to the said college or its assigns if it should be permanently located at Jackson, and in consideration of the benefit therefrom, was not governed by the former section, but was negotiable as at common law, and it being payable to bearer, any holder for value, whether by written assignment or not, might sue in his own name. Hart v. Taylor, 70 Miss. 655, 12 So. 553 (1893).

This section applies to indorsements in blank as well as to special indorsements. Etheridge v. Gallagher, 55 Miss. 458 (1877).

A receipt by a bailee for an envelope, "sealed and said to contain" a certain sum of money, was assignable. Hunt & Vaughan v. Shackelford, 55 Miss. 94 (1877).

A bond conditioned for the performance of any service, duty, or act, cannot be assigned so as to transfer the legal title under this section. Shackelford v. Franks, 25 Miss. 49 (1852).

Writings for conditional payment of money were assignable. Shields v. Taylor & Tarpley, 25 Miss. 13 (1852).

This section made those notes negotiable which were not so under the law merchant, and vested the assignee by indorsement with the legal title. Bacon v. Cohea, 20 Miss. (12 S. & M.) 516 (1849).

A promise in writing to pay a sum certain "in notes of the banks of the state of Mississippi," was assignable by indorsement. Besancon v. Shirley, 17 Miss. (9 S. & M.) 457 (1848).

Notes made payable at a bank are within the statute. Allein v. Agricultural Bank, 11 Miss. (3 S. & M.) 48 (1844).

Inland bills of exchange are within the scope of this section. Kershaw v. Merchants' Bank, 8 Miss. (7 Howard) 386, 40 Am. Dec. 70 (1843).

By assignment or delivery of a promissory note, the assignee was immediately vested with all the rights of the payee, and a subsequent garnishment cannot affect the same. Oldham v. Ledbetter, 2 Miss. (1 Howard) 43, 26 Am. Dec. 690 (1834).

3. —Instruments payable to bearer.

The holder of a bill of exchange payable to bearer and by him endorsed in blank was held to be prima facie a bona fide holder for value. Gillespie v. Planters' Oil-Mill & Mfg. Co., 76 Miss. 406, 24 So. 900 (1899).

Similarly, a draft payable to the order of the drawee was in effect payable to the bearer, and was not within such statute. Columbus Ins. & Banking Co. v. First Nat'l Bank, 73 Miss. 96, 15 So. 138 (1894).

A note payable to the maker's order, and by him indorsed in blank before delivery was in effect payable to bearer, and therefore not subject to this section. Bank of Winona v. Wofford, 71 Miss. 711, 14 So. 262 (1893).

In actions under the former statute, a bond, bill, or note payable to bearer was held not to be within the statute. Craig v. Vicksburg, 31 Miss. 216 (1856); Stokes v. Winslow, 31 Miss. 518 (1856); Mercien & Sears v. Cotton, 34 Miss. 64 (1857); Winstead v. Davis, 40 Miss. 785 (1866).

4. —Instruments payable out of state, or executed out of state and payable within state.

A draft for the price of goods drawn in another state on the purchaser in this state, payable and accepted here, which was before acceptance assigned with the bill of lading for the goods in such other state was within this section. Miller v. American Nat'l Bank, 76 Miss. 84, 23 So. 439 (1898).

A bill of exchange drawn on a person out of the state is not within this section. Coffman v. Bank of Kentucky, 41 Miss. 212 (1866); Harrison v. Pike Bros. & Co., 48 Miss. 46 (1873).

A promissory note, executed in, but payable out of, the state, was not within this section. Emanuel v. White, 34 Miss. 56, 69 Am. Dec. 385 (1857).

5. —Judgments.

This section had no application to judgments. Holly v. Cook, 70 Miss. 590, 13 So. 228 (1893).

Where pending an action defendant recovered a judgment against plaintiff, the latter after recovering a judgment could not maintain a bill in chancery to compel the setting off of the second judgment, if before the recovery by plaintiff the defendant had assigned his judgment. Holly v. Cook, 70 Miss. 590, 13 So. 228 (1893).

6. Defenses; estoppel.

Any defense to instruments not payable to order or bearer that could be made prior to Negotiable Instruments Law might be made by maker against purchaser for value, without notice. J.W. McNees Motor Co. v. Brumfield, 157 Miss. 132, 126 So. 898 (1930).

Partial failure of consideration of promissory note might be pleaded by maker, sued thereon by payee, as defense pro tanto. Coulson v. Stevens, 122 Miss. 797, 85 So. 83 (1920).

A plea that the note sued upon was executed upon the payee's promise to credit the amount upon another note for a larger sum previously executed, and which the payee represented he still held, but which in fact he had transformed, and that the larger note had been paid presented a defense under this section. Robertshaw v. Britton, 74 Miss. 873, 21 So. 523 (1897).

The maker of a note was not estopped to deny the existence of a consideration because he knew that it was to be discounted by a certain person, if he made no representation to and concealed no fact from such person. Merchants' & Planters' Bank v. Millsaps, 15 So. 659 (Miss. 1894).

The maker of a rent-note payable to bearer and transferred in good faith for value before maturity was precluded from defense to it in an attachment thereon for rent, just as in an ordinary action. Davis v. Blanton, 71 Miss. 821, 15 So. 132 (1894).

Under this section in an action by assignee of a note against the maker admissions or representations made by payee as an inducement to its execution where admissible as against the assignee. Millsaps v. Merchants' & Planters' Bank, 71 Miss. 361, 13 So. 903 (1893).

A waiver of all defenses in the face of the note would not preclude the maker from relying on the statute in a suit by an indorsee for value. Union Nat'l Bank v. Fraser, 63 Miss. 231 (1885).

The defenses allowed in the statute applied both to paper negotiable at common law and to that made negotiable by the statute. Brown v. Union Bank, 62 Miss. 754 (1885).

Accommodation paper was not within the former statute as to defenses. Meggett v. Baum, 57 Miss. 22 (1879).

Negotiable Instruments Law applied only to defenses between those connected with the legal title, and not to those asserting equities in the paper. Hibernian Bank v. Everman, 52 Miss. 500 (1876).

7. Setoffs.

In action for balance due on automobile, buyer charging breach of warranty and failure of consideration and denying in toto seller's claim could not recover by way of setoff all he had paid on automobile. GMAC v. Trull, 166 Miss. 490, 148 So. 390 (1933).

The statute applied only to a setoff against the person with whom the defendant dealt. Savage v. Laclede Bank, 62 Miss. 586 (1885).

The maker of a note might set off against the indorsee a valid claim against the payee purchased from a third party before assignment of the note. Phipps v. Shegogg, 30 Miss. 241 (1855).

A setoff against the assignee could not be pleaded against the payee in a suit on a note which the payee was forced to take up at maturity. Maury v. Jeffers, 12 Miss. (4 S. & M.) 87 (1845).

A setoff acquired after notice of assignment could not be availed of against the assignee; and suit on the note by the assignee or the assignor for his use amounted to notice. Northern Bank v. Kyle, 8 Miss. (7 Howard) 360 (1843).

§ 75-13-3. Suits on indorsed bills and notes.

An action shall not be maintained on a bill of exchange or promissory note which has been indorsed against any one secondarily liable thereon, without joining in the action all persons residing in this state who are liable before such person on the bill or note. The action shall be brought in the county where the party, or some one who is at first liable on said bill or note, shall reside. The clerk shall issue duplicate writs to the several counties for the various defendants.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Venue.

1. In general.

The requirement that the maker of a note be joined as a party defendant in a suit against the endorsers, is satisfied where a separate action against the maker was consolidated with one against the indorsers, without their objection, and a single judgment is rendered against the defendants. Elliott v. Harrigill, 241 Miss. 877, 133 So. 2d 612 (1961), error overruled, 241 Miss. 883, 134 So. 2d 462 (1961).

Check payable to attorney or bearer, indorsed by attorney and delivered to plaintiff, was a "bill of exchange" on which drawer was primarily liable and attorney secondarily liable. Parrish v. Feldman, 182 Miss. 77, 180 So. 610 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 81, 181 So. 336 (1938).

Statute is for benefit of persons secondarily liable and cannot be revoked by person primarily liable. Parrish v. Feldman, 182 Miss. 77, 180 So. 610 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 81, 181 So. 336 (1938).

Statute held for benefit of drawers and indorsers. Parrish v. Feldman, 182 Miss. 77, 180 So. 610 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 81, 181 So. 336 (1938).

Guarantors jointly executing guaranty held primarily and equally liable to guarantee. Enochs & Flowers, Ltd. v. Roell, 170 Miss. 44, 154 So. 299 (1934).

Guarantee, having sued all guarantors, could discontinue action against one without involving res judicata doctrine. Enochs & Flowers, Ltd. v. Roell, 170 Miss. 44, 154 So. 299 (1934).

The statute is for the benefit of parties secondarily liable, and not of those primarily so. J.S. Hamilton & Co. v. Catchings & Co., 58 Miss. 92 (1880).

Who are primarily liable must be determined by the face of the paper itself. J.S. Hamilton & Co. v. Catchings & Co., 58 Miss. 92 (1880).

The omission of proper parties can be taken advantage of by demurrer if the facts appear in the pleading; otherwise, by plea in abatement. Lillard v. Planters' Bank, 4 Miss. (3 Howard) 78 (1838); Stiles v. Inman, 55 Miss. 469 (1877).

The statute does not embrace joint makers, even though one of them be a surety; and it is not error to dismiss as to one and take judgment against the other, even if such other be the surety. Moore v. Knox, 46 Miss. 602 (1872).

The holder of an indorsed joint promissory note or bill of exchange may sue out an attachment against any one of the makers. Crump & Co. v. Wooten, 41 Miss. 611 (1868).

The statute does not apply to the makers of a note which has never been indorsed. Thompson v. President, Directors & Co. of Planters' Bank, 10 Miss. (2 S. & M.) 476 (1844).

2. Venue.

Action brought in county of indorser's residence should be transferred to county of drawer's residence on drawer's request. Parrish v. Feldman, 182 Miss. 77, 180 So. 610 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 81, 181 So. 336 (1938).

Where defendant's motion asked the case be dismissed, or that he be permitted to file motion to transfer to county of his residence, and alleged sufficient grounds for transfer, trial court in treating motion as one either to dismiss or to transfer should have transferred case to county of defendant's residence. Parrish v. Feldman, 182 Miss. 77, 180 So. 610 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 81, 181 So. 336 (1938).

§ 75-13-7. Duties of the clerks and sheriffs with executions.

The clerk or justice of the peace shall indorse on all executions issued on judgments rendered in suits on promissory notes and bills of exchange the names of the makers, drawers, acceptors, and indorsers, so as to designate the order in which they are liable. The sheriff or other officer shall make the money on such executions out of the property of the maker or makers, acceptor or acceptors. It shall not be lawful to levy on the property of the indorsers unless sufficient property of the makers, drawers, or acceptors cannot be found by the sheriff out of which the plaintiff's money and costs can be made; and, in that case, the sheriff may proceed with the execution against the defendant next liable, and so on, until the execution be satisfied.

The judgment rendered against the maker and last indorser may be voluntarily discharged by the indorser and an execution may be issued in his favor against the first indorser, and that, though the maker be solvent. Pope v. Bowman, 31 Miss. 639 (1856).

§ 75-13-11. Holidays; execution on, not void.

Nothing in any law of the State of Mississippi, shall in any manner whatsoever, affect the validity, or render void or voidable, the payment, certification or acceptance of a check, or other negotiable instrument, or any other transaction by a bank in this state, because done or performed on any legal holiday, except Sunday, provided such payment, certification, acceptance or other transaction would be valid if done or performed on a day other than a legal holiday or Sunday.

§ 75-15-11. Accompanying financial, statement and bond.

Each application for a license shall be accompanied by:

(a) Certified financial statements, reasonably satisfactory to the commissioner, showing that the applicant has a net worth of at least Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) plus Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) for each location in excess of one (1) at which the applicant proposes to sell checks in this state, computed according to generally accepted accounting principles, but in no event shall the net worth be required to be in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00).

(b) A surety bond issued by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in this state, in the principal sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) and in an additional principal sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) for each location, in excess of one (1) at which the applicant proposes to sell checks in this state, but in no event shall the bond be required to be in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00). If the bond accompanying the application be in a principal sum of less than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), the application shall also be accompanied by a list of the locations at which the business is to be conducted. The bond shall be in form satisfactory to the commissioner and shall run to the state for the benefit of any claimants against the applicant or his agents to secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of the checks in Mississippi. The aggregate liability of the surety in no event shall exceed the principal sum of the bond. The surety on the bond shall have the right to cancel such bond upon giving sixty (60) days' notice in writing to the commissioner and thereafter shall be relieved of liability for any breach of condition occurring after the effective date of said cancellation. Such claimants against the applicant or his agents may themselves bring suit directly on the bond, or the Attorney General may bring suit thereon in behalf of such claimants, either in one (1) action or successive actions.

(c) In lieu of such corporate surety bond the applicant may deposit with the State Treasurer bonds or other obligations of the United States or guaranteed by the United States or bonds or other obligations of this state or of any municipal corporation, county, or other political subdivision or agency of this state, or certificates of deposit of national or state banks doing business in Mississippi, having an aggregate market value at least equal to that of the corporate surety bond otherwise required. Such bonds or obligations or certificates of deposit shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to secure the same obligations as would a corporate surety bond, but the depositor shall be entitled to receive all interest and dividends thereon and shall have the right to substitute other bonds or obligations or certificates of deposit for those deposited, with the approval of the commissioner, and shall be required so to do on order of the commissioner made for good cause shown. The State Treasurer shall provide for custody of such bonds or obligations or certificates of deposits by a qualified trust company or bank located in the State of Mississippi or by any Federal Reserve Bank. The compensation, if any, of the custodian for acting as such under this section shall be paid by the depositing licensee.

(1) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner annually on or before April 15 of each year a statement listing:

(a) The locations, offices and agencies authorized by the licensee to act for and on behalf of the licensee in selling or issuing or dispensing checks. A supplemental statement setting forth any changes in the list of locations, offices and agencies shall be filed with the commissioner on or before the first day of July, October and January of each year and the principal sum of the corporate surety bond or deposit required under Section 75-15-11 shall be adjusted, if appropriate, to reflect any increase or decrease in the number of locations, offices and agencies. The annual and supplemental statement shall not be required of any licensee who continues to maintain a corporate surety bond, as required by subsection (b) of Section 75-15-11, in the principal sum of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), or a securities deposit having an aggregate market value at least equal to Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00).

(b) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner annually on or before April 15 of each year, statements correctly reflecting its net worth as of the close of its most recent fiscal year, the statement to be certified to by a certified public accountant satisfactory to the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may conduct or cause to be conducted an examination or audit of the books and records of any licensee at any time or times he deems proper, the cost of the examination or audit to be borne by the licensee. The refusal of access to the books and records shall be cause for the revocation of its license. The commissioner may charge the licensee an examination fee in an amount not less than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) nor more than Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) for each office or location within the State of Mississippi, plus any actual expenses incurred while examining the licensee's records or books that are located outside the State of Mississippi. Each licensee shall be liable for the payment of all checks which licensee sells, in whatever form and whether directly or through an agent, as the maker or drawer thereof according to the negotiable instrument laws of this state; and shall be responsible only for those acts of the agent done on behalf of the licensee. Every check sold by a licensee directly or through an agent shall bear the name of the licensee clearly imprinted thereon. During the period of time which a person is an appointed agent for a licensee, the agent shall not directly or indirectly sell his own checks and the agent may not become licensed under this chapter to sell his own checks and the agent shall not be, continue to be, or become an officer, director, stockholder, employee, or agent of any other licensee under this chapter. ### § 75-15-25. Limitation on outstanding checks.

Whenever the bond or securities deposit required under Section 75-15-11 of this chapter is less than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), the licensee may not at any time have outstanding checks, issued in his business of selling checks as a service or for a fee or other consideration, in excess of the bond or securities deposit required of him under Section 75-15-11 of this chapter, and such licensee shall, pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner under this chapter, submit a written report to the commissioner on the last business day of each month regarding his checks outstanding, whether issued by himself or through agents, provided that this limitation shall be the principal sum of the bond or the market value of the securities deposit required of the licensee under Section 75-15-11 of this chapter and the sum of this limitation shall not be increased by any bond or securities deposit increase required by the commissioner under Section 75-15-29 of this chapter or by deposit of any revocation order, suspension bond, or securities deposit under Section 75-15-27 of this chapter.

§ 75-15-27. Revocation of license; notice; hearing; appeals.

Except where a license shall be automatically revoked without any act of the commissioner as specially provided in this chapter, no license shall be denied or revoked except on ten (10) days' notice (the first day of said ten-day period to be the date stated on the notice, which shall be the day it is mailed) to the applicant or licensee by the commissioner, sent by letter by United States registered mail, return receipt requested, to the applicant's or licensee's business address set forth in the application. Upon receipt of such notice, as stated in the registered mail receipt, the applicant or licensee may, within five (5) days thereafter (which five-day period may be wholly or partially outside of said ten-day period) make written demand for a hearing by the commissioner, which demand, in the case of a revocation notice, must be accompanied by an additional surety bond or securities deposit, as hereafter provided, the principal sum or the market value thereof to be specified by the commissioner in the revocation notice. Such revocation notice shall not become final during the period of time in which the licensee may demand such hearing nor if licensee demands a hearing, until the matter has been finally determined by the commissioner or by the courts, provided as to any revocation order, but not a denial order, that the licensee posts together with his written demand for hearing an additional corporate surety bond, written by the same surety which wrote the bond under subsection (b) of Section 75-15-11 of this chapter, or an additional securities deposit in addition to the securities deposit theretofore made by the licensee under subsection (c) of Section 75-15-11 of this chapter which additional surety bond or securities deposit shall be in a principal amount or of a market value deemed adequate by the commissioner as specified in said revocation order but not exceeding Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), provided further that if the licensee originally deposited with his application under Section 75-15-11 of this chapter a corporate surety bond, the additional deposit provided in this section must be another corporate surety bond or an increase of the first one and may not be a deposit of securities, or if the licensee originally deposited securities the additional deposit shall also be of securities and not a corporate surety bond. Such bond or securities deposit shall secure the same obligations as does the corporate surety bond or securities deposit required by Section 75-15-11, but shall be in addition to the bond or securities deposit required thereby. Upon receipt of such written demand, the commissioner shall thereafter, with reasonable promptness, hear and determine the matter as provided by law. If the applicant or licensee deems himself aggrieved by such determination or order of the commissioner, he may within fifteen (15) days after such determination or order, have such determination or order reviewed by an appeal to the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi, by filing a petition setting out the specific order or action or part thereof whereby such person deems himself aggrieved. All such petitions shall be given preferred settings and shall be heard by the court as speedily as possible. Such an appeal shall be perfected upon the posting of a bond for the costs of the appeal accompanied by the said petition. Any party to such appeal may appeal to the Supreme Court of Mississippi from the decree or order of such chancery court, within thirty (30) days from the rendition of such decree or order, in the manner provided by law for appeals to the Supreme Court of Mississippi from chancery courts.

Final denial or revocation of the license, whether automatic or by final determination of the commissioner or the courts, shall cancel as of the date of final revocation all bonds or securities deposits theretofore deposited by the applicant or licensee under any provision of this chapter, provided that the licensee (and his corporate surety, if any) shall not be relieved of any accrued liabilities, and provided further, where the licensee deposited securities, that there shall not be returned to licensee any of the deposited securities until the commissioner determines that all accrued liabilities (including but not limited to the principal sums thereof, accrued interest thereon, and court cost, if any, assessed to licensee) of licensee under this chapter have been satisfied in full.

The commissioner may at any time revoke a license, on any ground on which he might refuse to grant a license, for failure to pay an annual fee or for violation of any provision of this chapter, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

A license shall be automatically and finally revoked without any act or further act of the commissioner and without any right in licensee to any hearing or further hearing by the commissioner or the courts and without any right in licensee or the commissioner to reinstate or have reinstated the license, in the following instances: (a) at expiration of the sixty-day notice period, if the corporate surety gives notice of cancellation of its bond or any of them; (b) upon failure by licensee to pay when due the annual license fee required by Section 75-15-15 of this chapter; (c) upon failure by licensee to file when due any statement required by Section 75-15-19 of this chapter; (d) in case of a revocation notice under the first paragraph of this chapter, failure by the licensee to demand hearing as provided therein or failure to deposit any additional corporate surety bond or securities deposit as required by the commissioner; (e) upon a license revocation order becoming final at any stage; (f) failure by licensee to deposit when due any additional corporate surety bond or securities deposit required by the commissioner under Section 75-15-29 of this chapter; (g) upon final conviction of licensee as to any offense covered by Section 75-15-31 of this chapter.

If a revocation order becomes final for any reason or in any manner, the license may not be reinstated, except upon new application as if the licensee had never been licensed before. The commissioner may deny the new application on grounds that a previous application was denied or a previous license to applicant was revoked or any ground or grounds on which he may deny an original application.

Editor's Note — Section 81-1-117 abolished the office of state comptroller, and provided that the functions, duties and responsibilities would be assumed by the commissioner of banking and consumer finance.

§ 75-15-29. Bond increase.

Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, the commissioner may at any time, if in his sole opinion the protection of the public so requires, increase the principal sum of the bond or the aggregate market value of the deposit required of any applicant or licensee by Section 75-15-11 but in no case shall the principal sum of the bond or the aggregate market value of the deposit required by Section 75-15-11 exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) and provided further, that in any situation, where a revocation order has been issued and the licensee involved has posted the additional bond required under Section 75-15-27, for suspension thereof, pending final determination, the commissioner may for the same reasons require the principal sum of the additional, suspension bond to be increased but in no case shall the principal sum thereof exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), and provided further that if the licensee originally deposited with his application under Section 75-15-11 of this chapter a corporate surety bond, the additional increase provided in this section must be by another corporate surety bond or an increase of the first one, written by the same corporate surety which wrote the first one and may not be a deposit of securities or if the licensee originally deposited securities, the additional increase shall also be of securities and not a corporate surety bond.

§ 75-15-31. Penalties.

(1) If any person to whom or which this chapter applies or any agent, subagent or representative of that person violates any of the provisions of this chapter or attempts to transact the business of selling or issuing or delivering checks as a service or for a fee or other consideration, without having first obtained license from the commissioner under the provisions of this chapter, that person and each such agent, subagent or representative shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), and may also be confined to the county jail or sentenced to hard labor for the county, for not more than twelve (12) months. Each violation shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) If any person engages in business as provided for in this chapter without paying the license fee provided for in this chapter before commencing business or before the expiration of the person's current license, as the case may be, then the person shall be liable for the full amount of the license fee plus a penalty in an amount not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each day that the person has engaged in the business without a license or after the expiration of a license.

(3) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, impose a civil penalty against any licensee if the licensee or employee is adjudged by the commissioner to be in violation of the provisions of this chapter. The civil penalty shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per violation and shall be deposited into the Consumer Finance Fund of the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance.

(4) When the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that a person is violating any provision of this chapter, the commissioner, in addition to and without prejudice to the authority provided elsewhere in this chapter, may enter an order requiring the person to stop and refrain from the violation. The commissioner may sue in any circuit court of the state having jurisdiction and venue to enjoin the person from engaging in or continuing the violation or from doing any act in furtherance of the violation. In such an action, the court may enter an order or judgment awarding a preliminary or permanent injunction.

(1) The legal rate of interest on all notes, accounts and contracts shall be eight percent (8%) per annum, calculated according to the actuarial method, but contracts may be made, in writing, for payment of a finance charge as otherwise provided by this section or as otherwise authorized by law.

(2) Any borrower or debtor may contract for and agree to pay a finance charge for any loan or other extension of credit made directly or indirectly to a borrower or debtor which will result in a yield not to exceed the greater of ten percent (10%) per annum or five percent (5%) per annum above the discount rate, excluding any surcharge thereon, on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the Federal Reserve bank in the Federal Reserve district where the lender is located, each calculated according to the actuarial method. The rate of finance charge authorized under this subsection (2) shall be known as the "contract rate."

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision of law to the contrary, any partnership, joint venture, religious society, unincorporated association, or domestic or foreign corporation, whether organized for profit or nonprofit, may contract for and agree to pay a finance charge which will result in a yield not to exceed the greater of fifteen percent (15%) per annum or five percent (5%) per annum above the discount rate, excluding any surcharge thereon, on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the Federal Reserve bank in the Federal Reserve district where the lender is located, each calculated according to the actuarial method, on any contract, loan, extension of credit or other obligation under which the principal balance to be repaid shall originally exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), or on any series of advances of money pursuant to a contract if the aggregate of sums advanced or originally proposed to be advanced shall exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00); and as to any such agreement, the claim or defense of usury by such partnership, joint venture, religious society, unincorporated association, or corporation, or their successors, guarantors, assigns or anyone on their behalf is prohibited.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision of law to the contrary, any borrower or debtor may contract for and agree to pay a finance charge which will result in a yield not to exceed the greater of ten percent (10%) per annum or five percent (5%) per annum above the index of market yields of the Monthly Twenty-Year Constant Maturity Index of Long-Term United States Government Bond Yields, as compiled by the United States Treasury Department, each calculated according to the actuarial method, on any loan, mortgage or advance which is secured by a lien on residential real property or by a lien on stock in a residential cooperative housing corporation where the loan, mortgage or advance is used to finance the acquisition of such stock. The term "residential real property," as used in this subsection, means real estate upon which there is located or to be located a structure or structures designed in whole or in part for residential use, or which comprises or includes one or more apartments, condominium units or other dwelling units.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision of law to the contrary, any borrower or debtor may contract for and agree to pay and any lender or extender of credit may contract for and receive any finance charge agreed to in writing by the parties, notwithstanding that such charge is in excess of that otherwise allowed on any contract, credit sale, obligation or other extension of credit, regardless of the security taken or the purpose of the extension of credit, under which the principal balance to be repaid originally exceeds Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), or on any series of advances of money pursuant to a contract if the aggregate of sums advanced or originally proposed to be advanced exceeds Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), or on any extension or renewal thereof; and as to any such agreement, the claim or defense of usury or violation of any law prescribing, limiting or regulating the rate of finance charge by any borrower or debtor, or his successors, guarantors, assigns or anyone on his behalf is prohibited.

32. Under former § 75-67-117.

I. In General.

1. In general.

There is no conflict between 1 USCS § 109, a federal savings statute, and retroactive application of § 75-17-1. Roper v. Conserve, Inc., 777 F. Supp. 508 (S.D. Miss. 1990), aff'd, 932 F.2d 965 (5th Cir. 1991), cert. denied, 502 U.S. 861, 112 S. Ct. 181, 116 L. Ed. 2d 142 (1991).

Where a note is payable with interest, insertion by the payee of the legal rate after its execution, does not vitiate it. Tate v. Rouse, 247 Miss. 545, 156 So. 2d 217 (1963).

The statute is highly penal and must be construed in favor of the creditor. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

Compound interest ordinarily is chargeable in cases of fraud, gross negligence, or abuse of trust on the part of the guardian, but only simple interest will be charged in cases of simple neglect of duty without fraud or intentional misconduct. Jones v. Parker, 216 Miss. 64, 61 So. 2d 681 (1952).

This section is highly penal and must be strictly construed. Tower Underwriters v. Lott, 210 Miss. 389, 49 So. 2d 704 (1951).

2. Application to state or other political units.

Statute does not apply to municipal corporations or other political subdivisions of state. City of Indianola v. Gates, 181 Miss. 145, 179 So. 284 (1938).

In policeman's action against city for salary, court improperly allowed six percent interest on judgment. City of Natchez v. McGehee, 157 Miss. 225, 127 So. 902 (1930).

Statute does not apply to state or political subdivision. City of Natchez v. McGehee, 157 Miss. 225, 127 So. 902 (1930).

A county is not liable for interest on a claim against it in the absence of a contract therefor. Moore v. Tunica County, 143 Miss. 839, 108 So. 900 (1926).

The state insurance commissioner is liable for interest on his accounts with the state which he had failed to settle promptly. Miller v. Henry, 139 Miss. 651, 103 So. 203 (1925).

On the partial dissolution of an injunction by a county to restrain an ejectment suit for land procured by it through duress, attorney's fees and interest on rents may be decreed against the county which is not in such case exempt from liability by reason of its sovereignty. Allen v. Leflore County, 80 Miss. 298, 31 So. 815 (1902).

Orders on its treasurer in payment of work done in construction of levees issued by the board of levee inspectors of Issaquena County under the Act of 1850 are in their nature essentially county warrants and do not bear interest. Anderson v. Issaquena County, 75 Miss. 873, 23 So. 310 (1898).

Claims against a county do not bear interest. Board of Supvrs. v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807 (1876); Clay Co. v. Chickasaw Co., 64 Miss. 534, 1 So. 753 (1886).

3. Recovery of interest in particular cases—Delinquent taxes.

Interest is not recoverable on delinquent taxes since it was not allowed at common law, and the statutes of this state on the subject have relation only to debts existing on contract and by judgment. Illinois Cent. R.R. v. Adams, 78 Miss. 895, 29 So. 996 (1901).

4.—Amounts due to laborers, materialmen, or contractors.

An award of prejudgment interest to a contractor which prevailed on its claim against a subcontractor for overpayments on a government contract was improper, except as to that portion of damages which the subcontractor admitted it owed the contractor, where a legitimate dispute between the parties was evidenced by the subcontractor's pursuit of administrative and Court of Claims appeals on the contract, where the contractor acquiesced in the appeals, and where the subcontractor appeared to have pursued the appeals in good faith; on the facts, the delay in making repayment was not an exercise in bad faith or frivolity justifying an award of prejudgment interest. Glantz Contracting Co. v. General Elec. Co., 379 So. 2d 912 (Miss. 1980).

A welder suing the prime contractor on a highway construction project and its surety, for an amount due for labor and materials, was entitled to interest from the time the debt became due and payable, and could recover such interest from the prime contractor's surety, although the surety bond had no express provision for interest on such debt. Dixie Contractors v. Ballard, 249 So. 2d 653 (Miss. 1971).

Interest on sums due laborers and materialmen by contractor follows as necessary incident thereto. United States Fid. & Guar. Co. v. Parsons, 154 Miss. 587, 122 So. 544 (1929).

Interest on sums due laborers and materialmen follows as necessary incident, though bond does not provide therefor. Mississippi Fire Ins. Co. v. Evans, 153 Miss. 635, 120 So. 738 (1929).

Subcontractor held entitled to interest at six percent on balance due under contract from date of completion. Stowell v. Clark, 152 Miss. 32, 118 So. 370 (1928).

5.—Open accounts.

Where jury returned verdict for plaintiff on open account without mentioning interest, court could add interest. Collins v. Carter, 155 Miss. 600, 125 So. 89 (1929).

Plaintiff held entitled to interest on amount of account found due him from date of demand by filing of suit. Collins v. Carter, 155 Miss. 600, 125 So. 89 (1929).

Open accounts bear interest as a legal incident after maturity. J.H. Thompson v. Matthews, 56 Miss. 368 (1879).

6. —Other particular cases.

The interest rate on each of 203 oral agreements to extend a written promissory note was subject to the 8 percent limitation in § 75-17-1(1), since each agreement constituted a separate forbearance contract rather than merely an amendment to the original promissory note. Sunburst Bank v. Keith, 648 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1995).

A contract need not be in writing to qualify for the interest rate provided in Mississippi Code § 75-17-1(6), which governs revolving charge agreements. Allied Chem. Corp. v. Mackay, 695 F.2d 854 (5th Cir. 1983).

Although dealer, who was actively involved in consummating the challenged securities transactions, incurred no § 75-71-25 liability since he personally made no misrepresentation of material fact to buyer, such buyer, in a suit for rescission of sale of securities, could recover the full purchase price of the securities from the dealer, with interest from the date of payment under § 75-17-1, but attorney fees were not recoverable. Johnson v. Yerger, 612 F.2d 953 (5th Cir. 1980).

Under the statute, a shipper is entitled to interest on charges refunded. Mississippi Rice Growers Ass'n v. Illinois Cent. R.R., 295 F.2d 681 (5th Cir. 1961).

Where funds of mentally incompetent ward were commingled with those of guardian without any arrangement for borrowing such funds, estate of deceased guardian was chargeable with interest of six percent per annum on amounts received by guardian from time to time less expenditures made for maintenance of ward and in absence of fraud or intentional misconduct, the interest allowed should not be compounded. Jones v. Parker, 216 Miss. 64, 61 So. 2d 681 (1952).

In an action by a news association to recover the alleged balance due under a contract to furnish news reports to a radio station, plaintiff was entitled to legal interest from and after the date of the breach of contract by the radio station computed to the date of the decree. United Press Ass'ns v. McComb Broadcasting Corp., 201 Miss. 68, 28 So. 2d 575 (1947), error overruled, 201 Miss. 75, 30 So. 2d 511 (1947).

Measure of damages for breach of contract involving real or personal property includes legal interest from date of breach on amount of damages. C.B. Foster & Co. v. Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills, 159 Miss. 217, 131 So. 415 (1930).

Damages for injuries to or destruction of property does not bear interest under this section. Humphreys County v. Washington County, 128 Miss. 132, 90 So. 710 (1922).

Interest and purchase-money paid for land is not recoverable as damages for breach of warranty of title when the evicted grantee has been acquitted of all liability to the owner of the land for mesne profits without paying the same. The proportion between the amount of the interest and the value of the mesne profits is immaterial. British & Am. Mtg. Co. v. Todd, 84 Miss. 522, 36 So. 1040 (1904).

7. Date from which interest is computed.

Where the State deposited the funds for eminent domain proceeding, the landowners had the right to withdraw the funds from any point thereafter; therefore, from the date of deposit, the State no longer had control of the funds and had no obligation to pay interest on those funds. Gautier v. Miss. Transp. Comm'n, 839 So. 2d 588 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003).

Accrued interest upon ninety-day notes which had been renewed was properly calculated on basis of 360-day year. Cox v. Timlake, 169 Miss. 568, 153 So. 794 (1934).

Manufacturer, on buyer's breach of contract, is entitled to interest from date of breach on amount of damages determined by verdict. C.B. Foster & Co. v. Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills, 159 Miss. 217, 131 So. 415 (1930).

Guarantor held liable for six percent interest on guaranty from date of declaration, where no demand was made before.

Ely & Walker Dry Goods Co. v. Powell, 155 Miss. 266, 124 So. 329 (1929).

Where interest for the year preceding maturity was included in a note, interest from its maturity only should be included in a decree for its conversion, and, no rate of interest being specified, the rate would be six per centum. Weaver v. Williams, 75 Miss. 945, 23 So. 649 (1898).

Where a note bears interest "after maturity," interest should be computed from the day fixed for payment and not from the expiration of the days of grace. Wheelless v. Williams & Daniels, 62 Miss. 369, 52 Am. R. 190 (1884).

A contract to pay interest from date unless otherwise stipulated, bears interest until the principal be paid. Meaders v. Gray, 60 Miss. 400, 45 Am. R. 414 (1882).

8. Prejudgment interest.

While plaintiff contractor was entitled to pre-judgment interest against defendant lessor of renovated property on amounts due under a settlement agreement that had been reached between the contractor, the lessor, and defendant lessee, the contractor did not seek to enforce the settlement agreement for nearly one year after it was breached, and for nearly five months after it filed its lawsuit against defendants, thus, the contractor, as a matter of equity, was not awarded prejudgment interest during the time period it delayed in seeking to enforce the settlement agreement. The Stellar Group v. Pilgrim's Pride Corp., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 85242, — F. Supp. 2d —, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 85242 (S.D. Miss. Nov. 13, 2007).

In a suit involving the collection of an open account, prejudgment interest was properly awarded where the trial court found that there was a liquidated amount of debt; moreover, the specific request for an amount of such in the pleadings was sufficient to put a creditor on notice of such. Gulf City Seafoods, Inc. v. Oriental Foods, Inc., 986 So. 2d 974 (Miss. Ct. App. 2007).

In a contract dispute regarding damage caused to equipment owned by a utilities commission, a trial judge did not err by awarding prejudgment interest under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7; the argument that Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1 applied was rejected. Upchurch Plumbing, Inc. v. Greenwood Utils. Comm'n, 964 So. 2d 1100 (Miss. 2007).

When a utilities commission sued a contractor for damaging the commission's equipment in the process of testing a defective control system the contractor installed, the calculation of prejudgment interest the commission was awarded was controlled by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7, instead of Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1(1) because it was apparent that § 75-17-1(1) allowed trial judges to award prejudgment interest only where a contract in issue specifically allowed it, but nothing in the statute said prejudgment interest could only be awarded where a contract provided for it. Upchurch Plumbing, Inc. v. Greenwood Utils. Comm'n, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 225 (Miss. Apr. 19, 2007).

In a condemnation proceeding, the trial court erred when it compounded the interest and made a distinction between pre- and post-judgment interest because the eminent domain statutory scheme provided a specific provision for interest in Miss. Code Ann. § 11-27-19, and eminent domain judgments were not based on notes, accounts, sales or contracts; therefore, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1(1) and Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 did not apply to eminent domain judgments, and also "legal interest" was simple interest, not compounded interest. Dedeaux Util. Co. v. City of Gulfport, 938 So. 2d 838 (Miss. 2006).

A bank failed to demonstrate any abuse of discretion in a trial judge's decision to award prejudgment interest to a debtor who was charged a usurious interest rate on 203 forbearance agreements extending written promissory notes where the judge computed the prejudgment interest based on unequivocal data jointly supplied by the debtor and the bank which furnished the payment history of all the notes. Sunburst Bank v. Keith, 648 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1995).

A contract provision stating that "the unpaid balance shall bear interest monthly at the rate of twelve percent per annum or the maximum contract rate permitted by the applicable usury laws ... whichever is the lesser," unambiguously and as a matter of law called for compound interest, inasmuch as prejudgment interest under § 75-17-1(1) is computed at a specified rate, compounded annually. Exxon Corp. v. Crosby-Mississippi Resources, Ltd., 40 F.3d 1474 (5th Cir. 1995).

Back-dating of notes and assumption of debt of insolvent debtor by new debtor did not violate usury statute where party challenging loan had opportunities to correct dates on notes and no action on part of other party appeared to be oppressive. OMP v. Security Pac. Bus. Fin., Inc., 716 F. Supp. 239 (N.D. Miss. 1988).

Statute setting out legal rate of interest (§ 75-17-1) does not provide for prejudgment interest in wrongful death action on estimated earnings from time of decedent's death to time of trial. Smith v. Industrial Constructors, Inc., 783 F.2d 1249 (5th Cir. 1986).

Under Mississippi Code Annotated § 75-17-1, it is not provided that wrongful death statute allows prejudgment interest, since this statute only sets out legal rate of interest in Mississippi. Smith v. Industrial Constructors, Inc., 783 F.2d 1249 (5th Cir. 1986).

Failure of plaintiff to plead or demand interest on his claim against an insurance company until after the jury verdict and judgment were entered waived any rights he might have had, under this section, to prejudgment interest. McLaurin v. Old S. Life Ins. Co., 334 So. 2d 361 (Miss. 1976).

II. Usury.

9. In general.

Usury is not a crime under state law; limit on interest rate is enforceable only by civil remedy. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

State RICO Act does not set out level of intent required for prosecution of usury as collection of unlawful debt and, thus, RICO would omit essential element of crime and would be too vague to satisfy due process; although RICO is general intent crime that takes its intent from underlying crimes, level of intent for usury is defined by civil statute and would not apply to criminal prosecution. State v.

Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

Evidence that State Attorney General's office encouraged check cashers' association to lobby Legislature for regulation of their industry supported determination that State did not give check cashing businesses adequate notice that usury could be prosecuted under State RICO Act and, thus, that RICO was unconstitutionally vague as applied to check cashers; contact between check cashers and Attorney General's office led check cashers to believe that their business was legal. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

All crimes used as bases for State RICO Act prosecution are outlined in RICO Act, and there are cross-references between RICO and underlying criminal statutes, and, therefore, application of RICO to usury would violate due process for lack of notice that usury is prosecutable offense; no reference to RICO is made in usury statute or other statutes on interest and finance charges, and person of ordinary intelligence would not be given fair warning that usury is prosecutable offense. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

Usury is not criminal under State law and, thus, application of State's RICO Act to usury would criminalize activity without fair notice and definite warning of prohibited conduct and would violate due process. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

The responsibility for complying with the usury law falls upon the lender, not the borrower. It is the creditor, not the debtor, who commits an illegal act upon entering a usurious contract. Only the lender can possess the intent to "exact," and therefore the liability for usury violations falls upon the lender and not the borrower. Thus, a borrower did not break the law when he agreed to repay the lender at a rate of interest exceeding that allowed by § 75-17-1. Watkins v. Mississippi Bar, 589 So. 2d 660 (Miss. 1991).

Inasmuch as usury statute is highly penal in nature, it must be strictly construed in favor of creditor. Roper v. Conserve, Inc., 777 F. Supp. 508 (S.D. Miss. 1990), aff'd, 932 F.2d 965 (5th Cir. 1991), cert. denied, 502 U.S. 861, 112 S. Ct. 181, 116 L. Ed. 2d 142 (1991).

Retroactive application of 1974 amendments to usury statute, and application of most favored lender doctrine pursuant to retroactive statute, entitled defendant banks to lawfully charge maximum interest rate of one  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  per month on unpaid credit card balances. Roper v. Conserve, Inc., 777 F. Supp. 508 (S.D. Miss. 1990), aff'd, 932 F.2d 965 (5th Cir. 1991), cert. denied, 502 U.S. 861, 112 S. Ct. 181, 116 L. Ed. 2d 142 (1991).

To entitle one to recover back payments under the statute, proof of usury must be clear, positive, and certain. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

The usury statute is highly penal and will be strictly construed against the party asserting usury, and the burden is upon such a person to prove the existence of usury by clear, positive and certain proof. Ranson v. Snyder, 222 Miss. 248, 75 So. 2d 738 (1954).

This section must be strictly construed, as a highly penal statute against the debtor who claims that usury has been charged, instead of against the creditor. Yeager v. Ainsworth, 202 Miss. 747, 32 So. 2d 548 (1947).

Where one brings suit under this section for usury, its provisions are to be strictly construed against the party seeking to invoke it and the proof of usury must be clear, positive and certain. Yeager v. Ainsworth, 202 Miss. 747, 32 So. 2d 548 (1947).

Second mortgagee's contract, if usurious because providing for interest over eight percent, but under twenty percent, nevertheless remained valid charge against property to extent of principal indebtedness. Great S. Land Co. v. Valley Sec. Co., 162 Miss. 120, 137 So. 510, 82 A.L.R. 405 (1931).

The law which provides for a forfeiture of both principal and interest where more than twenty percent per annum is charged is highly penal and a strict construction is required. Morgan v. King, 128 Miss. 401, 91 So. 30 (1922).

Statute can be invoked by a borrower only where it is certain that usurious interest was either contracted for or received. Byrd v. Link-Newcomb Mill & Lumber Co., 118 Miss. 179, 79 So. 100 (1918).

This section does not penalize the creditor merely for demanding greater rate of interest than eight percent where such interest was not provided for in the contract. Doyle v. L. Herzog & Bros. Dry Goods Co., 115 Miss. 154, 75 So. 760 (1917).

Intentional preference of a usurious debt makes a voluntary assignment void. Hiller v. Ellis, 72 Miss. 701, 18 So. 95 (1895).

Preference of a debt embracing usury does not render an assignment for creditors invalid if the amount directed to be paid does not exceed the principal due and legal interest. H. Wetler Mfg. Co. v. Dinkins, 70 Miss. 835, 12 So. 584 (1893).

In the absence of a statute expressly providing a different rule, the penalty on a corporation for usury is the same as that imposed on natural persons. Grand Gulf Bank v. Archer, 16 Miss. (8 S. & M.) 151 (1847).

10. Law governing, as to usury.

In a contract dispute, sellers of property were properly awarded an interest rate of eight percent under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1(1) where the contract provided that interest was paid at the highest lawful rate then in effect; although the sellers could have contracted for 15 percent under § 75-17-1(3), the rate was not specified. Dunlap Acres, Ltd. v. Intervest Dev. Corp., 955 So. 2d 345 (Miss. Ct. App. 2006).

Back-dating of notes and assumption of debt of insolvent debtor by new debtor did not violate usury statute where party challenging loan had opportunities to correct dates on notes and no action on part of other party appeared to be oppressive. OMP v. Security Pac. Bus. Fin., Inc., 716 F. Supp. 239 (N.D. Miss. 1988).

Where a usury law was modified so as to permit a service charge by banks on small loans, which under the previous law would have constituted usury giving right to an action by the borrower to recover not only the interest paid but the principal as well, loss of the right of action by reason of such modification where the former act did not denounce usurious transactions as void, did not amount to the impairment of the obligation of the contract, since modification simply withdrew previous impediments and rendered contract enforceable as made. Deposit Guar. Bank & Trust Co. v. Williams, 193 Miss. 432, 9 So. 2d 638 (1942).

Statute providing for recovery of usurious interest and statute providing that rate of interest should not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment of interest in period less than one year must be construed in pari materia in connection with provision of Code that repeal of statutory provisions thereby should not affect cause of action nor right accruing prior to effective date of repeal. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Dorsey, 178 Miss. 852, 173 So. 669 (1937).

As respects retroactive operation of statute providing that rate of interest should not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment in period of less than one year, statute authorizing recovery of usurious interest creates right arising from contract and not right to recover "penalty." Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Dorsey, 178 Miss. 852, 173 So. 669 (1937).

Statute providing that rate of interest specified by contract shall not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment of interest at periods less than one year held prospective in operation and not retroactive, and hence would not affect right to recover interest payments accruing prior to adoption thereof. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Dorsey, 178 Miss. 852, 173 So. 669 (1937).

When according to the real intention of the parties a loan made by a corporation of another state to a citizen of, and secured by mortgage on lands in this state, is to be paid here, the usury laws of this state are applicable thereto, although the contract contains a provision for payment in another state whose laws are dissimilar. Georgia State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Shannon, 80 Miss. 642, 31 So. 900 (1902).

When according to the real intentions of the parties as disclosed by the several features of the contract, payment was to be made in this state, the usury laws of this state are applicable thereto although the contract contains a provision for payment in another state having dissimilar laws. Shannon v. Georgia State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 78 Miss. 955, 30 So. 51, 84 Am. St. R. 657 (1901).

Notwithstanding the statutes of Tennessee provide that interest in excess of six percent per annum is usurious and make the exacting of usury a criminal offense, yet a note made and payable in that state bearing eight percent per annum on its face, secured by a lien on the lands in this state, where such a rate is legal, will be enforced here. Kendrick v. Kyle, 78 Miss. 278, 28 So. 951 (1900).

Comity does not require one state or nation to enforce the criminal statutes of another. Kendrick v. Kyle, 78 Miss. 278, 28 So. 951 (1900).

Comity did not require that nonresident building and loan associations be allowed the exemptions from the usury laws given by the former corresponding section (§ 2348, Code 1892), to like associations "domiciled in this state." Sokoloski v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 155, 26 So. 361 (1899).

A law of its domicile authorizing a non-resident building and loan association to charge a fixed premium per month upon a loan is not operative here against our usury laws. Sokoloski v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 155, 26 So. 361 (1899).

The execution of a mortgage on lands in another state to secure a loan made in this state does not make the contract one to be governed by the interest laws of such other state. Commercial Bank v. Auze, 74 Miss. 609, 21 So. 754 (1897).

The laws of this state and access to its courts cannot be the subject of contract; if a contract for the loan of money be usurious under the laws of another state by which it is governed, the courts of this state will not respect a stipulation therein that in case of litigation it shall be governed by the laws of this state, and this although the loan be secured by mortgage on land here. American Freehold Land &

Mtg. Co. v. Jefferson, 69 Miss. 770, 12 So. 464, 30 Am. St. R. 587 (1892).

Where our courts of equity are appealed to by a debtor seeking relief against a usurious contract which is governed by the laws of another state, they will apply the general doctrine of equity regardless of the terms of the contract or of our statutes as to usury and will require that the complainant do equity by refunding or tendering in his bill the principal of the debt with legal interest. American Freehold Land & Mtg. Co. v. Jefferson, 69 Miss. 770, 12 So. 464, 30 Am. St. R. 587 (1892).

11. Intent or knowledge; ignorance of law.

A trial court did not err in finding that a bank charged a debtor a usurious rate of interest on 203 forbearance agreements to extend written promissory notes, in spite of the bank's contention that the act of charging a usurious rate of interest was a result of a mistake or misapprehension and was exacted without any intent to receive a usurious rate of interest, where the bank computed the interest on the forbearance agreements by dividing the number of months in the term of each note into the total pre-calculated interest over the entire term of the note without a single miscalculation, and the bank admitted that there was a conscious, deliberate intention on its part to charge the debtor in each incident what it did in fact charge him. Sunburst Bank v. Keith, 648 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1995).

Amounts claimed to be usurious interest which consisted in large part of errors, inadvertences, miscalculations and bona fide contentions over disputed items involving many transactions over a number of years did not constitute usury. Patterson v. J.W. McClintock, Inc., 201 Miss. 107, 28 So. 2d 737 (1947).

To constitute usury, there must be an intent to commit the act which results in the exaction of a usurious charge, and when such act is the result of mistake or misapprehension, this necessary element is lacking. Jones v. Hernando Bank, 194 Miss. 474, 13 So. 2d 31 (1943).

A mistake of fact purges the transaction of usury, whereas a mistake as to the legal effect of a purposeful act is a mistake of law and the actor is bound by the result. Jones v. Hernando Bank, 194 Miss. 474, 13 So. 2d 31 (1943).

Good faith and absence of unlawful intention are no defense to the application of the statute. Dickey v. Bank of Clarksdale, 183 Miss. 748, 184 So. 314 (1938).

Where mortgagors and mortgagee knew that interest on loan exceeded eight percent per annum, whether parties knew interest was usurious held immaterial, since error or mistake, to be excusable, must be one of fact and not of law. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Davis, 173 Miss. 854, 163 So. 506 (1935).

Ignorance of the law is no legal excuse and does not prevent the recovery of the usurious interest. Hebron Bank v. Gambrell, 116 Miss. 343, 77 So. 148 (1918).

Where a bank, in calculating interest, without the sanction of its directors used tables reckoning three hundred and sixty days to the year and uniformly used by banks, and there was no intention to violate the law, there was no usury, since to constitute usury, there must be an intention to violate the statute. Planters' Bank v. Snodgrass, 5 Miss. (4 Howard) 573 (1840).

12. Additional charges permissible; collection fees.

A resident corporation may lawfully charge and collect a brokerage or service fee from the borrower for placing a loan for him with a nonresident corporation and for guaranteeing the payment of such loan. Tower Underwriters v. Lott, 210 Miss. 389, 49 So. 2d 704 (1951).

Provision for interest, with collection costs, including attorney's fee, held not absolute promise to pay attorney's fee as affecting usurious nature. A.W. Tedcastle Co. v. Garfinkel, 148 Miss. 507, 114 So. 326 (1927).

A contract to pay ten percent additional on principal and interest if the note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection is not itself a usurious provision. Burt v. Brashears, 118 Miss. 339, 79 So. 182 (1918).

13. Construction of contracts as to usury, in general.

An agreement for the sale of fertilizer to a farmer was a "revolving charge agreement" within the meaning of Miss Code § 75-17-1(6), where the purchase price financed was to be paid within 30 days without interest, but if credit was required for any part of the balance beyond that time, the rate of interest was fixed at 1.5 percent per month. Furthermore, although the agreement was usurious to the extent the 1.5 percent per month was charged on the amount exceeding $800, it was not usurious as to mandate forfeiture of the principal obligation under § 75-17-1. Allied Chem. Corp. v. Mackay, 695 F.2d 854 (5th Cir. 1983).

The court in determining the question whether persons are actually engaged in lending money at usurious rates of interest has a right to look through the forms which the transactions were made to assume and to base its decision upon the real facts. Alt v. Bailey, 211 Miss. 547, 52 So. 2d 283 (1951).

In cases involving the question of whether usury has been contracted for or received, it is permissible to introduce parol testimony to show that the written contract does not in fact represent the real agreement between the parties thereto on the issue of whether the sums mentioned therein include interest in excess of the rate allowed by law. Yeager v. Ainsworth, 202 Miss. 747, 32 So. 2d 548 (1947).

In usury cases the question involved is whether or not a payment of interest is contracted for or received, in accordance with the intention of the parties, in excess of the maximum rate provided for by law, and in such manner as to evade the law against usury and for that purpose. Yeager v. Ainsworth, 202 Miss. 747, 32 So. 2d 548 (1947).

Contract for usurious interest is violative of public policy of State, and courts, in order to ascertain whether contract is usurious, will look through form to substance, and real facts will control. Kennedy v. Porter, 176 Miss. 742, 170 So. 286 (1936).

Usury is determined by what the creditor has the right according to the terms of the contract if enforced, to demand in any situation during its life and not by what he may ask under an accidental situation. Crafton v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 166, 26 So. 362 (1899).

Recitals in a contract on the subject of interest are not conclusive on the question of usury. Parchman v. McKinney, 20 Miss. (12 S. & M.) 631 (1849).

14. Transactions as usurious.

Even if check cashing service was involved in discounting negotiable instruments, rather than in making loans, civil usury statute's 8% allowable interest rate would be applicable. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

When negotiable instrument is purchased at discount, discount is limited to 8% interest limit set by civil usury statute. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

That one lending money on interest to enable another to carry on a business, materials for which were to be purchased from him, also made a profit on such materials furnished on credit does not render the transaction usurious. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

The fact that the maker and the payee did not contract or stipulate for greater rate of interest than 20 percent does not prevent the note from being usurious if the payee received directly or indirectly a greater sum of interest than 20 percent per annum. Cortner v. Bennett, 230 Miss. 369, 92 So. 2d 559 (1957).

In an action seeking recovery for the balance due upon a promissory note, wherein the maker counterclaimed for the amount of payments made upon the note alleging that he had signed the note in blank and received $500.00 and that the payee, without his knowledge, had filled in the note for the amount of $600.00, and the alleged charge of $100.00 plus four percent interest was usurious, judgment on the jury's verdict for the maker in an amount equal to the sum that he had paid upon the note plus six percent interest from the date of payment was affirmed. Cortner v. Bennett, 230 Miss. 369, 92 So. 2d 559 (1957).

Addition to the principal amount of a note of a reasonable amount to compensate the attorney-payee for examination of the title to land securing the indebtedness, done by agreement of the parties, was not considered as interest hidden by a device to circumvent the usury statutes. Johnson v. Carter, 203 Miss. 38, 33 So. 2d 296 (1948).

Where plaintiff's indebtedness to defendant bank, evidenced by original notes of $7400 and $2600 with interest at 8 percent per annum which had been reduced by payment, was to be scaled down to $2350 with interest thereafter at 6 percent, pursuant to an agreement under which a federal land bank granted plaintiff's application for a loan, but defendant bank took a new note for $2800 at 8 percent, the transaction was not tainted with usury within the purview of this section, in view of evidence showing error or misapprehension explaining defendant bank's failure to recast the indebtedness pursuant to the intent of the agreement. Jones v. Hernando Bank, 194 Miss. 474, 13 So. 2d 31 (1943).

The rule that to constitute usury it is essential that the principal sum shall be repayable at all events, and that it is not usurious if repayable only on some contingency, is not applicable as to short term loans not repayable in case of the borrower's death, where the lender makes a charge to enable him to take out insurance to guarantee repayment of the debt. Fry v. Layton, 191 Miss. 17, 2 So. 2d 561, 134 A.L.R. 1330 (1941).

The collection of eight percent interest per annum on a promissory note, calculated on the basis of the year being 360 days plus 5 days, was not usurious. Dickey v. Bank of Clarksdale, 183 Miss. 748, 184 So. 314 (1938).

Mere book entry where no money was received by creditor did not forfeit all interest. Howell v. Ott, 182 Miss. 252, 180 So. 52 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 286, 181 So. 740 (1938).

In order to "receive" excessive interests, there must be a passage of interest from one person to another; mere book entry not being contemplated by statute unless accepted and agreed upon. Howell v. Ott, 182 Miss. 252, 180 So. 52 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 286, 181 So. 740 (1938).

Mere intention to charge more than eight percent, without a stipulation or receipt, does not violate statute. Howell v. Ott, 182 Miss. 252, 180 So. 52 (1938), error overruled, 182 Miss. 286, 181 So. 740 (1938).

Loan contract for $2,500 evidenced by note for $1,312.50 as principal payable ten years after date and nineteen notes for $62.50 payable semiannually for ten-year period, and interest notes representing eight percent interest on principal of indebtedness, payable semiannually, held usurious. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Davis, 173 Miss. 854, 163 So. 506 (1935).

A loan is usurious where more than eight percent interest is stipulated for, though interest actually paid is within legal rate. Chandler v. Cooke, 163 Miss. 147, 137 So. 496 (1931).

A note payable in less than one year and stipulating for "10 percent straight until paid" is usurious. Burt v. Brashears, 118 Miss. 339, 79 So. 182 (1918).

A contract, by which a party was to advance a sum of money to enable another to purchase the assets of a defunct bank, and in consideration was to receive repayment of the amount of the loan from the assets purchased, and the payment of a like amount from the profits, imposed no personal liability on the borrower, and was not usurious. Commercial Bank & Trust Co. v. Joiner, 114 Miss. 749, 75 So. 599 (1917).

Where the highest legal rate of interest is added in the face of the note which provided for interest on this amount at such highest legal rate per annum from maturity held not to be usurious. Merchants' & Planters' Bank v. Caston, 97 Miss. 309, 52 So. 633 (1910).

A contract by which complainant is to advance money to publish and introduce defendant's book and in consideration thereof is to be paid his advances and his legal interest out of the net profits, if any, and also one-half of such profits, imposes no personal liability on defendant and is not usurious. Duval v. Neal, 70 Miss. 288, 12 So. 145 (1892).

An inadvertent overcharge of interest does not render the contract usurious.

Smythe v. Allen, 67 Miss. 146, 6 So. 627 (1889).

A loan for the full legal rate of interest is not rendered usurious by the fact that the borrower pays to another money for negotiating the loan. Pass v. New England Mtg. Sec. Co., 66 Miss. 365, 6 So. 239 (1889).

A stipulation for a greater rate of interest than allowed whenever and however made is usurious. Union Nat'l Bank v. Fraser, 63 Miss. 231 (1885); Warmack v. Boyd, 63 Miss. 488 (1886); Rozelle v. Dickerson, 63 Miss. 538 (1886).

A stipulation in a contract that if the debt be not punctually paid at maturity the debtor shall pay interest from date is not usurious. Rogers v. Sample, 33 Miss. 310, 69 Am. Dec. 349 (1857).

Where a note is given for the face value of depreciated stocks with interest and the interest thereon is greater than the legal rate on their real value, it is usurious. Grand Gulf Bank v. Archer, 16 Miss. (8 S. & M.) 151 (1847); Bondurant v. Commercial Bank of Natchez, 16 Miss. (8 S. & M.) 533 (1847); Cook v. Bank of Lexington, 16 Miss. (8 S. & M.) 543 (1847).

To constitute usury there must be an agreement between the lender and the borrower of money by which the borrower knowingly gives or promises and the lender knowingly takes or reserves, a higher rate of interest than the law allows and with an intention to violate the statute. Planters' Bank v. Snodgrass, 5 Miss. (4 Howard) 573 (1840).

15. —Devices to avoid usury provisions.

Maximum 10 percent yield as provided for in this section would apply retroactively, and all charges to the debtor for receiving a loan would be considered in determining whether the total finance charge was usurious. Thus, where a lender had "stipulated for" interest of 7 percent per annum for five years and for a discount or finance charge, the total of which constituted 10.35 percent interest on the loan, the lender had not only "received" but had also "stipulated for" usurious interest; the lender was entitled to the return of principal only and the debtor was entitled to recover all monies paid in excess of principal. Cappaert v. Bierman, 339 So. 2d 1355 (Miss. 1976).

The courts will look to and construe a transaction by its substance and effect rather than its form, and will permit no scheme or device, however ingenuous, to hide the face of usury. Richardson v. Cortner, 232 Miss. 885, 100 So. 2d 854 (1958); Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

Where a loan service company purported to make arrangements for a borrower to borrow money from another firm, but the other firm did not actually loan money on the borrower's credit but on the unconditional indorsement of the loan by the service company, the loan service company was not a broker, but the lender; and the arrangement between the loan company and the other firm, which made available funds needed by the former to lend to its customers, was a subterfuge to circumvent the usury laws, so that a "brokerage" fee of $13 on a loan of $25 was in fact interest, and usurious. Richardson v. Cortner, 232 Miss. 885, 100 So. 2d 854 (1958).

The supreme court will look through the form of the substance of the transaction to determine whether usury has been charged or collected. Bell v. Tindall, 215 Miss. 343, 60 So. 2d 801 (1952).

Loans made to a borrower ostensibly by a nonresident corporation through the office of a resident corporation as evidenced by installment notes, payable to such nonresident corporation and guaranteed as to payment by the resident corporation, in amounts which, in addition to interest, included service or brokerage fees, which, as therein provided, were to be paid to the resident corporation, were not usurious so as to entitle the borrower to recover the principal and interest, notwithstanding that the amounts of the notes insofar as they exceeded the amounts actually received by the borrower were in excess of the maximum rate of interest provided for in this section, where the borrower in the notes he signed and in his receipts for the money received, which he admittedly read, acknowledged the resident corporation as his agent and broker, and could see from such papers that he was borrowing from, and agreeing to repay, the nonresident corporation, and that the resident corporation as his agent was to receive a part of the amounts of the notes as compensation for insurance and services rendered, which included guaranteeing payment of the notes. Tower Underwriters v. Lott, 210 Miss. 389, 49 So. 2d 704 (1951).

That a nonresident corporation has been able to work out a scheme whereby it may place loans to an enormous amount in this state and collect exorbitant charges on the money advanced as fees by it to the agent and broker of the borrower, and successfully claim that it is not doing business in this state or violating its usury laws, since it has no office, place of business or agents or employees in this state, has not qualified to do business under the laws of this state, and admittedly receives no part of the fees collected by the agent and broker of the borrower, is a problem for the legislature, and not for the courts in the absence of clear, positive and certain proof that more interest is received as such than is allowed under this section. Tower Underwriters v. Lott, 210 Miss. 389, 49 So. 2d 704 (1951).

Stipulation for payment of additional interest on past due note, held attempt to avoid usury statute and contract for usury. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

Devices to defeat usury statute are not tolerated where consummation of usury is really intended; Notes will be held usurious although excess over eight percent is not actually collected. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

An agreement that a debtor shall forward a certain amount of cotton to his creditor or pay commissions on it with no expectation on either side that the cotton should be forwarded but intended as a device to enable the creditor to obtain a usurious rate of interest, is void. Brown v. West, 80 Miss. 764, 32 So. 52 (1902).

16. —Prepayment of interest; interest on future advances.

A loan in which the interest was discounted in advance and in which the borrower was required to procure fire insurance to retire the indebtedness if the security was destroyed was not a usurious contract, even though the requirement acknowledged and demanded payment before maturity, since such requirement lacked the contractual specificity necessary to bring it within the scope of this section. The loan would not be usurious if the contingency for which the insurance was obtained did not occur, and if it did occur, whether or not it was usurious would depend upon the time of the occurrence. Thus, the contract was too indefinite for the imposition of a penal statute requiring forfeiture, even though the sum demanded in satisfaction of the loan appeared excessive. Jackson Inv. Co. v. Bates, 366 So. 2d 225 (Miss. 1978).

A contract to pay the maximum rate of interest allowed by law, calculated from the date of the contract, where the consideration therefor is to be advanced later during its life, if and when needed, violates the usury statute since interest begins to run on each advance of the consideration from its date. Taylor v. Copeland, 183 Miss. 85, 181 So. 742 (1938), error overruled, 183 Miss. 90, 183 So. 519 (1938).

Landlord held not entitled to collect eight percent interest on note by tenant on all furnished items regardless of when they were advanced. Taylor v. Copeland, 183 Miss. 85, 181 So. 742 (1938), error overruled, 183 Miss. 90, 183 So. 519 (1938).

Where defendant discounted notes for advances agreed to be made and placed the amount to the credit of the maker of the notes, and after making such advances charged ten percent interest on them, the dealings became usurious. O.B. Crittenden & Co. v. Ragan, 89 Miss. 185, 42 So. 281 (1906).

When interest is charged on a mere promise to lend money in the future and is carried into the loan afterward made and the borrower is in addition charged the highest legal interest on the money from the time advanced, the transaction is usurious and the whole interest forfeited and if paid the debtor may recover it by suit. Hiller v. Ellis, 72 Miss. 701, 18 So. 95 (1895).

Reserving in advance out of the loan interest at the highest legal rate is usurious. Hiller v. Ellis, 72 Miss. 701, 18 So. 95 (1895).

A charge of interest at the rate of ten percent discount was in violation of the former statute (§ 1141, Code 1880), disallowing as usurious all charges of interest in excess of ten percent. Columbus Ins. & Banking Co. v. First Nat'l Bank, 73 Miss. 96, 15 So. 138 (1894).

Prepayment of the full legal rate of interest when the loan is made renders it usurious. Hyde v. Finley, 26 Miss. 468 (1853); Polkinghorne v. Hendricks, 61 Miss. 366 (1883).

17. —Additional price of payment deferred.

In an action to enforce claims that defendant debtors had breached two retail installment contracts that had been assigned to plaintiff credit company, the defense of usury could not be asserted against plaintiff where it was a holder in due course; further, even if such defense could be asserted, the time-price doctrine took the transactions at issue outside the scope of this section. AgriStor Credit Corp. v. Lewellen, 472 F. Supp. 46 (N.D. Miss. 1979).

Where an automobile was sold on credit, the mere fact that the difference between the credit price and the cash price exceeded the percentage permitted by the usury laws did not render the transaction usurious, if the parties had acted in good faith. Bryant v. Securities Inv. Co., 233 Miss. 740, 102 So. 2d 701 (1958).

The sale of an automobile at a time or credit price, at the election of a purchaser, which price is in excess of the seller's cash price, is not violative of the law against usury, even though the difference, if considered as interest, amounts to more than the rate of interest allowed by law. Yeager v. Ainsworth, 202 Miss. 747, 32 So. 2d 548 (1947).

Under unimpeached evidence that the vendees signed a conditional sales contract for the purchase of an automobile which specifically set forth a cash price and a time price, the latter including finance, insurance and recording charges, the charge of a sum in excess of the cash price as part of the time or credit price did not constitute a charge of interest in violation of this section. Yeager v. Ainsworth, 202 Miss. 747, 32 So. 2d 548 (1947).

Where the parties to a contract for the sale of fertilizer were deemed to have agreed that the buyer would pay the cash price if he paid it before a certain date and in default thereof that he would pay the credit price of approximately ten percent additional, the transaction was not usurious, since no interest was involved but only a credit price. Crabb v. Comer, 190 Miss. 289, 200 So. 133 (1941).

Usury is not involved in credit sales because of difference between cash and credit prices. Commercial Credit Co. v. Shelton, 139 Miss. 132, 104 So. 75 (1925).

This section [Code 1942, § 36] is not violated by a water company, which under its rule requires a customer to pay ten percent additional on the water bill, where customer does not pay it promptly. Ford v. Vicksburg Waterworks Co., 102 Miss. 717, 59 So. 880 (1912).

A contract for the sale of goods to be paid for in thirty days at a certain price, is not usurious because of an agreement at the time of sale that if payment be not made within thirty days the price shall be fifteen per centum additional. Bass v. Patterson, 68 Miss. 310, 8 So. 849, 24 Am. St. R. 279 (1891).

18. —Defaulted interest as principal; compound interest.

A stipulation for the payment of interest on interest if not paid when due rendered usurious a contract to pay interest at the highest legal rate. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Myers, 104 F.2d 94 (5th Cir. 1939), but see, Stovall v. Illinois C.G.R.R., 722 F.2d 190 (5th Cir. 1984).

A note bearing interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum, payable semiannually, and stipulating that defaulting interest should draw the same rate of interest as the principal, was usurious. Rogers v. Rivers, 135 Miss. 756, 100 So. 385, 37 A.L.R. 313 (1924).

Where a note provides for interest from maturity at the highest legal rate and further provides if interest is not paid annually it shall become principal and bear the same rate of interest held not to be usurious. Palm v. Fancher, 93 Miss. 785, 48 So. 818 (1909).

A promise to pay compound interest for future forbearance will not be enforced. Perkins v. Coleman, 51 Miss. 298 (1875).

The statute does not prevent the renewal of notes, carrying interest already due, into the new note and making it bear interest. Perkins v. Coleman, 51 Miss. 298 (1875).

19. —Renewal of obligation.

Where an automobile was sold on a conditional sales contract and a second conditional sales contract was executed for the purpose of rescheduling monthly payments on the unpaid balance, and the rate of interest of the second conditional sales contract was usurious, assignee of contract forfeited all payments due for purchase price of the automobile even though the contract was not usurious at its inception. Associates Disct. Corp. v. Ruddock, 224 Miss. 533, 81 So. 2d 249 (1955).

A service charge made and collected by a bank in renewing an obligation is interest under another name, and where, as interest, it exceeded the rate of eight per cent per annum, it was usurious, notwithstanding evidence that it was the universal custom of banks everywhere to make a service charge on small loans. Dickey v. Bank of Clarksdale, 183 Miss. 748, 184 So. 314 (1938).

Contract became tainted with usury on renewal date where creditor at that time required note with ten percent interest added to face thereof and required debtor to pay creditor $900.00, the consideration for which was extension of loan and further forbearance of creditor. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

Taint of usury held not removed from original loan by fact that renewal notes were given and that interest, computed to due date of renewal notes, would be within legal limit. Chandler v. Cooke, 163 Miss. 147, 137 So. 496 (1931).

The statute does not prevent the renewal of notes, carrying interest already due, into the new note and making it bear interest. Perkins v. Coleman, 51 Miss. 298 (1875).

20. —Building and loan association transactions.

Where a loan was negotiated by a building and loan association subsequently to the amendment of this section [Code 1942, § 36], whereby a provision making the section [Code 1942, § 36] inapplicable to such associations was eliminated, and the premium, which was fixed and payable monthly by a borrowing member of the association, added to the interest paid by him, obligated him to pay more than 10 per centum per annum, the contract was usurious. Mississippi Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. McElveen, 100 Miss. 16, 56 So. 187 (1911).

The word "received" was applied to interest paid to a building and loan association. Mississippi Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. McElveen, 100 Miss. 16, 56 So. 187 (1911).

A complainant assailing as usurious his contract as a stockholder in a building and loan association was not entitled (under § 2348, Code 1892), to have credited on the principal of his loan sums paid by him as stockholder on expense account or for fines and withdrawal fees. Georgia State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Grant, 82 Miss. 424, 34 So. 84 (1903).

The section (§ 2348, Code 1892), had no application to a true building and loan association domiciled in this state and dealing only with its members. People's Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. McPhillamy, 81 Miss. 61, 32 So. 1001, 95 Am. St. R. 454 (1902).

Such prior statute applied to loan contracts made with building associations in the following cases: People's Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. McPhillamy, 81 Miss. 61, 32 So. 1001 (1902); National Mut. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Farnham, 81 Miss. 364, 33 So. 2 (1902), aff'd, 194 U.S. 630, 24 S. Ct. 858, 48 L. Ed. 1158 (1904); National Mut. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Brahan, 80 Miss. 407, 31 So. 840 (1902), aff'd, 193 U.S. 635, 24 S. Ct. 532, 48 L. Ed. 823 (1904); Georgia State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Shannon, 80 Miss. 642, 31 So. 900 (1902); National Mut. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Pinkston, 79 Miss. 468, 31 So. 834 (1902); Natchez Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Shields, 71 Miss. 630, 15 So. 793 (1893); Southern Home Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Tony, 78 Miss. 916, 29 So. 825 (1901); Shannon v. Georgia State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 78 Miss. 955, 30 So. 51 (1901); National Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Wilson, 78 Miss. 993, 30 So. 56 (1901); Sokoloski v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 155, 26 So. 361 (1899);

Crafton v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 166, 26 So. 362 (1899); Building & Loan Ass'n v. Leonard, 74 Miss. 810, 21 So. 53 (1897); People's Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. McElroy, 72 Miss. 434, 17 So. 348 (1894).

Earlier law: A change made in the corresponding section of the 1892 Code (§ 2348) exempting building and loan associations from the operation of the penalty against usury did not free prior illegal contracts from the objection for § 4 of the Code (§ 15, Code 1942), preserved unaffected any existing cause of action of defense. Goodman v. Durant Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 71 Miss. 310, 14 So. 146 (1893); Southern Home Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Tony, 78 Miss. 916, 29 So. 825 (1901); Shannon v. Georgia State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 78 Miss. 955, 30 So. 51 (1901); National Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Wilson, 78 Miss. 993, 30 So. 56 (1901); Sokoloski v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 155, 26 So. 361 (1899); Crafton v. New S. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 77 Miss. 166, 26 So. 362 (1899).

Under section § 2348 of the Code of 1892, a loan by a building and loan association was not rendered usurious by a premium which the borrowing member agrees to pay for the loan, since such premium is neither a prepayment of interest nor a deduction of money belonging to the member, but merely represents the discount of the future dividends of his shares of stock. Sullivan v. Jackson Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 70 Miss. 94, 12 So. 590 (1892).

21. Prepayment of loan.

A lender was statutorily prohibited from computing a rebate of finance charges on a precomputed loan by the method of the rule of 78's, as provided in the promissory note, if the resulting yield to the lender on prepayment was greater than that specified in § 75-17-1(4) or exceeded the penalty allowed by § 75-17-1(12) (recodified as § 75-17-31). When the borrowers elected to prepay the note, the lender was required to recalculate the amount of interest which it had earned over the term during which the borrowers actually had use of the borrowed money in order to come within § 75-17-1(4), limiting the bank to a specified "yield ... calculated according to the actuarial method."

It was incumbent upon the lender to recalculate the interest by the actuarial method and not by the rule of 78's so as not to exceed the specified legal rate of "yield." Denley v. Peoples Bank, 553 So. 2d 494 (Miss. 1989).

22. Acceleration provision.

Where plaintiffs borrowed money and executed notes with interest amounting to more than eight per centum and less than twenty per centum per annum, the lender, upon acceleration under a clause providing for all the payments to become due upon default, would have no right to interest, but could collect only the principal. Ranson v. Snyder, 222 Miss. 248, 75 So. 2d 738 (1954).

23. Forfeiture provision.

A debtor was entitled to a forfeiture of "all interest" in each of 58 pre-computed installment notes which became tainted by usury due to usurious interest charges on 203 separate forbearance agreements, and therefore the trial court erred in declaring a forfeiture only of the interest which accrued after the promissory notes first became tainted with usury via the forbearance charges. Sunburst Bank v. Keith, 648 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1995).

Mississippi Code § 75-17-1 is highly penal and must be construed strictly in favor of the creditor, especially with respect to the provision calling for forfeiture of both principal and interest. Allied Chem. Corp. v. Mackay, 695 F.2d 854 (5th Cir. 1983).

When faced with one reasonable construction of Miss Codes § 75-17-1 that triggers the provision calling for forfeiture of both principal and interest and one that does not the court must choose the latter. Allied Chem. Corp. v. Mackay, 695 F.2d 854 (5th Cir. 1983).

Forfeiture of interest and finance charges under § 75-17-1 was improper where the excessive charges were the result of an honest mistake and therefore exempt from forfeiture within the meaning of § 75-67-119. United Cos. Mtg. & Inv. of S.W. Miss., Inc. v. Lester, 394 So. 2d 1350 (Miss. 1981).

Where interest at a greater rate than 8 percent, but less than 20 percent having been stipulated for and collected, all interest must be forfeited and in such a case the interest which has been paid to be deducted from the remaining principal if the debt has not been entirely paid. Bell v. Tindall, 215 Miss. 343, 60 So. 2d 801 (1952).

Where lender charged usurious interest, and all interest was required to be forfeited under the statute, and where the borrower agreed to payment of fees to real estate agent and attorney and recording fees, the lender would not be charged with amount of those fees. Bell v. Tindall, 215 Miss. 343, 60 So. 2d 801 (1952).

The fact that all interest was forfeited because the interest charged was more than 8 percent but less than 20 percent did not relieve the maker of notes of the obligation to pay attorney's fees upon the amount found to be owing. Patterson v. J.W. McClintock, Inc., 201 Miss. 107, 28 So. 2d 737 (1947).

Where the happening of a contingency on which the requirement as to repayment of short term notes for periods not exceeding ten months, on which notes a rate of interest in excess of twenty per centum is contracted, is improbable (repayment not being required in case of the borrower's death), the rule that to constitute usury it is essential that the principal sum shall be repayable, at all events, and that if it is repayable only on some contingency, then the transaction is not usurious, does not apply. Fry v. Layton, 191 Miss. 17, 2 So. 2d 561, 134 A.L.R. 1330 (1941).

Where, on renewal, an obligation of $1300 was represented by a note of $1150, at 8 percent per annum, and six notes of $25, as to each of which a service charge of $1 was made, resulting in a usurious charge of interest as to such smaller notes, the entire transaction, including the note for $1150, was usurious warranting a forfeiture of interest; but the fact that the interest charged on the smaller notes in the form of service charges exceeded 20 percent did not warrant a forfeiture of both principal and interest of all the notes where, considering all the notes, the notes as part of one entire transaction, the interest as to the transaction in its entirety did not exceed 20 percent. Dickey v. Bank of Clarksdale, 183 Miss. 748, 184 So. 314 (1938).

Tenant, charged about twenty-five percent per annum on note to landlord, held entitled to recover all principal and interest paid landlord. Taylor v. Copeland, 183 Miss. 85, 181 So. 742 (1938), error overruled, 183 Miss. 90, 183 So. 519 (1938).

A contract evidenced by a promissory note executed by a farm tenant to his landlord with interest at the maximum rate allowed by law, in consideration of future advances on furnished items, violated the statute forfeiting the principal and interest in the event that the interest exceeded twenty percent, where the landlord charged eight percent interest straight instead of eight percent per annum on all items regardless of when they were advanced, so that the interest actually charged amounted to about twenty-five percent. Taylor v. Copeland, 183 Miss. 85, 181 So. 742 (1938), error overruled, 183 Miss. 90, 183 So. 519 (1938).

Charging of interest in excess of twenty percent per annum on loan secured by note and trust deed held to invalidate entire transaction and to authorize forfeiture of both principal and interest. Jones v. Lamensdorf, 175 Miss. 565, 167 So. 624 (1936).

Maker of usurious note secured by trust deed could after foreclosure recover amount for which property was sold, together with other payments on note, where usurious interest exceeded twenty percent. Chandlee v. Tharp, 161 Miss. 623, 137 So. 540, 78 A.L.R. 445 (1931).

The provision for a forfeiture of both principal and interest where more than twenty per centum per annum is charged is highly penal, and a strict construction is required. Morgan v. King, 128 Miss. 401, 91 So. 30 (1922).

A lender of money at extortionate rates of interest under contracts void as against public policy cannot maintain a suit in equity against one placed in charge of the business for an accounting where he must call in directly or indirectly the aid of the illegal contracts to make out his case. Woodson v. Hopkins, 85 Miss. 171, 37 So. 1000 (1905), error overruled, 85 Miss. 192, 38 So. 298 (1905).

24. Effect of usury.

Where there was a conflict in the evidence as to whether the contract upon which the replevin action was predicated was usurious, and the defendant had entered a plea of "not guilty", the trial court erred in giving a peremptory instruction for plaintiff. Ables v. Curle, 233 Miss. 369, 102 So. 2d 122 (1958).

The plea in replevin of "not guilty" puts in issue the defense of usury without the necessity of affirmatively stating it, so that if a contract upon which a replevin action is based is illegal for that reason, the plaintiff has no right to possession of the property. Ables v. Curle, 233 Miss. 369, 102 So. 2d 122 (1958).

In an action seeking recovery for the balance due upon a promissory note, wherein the maker counterclaimed alleging that he had signed the note in blank and received $500.00 and that the payee had filled in the amount of the note for $600.00, without his knowledge, and the alleged charge of $100.00 plus 4 percent interest was usurious and the note void, judgment on the jury's verdict for maker in an amount equal to the amount the maker had paid upon the note plus 6 percent interest from the date of payment was affirmed. Cortner v. Bennett, 230 Miss. 369, 92 So. 2d 559 (1957).

Although a contract may not be usurious at its inception, when the creditor subsequently receives, indirectly, more than 20 percent per annum interest, he confers upon the debtor the right to declare all the principal forfeited, and to recover back all payments made on the principal, as well as all usurious interest paid. Cortner v. Bennett, 230 Miss. 369, 92 So. 2d 559 (1957).

Question of usury in note secured by deed of trust later foreclosed and effect of usury upon foreclosure sale will not be adjudicated in proceeding under § 948, Code 1942 by purchaser of property at foreclosure sale to obtain possession of the property. McCoy v. McRae, 204 Miss. 309, 37 So. 2d 353 (1948).

Exacting of usury merely renders note voidable. Chandlee v. Tharp, 161 Miss. 623, 137 So. 540, 78 A.L.R. 445 (1931).

25. Waiver or release of usury.

A contract by a borrower waiving directly or indirectly the usury laws is against public policy and void. Georgia

State Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Grant, 82 Miss. 424, 34 So. 84 (1903).

26. Remedies; nature of suit.

The highly penal forfeiture provisions of the usury laws cannot be invoked by a stranger on behalf of borrowers who have no knowledge of the impending litigation and who may or may not appreciate the act of their would-be benefactor, and, therefore, the lower court properly dismissed appellant's class action complaint for want of jurisdiction. Liddell v. Litton Sys., 300 So. 2d 455 (Miss. 1974).

In a suit alleging conspiracy among defendants to charge usurious interest rates for financing of insurance premiums, the chancellor did not err by ruling that plaintiffs could not maintain the suit as a class action where the chancellor would have been required to make separate fact findings and calculations because each of the alleged class members was a policy holder with a separate contract of insurance and related financing, where for each of the separate and distinct claims revealed by the record, each appellant had an adequate remedy at law, and where enormously complex legal and logistical problems would have been created had the suit proceeded as a class action. Evans v. Progressive Cas. Ins. Co., 300 So. 2d 149 (Miss. 1974).

In cases involving usury, parol evidence is inadmissible to show that the writings are not what they seem and to establish the true facts with respect to a transaction; and in such cases it may be shown by parol that a document, legal in form, is in fact a device to disguise usurious interest or that it in some way fails to reflect the real agreement, and that the sums mentioned are in truth usurious interest. Wilson Indus., Inc. v. Newton County Bank, 245 So. 2d 27 (Miss. 1971).

Wrongdoing by a party to an allegedly usurious contract will not be presumed, and in the absence of any proof to the contrary it is proper to indulge a presumption that in their business and social relations persons act honestly and properly, so that a plaintiff seeking to recover an amount paid pursuant to an allegedly usurious contract must furnish clear, positive, and certain proof of usury. Wilson

Indus., Inc. v. Newton County Bank, 245 So. 2d 27 (Miss. 1971).

Although complainant was not entitled to a bill of discovery against a bank to information of numerous small loan transactions upon which to found a usury action, in view of the fact that such information was once furnished complainant by the return of cancelled notes, and there was no explanation as to their nonavailability, the action should not be finally dismissed, but should be transferred to the circuit court, since sufficient facts were alleged to entitle complainant to some relief in the event that he should fail to show a ground for discovery by amendment of his bill. Williams v. Deposit Guar. Bank & Trust Co., 190 Miss. 685, 1 So. 2d 486 (1941).

Debtor claiming usury before foreclosure sale put purchaser on notice of his claim and was entitled to have sale set aside and title declared vested in him. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

Statute providing that if more than eight percent per annum shall be stipulated for or received on loan, all interest thereon shall be forfeited, condemns usurious contract as well as receipt of usurious interest. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Davis, 173 Miss. 854, 163 So. 506 (1935).

Claim against estate to recover amount paid on usurious contract may be probated, an action on such claim is "personal action," which survives death. Chandlee v. Tharp, 161 Miss. 623, 137 So. 540, 78 A.L.R. 445 (1931).

Under this section [Code 1942, § 36] a complainant having paid the principal of a usurious debt, is entitled to the cancellation of the deed of trust given for its security even as against an innocent holder of the notes evidencing the debt and the deed. Armor v. Bank of Loudon, 86 Miss. 658, 39 So. 17 (1905).

A suit for the recovery of interest paid upon a usurious contract is not for the recovery of a penalty eo nomine within the statute. Code 1892, § 2741; Code 1906, § 3101, and is not barred thereby. Commercial Bank v. Auze, 74 Miss. 609, 21 So. 754 (1897).

In order to enjoin a sale under a deed of trust given to secure a usurious debt, it is unnecessary for the complainant to have paid or tendered more than the principal of the debt, since under the statute he could recover back all interest paid. Parchman v. McKinney, 20 Miss. (12 S. & M.) 631 (1849); American Freehold Land & Mtg. Co. v. Jefferson, 69 Miss. 770, 12 So. 464 (1892); Southern Home Bldg. & Loan Ass'n v. Tony, 78 Miss. 916, 29 So. 825 (1901); Purvis v. Woodward, 78 Miss. 922, 29 So. 917 (1901).

One who pays usurious interest can recover it back by suit. Bond v. Jones, 16 Miss. (8 S. & M.) 368 (1847); Parchman v. McKinney, 20 Miss. (12 S. & M.) 631 (1849); O'Connor v. Clopton, 60 Miss. 349 (1882); Warmack v. Boyd, 63 Miss. 488 (1886).

27. —Application of payments of usurious interest to principal.

Payments of usurious interest are by operation of law payments on the principal of the balance of the old debt due; and when the taint of usury has attached, all subsequent payments of interest or for service charges are credited by law to the principal throughout all subsequent renewals so long as the identity of the subject matter is preserved or is traceable as belonging to the original debt. Dickey v. Bank of Clarksdale, 183 Miss. 748, 184 So. 314 (1938).

Payments by debtor on usurious contract are credited by law to principal, and all interest forfeited. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

Where from inception of loan in 1920 to foreclosure in 1934 there was continuous transaction of renewals and payments, and contract was usurious, statute of limitations was properly applied in permitting credit of payments on principal debt. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

A purchaser of an equity of redemption with notice of payments of usurious interest, can compel their appropriation to the principal. McAlister v. Jerman, 32 Miss. 142 (1856); Chaffe v. Wilson, 59 Miss. 42 (1881).

28. Persons entitled to claim or urge usury.

One who forms corporation to obtain loan for business purposes may not assert usury claim or defense; usury claim is available when proceeds of loan are used to meet individual's personal, nonbusiness needs and obligations, not if money is used to further profit-oriented business venture; adoption of this rule does not mean that usury as claim or defense is never available to one who forms corporation at lender's request. Galloway v. Travelers Ins. Co., 515 So. 2d 678 (Miss. 1987).

The highly penal forfeiture provisions of the usury laws cannot be invoked by a stranger on behalf of borrowers who have no knowledge of the impending litigation and who may or may not appreciate the act of their would-be benefactor, and, therefore, the lower court properly dismissed appellant's class action complaint for want of jurisdiction. Liddell v. Litton Sys., 300 So. 2d 455 (Miss. 1974).

Debtor from whom creditor exacted interest exceeding twenty percent in allowing renewals or extensions of note, held entitled to recover back all payments of principal and interest, though contract was not usurious at its inception. Chandlee v. Tharp, 161 Miss. 623, 137 So. 540, 78 A.L.R. 445 (1931).

Wife of borrower, whose property was deeded to secure renewal note and was thereafter sold and the proceeds thereof applied to payment of usurious debt, could assert usury as basis for recovery of part of proceeds of foreclosure after applying interest payments as principal. Chandler v. Cooke, 163 Miss. 147, 137 So. 496 (1931).

Usurious interest under this section [Code 1942, § 36] may be recovered by a person paying it. Brewer v. Jones, 131 Miss. 545, 95 So. 519 (1923).

A junior mortgagee can show usury on the first mortgage. Wilczinski v. Smith, 110 Miss. 251, 70 So. 347 (1915).

Judgment creditors of an insolvent debtor can raise the question of usury charged in notes secured by deed of trust which constitutes the first lien on the debtor's property. Spinks v. Jordan, 108 Miss. 133, 66 So. 405 (1914).

Before a suit for the recovery of usurious interest can be maintained, the borrower must extinguish the principal debt due the lender, and all payments will be applied to such debt until it is satisfied.

Commercial Bank v. Auze, 74 Miss. 609, 21 So. 754 (1897).

29. Defense, usury as; estoppel.

Usury is a personal defense which is available only to the debtor. LaBarre v. Gold, 520 So. 2d 1327 (Miss. 1987).

In an action to enforce claims that defendant debtors had breached two retail installment contracts that had been assigned to plaintiff credit company, the defense of usury could not be asserted against plaintiff where it was a holder in due course; further, even if such defense could be asserted, the time-price doctrine took the transactions at issue outside the scope of this section. AgriStor Credit Corp. v. Lewellen, 472 F. Supp. 46 (N.D. Miss. 1979).

Usurious contract is not void but voidable at instance of debtor, who may assert it in court as defense. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

Execution of renewal note, after complaining interest too high but not contending illegal, held not to estop debtor from claiming transaction usurious. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

In suit by receivers of building and loan association to foreclose mortgage, answer alleging that contract did not involve a loan but a purchase price of property, and was therefore usurious because in excess of statutory rate of interest, held to state good defense. Kennedy v. Porter, 176 Miss. 742, 170 So. 286 (1936).

Usury is defense which must be pleaded, and, unless pleaded, judgment on usurious contract is valid. Chandlee v. Tharp, 161 Miss. 623, 137 So. 540, 78 A.L.R. 445 (1931).

A debtor must pay or tender into court the amount admitted to be due in an action to restrain the collection of a debt tainted with usury. Rush v. Pearson, 92 Miss. 153, 45 So. 723 (1908).

In an action of replevin by the trustee in a deed of trust given to secure a recited debt, the defendant may show illegality in a part of the debt and usury in other parts and is entitled to an appropriation of payments to the valid part of the debt. Puckett v. Fore, 77 Miss. 391, 27 So. 381 (1900).

A person may be estopped from setting up usury as a defense. Henderson v. Hartman, 65 Miss. 466, 4 So. 549 (1888).

The form of the contract does not cut off the defense of usury. McLaurin v. Parker, 24 Miss. 509 (1852).

Usury as a defense in whole or in part must be made before judgment, otherwise equity will not relieve. McRaven v. Forbes, 7 Miss. (6 Howard) 569 (1842); Yeizer v. Burke, Watt & Co., 11 Miss. (3 S. & M.) 439 (1844).

30. Limitation of time to sue, or for credit on principal.

Statute of limitations permitted credit of all payments on usurious loan between 1920 and 1934 to be credited on principal debt. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

Where from inception of loan in 1920 to foreclosure in 1934 there was continuous transaction of renewals and payments, and contract was usurious, statute of limitations was properly applied in permitting credit of payments on principal debt. Hardin v. Grenada Bank, 182 Miss. 689, 180 So. 805 (1938).

An obligation to repay interest collected upon a usurious agreement made so by this section [Code 1942, § 36], is an implied contract and a suit thereon will be barred within three years. Buntyn v. National Mut. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 86 Miss. 454, 38 So. 345 (1905).

The acknowledgment in writing required to take a case out of the provisions of the limitation act, under a former enactment thereof (Code of 1871, § 2279), existed where the holder of the note wrote to the maker requiring security by insurance, and the maker wrote the holder in answer "We think you will run no risk in that time, as the property would be worth the amount due you if the building were to burn down." Walsh v. Mayer, 111 U.S. 31, 4 S. Ct. 260, 28 L. Ed. 338 (1884).

31. Pleadings.

Bill of discovery to require a bank to furnish complainant with data concerning numerous small loan transactions between the parties in order to recover the principal and interest thereof on the ground that such transactions were usurious, alleging that complainant did not have in his possession or available to him any of the canceled notes, was not sufficient to entitle complainant to the relief prayed for in the absence of allegations that the canceled notes had become lost or destroyed, and if lost or misplaced, that they could not be located after diligent search. Williams v. Deposit Guar. Bank & Trust Co., 190 Miss. 685, 1 So. 2d 486 (1941).

III. Under Former Law.

32. Under former § 75-67-117.

The burden of proof is upon the borrowers to show that the lender-licensee did not furnish them with a statement showing the amount and date of the loan as provided in Code 1942, § 5591-09, or issue receipts to them for payments made on the loan as required by that section. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

Service charges earned by a loan broker are taxable for federal income tax purposes in the year in which received, although a portion of the service charge was retained by the lender and not refunded to the broker until a later taxing period. United States v. Britt, 335 F.2d 907 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied, 379 U.S. 971, 85 S. Ct. 669, 13 L. Ed. 2d 563 (1965).

Interest and service charges collectible on a loan repaid before maturity out of credit life insurance which the borrower was required to procure are based on the number of months which the loan had run before such repayment. Jackson Inv. Co. v. Wingo, 248 Miss. 388, 159 So. 2d 175 (1964).

Loan broker's service charges are not "interest" so as to render loan usurious. Hooper v. Aetna Fin. Co., 244 Miss. 799, 145 So. 2d 907 (1962).

That a borrower was charged seventeen cents in excess of the permissible amount does not invalidate the contract of loan. Powell v. Sowell, 245 Miss. 53, 145 So. 2d 168 (1962), error overruled, 245 Miss. 64, 146 So. 2d 576 (1962).

Transactions involving secured loans to consumer, though improvident, were permissible under the Small Loans Regulatory Law. Early v. Williams, 239 Miss. 320, 123 So. 2d 446 (1960).

§ 75-17-3. Evasion of six percent interest law; interest forfeited if higher rate secretly exacted.

If any person shall lend to another any sum of money and take any note or evidence of debt which shall stipulate a rate of interest not greater than six (6) per centum per annum after the date or after maturity, but who shall in fact contract for, charge, collect or receive as compensation or consideration for, or as the result of, such loan, directly or indirectly, a sum of money in excess of six (6) per centum per annum from the date of the loan, or a sum of money when taken with the interest contracted for, is in excess of six (6) per centum per annum from the date of the loan, such person shall forfeit all interest, and if the interest shall have been paid, same may be recovered by suit.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Particular applications.
3. Limitation of actions.

1. In general.

To entitle one to recover back payments under the statute, proof of usury must be clear, positive, and certain. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

The statute is highly penal and must be construed in favor of the creditor. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

In determining whether a transaction is tainted with usury, the court will look through the form to the substance. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

The court in determining the question whether persons are actually engaged in lending money at usurious rates of interest has a right to look through the forms which the transactions were made to assume and to base its decision upon the real facts. Alt v. Bailey, 211 Miss. 547, 52 So. 2d 283 (1951).

This statute [Code 1942, § 36] was enacted to prevent evasions of the statute (Code 1942, § 9697(v)), exempting from taxation notes and loans made at a rate of interest not greater than 6 percent per annum. Johnson v. Carter, 203 Miss. 38, 33 So. 2d 296 (1948).

This statute [Code 1942, § 36] does not embrace a note which was not designed to evade taxation under Code 1942, § 9697(v). Johnson v. Carter, 203 Miss. 38, 33 So. 2d 296 (1948).

This statute does not apply where the lender is a nonresident of the state. Armstrong v. Alliance Trust Co., 88 F.2d 449 (5th Cir. 1937).

2. Particular applications.

A trial judge in a divorce proceeding abused his discretion in not ordering the husband to pay prejudgment interest on $20,000 he had misappropriated from his children's trust funds, calculated from the date of each separate taking. Draper v. Draper, 658 So. 2d 866 (Miss. 1995).

That one lending money on interest to enable another to carry on a business, materials for which were to be purchased from him, also made a profit on such materials furnished on credit does not render the transaction usurious. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

Charge of $7.62 made up of interest at 6% on note for 30 days, service charge of $1.00 and transit time interest of $.94 for 5 days, paid May 31, 1946, on note dated May 1, 1946, due ninety days after date, is not usurious as holder of note collected less than it was entitled to demand. Hood v. First Nat'l Bank, 208 Miss. 658, 45 So. 2d 251 (1950).

Holder of note due specified number of days after date, and not on or before that date, with interest at rate of 6% per annum, is entitled to charge maker interest at rate of 6% per annum to maturity of note notwithstanding fact that note is actually paid before maturity, and even though holder waives portion, transaction is still not usurious when holder does not receive as much as it is entitled to demand on due date. Hood v. First Nat'l Bank, 208 Miss. 658, 45 So. 2d 251 (1950).

Note in principal amount to include interest at 6 percent for the first year in accordance with alleged oral agreement, reciting amount of interest to be 8 percent after maturity, but which in fact exceeded 6 percent because the maturity date was less than a year from the date of the note, is not within the purview of this section. Johnson v. Carter, 203 Miss. 38, 33 So. 2d 296 (1948).

Payment of maximum interest before due held not to constitute "usury." Beck v. Tucker, 147 Miss. 401, 113 So. 209 (1927).

3. Limitation of actions.

Three-year, and not six-year, statute applied to defendant's claim for overpayment on note based in part on usurious interest payments. Hawkins v. Ellis, 168 Miss. 428, 151 So. 569 (1934).

Three-year statute applies to suits to recover illegal or usurious interest. Beck v. Tucker, 147 Miss. 401, 113 So. 209 (1927).

The issues, bills, notes, bonds, or certificates of deposit of any bank, corporation, or association of persons formed for banking purposes, or possessing banking privileges, situated within or without the limits of this state, shall not be loaned in this state by any agent, officer or person employed by, or having any interest in or connection with, any such bank, corporation, or association of persons, at a greater rate of discount or interest than is allowed by the laws of this state. All contracts and agreements made in violation of the provisions of this section shall, as to the whole of the discount or interest allowed or paid, or agreed to be allowed or paid, be void, and the discount or interest may be recovered back by the person suffering such discount or paying such interest.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Even if check cashing service was involved in discounting negotiable instruments, rather than in making loans, civil usury statute's 8% allowable interest rate would be applicable. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

When negotiable instrument is purchased at discount, discount is limited to 8% interest limit set by civil usury statute. State v. Roderick, 704 So. 2d 49 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 703 So. 2d 863 (Miss. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 926, 118 S. Ct. 2319, 141 L. Ed. 2d 694 (1998).

1. In general.

In an action under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (ADEA), 29 U.S.C.S. §§ 621-634, where the appellate court held that the former employee was entitled to prejudgment and post-judgment interest, the appellate court noted that the "to be fair" language of Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 qualified the date used for awarding interest. It did not clothe the trial judge with discretion to award or not to award interest; the language of the statute indicated that post-judgment interest should be given, at a rate subject to the discretion of the court. Cash Distrib. Co. v. Neely, 947 So. 2d 317 (Miss. Ct. App. 2006).

Motion for post-judgment interest in a negligence action was not governed by the 10-day time period in Miss. R. Civ. P. 59(e) because the right to post-judgment interest was a statutory right governed by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7; therefore, a motion filed 58 days after judgment was timely under Miss. R. Civ. P. 60(a). Miss.

Dep't of Mental Health v. Hall, 936 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 2006).

Where a redevelopment agency and landowners entered into a settlement of their dispute, and the agreement stated that the parties acknowledged the issue of assessment of interest but it did not provide for a rate or award of interest on the amount to be paid by the agency, the first part of Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 was inapplicable to the facts. Tupelo Redevelopment Agency v. Abernathy, 913 So. 2d 278 (Miss. 2005).

In a defamation case, a court properly imposed post-judgment interest at a rate of eight percent where the court was within its discretion in imposing the eight percent postjudgment interest rate pursuant to the revised Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7. Morris Newspaper Corp. v. Allen, — So. 2d —, 2004 Miss. App. LEXIS 981 (Miss. Ct. App. Oct. 12, 2004).

Trial court erred in awarding prejudgment interest pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 because the principal amount was not fixed prior to the judgment; it was an abuse of discretion for the trial court to award the interest because no such award could have been rationally made given the circumstances. Coho Res., Inc. v. McCarthy, 829 So. 2d 1 (Miss. 2002).

The trial judge's awarding of interest at the rate of eight percent after date of entry of the order was within his discretion under the statute. Preferred Risk Mut. Ins. Co. v. Johnson, 730 So. 2d 574 (Miss. 1998).

Municipality is not liable for payment of interest on arbitration award. City of Meridian v. Algernon Blair, Inc., 615 F. Supp. 709 (S.D. Miss. 1985).

Since judgment making award of impleaded fund is "judgment in rem," impleading plaintiff is not liable for interest after payment into court, under this section [Code 1942, § 39] since it applies only to "judgment in personam." Gayden v. Kirk, 208 Miss. 283, 44 So. 2d 410, 15 A.L.R.2d 471 (1950).

Where decree against insurance company included interest to time funds were paid into court, decree properly provided that amount due should bear interest. Aetna Ins. Co. v. Natchez Hotel Co., 160 Miss. 818, 134 So. 582 (1931).

A case where six percent interest was properly allowed from the date of the action by a verdict against municipality. Town of Senatobia v. Ryan, 106 Miss. 413, 63 So. 680 (1913).

The statute does not include allowances made by a county. Board of Supvrs. v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807 (1876).

2. Interest allowable from date of verdict or judgment.

Where the wards prevailed in their suit against the bank for the misappropriation of funds from a guardianship account, the chancery court erred by awarding the wards prejudgment interest under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 in the amount of $347,385.62; the chancery court erred in calculating prejudgment interest from a date prior to the filing of the complaint. Because the bank was not grossly negligent and did not engage in fraud or intentional misconduct, the bank's actions did not support an award of compound interest; the chancery court did not abuse its discretion by awarding prejudgment interest at the rate of eight percent per annum, compounded annually to compensate for the time value of the money due as damages. Williams v. Duckett (In re Duckett), 991 So. 2d 1165 (Miss. 2008).

Trial court was within its discretion in imposing an eight percent post-judgment interest rate pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 in the anchorperson's breach of contract action. Morris Newspaper Corp. v. Allen, — So. 2d —, 2004 Miss. App. LEXIS 1189 (Miss. Ct. App. Oct. 12, 2004).

In a condemnation proceeding, the trial court erred when it compounded the interest and made a distinction between pre- and post-judgment interest because the eminent domain statutory scheme provided a specific provision for interest in Miss. Code Ann. § 11-27-19, and eminent domain judgments were not based on notes, accounts, sales or contracts; therefore, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1(1) and Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7 did not apply to eminent domain judgments, and also "legal interest" was simple interest, not compounded interest. Dedeaux Util. Co. v. City of Gulfport, 938 So. 2d 838 (Miss. 2006).

Post-judgment interest over and above the statutory cap may be awarded against a governmental entity because such is not excluded under Miss. Code Ann. § 11-46-15(2). Miss. Dep't of Mental Health v. Hall, 936 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 2006).

On appeal with supersedeas from a chancellor ordered judgment for past due child support of $3,000, the Supreme Court would allow the statutory penalty under Mississippi Code § 75-17-7, together with interest on the delinquent court ordered support from the due date of each unpaid payment. Calton v. Calton, 485 So. 2d 309 (Miss. 1986).

In proceeding to enforce past due child support, court must assess interest at legal rate on each past due payment from date that payment became due; sums paid by supporting spouse at time spouse is in arrears is applied first to interest obligations, then to extinguish principal amount of oldest outstanding support payment, then next oldest unpaid payment, and so forth. Brand v. Brand, 482 So. 2d 236 (Miss. 1986).

The trial court erred in failing to provide pursuant to § 75-17-7 for the payment of interest on past-due child support payments from the date of the entry of the decree adjudging the father to be in default of such payments. Walters v. Walters, 383 So. 2d 827 (Miss. 1980).

Plaintiffs who were wrongfully discharged from their professional positions with a school district were entitled to prejudgment interest on their back pay awards and, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the proper rate of interest was the statutorily allowed six percent. Ayers v. Western Line Consol. Sch. Dist., 404 F. Supp. 1225 (N.D. Miss. 1975), rev'd on other grounds, 555 F.2d 1309 (5th Cir. 1977), reh'g denied, 564 F.2d 97 (5th Cir. 1977), reh'g denied, 564 F.2d 98 (5th Cir. 1977), vacated in part, 439 U.S. 410, 99 S. Ct. 693, 58 L. Ed. 2d 619 (1979), on remand, 592 F.2d 280 (5th Cir. 1979).

Where the judgment of the trial court in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $2500 was affirmed on condition that defendant agreed to an additur of $10,000, plaintiff's motion to add interest on the additur from the date of the judgment in the trial court was overruled. Altom v. Wood, 300 So. 2d 786 (Miss. 1974).

The assessment of interest at the rate of 6 percent from the date of the entry of a decree in a lower court until satisfied is correct, and the fact that the judgment debtor appealed to the Supreme Court, thereby postponing prompt payment of the judgment against him, is immaterial. Porter v. Ainsworth, 288 So. 2d 709 (Miss. 1974).

Where judgment had been obtained against the operator of an automobile which struck and killed a flagman during the course of a drag race, and a subsequent judgment had been obtained against the insurer of the involved vehicle, interest was properly computed on the first judgment from the date of that judgment, since the supreme court of Mississippi has held in many cases that interest will be paid at the legal rate of 6 percent from the date of judgment. United States Fid. & Guar. Co. v. Stafford, 253 So. 2d 388 (Miss. 1971), overruled on other grounds, State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Mettetal, 534 So. 2d 189 (Miss. 1988).

When a judgment based on a tort is reduced by the supreme court by remittitur, in lieu of reversal, the judgment bears interest from its date in the trial court at the statutory rate of six percentum. Illinois Cent. R.R. v. Nelson, 245 Miss. 411,

Where a case has been remanded for a new trial unless part of the damages shall be remitted, plaintiff, upon entering the remittitur, is entitled to 6% interest on the reduced amount from the date of the original judgment. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n v. Herring, 241 Miss. 729, 133 So. 2d 895 (1961), corrected, 241 Miss. 737, 133 So. 2d 895 (1961).

In a suit against guarantors of a check, interest is allowable only from the date of the decree, and not from the date of the check. Presley v. American Guarantee & Liab. Ins. Co., 237 Miss. 807, 116 So. 2d 410 (1959).

Since interest is allowable on judgments rather than on verdicts, interest would be allowed plaintiff in a tort action only from the date the Supreme Court entered judgment in his favor, reversing a judgment which had been entered in defendant's favor below notwithstanding a jury verdict for plaintiff, rather than the date of jury's verdict. Grice v. Central Elec. Power Ass'n, 230 Miss. 437, 96 So. 2d 909 (1957), but see, In re Mississippi Rules of Appellate Procedure, slip op. (Miss. Dec. 15, 1994).

Where Federal Crop Insurance Corporation defaulted in payment of insurance benefits as a result of crop failure, interest of six percent per annum on the judgment follows as a matter of law. Federal Crop Ins. Corp. v. DeCell, 222 Miss. 643, 76 So. 2d 826 (1955).

Where City of Jackson assessed property and there was an unsuccessful appeal with an award being made to the city of 10 percent statutory damages for unsuccessful appeal from tax assessment, the judgment was subject to interest at the rate of 6 percent from date of judgment. Sellers v. City of Jackson, 221 Miss. 150, 75 So. 2d 265 (1954).

Where judgment was rendered in favor of state tax collector recovering premium tax on consideration paid for annuity contracts written in the state by insurance companies, judgment would be rendered for only the amount of taxes due, without the assessment of any interest. State ex rel. Gully v. Mutual Life Ins. Co., 189 Miss. 830, 198 So. 763 (1940).

3. Judgments and decrees based on contract.

In a contract dispute regarding damage caused to equipment owned by a utilities commission, a trial judge did not err by awarding prejudgment interest under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7; the argument that Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1 applied was rejected. Upchurch Plumbing, Inc. v. Greenwood Utils. Comm'n, 964 So. 2d 1100 (Miss. 2007).

When a contractor damaged a utilities commission's equipment in the process of testing a control system the contractor installed, the trial court's award of prejudgment interest to the commission was proper because it was authorized by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7. Upchurch Plumbing, Inc. v. Greenwood Utils. Comm'n, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 225 (Miss. Apr. 19, 2007).

When a utilities commission sued a contractor for damaging the commission's equipment in the process of testing a defective control system the contractor installed, the calculation of prejudgment interest the commission was awarded was controlled by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7, instead of Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-1(1) because it was apparent that § 75-17-1(1) allowed trial judges to award prejudgment interest only where a contract in issue specifically allowed it, but nothing in the statute said prejudgment interest could only be awarded where a contract provided for it. Upchurch Plumbing, Inc. v. Greenwood Utils. Comm'n, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 225 (Miss. Apr. 19, 2007).

Circuit court exceeded the scope of the Supreme Court's mandate when it ordered that the Public Employees' Retirement System pay interest on the employee's disability benefits. The Supreme Court's mandate had simply required benefits to be restored, with back pay. Pub. Emples. Ret. Sys. v. Freeman, 868 So. 2d 327 (Miss. 2004).

There were bona fide disputes in the case regarding both liability and damages; as a result, the court, in its discretion, found that an award of prejudgment interest was not warranted. Miss. Chem. Corp. v. Dresser-Rand Co., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21965 (S.D. Miss. Sept. 12, 2000), aff'd, 287 F.3d 359 (5th Cir. 2002).

The trial court was free to determine the calculation of the rate of pre-judgment interest payable to the prevailing party. Estate of Baxter v. Shaw Assocs., 797 So. 2d 396 (Miss. Ct. App. 2001).

Where (1) the complaint was founded upon a written contract, (2) the contract provided for interest at the contract rate of 34.71% per annum, (3) there was no finding of fact or allegation that this rate was not within the rates allowed by law, and (4) the rate was below the maximum finance charges allowed by the Mississippi Small Loan Law [§§ 75-67-101 et seq.], the circuit court erred in awarding interest on the judgment at the rate of 8% per annum rather than the contract rate. Tower Loan of Miss., Inc. v. Jones, 749 So. 2d 189 (Miss. Ct. App. 1999).

Amount of damages was liquidated, as required to support award of prejudgment interest, in action on fire insurance policy, where there was no dispute that house and its contents were total loss and that house and its contents were worth amount for which they were insured. Allstate Ins. Co. v. McGory, 697 So. 2d 1171 (Miss. 1997).

In a breach of contract action, prejudgment interest from the date the complaint was filed should have been awarded to the plaintiff pursuant to § 75-17-7 where the contract did not designate any interest, but the amount of damages was certain. American Fire Protection, Inc. v. Lewis, 653 So. 2d 1387 (Miss. 1995).

A bank failed to demonstrate any abuse of discretion in a trial judge's decision to award prejudgment interest to a debtor who was charged a usurious interest rate on 203 forbearance agreements extending written promissory notes where the judge computed the prejudgment interest based on unequivocal data jointly supplied by the debtor and the bank which furnished the payment history of all the notes. Sunburst Bank v. Keith, 648 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1995).

In an action by a debtor against a bank to cancel the principal and interest in a promissory note and a deed of trust securing the note, the trial court properly considered a defunct judgment which had been obtained by the bank against the debtor and her husband in determining the debtor's liability to the bank where the defunct judgment was a sufficient basis to form the consideration for a component part of a new obligation entered into by the debtor; however, the trial court erred in computing the amount of consideration to include interest on the principal of the judgment debt beyond the seven years after the rendition of the judgment as provided in § 15-1-43. Under the provisions of § 75-17-7 interest should have been charged at the rate of eight percent per year for seven years to determine the amount of the former legal obligation where the note leading to the earlier judgment had provided for interest of eight percent per year. Keller v. Citizens Bank, 399 So. 2d 1332 (Miss. 1981).

Successful plaintiffs in an action to recover an amount due under a highway contract were entitled to interest from the time that the money sued for became due rather than from the time of judgment. Trinidad Asphalt Mfg. Co. v. Gregory, 166 F.2d 745 (5th Cir. 1948).

4. Workers' compensation cases.

Under § 75-17-7, an injured employee was entitled to interest on past due compensation only from the date the employee filed his petition to controvert. Smith v. Jackson Constr. Co., 607 So. 2d 1119 (Miss. 1992).

A claimant is entitled to interest on unpaid instalments of a referee's award from their due dates until the commission's modification of the award. Busby v. Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp., 236 Miss. 870, 112 So. 2d 376 (1959).

On reversing a denial of death benefits, the supreme court will leave it to the commission to say whether penalty should be imposed, but will direct the allowance of interest of six percent on death benefits from the date the beneficiaries were entitled to receive them. Russell v. Sohio S. Pipe Lines, 236 Miss. 722, 112 So. 2d 357 (1959).

Claimants were entitled to interest at 6 percent per annum from the respective due dates of workers' compensation payments until paid or tendered. Harris v. Suggs, 233 Miss. 533, 102 So. 2d 696 (1958); Grubbs v. Revell Furn. Co., 234 Miss. 319, 106 So. 2d 390 (1958); Fair Stores v. Bryant, 238 Miss. 434, 118 So. 2d 295 (1960); Davis v. Clark-Burt Roofing Co., 238 Miss. 464 (1960).

Interest on workers' compensation payments begins on their due dates, and not on the date of the supreme court's judgment reversing denial of award. Goodnite v. Farm Equip. Co., 234 Miss. 360, 106 So. 2d 683 (1958).

Supreme court on reversing denial of compensation may require payment of interest on each instalment from its due date until paid. Goodnite v. Farm Equip. Co., 234 Miss. 360, 106 So. 2d 683 (1958).

Interest on compensation payments prior to date of supreme court's judgment, reversing a denial of compensation, denied. Poole v. R.F. Learned & Son, 234 Miss. 362, 103 So. 2d 396 (1958).

Upon the affirmance of an award of workers' compensation payments to the deceased employee's parents, who were found to be partially dependent upon the employee, claimant's motion for five percent statutory damages, and six percent interest on all instalments which then had become due and remained unpaid, was sustained, as was their motion for attorneys' fees in the amount of one third of the award. Mid-State Paving Co. v. Farthing, 233 Miss. 333, 101 So. 2d 850 (1958).

On a motion to correct judgment, supreme court adjudged that each installment of workers' compensation should bear 6% interest from its date until paid, and the claimant was entitled to 5% damages on unpaid installments with interest that had accrued to date. United States Fid. & Guar. Co. v. Collins, 231 Miss. 319, 96 So. 2d 456 (1957).

In a workers' compensation proceeding, a claimant who was awarded only permanent partial disability benefits when he was entitled to temporary total disability benefits until he recovered from an operation and attained maximum recovery, was, upon motion, entitled to 5% damages, and 6% interest. Houston Contract- ing Co. v. Reed, 231 Miss. 213, 95 So. 2d 231 (1957).

Where the supreme court reversed the trial court's overturning of a workers' Compensation Board order allowing employee compensation for 50 percent loss of wage earning capacity, employee's motion for 6 percent interest was sustained to the extent that each weekly instalment of compensation should bear interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from its due date until paid. Russell v. Southeastern Utils. Serv. Co., 230 Miss. 272, 92 So. 2d 544 (1957).

5. Domestic relations cases.

Because the voluntary termination of a father's parental rights under Miss. Code Ann. § 93-15-103(3)(a) extinguished his obligation to pay child support, a mother and child were not able to later recover support after 1984; however, a chancellor did not err by setting an eight percent interest rate on the amounts due prior to this date under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7. Beasnett v. Arledge, 934 So. 2d 345 (Miss. Ct. App. 2006).

In a divorce case, the husband's entitlement to an additional payment from the wife remained an unliquidated claim until the date of the judgment, as a result, he was not entitled to postjudgment interest. Jones v. Jones, 904 So. 2d 1143 (Miss. Ct. App. 2004).

Award of back child support of $ 89,848 and of interest at eight percent per annum was proper, as the chancellor had the discretion to set the rate of interest pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 75-17-7. As to the amount of interest awarded, notwithstanding the lower interest rates at the time of the judgment, the child support payments owed by the husband were due over several years in which interest rates fluctuated; thus, the chancellor did not abuse his discretion. Houck v. Ousterhout, 861 So. 2d 1000 (Miss. 2003).

Where a trial court awarded a child support arrearage against a father and in favor of an adult child on the mother's action to recover arrearages, the trial court erred in failing to award interest on the amount owed. Ladner v. Logan, 857 So. 2d 764 (Miss. 2003).

Chancery court did not abuse its discretion and was not manifestly in error in assessing interest on the judgment entered against the husband at the rate of three percent per annum because the court found no authority holding it an abuse of discretion or manifest error for the chancellor to set interest at that rate. Brawdy v. Howell, 841 So. 2d 1175 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003).

With regard to child support, each unpaid monthly obligation begins to accrue interest at the legal rate, not from the time it may subsequently be formally reduced to judgment by a contempt or other appropriate enforcement proceeding, but from the time the obligation became due and owing and was not paid, and, further, such interest may not be abrogated by the chancellor on some perceived equitable ground. Dorr v. Dorr, 797 So. 2d 1008 (Miss. Ct. App. 2001).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Although civil judgments and decrees accumulate interest, there is no authority for adding interest to a criminal fine or assessment. Butani, Feb. 4, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0053.

A judgment rendered on a contract automatically bears interest at the same rate evidenced by the contract; on all other judgments or on a judgment rendered on a contract that is silent as to an interest rate, the justice court judge has the authority to set a fair rate of interest to be earned on that judgment; however, if a judge does not set any interest to be earned by a judgment, it is implied that such a judgment does not earn any interest. Aldridge, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0507.

§ 75-17-9. Partial payments applied.

When partial payments are made, the interest that has accrued to the time of payment, if any, shall be first paid, and the residue of such partial payment shall be placed to the payment of the principal, except that the parties may agree in writing that such partial payment, or any portion thereof, shall be applied first to the payment of principal, in which case the residue shall be applied to the payment of interest that has accrued to the time of payment.

1. In general.

Under Miss Code § 75-17-9, debtor's partial payments, if any, should be applied first to interest accrued on its indebtedness to date partial payment was received, and then to principal amount owing on debt. Southern Natural Gas Co. v. Pursue Energy, 781 F.2d 1079 (5th Cir. 1986).

Even if debtor had right at common law to direct his payments between principal and interest, that right has been abrogated by Miss Code § 75-17-9, which must be applied as it is written. Southern Natural Gas Co. v. Pursue Energy, 781 F.2d 1079 (5th Cir. 1986).

A note promising to pay to the named payee or order a stated sum at fixed times is negotiable on its face, and governed by the Negotiable Instruments Law though bearing limited indorsements. Fish Meal

Co. v. Brondum, 242 Miss. 573, 135 So. 2d 825 (1961).

Courts apply payments most beneficially for the debtor, where there is no agreement between creditor and debtor as to application. Sunflower County v. Bank of Drew, 136 Miss. 191, 101 So. 192 (1924).

Partial payments are applied first to the interest when the same equals or exceeds the interest accrued, not before. Brooks v. Robinson, 54 Miss. 272 (1876).

2. Particular applications.

Where at the time two lump sum payments were made none of the instalment payments were barred, the proceeds of the lump sum payments should have been applied first to the payment of the interest accrued on the indebtedness to the date of the receipt of such partial payments, and the residue of such partial payments should have been applied to the payment of the oldest unpaid instalments of the indebtedness. Freeman v. Truitt, 238 Miss. 623, 119 So. 2d 765 (1960).

Where plaintiff's indebtedness to defendant bank was to be scaled down to $2350, pursuant to an agreement under which a Federal land bank granted plaintiff's application for a loan, but defendant bank took a new note for $2800, the true balance owing by plaintiff at the time of the agreement was $2350, and, as provided by this section [Code 1942, § 40], subsequent payments by plaintiff should be credited first to interest and the balance applied to the principal in ascertaining the amount due the defendant bank. Jones v. Hernandez Bank, 194 Miss. 474, 13 So. 2d 31 (1943).

Payment to recompense creditor for interest paid by him after extending due date held to be a violation of law authorizing the forfeiture of interest on exacting more than six per cent; A cause of action to recover usurious or illegal interest does not accrue until payment of the principal of the debt. Beck v. Tucker, 147 Miss. 401, 113 So. 209 (1927).

The payment of maximum rate of interest before due held not to constitute usury. Beck v. Tucker, 147 Miss. 401, 113 So. 209 (1927).

This section was applicable to the partial payment of a judgment bearing interest. Meek v. Alexander, 137 Miss. 117, 102 So. 69 (1924).

Damages of five per centum allowed by statute upon the affirmance of a judgment would be calculated on the amount of the judgment rendered by the trial court, and not on the balance remaining after the partial payment of the judgment with the reservation of the right to review the entire judgment. Meek v. Alexander, 137 Miss. 117, 102 So. 69 (1924).

Where partial payments are made, interest should be computed on the principal debt to the date of the first payment, where this equals or exceeds the amount of the interest then due, and this sum should then be deducted from the aggregate of the principal and interest, and the process repeated as to successive payments. Where the payment does not equal or exceed the amount of interest due at the time when it is made, interest on the first principal should be computed until such time as the aggregate partial payments made equal or exceed the amount of interest due when the payment was made, which, with prior payments, equals or exceeds the accrued interest, and such aggregate should then be deducted from the sum of the original principal and accrued interest, the balance constituting a new principal. Kimbrough v. Carter, 129 Miss. 337, 92 So. 228 (1922).

Where land was sold on the deferred payment plan, a series of notes being given, and it was provided that interest on all of the notes should be payable annually, and that the purchaser might sell timber from the lands and apply the proceeds on the notes, payments thus made should be applied first to the accrued interest, and the balance to the payment of the principal. Tonkel v. Shields, 125 Miss. 461, 87 So. 646 (1921).

§ 75-17-11. Rate of interest, amount of finance charge or rate of finance charge where specified to be paid at period of less than one year; payment earlier than final maturity; computation of interest upon prepayment of note; usurious rates; notes containing final balloon payment.

When any particular rate of interest per annum or amount of finance charge or rate of finance charge is specified in any contract, note or evidence of indebtedness, it shall not be construed as any increase of said rate of interest or amount of finance charge or rate of finance charge merely that the interest at the specified rate per annum or amount of finance charge or rate of finance charge is stipulated to be paid quarterly, or semiannually, or at any other period less than a year, nor shall the fact that the principal and interest or finance charge is paid at a date earlier than the final maturity date of the contract, note or evidence of indebtedness be taken as any increase of the rate per centum or amount of finance charge or rate of finance charge although paid for the whole period of the contract, note or evidence of indebtedness and regardless of whether or not there is a contractual right of prepayment. Upon prepayment of any contract, note or evidence of indebtedness with the agreement of the lender or holder of such contract, note or evidence of indebtedness before final maturity, whether voluntarily, involuntarily by acceleration or otherwise, and whether by cash, renewal or otherwise, any rebate of interest or finance charge may be computed by the sum of the digits method, commonly referred to as the Rule of 78's method, by the actuarial method, or by the simple interest method. The use of any such method to compute a rebate of interest or finance charge shall not be considered or result in any penalty, prepayment or otherwise, nor be deemed to increase the yield, annual percentage rate, amount of finance charge, rate of finance charge, amount of interest charge, or rate of interest charge. Any such contract, note, or evidence of indebtedness and all provisions thereof shall be valid for the amount of the principal, interest, and finance charges contracted for or received, and such contract, note or evidence of indebtedness shall not be held usurious. However, with respect to a note containing a final balloon payment provision originally payable to a bank and executed after July 1, 1990, the Rule of 78's method may not be used to compute any rebate of finance charges that may be due upon prepayment if the resulting yield would be usurious.

"SECTION 3. If any provision of any section of this act or the application thereof to any circumstance or person or entity is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision of that section or application of the section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable."

1. In general.

Statute providing that rate of interest specified in contract shall not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment of interest at periods of less than one year held not construable as curative statute with retrospective effect. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Ham, 178 Miss. 838, 173 So. 672 (1937).

Statutory provision that rate of interest specified in contract shall not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment in period less than one year held ineffective as mandatory direction for retroactive construction of statute, since courts rather than legislature must construe laws for past, although legislature may determine what law shall be. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Ham, 178 Miss. 838, 173 So. 672 (1937).

As respects retroactive operation of statute providing that rate of interest should not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment in period of less than one year, statute authorizing recovery of usurious interest creates right arising from contract and not right to recover "penalty." Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Ham, 178 Miss. 838, 173 So. 672 (1937).

Statute for recovery of usurious interest, and statute providing rate of interest should not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment in period less than year, must be construed in pari materia in connection with Code provision that repeal of statutes thereby should not affect prior rights. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Dorsey, 178 Miss. 852, 173 So. 669 (1937).

Statute providing rate of interest shall not be construed as increased by stipulation for payment at periods less than year held prospective and not retroactive. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Dorsey, 178 Miss. 852, 173 So. 669 (1937).

2. Particular applications.

Holder of note due specified number of days after date, and not on or before that date, with interest at rate of 6% per annum, is entitled to charge maker interest at rate of 6% per annum to maturity of note notwithstanding fact that note is actually paid before maturity, and even though holder waives portion, transaction is still not usurious when holder does not receive as much as it is entitled to demand on due date. Hood v. First Nat'l Bank, 208 Miss. 658, 45 So. 2d 251 (1950).

Charge of $7.62 made up of interest at 6% on note for 30 days, service charge of $1.00 and transit time interest of $.94 for 5 days, paid May 31, 1946, on note dated May 1, 1946, due ninety days after date, is not usurious as holder of note collected less than it was entitled to demand. Hood v. First Nat'l Bank, 208 Miss. 658, 45 So. 2d 251 (1950).

A stipulation that notes given for interest shall bear interest after maturity is not usurious. Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Dattel, 83 F.2d 504 (5th Cir. 1936), cert. denied, 299 U.S. 567, 57 S. Ct. 30, 81 L. Ed. 417 (1936).

§ 75-17-13. Liability for issuance of unsolicited credit cards; penalty for collection of excessive finance charge.

If any credit card is issued to a person who has not requested or accepted by use the issuance of such credit card, the issuer shall be liable to the person whose name appears on the credit card for any damages or expenses, or both, including attorney's fees, which the person incurs due to the use of such credit card without permission of the person to whom it is issued by any person other than the person to whom it is issued or members of his immediate family. Any person who shall willfully collect finance charges under a revolving charge agreement in excess of the maximum permitted under Section 75-17-19 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, may be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). Each account on which such excess finance charges shall be collected shall constitute a separate offense.

§ 75-17-17. Law governing loans made or credit extended prior to July 1, 1974.

Loans made and credit extended prior to July 1, 1974, shall continue to be governed by the provisions of laws governing such loans and extensions of credit which were in force at the time such loans or extensions of credit were made, including laws repealed hereby except that finance charges contracted for or received prior to July 1, 1974, shall not be unlawful if the finance charge contracted for or received conforms with the provisions of this act [Laws, 1972, Ch. 564] or other law then in effect. ## JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A loan consummated before July 1, 1974, but paid in full thereafter but before maturity, in the absence of a prepayment clause, was not altered so as to render this section applicable. The terms of this section do not include, and were not intended to include, the payment of a note in full, thereby terminating it. Ashley v. Cumberland Fin. Servs., Inc., 374 So. 2d 802 (Miss. 1979).

§ 75-17-19. Finance charges for credit extended pursuant to revolving charge agreement; annual fees for membership in credit card plan; late payment charges; billing and collection of finance charges; finance charges for closed end credit sales; issuer and debtor may agree to certain terms; 30-day's notice to debtor of any modification of terms.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any retail seller and any lender or issuer of credit cards may contract for and receive a finance charge for credit sales of goods, services or merchandise certificates or for cash advanced or other credit extended pursuant to a revolving charge agreement by applying a periodic rate no greater than one and three-fourths percent (1-¾%) per month to:

(a) The average daily balance of the account, exclusive of finance charge, in each billing period;

(b) An amount that shall not exceed the balance of the account, exclusive of finance charge, on the first day of each billing period without adding purchases or miscellaneous debits to the account during the billing period; or

(c) Any balance of the account during each billing period which does not produce an amount of finance charge in excess of that permitted by (a) or (b).

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision of law to the contrary, any bank which is an issuer of credit cards may contract for and receive, in addition to any finance charges authorized by law, an annual fee for membership in a credit card plan pursuant to a revolving charge agreement and such fee shall not be considered a finance charge. Such fee shall not exceed Twelve Dollars ($12.00) per year for an account where the cardholder is a natural person. However, any credit card issuer which does so contract for an annual membership fee may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, contract for and receive a finance charge for credit sales of goods, services or merchandise certificates or for cash advanced or other credit extended pursuant to a revolving charge agreement by applying a periodic rate no greater than one and one-half percent (1-½%) per month to:

(a) The average daily balance of the account, exclusive of finance charge, in each billing period;

(b) An amount that shall not exceed the balance of the account, exclusive of finance charge, on the first day of each billing period without adding purchases or miscellaneous debits to the account during the billing period; or

(c) Any balance of the account during each billing period which does not produce an amount of finance charge in excess of that permitted by (a) or (b).

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision of law to the contrary, any bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards may contract for and receive, in addition to any finance charges authorized by law, late payment charges in connection with the credit sales of goods, services or merchandise certificates or for cash advanced pursuant to a revolving charge agreement in such amounts and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed to in writing by the bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards and the borrower or debtor, and such charges and fees shall not be considered a finance charge.

(4) No finance charge may be charged or collected for purchases made by the use of credit cards or credit sales of goods or services or merchandise certificates if the outstanding balance of the account existing on the first day of the billing statement where such purchases initially appear is paid in full within one (1) month after such billing statement date. If a finance charge is otherwise due and the amount of the finance charge so computed shall be less than Fifty Cents (50¢) for any such month, a finance charge of Fifty Cents (50¢) for any such month may be charged, received and collected. Any payment made pursuant to a revolving charge agreement shall be applied first to any finance charge shown to be due on the billing statement, next to repayment of cash advanced or other credit extended, and finally to the chronological repayment of purchases of goods, services or merchandise certificates. The billing statement shall not state that Mississippi law requires the imposition of a finance charge. The term "month" as used in this subsection and in subsections (1) and (2) of this section means either (a) a calendar month or (b) a minimum of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days, or (c) the number of days elapsing between the same numerical calendar day of successive calendar months, or (d) a number of days which does not vary by more than four (4) days from such period nor result in more than twelve (12) billing periods per year. "Revolving charge agreement" means an agreement by the terms of which retail sellers may sell goods, services, merchandise certificates, or by which a lender or issuer finances the purchase of goods or services or by which a lender makes cash advances, by the use of credit cards or otherwise, pursuant to which the amount financed is payable either within a stated period or in installments over a period of time, and the terms of which may provide for finance charges to be assessed on the unpaid balance as it exists from time to time; the term "revolving charge agreement" does not include the lending of money evidenced by a promissory note. The term "cash advances" includes credit extended by a lender to a borrower, or to any other person for the account of a borrower, pursuant to a written agreement, by the use of checks, drafts or other similar instruments.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision of law to the contrary, any retail seller may contract for and receive a finance charge for closed end credit sales of goods, tangible property or services, other than pursuant to a revolving charge agreement, which will result in a yield not to exceed the following annual percentage rates calculated according to the actuarial method:

(a) Twenty-four percent (24%) per annum on that part of the unpaid balance of the amount financed which is Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) or less; and

(b) Twenty-one percent (21%) per annum on that part of the unpaid balance of the amount financed which is more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00).

(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provisions of law to the contrary, any bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards may provide in the written credit card agreement for such products, services, charges and fees as the bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards and the debtor may agree upon (excluding, however, the finance charges provided for in subsection (1) of this section), and such other terms and conditions as the bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards and the debtor may agree upon from time to time, and the costs associated with those products, services, charges and fees shall not be considered a finance charge or an annual fee. If any bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards desires to modify in any respect any term of the credit card account, it shall first provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the modification to the debtor. In providing that notice, the bank, retail seller, lender or other issuer of credit cards shall advise the debtor in writing that the debtor has the option (a) to surrender the credit card, in which case the debtor shall have the right to continue to pay off the credit card account in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions as then in effect; or (b) to hold the credit card after the thirty-day period has elapsed, or to use the credit card during that period, either of which shall constitute the debtor's consent to the modification.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1986, ch. 510, § 17, effective July 1, 1986, provides as follows:

"SECTION 17. This act shall not be construed as stating explicitly and by its terms that the State of Mississippi does not want the provisions of Sections 501(a)(1), 511, and 521 through 523 of the Depository Institutions Deregulation and Monetary Control Act of 1980, as amended, to apply with respect to loans, mortgages, credit sales, and advances made in this state, and the preemption of state law provided by such sections, as amended, shall remain in full force and effect in the State of Mississippi."

§ 75-17-21. Maximum finance charges by licensees under Small Loan Regulatory Law and Small Loan Privilege Tax Law; closing fees.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the maximum finance charge which may be contracted for and received for any loan or extension of credit made by a licensee under the Small Loan Regulatory Law (Section 75-67-101 et seq.) and the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Section 75-67-201 et seq.) may result in a yield not to exceed the following annual percentage rates calculated according to the actuarial method:

(a) Thirty-six percent (36%) per annum for the portion of the unpaid balance of the amount financed that is not greater than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00);

(b) Thirty-three percent (33%) per annum for the portion of the unpaid balance of the amount financed in excess of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) but not greater than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00);

(c) Twenty-four percent (24%) per annum for the portion of the unpaid balance of the amount financed in excess of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) but not greater than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00);

(d) Fourteen percent (14%) per annum for the portion of the unpaid balance of the amount financed in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

(2) As an alternative and in lieu of the rates established in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1), on loans in an amount of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) or more, a licensee may contract for and receive a maximum finance charge which will result in a yield not to exceed an annual percentage rate, calculated according to the actuarial method, of eighteen percent (18%) per annum on the unpaid balance of the amount financed.

(3) A licensee may contract for and charge a closing fee as follows:

(a) For loans in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or less, four percent (4%) of the total payments due on the loan or Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), whichever is greater;

(b) For loans in an amount greater than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), a maximum charge of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

Such closing fee shall not be part of the finance charge.

(4) The rates set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) may be increased by the number of percentage points by which the discount rate, excluding any surcharge thereon, on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the Federal Reserve bank in the Federal Reserve district where the lender is located exceeds eight percent (8%), and the rates set forth in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) may be increased by the number of percentage points by which the discount rate, excluding any surcharge thereon, on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the Federal Reserve bank in the Federal Reserve district where the lender is located exceeds ten percent (10%).

The finance charges authorized in this section are the maximum rates which may be contracted for or received for any loan or extension of credit made by a licensee under the Small Loan Regulatory Law (Section 75-67-101 et seq.), and the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Section 75-67-201 et seq.). Nothing in this section shall prohibit lending money or handling, negotiating or arranging loans for a finance charge that is less than that specified herein. This section does not limit or restrict the manner of contracting for the finance charge, whether by way of add-on, discount or otherwise, so long as the annual percentage rate of the finance charge does not exceed that permitted by this section.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The rates provided for in the Small Loan Regulatory Act (Sections 75-67-101 et seq.) and the Small Loan Privilege Act (Sections 75-56-201 et seq.) are specifically set out in Section 75-17-21 and that these rates prevail and control the finance charges and interest that may be charged for all loans made by small loan lenders, regardless of whether the loans made by the small loan lenders are secured by motor vehicles or factory manufactured moveable homes. Napier, November 15, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0728.

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the maximum finance charge which may be contracted for or received for any loan or extension of credit made by any lender or by any retail seller in connection with sales of factory manufactured moveable homes may result in a yield not to exceed the following annual percentage rates calculated according to the actuarial method:

(a) Twenty-five percent (25%) per annum on that part of the unpaid balance of the amount financed which does not exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00);

(b) Eighteen percent (18%) per annum on that part of the unpaid balance of the amount financed which is more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) but does not exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00);

(c) The greater of fifteen percent (15%) per annum or five percent (5%) per annum above the discount rate, excluding any surcharge thereon, on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the Federal Reserve bank in the Federal Reserve district where the lender or retail seller is located, on that

§ 75-17-25. Meaning of "finance charge"; exclusion of prepayment penalties and default charges; effect of excessive finance charge.

The term "finance charge" as used in this section, Sections 75-17-1, 75-17-11, 75-17-13, 75-17-15, 75-17-17, 75-17-19, 75-17-21, 75-17-23, 75-17-27, 75-17-29, 75-17-33, 63-19-43, 75-67-127 and 75-67-217 means the amount or rate paid or payable, directly or indirectly, by a debtor for receiving a loan or incident to or as a condition of the extension of credit, including, but not limited to, interest, brokerage fees, finance charges, loan fees, discount, points, service charges, transaction charges, activity charges, carrying charges, time price differential, finders fees or any other cost or expense to the debtor for services rendered or to be rendered to the debtor in making, arranging or negotiating a loan of money or an extension of credit and for the accounting, guaranteeing, endorsing, collecting and other actual services rendered by the lender; provided, however, that recording fees, motor vehicle title fees, attorney's fees, insurance premiums, fees permitted to be charged under the provisions of Section 79-7-7, service charges as provided in Section 81-19-31, and with respect to a debt secured by an interest in land, bona fide closing costs and appraisal fees incidental to the transaction shall not be included in the finance charge. The term “finance charge,” as used in this section and the sections enumerated above, shall not include any fees for the set up, establishment, processing or maintenance of a loan to a plan participant from a retirement plan intending to be tax-qualified (within the meaning of 26 USCS Section 401 et seq.) that are paid or payable directly or indirectly by the plan participant to the plan record keeper or third party administrator.

Subject to the other provisions of this section, Sections 75-17-1, 75-17-13, 75-17-15, 75-17-17, 75-17-19, 75-17-21, 75-17-23, 75-17-27, 75-17-29, 75-17-33, 63-19-43, 75-67-127 and 75-67-217, the finance charge may be calculated on the assumption that the indebtedness will be discharged as it becomes due, and prepayment penalties and statutory default charges shall not be included in the finance charge. Nothing in Section 75-17-1 or Section 75-17-19, 75-17-21, 75-17-23, 75-17-27, 75-17-29, or 75-17-33 shall limit or restrict the manner of contracting for such finance charge, whether by way of add-on, discount or otherwise, so long as the annual percentage rate does not exceed that permitted by law. If a greater finance charge than that authorized by applicable law shall be stipulated for or received in any case, all interest and finance charges shall be forfeited, and may be recovered back, whether the contract be executed or executory. If a finance charge be contracted for or received that exceeds the maximum authorized by law by more than one hundred percent (100%), the principal and all finance charges shall be forfeited and any amount paid may be recovered by suit. The provisions of this section, Section 75-17-1 and Sections 75-17-19, 75-17-21, 75-17-23, 75-17-27, 75-17-29 and 75-17-33 shall not restrict the extension of credit pursuant to any other applicable law. A licensee under the Small Loan Regulatory Law (Section 75-67-101 et seq.), and the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Section 75-67-201 et seq.), may contract for and receive finance charges as authorized by Section 75-17-21, and the late payment charge as authorized by Section 75-17-27, regardless of the purpose for which the loan or other extension of credit is made.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Non-sufficient fund fees.

1. In general.

Statute setting forth maximum charges for late payments applies to payments of carrying charges to condominium association when unit owner is personally liable for payment and when such payments are secured by foreclosureable lien on owner's dwelling unit. Rea v. Breakers Association, 674 So. 2d 496 (Miss. 1996).

Condominium association's imposition of 20% per month late charge on delinquent monthly carrying charges, with unpaid late charges added to principal amount due, violated usury statute imposing 4% maximum on late payment charges; as association had foreclosureable lien against unit for unpaid late charges there was mortgagor-mortgagee relationship between unit owner and association, to which statute applied. Rea v. Breakers Association, 674 So. 2d 496 (Miss. 1996).

2. Non-sufficient fund fees.

Non-sufficient fund processing fees do not constitute fees charged for receiving a loan or incident to or as a condition of the extension of credit within the meaning of the statute. Terrell v. Hancock Bank, 7 F. Supp. 2d 812 (S.D. Miss. 1998).

§ 75-17-27. Late payment charges.

A late payment charge, not exceeding Five Dollars ($5.00) or four percent (4%) of the amount of any delinquency, whichever is greater, if contracted for in writing, shall not be considered a finance charge, but no such charge shall be made unless such delinquency is more than fifteen (15) days past due; provided, however, that such late payment charge may be collected only one (1) time on a specific installment and no late payment charge may be collected on a partial payment resulting from the deduction of a late payment charge from a regular scheduled payment. On loans of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) or less having a stated maturity of five (5) years or less, such late payment charge shall in no event exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A plain reading of the statute clearly indicates a grace period for the imposition of late fees on payments past due; however, the statute in no way supports the theory that this grace period affects due dates or the condition of default. Weems v. Transamerica Mtg. Co., 770 So. 2d 936 (Miss. 2000).

Statute setting forth maximum charges for late payments applies to payments of carrying charges to condominium association when unit owner is personally liable for payment and when such payments are secured by forecloseable lien on owner's dwelling unit. Rea v. Breakers Association, 674 So. 2d 496 (Miss. 1996).

Condominium association's imposition of 20% per month late charge on delinquent monthly carrying charges, with unpaid late charges added to principal amount due, violated usury statute imposing 4% maximum on late payment charges; as association had forecloseable lien against unit for unpaid late charges there was mortgagor-mortgagee relationship between unit owner and association, to which statute applied. *Rea v. No lender or other person shall charge a sum or prepayment penalty for the prepayment of any note or evidence of a debt secured in whole or in part by lien on real estate greater than the following:

(a) Five percent (5%) of the unpaid principal balance if prepaid during the first year;

(b) Four percent (4%) of the unpaid principal balance if prepaid during the second year;

(c) Three percent (3%) of the unpaid principal balance if prepaid during the third year;

(f) No penalty if prepaid more than five (5) years from date of the note creating the debt.

This section shall apply only to loans, the security for which is a lien on real estate comprising a single family dwelling or a single family condominium unit, or on real estate used primarily for agricultural or livestock purposes. ## JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A lender was statutorily prohibited from computing a rebate of finance charges on a precomputed loan by the method of the rule of 78's, as provided in the promissory note, if the resulting yield to the lender on prepayment was greater than that specified in § 75-17-1(4) or exceeded the penalty allowed by § 75-17-1(12) (recodified as § 75-17-31). When the borrowers elected to prepay the note, the lender was required to recalculate the amount of interest which it had earned over the term during which the borrowers actually had use of the borrowed money in order to come within § 75-17-1(4), limiting the bank to a specified "yield ... calculated according to the actuarial method." It was incumbent upon the lender to recalculate the interest by the actuarial method and not by the rule of 78's so as not to exceed the specified legal rate of "yield." Denley v. Peoples Bank, 553 So. 2d 494 (Miss. 1989).

Rule of 78th's method of computation in case of prepayment of loan by one licensed under Small Loan Privilege Tax Act, § 75-67-201 et seq., as authorized by provision of Small Loan Regulatory Act, § 75-67-127(1)(c), is not affected by general usury statute, § 75-17-31, where laws at issue originated in same enactment (Chapter 565, Laws, 1974) and are reasonably assumed to comprise rational and noncontradictory scheme, and where special and particular statutes control over general usury statute in event of conflicts between legislative provisions. Benoit v. United Cos. Mtg., Inc., 504 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1987).

§ 75-17-33. Announcement of discount rates and indices by Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance; recording of maximum finance charge rates.

The Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance, upon any change in the discount rate on ninety-day commercial paper by the Federal Reserve bank of a Federal Reserve district of which this state is a part, shall (a) make an official announcement of the new discount rate on the same day as the change, or as soon thereafter as possible, (b) cause the dissemination of such announcement to the news media in such manner as he deems appropriate, and (c) file the same with the Commissioner of Insurance or his successor. The rate so determined shall be effective from the date of the official announcement of the new discount rate by the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance. The Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall determine, on or before the twentieth day of each month, the index of market yields of the Monthly Twenty-Year Constant Maturity Index of Long-Term United States Government Bond Yields for the preceding calendar month and shall (a) make an official announcement of the index, (b) cause the dissemination of such announcement to the news media in such manner as he deems appropriate, and (c) file the same with the Commissioner of Insurance or his successor. The index so determined shall be effective on the first day of the next succeeding month.

In contracting for a finance charge pursuant to the provisions of Section 75-17-1 or Sections 75-17-21 and 75-17-23, any person shall be entitled to rely conclusively upon the most recent discount rate or index officially announced by the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance. The Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall acquire, keep and maintain a separate record in which he shall note or post the maximum permissible rates of finance charges available under Section 75-17-1 and Sections 75-17-21 and 75-17-23. Each rate so determined shall be the maximum permissible rate of finance charge available under each particular section or subsection thereof, and when certified by the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall be admissible in evidence or judicially noticed as the maximum permissible rate of finance charge under the provisions of that particular section or subsection.

Construing the mandates of this section in harmony and by implication, there is sufficient authority for the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance to pro-commercial established under the Federal Reserve System. Allison, Aug. 22, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0444.

Seals

- SEC.
- 75-19-1. Use of private seals dispensed with except as to corporations.
- 75-19-3. Instruments to be interpreted and enforced without reference to seals.
- 75-19-5. Scroll or seal, or the want of it, does not affect or vary rights.
- 75-19-7. Bonds of public officers and bonds in legal proceedings good without seal.

§ 75-19-1. Use of private seals dispensed with except as to corporations.

The use of private seals is dispensed with, except as to corporations; and all distinction between sealed and unsealed instruments, made by private persons, either as to the rights conferred by them or the remedies on them, is abolished.

SOURCES: Codes, 1880, § 993; 1892, § 4079; 1906, § 4631; Hemingway's 1917, § 7419; 1930, § 3302; 1942, § 260.

Cross References — Effect of seal on contract of sale, see § 75-2-203.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A writ without seal of the court or a statement of the fact, if there were no seal, is bad. Burton v. Cramer, 123 Miss. 848, 86 So. 578 (1920).

Absence of seal on corporation's assignment of deed of trust will not in equity affect title under trustee's sale of the land. West v. Union Naval Stores Co., 116 Miss. 743, 77 So. 609 (1918), error overruled, 117 Miss. 153, 77 So. 961 (1918).

Bank's general assignment for creditors without seal passed the equitable title. Dodwell v. Rieves, 114 Miss. 4, 74 So. 770 (1916).

Corporation's deed without seal will be enforced in a court of equity. Southern Plantations Co. v. Kennedy Heading Co., 104 Miss. 131, 61 So. 166 (1913).

An unsealed deed by a corporation is not available in ejectment to support plaintiff's title. Littelle v. Creek Lumber Co., 99 Miss. 241, 54 So. 841 (1911).

The written appointment of a substituted trustee in a deed of trust executed by a corporation, the beneficiary in the deed, need not be under seal. Brown v. British Am. Mtg. Co., 86 Miss. 388, 38 So. 312 (1905).

Where a deed of trust provided for the appointment of a substituted trustee, under the "hand and seal" of the beneficiary, an appointment in writing, signed by the beneficiary but not sealed, is invalid, notwithstanding this section. Sharpley v. Plant, 79 Miss. 175, 28 So. 799, 89 Am. St. R. 588 (1900).

In making a sale of its personal property a private corporation may act without a seal. Cary-Halidy Lumber Co. v. Cain, 70 Miss. 628, 13 So. 239 (1893).

This section is purely prospective; hence an unsealed deed executed prior to the Code of 1880 did not convey legal title, nor did it make any difference that the deed was executed in another state where seals were not required. The law of the place governs. Gibbs v. McGuire, 70 Miss. 646, 12 So. 829 (1893).

§ 75-21-1. Trust and combine; defined.

A trust or combine is a combination, contract, understanding or agreement, expressed or implied, between two or more persons, corporations or firms or association of persons or between any one or more of either with one or more of the others, when inimical to public welfare and the effect of which would be:

- (a) To restrain trade;
- (b) To limit, increase or reduce the price of a commodity;
- (c) To limit, increase or reduce the production or output of a commodity;
- (d) To hinder competition in the production, importation, manufacture, transportation, sale or purchase of a commodity;
- (e) To engross or forestall a commodity;
- (f) To issue, own or hold the certificate of stock of any trust and combine within the spirit of this chapter knowing it to be such at the time of the issue or the acquisition or holding such certificate; or
- (g) To place the control to any extent of business or of the proceeds or earnings thereof, contrary to the spirit and meaning of this chapter, in the power of trustees, by whatever name called; or
- (h) To enable or empower any other person than themselves, their proper officers, agents and employees to dictate or control the management of business, contrary to the spirit and meaning of this chapter; or
- (i) To unite or pool interest in the importation, manufacture, production, transportation, or price of a commodity, contrary to the spirit and meaning of this chapter.

Any corporation, domestic or foreign, or any partnership, or individual, or other association, or person whatsoever, who are now, or shall hereafter create, enter into, become a member of, or a party to any trust or combine as hereinabove defined shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a conspiracy to defraud and shall be subject to the penalties hereinafter provided. Any person, association of persons, corporation, or corporations, domestic or foreign, who shall be a party or belong to a trust and combine shall be guilty of crime and upon conviction thereof shall, for a first offense be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) and for a second or subsequent offense not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), and may be enjoined by a final decree of the chancery court, in a suit by the state on the relation of the attorney general, from the further prosecution of or doing of the acts constituting the trust and combine as defined in this chapter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Validity; effect of federal statutes.
2. Construction and application, generally.
3. Particular applications.
4. —Prosecution under statute.

1. Validity; effect of federal statutes.

The Attorney General's claims against manufacturers of infant formula for alleged violations of state antitrust statutes (§§ 75-21-1, 75-21-3 and 75-21-7) were not preempted by federal antitrust law. Moore ex rel. Miss. v. Abbott Lab., Inc., 900 F. Supp. 26 (S.D. Miss. 1995).

Act, harmless when done by one, may become public wrong when done by many acting in concert; and when it becomes object of conspiracy and operates in restraint of trade, police power of state may prohibit it without impairing liberty of contract. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 208 Miss. 815, 45 So. 2d 717 (1950), error overruled, 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

Federal acts held not to interfere with state's power to punish railroad corporations for prior violations of its laws. State ex rel. Roberson v. Southern Ry., 126 Miss. 875, 89 So. 769 (1921).

Anti-trust law is not suspended by Lever Act; nor does enforcement deprive insurance companies of equal protection of law or of property without due process. Nugent & Pullen v. Robertson, 126 Miss. 419, 88 So. 895 (1921).

Freedom from contract is not unreasonably abridged in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment by this provision as formerly contained in Code 1906, § 5002, which as construed by the supreme court of Mississippi condemns as a combination in restraint of trade an agreement between retail lumber dealers not to deal with any manufacturer or wholesale dealer who will sell direct to consumers in localities where such retailers conduct their business and keep a sufficient stock to meet demands and to inform each other of any such sale. Grenada Lumber Co. v. Mississippi, 217 U.S. 433, 30 S. Ct. 535, 54 L. Ed. 826 (1910).

2. Construction and application, generally.

Noerr-Pennington doctrine is applicable and a defense to claims brought under this section. Harrah's Vicksburg Corp. v. Pennebaker, 812 So. 2d 163 (Miss. 2001).

The restraint of trade statute has no application to boycotts to achieve political goals; therefore, in a proceeding for an injunction and for damages arising out of an economic boycott by a civil rights organization and other defendants to achieve political ends, the chancellor erred in allowing a penalty of $500 to each of the 12 complainants pursuant to § 75-21-9. NAACP v. Claiborne Hdwe. Co., 393 So. 2d 1290 (Miss. 1980), amended, 405 So. 2d 115 (Miss. 1981), rev'd on other grounds, 458 U.S. 886, 102 S. Ct. 3409, 73 L. Ed. 2d 1215 (1982), reh'g denied, 459 U.S. 898, 103 S. Ct. 199, 74 L. Ed. 2d 160 (1982).

Legislature has declared the forbidden things, listed in statute, to be inimical to public welfare, and if proof be sufficiently made of transgression of statutory prohibitions, such act is intrinsically inimical to public welfare without further or special proof of result beyond definitions of statute, or deduction by courts that proven violations are or are not inimical to public welfare. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 208 Miss. 815, 45 So. 2d 717 (1950), error overruled, 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

Contract in restraint of trade is not invalid, unless inimical to public welfare.

State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 598 (1928).

Trusts, combinations, etc., although they may result in restraint of trade, are not unlawful, unless hostile to public welfare. Jackson v. Price, 140 Miss. 249, 105 So. 538 (1925).

Law prohibiting contracts in restraint of trade held applicable only to those which in their effect are inimical to public welfare. Brown v. Staple Cotton Coop. Ass'n, 132 Miss. 859, 96 So. 849 (1923).

Co-operative marketing act held persuasive as to what contracts not inimical to public welfare before adoption. Brown v. Staple Cotton Coop. Ass'n, 132 Miss. 859, 96 So. 849 (1923).

3. Particular applications.

Where clay deposit locators and a brick manufacturer, entered into an agreement which provided that the locators would be paid a certain royalty over and above a royalty to be received by the lessors of land containing the clay deposit, provided that the manufacturer could not compete with the locators in leasing lands for the purpose of mining clay, and further provided that the manufacturer had a right to a lease if the locators were unable to lease lands which the manufacturer found necessary for its corporate purposes, with the locators still to receive such overriding royalty, the agreement was not a noncompetitive agreement in restraint of trade, but was instead an agreement providing for the payment of an overriding royalty on all clay used for the manufacturer's corporate purposes. Hood Indus., Inc. v. King, 255 So. 2d 912 (Miss. 1971).

An agreement whereby the stockholders of a merged newspaper corporation agreed not to compete with the corporation while owning stock therein and for a period of five years after ceasing to be stockholders was no unreasonable restraint of trade, was not inimical to the public welfare, and did not violate this section. Morgan v. Jacobs, 200 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1967).

An agreement that all material shall be bought at a specified price from one furnishing money with which to carry on a business may be found to violate the statute. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete

Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

Granting to defendants peremptory instruction is reversible error in action by Jackson bakery against three other bakeries operating in and outside of Jackson, for damages and penalties for violations of this section and § 75-21-3, predicated upon simultaneous cut in price of bread by defendants to price lower than their price for same bread outside city limits and to price below production cost, where evidence was sufficient to take case to jury. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 208 Miss. 815, 45 So. 2d 717 (1950), error overruled, 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

Reduction of prices is absolute right of owner of business and is lawful of itself, but under guise of exercising an absolute right it is not lawful indirectly to interfere with business, employment, or occupation of third person, where exercise of right is with object of injuring third person rather than primarily of benefiting person exercising right. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 208 Miss. 815, 45 So. 2d 717 (1950), error overruled, 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

A claim for damages under this statute passed to the claimant's bankrupt estate. Fazakerly v. E. Kahn's Sons Co., 75 F.2d 110 (5th Cir. 1935).

That trustees owned and operated intrastate railroad did not render trust agreement illegal, even if Constitution prohibited it. State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 895 (1928).

Where defendant for a long time had enjoyed a monopoly of the ice business in a community, and when another person contracted with an ice manufacturer in another city to furnish ice for sale in the defendant's community, cut his retail price in half, represented to the ice manufacturer in the other city that the one to whom the manufacturer furnished ice in his city was in poor financial condition, threatened to drive him into bankruptcy, and proceeded to sell ice at cut rates in the city of such manufacturer, it was properly held that the defendant's acts constituted a violation of the anti-trust laws of the state. Harvey v. State, 149 Miss. 874, 116 So. 98 (1928).

Nonresident beneficiaries in turning over funds to trustee for investment and trustee purchasing land in state did not violate anti-trust statute. State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 598 (1928).

Declaration of trusts giving trustees control of lands previously held by corporations as trustees and earnings therefrom for purpose of disposition of property for benefit of certificate holders held not to violate public policy or anti-trust statute, where not inimical to public welfare. State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 598 (1928).

If trustees could not operate railroad, state's remedy was by quo warranto not anti-trust law proceedings. State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 598 (1928).

Contract by seller of restaurant not to enter like business in competition with buyer in same municipality, without limiting time, held not contrary to anti-trust statute. Jackson v. Price, 140 Miss. 249, 105 So. 538 (1925).

Provision in contract that, if buyer sold cement purchased, or used any part of it in work other than that described, seller could decline to make further deliveries, held not to violate anti-trust statute. Gano v. Delmas, 140 Miss. 323, 105 So. 535 (1925).

Funds of nonresident corporation violating anti-trust law are subject to attachment in hands of resident agents. Nugent & Pullen v. Robertson, 126 Miss. 419, 88 So. 895 (1921).

4. —Prosecution under statute.

In antitrust action brought by cable television system operator against competing system operators and cable television programming providers concerning the defendant's entry into exclusive dealing arrangement with competing system operators, allegations of antitrust violations under Mississippi law would be dismissed, where complaint charging violation of federal antitrust statutes was dismissed for failure to state claim; where jurisdiction over state law claims is based solely on pendent jurisdiction, if federal claims are dismissed before trial state claims should be dismissed as well. Futurevision Cable Sys. v. Multivision Ca- ble TV Corp., 789 F. Supp. 760 (S.D. Miss. 1992), aff'd without op., 986 F.2d 1418 (5th Cir. 1993).

In state's suit on attorney-general's relation to enforce anti-trust laws, injunction may be granted only on final hearing. Harvey v. State, 149 Miss. 874, 116 So. 98 (1928).

In penal suit for violation of anti-trust law, unlawful agreement must be averred. Miller v. Fidelity Union Fire Ins. Co., 126 Miss. 301, 88 So. 711 (1921).

Denial of agreement to fix rates held sufficient in prosecution for violating anti-trust law. Miller v. Fidelity Union Fire Ins. Co., 126 Miss. 301, 88 So. 711 (1921).

Unlawful agreement must be averred in prosecution of insurance companies for violating anti-trust law. Miller v. Fidelity Union Fire Ins. Co., 126 Miss. 301, 88 So. 711 (1921).

- (b) Or shall monopolize or attempt to monopolize the production, control or sale of any commodity, or the prosecution, management or control of any kind, class or description of business;
- (c) Or shall engross forestall or attempt to engross or forestall any commodity;
- (d) Or shall destroy or attempt to destroy competition in the manufacture or sale of a commodity, by selling or offering the same for sale at a lower price at one place in the state than another or buying or offering to buy a commodity at a higher price at one place in the state than another, differences of freight and other necessary expenses of sale and delivery considered;
- (e) Or shall destroy or attempt to destroy competition by rendering any service or manipulating, handling or storing any commodity for a less price in one locality than in another, the differences in the necessary expenses of carrying on the business considered, shall be deemed and held a trust and combine within the meaning and purpose of this section, and shall be liable to the pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, judgments, and recoveries denounced against trusts and combines and shall be proceeded against in manner and form herein provided, as in case of other trusts and combines.

It shall be sufficient to make out a prima facie case of a violation of subdivision (e) of this section to show lower charge for the service therein mentioned in one locality than another, or to show a higher price paid for a commodity in one locality than another, differences of freight and other necessary expenses of operating business considered.

1. Constitutionality.

Act, harmless when done by one, may become public wrong when done by many acting in concert and when it becomes object of conspiracy and operates in restraint of trade police power of state may prohibit it without impairing liberty of contract. *Wagley v. The anti-trust law is severable and any invalid provision may be eliminated. State v. Jackson Cotton Oil Co., 95 Miss. 6, 48 So. 300 (1909).

2. Construction and application, generally.

The Attorney General's claims against manufacturers of infant formula for alleged violations of state antitrust statutes (§§ 75-21-1, 75-21-3 and 75-21-7) were not preempted by federal antitrust law. Moore ex rel. Miss. v. Abbott Lab., Inc., 900 F. Supp. 26 (S.D. Miss. 1995).

Regarding the two-pronged test for determining the applicability of the state action exemption from federal antitrust laws — that the challenged restraint must be one clearly articulated and affirmatively expressed as state policy and the state must supervise actively any private anticompetitive conduct — a state policy that expressly permits but does not compel anticompetitive conduct may be clearly articulated within the meaning of the first prong of the test. Southern Motor Carriers Rate Conference, Inc. v. United States, 471 U.S. 48, 105 S. Ct. 1721, 85 L. Ed. 2d 36 (1985), on remand, 764 F.2d 748 (11th Cir. Ga. 1985).

Freedom of trade competition and economic necessity may justify different sales prices in different localities. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

This statute should be construed in the light of the announcement in Fairmont Creamery Co. v. Minnesota (1927) 274 U.S. 1, 71 L. Ed. 893, 47 S. Ct. 506, 52 A.L.R. 163, wherein the court, among other things, said: “Buyers in competitive markets must accommodate their bids to prices offered by others, and the payment of different prices at different places is the ordinary consequent; enforcement of the statute would amount to fixing the price at which plaintiff in error may buy, since one purchase would establish this for all points without regard to ordinary trade conditions.” Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

The legislature has declared the forbidden things, listed in statute, to be inimical to public welfare, and if proof be sufficiently made of transgression of statutory prohibitions, such act is intrinsically inimical to public welfare without further or special proof of result beyond definitions of statute, or deduction by courts that proven violations are or are not inimical to public welfare. Wagley v. Colonial Baking

Co., 208 Miss. 815, 45 So. 2d 717 (1950), error overruled, 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

Anti-trust statute includes only contracts in restraint of trade which at common law were held invalid as against public policy. Sivley v. Cramer, 105 Miss. 13, 61 So. 653 (1913).

A statute creating a railroad commission for the supervision of common carriers, including telegraph and telephone companies, giving it power to fix rates, prohibiting discrimination in rates unless authorized by the commission, and providing remedies for violation of the act, conferred jurisdiction upon the railroad commission as to the whole matter of regulating telephone rates and made ample provision as to remedies in the event of violation of the law, to the exclusion of the general anti-trust laws. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. State, 99 Miss. 1, 54 So. 446 (1911).

Where object is unlawful it is immaterial if means adopted be peaceable and otherwise lawful. Retail Lumber Dealers' Ass'n v. State, 95 Miss. 337, 48 So. 1021 (1909), aff'd, 217 U.S. 433, 30 S. Ct. 535, 54 L. Ed. 826 (1910).

That an insurer is a member of an unlawful combination does not prevent its enforcing a right of subrogation to the claim against one wrongfully destroying the property, since the subrogation agreement does not relate to the business of the combine. Freed v. American Fire Ins. Co., 90 Miss. 72, 43 So. 947, 122 Am. St. R. 307 (1907).

Where a contract or understanding is not of itself inimical to the public welfare or in contravention of express statute it will be upheld unless it is so operated as to become oppressive by infringing upon the rights of private individuals, or unless it works to the detriment of the general public. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Searles, 85 Miss. 520, 37 So. 939 (1905).

The test of a trust and the essential of its existence is that the contract or combination be on account of its actual results obnoxious to public policy or be in itself and in its necessary effect inimical to the public welfare. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Searles, 85 Miss. 520, 37 So. 939 (1905).

In determining whether a contract violates public policy as evidenced by the anti-trust statutes the courts will consider the nature of the business contemplated and the tendency of the contract as effecting the public rather than the nature of the parties, whether corporations or individuals. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Searles, 85 Miss. 520, 37 So. 939 (1905).

Courts will look through the form of an association in order to ascertain its character and will judge of its nature not merely by its promulgated rules but by its actual operation, and will decide the question of its legality of illegality according to the true nature and probable effect of the arrangement without special regard to the form which has been assumed in the particular instance. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Searles, 85 Miss. 520, 37 So. 939 (1905).

Canned oysters sold as merchandise are a commodity within the meaning of section. Barataria Canning Co. v. Jouliau, 80 Miss. 555, 31 So. 961 (1902).

The words "and is inimical to public welfare, unlawful and a criminal conspiracy," with which this section concludes, are not an added element of definition, but a mere declaration of the effect of the trust. Barataria Canning Co. v. Jouliau, 80 Miss. 555, 31 So. 961 (1902) (action under former section).

The anti-trust law is not intended to prevent a person from conducting his private business according to his own judgment, and he may confine the sale of goods manufactured by him to a single dealer in a given territory. Houck v. Wright, 77 Miss. 476, 27 So. 616 (1900).

3. Particular applications-illegal contract or combination.

A county bar association's fee scheme recommending minimum fees to be charged by lawyers for real property title examination, and the enforcement of such schedule by the state bar, membership in which is necessary in order to practice in the state, constitute price fixing for purposes of the antitrust proscriptions of § 1 of the Sherman Act (15 USCS § 1), where the record establishes that (1) the fee schedule was not purely advisory for the mere dissemination of price information as to past standards, but instead constituted a fixed, rigid price floor for minimum fees to be charged in future transactions; (2) the fee schedule was enforced through (a) the prospect of professional discipline from the state bar, which had issued ethical opinions that any lawyer, whether or not a member of a county bar, might be disciplined for habitually charging less than the local bar's suggested minimum fees, and (b) the desire of attorneys to comply with announced professional norms, which motivation was reinforced by the insurance that other lawyers would not compete by underbidding; (3) nearly all of the county bar members charged fees equal to or in excess of the minimum fees set by the schedule for title examination; and (4) consumers could not turn to alternative sources for the necessary service, since title examination was indispensable in the process of financing a real estate purchase and could be performed only by an attorney licensed to practice in the state. Goldfarb v. Virginia State Bar, 421 U.S. 773, 95 S. Ct. 2004, 44 L. Ed. 2d 572 (1975), reh'g denied, 423 U.S. 886, 96 S. Ct. 162, 46 L. Ed. 2d 118 (1975).

An agreement that all material shall be bought at a specified price from one furnishing money with which to carry on a business may be found to violate the statute. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

Granting to defendants peremptory instruction is reversible error in action by Jackson bakery against three other bakeries operating in and outside of Jackson, for damages and penalties for violations of § 75-21-1, predicated upon simultaneous cut in price of bread by defendants to price lower than their price for same bread outside city limits and to price below production cost, where evidence was sufficient to take case to jury. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

Conspiracy of oil companies to monopolize trade throughout United States is punishable under Mississippi law. Standard Oil Co. v. State, 107 Miss. 377, 65 So. 468 (1914).

Plaintiff may recover reasonable value of goods although contract of sale was violative of anti-trust law. McCall Co. v. Hughes, 102 Miss. 375, 59 So. 794 (1912).

Agreement of retail lumber dealers not to purchase from wholesale dealer competing with retailers violated Code 1906, § 5002 (corresponding section, prior to amendment of 1908). Retail Lumber Dealers' Ass'n v. State, 95 Miss. 337, 48 So. 1021 (1909), aff'd, 217 U.S. 433, 30 S. Ct. 535, 54 L. Ed. 826 (1910).

Consolidation of corporation through holding concern to stifle competition is illegal. Southern Elec. Sec. Co. v. State, 91 Miss. 195, 44 So. 785, 124 Am. St. R. 638 (1907).

Contract not to buy cottonseed in consideration of quantity of cottonseed to be delivered by competitor violates anti-trust law. Kosciusko Oil Mill & Fertilizer Co. v. Wilson Cotton Oil Co., 90 Miss. 551, 43 So. 435 (1907).

A contract by which the defendant agreed to sell to the plaintiff, a competing manufacturer, all the cove oysters which he packed during certain months, except three carloads per month, and stipulated that such three carloads should not be sold to the trade at a lower price than offered to the trade by the plaintiff, is void as an agreement to limit the price of a commodity, within this section. Barataria Canning Co. v. Jouliau, 80 Miss. 555, 31 So. 961 (1902).

4. —Contract or combination not prohibited.

Attempting to destroy competition in cotton ginning by putting down price was not violative of subsection m or n of Code 1917, § 3283. Crescent Cotton Oil Co. v. State, 121 Miss. 615, 83 So. 680 (1920), aff'd, 257 U.S. 129, 42 S. Ct. 42, 66 L. Ed. 166 (1921).

A contract whereby railroad company gave another exclusive right to load logs between stations was not invalid. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Crawford, 107 Miss. 355, 65 So. 462 (1914).

A car service association which is merely the agent of different railroads in the enforcement of car service and demurrage charges is not an illegal trust or combine. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Searles, 85 Miss. 520, 37 So. 939 (1905).

Although the bid on which the contract was based might be below the normal cost of production, the anti-trust law of 1900 (predecessor of the present law), had no application to the state or its public agencies in letting a contract for copyrighted school books in the manner provided by law, and as the result of competitive bidding, by the terms of which new books were for a time to be exchanged without cost, book for book, for those then in use, after which the prices then agreed on were to be paid for all books furnished during the continuance of the contract. B.F. Johnson Pub. Co. v. Mills, 79 Miss. 543, 31 So. 101 (1902).

5. Prosecution under statute.

In antitrust action brought by cable television system operator against competing system operators and cable television programming providers concerning the defendant's entry into exclusive dealing arrangement with competing system operators, allegations of antitrust violations under Mississippi law would be dismissed, where complaint charging violation of federal antitrust statutes was dismissed for failure to state claim; where jurisdiction over state law claims is based solely on pendent jurisdiction, if federal claims are dismissed before trial state claims should be dismissed as well. Futurevision Cable Sys. v. Multivision Cable TV Corp., 789 F. Supp. 760 (S.D. Miss. 1992), aff'd without op., 986 F.2d 1418 (5th Cir. 1993).

In action against several oil companies, it was immaterial that bill prayed for separate and not joint penalties. Standard Oil Co. v. State, 107 Miss. 377, 65 So. 468 (1914).

Bill to recover penalty under anti-trust law demurrable for not alleging sales made for purpose of destroying competition. McCall Co. v. Hughes, 102 Miss. 375, 59 So. 794 (1912).

Courts must be left to determine what constitutes monopoly as each case arises. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. State, 100 Miss. 102, 54 So. 670 (1911).

Code 1906, § 5002, as amended by Laws 1908, ch. 119 (former section relating to "additional contracts or combinations not allowed by law"), merely broadened penalties and extended right to attack combinations invalid as against public policy prior to the act. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. State, 100 Miss. 102, 54 So. 670 (1911).

Foreign corporation prosecuted under anti-trust laws must answer interrogatories and file with answers exhibits requested. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. State, 98 Miss. 159, 53 So. 489 (1910).

Information alleging single cause of action, though containing unnecessary averments, was sufficient. State v. Jackson Cotton Oil Co., 95 Miss. 6, 48 So. 300 (1909).

The Attorney General's claims against manufacturers of infant formula for alleged violations of state antitrust statutes (§§ 75-21-1, 75-21-3 and 75-21-7) were not preempted by federal antitrust law. Moore ex rel. Miss. v. Abbott Lab., Inc., 900 F. Supp. 26 (S.D. Miss. 1995).

The fact that this section imposed a penalty for each violation did not authorize the recovery of more than one penalty with actual damages. Delmas v. Pasca-goula S. Ry. & P. Co., 103 Miss. 235, 60 So. 210 (1912).

This section does not preclude suit by revenue agent to collect penalty. Dukate v. Adams, 101 Miss. 433, 58 So. 475 (1911).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Summary judgment was properly granted to tobacco companies on an asbestos company's claim for recovery of settlements paid to asbestos claimants who were also smokers under the antitrust law, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-21-9, because the asbestos company failed to allege an injury of the type the antitrust law was intended to redress. Owens Corning v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 868 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 2004).

The restraint of trade statute has no application to boycotts to achieve political goals; therefore, in a proceeding for an injunction and for damages arising out of an economic boycott by a civil rights organization and other defendants to achieve political ends, the chancellor erred in allowing a penalty of $500 to each of the 12 complainants pursuant to § 75-21-9. NAACP v. Claiborne Hdwe. Co., 393 So. 2d 1290 (Miss. 1980), amended, 405 So. 2d 115 (Miss. 1981), rev'd on other grounds, 458 U.S. 886, 102 S. Ct. 3409, 73 L. Ed. 2d 1215 (1982), reh'g denied, 459 U.S. 898, 103 S. Ct. 199, 74 L. Ed. 2d 160 (1982).

Recovery under this section may not include profits which are wholly conjectural. Ready-Mix Concrete & Concrete Prods. Co. v. Perry, 239 Miss. 329, 123 So. 2d 241 (1960).

Granting to defendants peremptory instruction is reversible error in action by Jackson bakery against three other bakeries operating in and outside of Jackson, for damages and penalties for violations of Code 1942, §§ 1088 and 1089, predicated upon simultaneous cut in price of bread by defendants to price lower than their price for same bread outside city limits and to price below production cost, where evidence was sufficient to take case to jury. Wagley v. Colonial Baking Co., 208 Miss. 815, 45 So. 2d 717 (1950), error overruled, 46 So. 2d 925 (Miss. 1950).

Where ice dealer, after continuing to buy ice from power company under assurance that expired contract would be renewed, was notified of termination of contract, power company, which had been losing money on ice plant, and competitor, to whom company sold machinery and good will, held not liable to dealer under trust and combines statutes, since company had right to shut plant down and incidental right to sell to competitor and competitor had corresponding right to buy. Pitts v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 177 Miss. 288, 170 So. 817 (1936).

Section 5007, Code of 1906 (§ 1092, Code of 1942), authorized only one penalty with actual damages, although § 5004, Code of 1906 (§ 1091, Code of 1942), imposed a penalty for every offense. Delmas v. Pascagoula S. Ry. & P. Co., 103 Miss. 235, 60 So. 210 (1912).

By this section the legislature did not intend that anti-trust laws should apply to discrimination in rates by telephone company. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. State, 99 Miss. 1, 54 So. 446 (1911).

The mere proof that one has been compelled to pay more for a service than his competitors were paying for the same service, does not constitute the required proof of damage. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Searles, 85 Miss. 520, 37 So. 939 (1905).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Contract does not violate public policy, unless prohibited by statute or condemned by decision of court. State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 598 (1928).

Contract in restraint of trade is not invalid, unless inimical to public welfare. State ex rel. Knox v. Edward Hines Lumber Co., 150 Miss. 1, 115 So. 598 (1928).

Contract made by insurance companies with agents, not part of an agreement to fix rates, were valid. *Aetna Ins. Co. v. A contract not to buy cottonseed in consideration of delivery of quantity of cottonseed by competitor was void under antitrust laws. Kosciusko Oil Mill & Fertilizer Co. v. Wilson Cotton Oil Co., 90 Miss. 551, 43 So. 435 (1907).

The test of a trust and the essential to its existence is that the contract or combination be on account of its natural result obnoxious to public policy or be in itself and in its necessary effect inimical to the public welfare. A car service association which is merely the agent of different railroads in the enforcement of car service and demurrage charges, is not a trust. *Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. ### § 75-21-13. Corporations not to purchase competing one.

No corporation shall acquire directly or indirectly, the whole or any part of the capital stock of any competing corporation doing business in this state, nor directly or indirectly acquire the franchise, plant or equipment of any other competing corporation doing business in this state if such other corporation be engaged in the same kind of business and be a competitor therein, where the effect of such acquisition of stock, franchise, plant or equipment may be to substantially lessen competition or to restrain trade or competition in the state, or any community thereof, or tend to create a monopoly of any line of commerce and will be inimical to public welfare. This section shall not apply to corporations purchasing such stock in payment of an indebtedness, and not using the same by voting, or otherwise, to bring about or attempting to bring about, the substantial lessening of competition. Provided, however, that fire and marine insurance corporations may own stock in other insurance companies and may be licensed to do business in this state, or authorized to continue business in this state, but the state insurance commissioner may refuse permission to any company to be licensed in the first instance or he may subsequently revoke the license of any company if it appears after notice and hearing that to permit one insurance corporation owning stock in a competing corporation to continue to do business in this state would be injurious to, or contrary to the public interest.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The statute prohibiting corporations from acquiring capital stock of competing corporations engaged in same kind of business was inapplicable to purchase of hopelessly insolvent building and loan association's stock by corporation not engaged in business in same community as association, though it proposed to open office therein to make industrial loans, in absence of showing that such loans would create material competition with business of building and loan association or tend to create monopoly therein. Industrial Fin. & Thrift Corp. v. Smith, 179 Miss. 323, 175 So. 206 (1937).

Under provision barring corporations from purchasing or owning capital stock, or any part thereof, of any other competing corporation, acquisition of stock by one of two competing corporations of the other was a mere ultra vires act, of which only the state could complain. People's Bank v. Lamar County Bank, 107 Miss. 852, 67 So. 961 (1915).

In action for purchase-price of corporate stock, it is no defense that stock was really purchased for another corporation. Kelly v. Bank of Commerce, 101 Miss. 692, 57 So. 978 (1912).

This section does not apply to contract providing connections between corporation maintaining long distance telephone line and individual operating local system. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. State, 100 Miss. 102, 54 So. 670 (1911).

Corporation purchasing interest in another corporation from individual cannot avoid payment of price on ground transaction was ultra vires. Watts Mercantile Co. v. Buchanan, 92 Miss. 540, 46 So. 66 (1908).

If any person, association, firm or corporation shall combine with any other person, association, firm or corporation, or if either of them combine with one or more of the others to prevent, by pooling, any or either of said persons, associations, firms or corporations from separately or individually bidding for the performance of a public work for the state, or any county, municipality, or levee board thereof; or if any person, association, firm or corporation shall prevent, by persuasion or reward, any other person, association, firm or corporation, or any one or more of them, from bidding for the performance of such public work, they, and each of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

to the jurisdiction of the court in a suit under the common law for damages resulting from alleged unfair competition. Memphis Steam Laundry-Cleaners v. Lindsey, 192 Miss. 224, 5 So. 2d 227 (1941).

It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent to encourage fair and honest competition, and to safeguard the public against unfair, dishonest, deceptive, destructive, and fraudulent business practices existing in transactions involving the sale of, offer to sell, or inducement to sell, cigarettes in the wholesale and retail trades in this state. It is further declared that the advertising, offering for sale, or sale of cigarettes below cost in the wholesale or retail trades with the intent of injuring competitors or destroying or substantially lessening competition, is an unfair and deceptive trade practice. § 75-23-7. Sale at less than cost; rebate in price.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any wholesaler or retailer, with intent to injure competitors or destroy or substantially lessen competition, to advertise, offer to sell, or sell, at retail or wholesale, cigarettes at less than cost to such wholesaler or retailer, as the case may be. It shall be unlawful for any wholesaler or retailer with intent to injure competitors or destroy or substantially lessen competition to offer a rebate in price, to give a rebate in price, to offer a concession of any kind or to give a concession of any kind or nature whatsoever in connection with the sale of cigarettes. It shall be unlawful for any retail dealer to induce or attempt to induce or to procure or attempt to procure the purchase of cigarettes at a price less than "cost to wholesaler" and it shall be unlawful for any retail dealer to induce or attempt to induce or to procure or attempt to procure any rebate or concession of any kind or nature whatsoever in connection with the purchase of cigarettes. JUDICIAL DECISIONS*1. In general.

Unfair cigarette sales law requires proof of intent to both injure competitors and destroy or substantially lessen competition, and mere intent to injure competitors is insufficient; Mississippi unfair cigarette sales law does not violate due process since court cannot conclude that rebate provision bears no rational relation to state's legitimate interest in protecting healthy market competition and in view of fact that legislature is under no duty to pick least restrictive means for furthering its legitimate interests; protection of public from unfair business practices which tend to injure competitors and destroy or substantially lessen competition is necessarily matter affected with public interest and is legitimate goal of legislative action. Corr-Williams Whsle. Co. v. Stacy Williams Co., 622 F. Supp. 156 (S.D. Miss. 1985).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In a case in which buyers of a demonstrator vehicle sued a car dealership for claims related to the purchase of the vehicle, which had been damaged in an automobile accident, summary judgment for the dealership was reversed where genuine issues of material fact existed regarding whether the dealership was under a duty to disclose the repaired damage to the vehicle prior to purchase, whether the language of the purchase contract was sufficient to place the buyers on notice of the damage to the vehicle from the prior accident, and whether the dealership violated the Consumer Protection Act when selling the vehicle to the buyers. Holman v. Howard Wilson Chrysler Jeep, Inc., — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 544 (Miss. Sept. 27, 2007).

§ 75-24-3. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(a) “Person” means natural persons, corporations, trusts, partnerships, incorporated and unincorporated associations, and any other legal entity.

(b) “Trade” and “commerce” mean the advertising, offering for sale, or distribution of any services and any property, tangible or intangible, real, personal or mixed, and any other article, commodity, or thing of value wherever situated, and shall include without limitation, both domestic and foreign persons, irrespective of their having qualified to do business within the state and any trade or commerce directly or indirectly affecting the people of this state.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that in construing what constitutes unfair or deceptive trade practices that the courts will be guided by the interpretations given by the Federal Trade Commission and the federal courts to Section 5(a)(1) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 USCS 45(a)(1)) as from time to time amended.

1. Removal of action to federal court.

Where a jewelry company and its insurers removed to the federal district court an action filed by Mississippi residents based on diversity of citizenship under 28 U.S.C.S. § 1332, the residents were not entitled to remand under 28 U.S.C.S. § 1447 because the residents fraudulently joined certain employees of the jewelry company as resident defendants;

there was no reasonable possibility of recovery against the resident defendants on the claim under the Mississippi Unfair or Deceptive Acts and Practices Act, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-3 et seq., or on any other claim related to the allegedly fraudulent jewelry loans. Rawls v. Friedman's Inc., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21333 (S.D. Miss. June 27, 2003).

§ 75-24-5. Prohibited acts or practices.

(1) Unfair methods of competition affecting commerce and unfair or deceptive trade practices in or affecting commerce are prohibited. Action may be brought under Section 75-24-5(1) only under the provisions of Section 75-24-9.

(2) Without limiting the scope of subsection (1) of this section, the following unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive trade practices or acts in the conduct of any trade or commerce are hereby prohibited:

- (a) Passing off goods or services as those of another;
- (b) Misrepresentation of the source, sponsorship, approval, or certification of goods or services;
- (c) Misrepresentation of affiliation, connection, or association with, or certification by another;
- (d) Misrepresentation of designations of geographic origin in connection with goods or services;
- (e) Representing that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or quantities that they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, affiliation, or connection that he does not have;
- (f) Representing that goods are original or new if they are reconditioned, reclaimed, used, or secondhand;
- (g) Representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are of another;
- (h) Disparaging the goods, services, or business of another by false or misleading representation of fact;
- (i) Advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised;

(j) Advertising goods or services with intent not to supply reasonably expectable public demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity;

(k) Misrepresentations of fact concerning the reasons for, existence of, or amounts of price reductions;

(l) Advertising by or on behalf of any licensed or regulated health care professional which does not specifically describe the license or qualifications of the licensed or regulated health care professional;

(m) Charging an increased premium for reinstating a motor vehicle insurance policy that was cancelled or suspended by the insured solely for the reason that he was transferred out of this state while serving in the United States Armed Forces or on active duty in the National Guard or United States Armed Forces Reserve. It is also an unfair practice for an insurer to charge an increased premium for a new motor vehicle insurance policy if the applicant for coverage or his covered dependents were previously insured with a different insurer and canceled that policy solely for the reason that he was transferred out of this state while serving in the United States Armed Forces or on active duty in the National Guard or United States Armed Forces Reserve. For purposes of determining premiums, an insurer shall consider such persons as having maintained continuous coverage. The provisions of this paragraph (m) shall apply only to such instances when the insured does not drive the vehicle during the period of cancellation or suspension of his policy.

1. In general.

Genuine issue of material fact existed concerning whether the car dealership sold the customers the demonstrator car as a new vehicle; therefore, summary judgment in favor of the dealership was

Mississippi Court of Appeals held that an automobile insurance policy is not “merchandise” subject to the provisions of the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act, and therefore a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim was granted in an action under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-5 based on an allegation that an insurer fraudulently used an information service to obtain lower values on vehicles that were a total loss; moreover, an insured failed to attempt to resolve the claim, as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-15(2). Taylor v. Southern Farm Bureau Casualty Co., 954 So. 2d 1045 (Miss. Ct. App. 2007).

In an action in which the purchaser of a truck alleged that the seller had represented a used truck as a new one in violation of Mississippi's Consumer Protection Act (§§ 75-24-1 et seq.) and the Mississippi Motor Vehicle Commission Law (§§ 63-17-51 et seq.), the trial judge did not err in finding, as a matter of law, that the truck was new, even though a third party had previously attempted to purchase the truck but had returned it one week after driving it home, where no title had ever been issued to the third party, and the purchaser was told at the time of the sale that there were 1,790 miles on the odometer because the truck had either been test driven or had been the subject of a sale that had fallen through. Hernandez v. Vickery Chevrolet-Oldsmobile Co., 652 So. 2d 179 (Miss. 1995).

In an action in which the purchaser of a truck alleged that the seller had represented a used truck as a new one in violation of Mississippi's Consumer Protection Act (§§ 75-24-1 et seq.) and the Mississippi Motor Vehicle Commission Law (§§ 63-17-51 et seq.), the trial court did not err in failing to consider § 75-2-401(2), which pertains to passing of title, since the issue was whether the truck was new or used when it was purchased and this question could be answered without exceeding the confines of the Motor Vehicle Commission Law and the Motor Vehicle Title Law (§§ 63-21-1 et seq.). Hernandez v. Vickery Chevrolet-Oldsmobile Co., 652 So. 2d 179 (Miss. 1995).

Major construction defect insurance policy was not "goods" or "service" within meaning of state's Consumer Protection Act. Burley v. Homeowners Warranty Corp., 773 F. Supp. 844 (S.D. Miss. 1990), aff'd, 936 F.2d 569 (5th Cir. 1991).

A plaintiff's allegation that the defendants stated that they would complete a residence within 90 days when they knew that it could not be completed within that time and that they did not intend to complete it within 90 days did not fall within the purview of § 75-24-5(i) which proscribes advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised; the term "advertising" used in that subsection is intended to mean advertising and offering to the general public and does not include representations made during the negotiation process for the purchase of a particular item or items. Moreover, where a party charges a violation under § 75-24-5 and is not successful in recovering under that charge, the opposing (prevailing) party is entitled to attorney's fees for defending the allegation even though it is not determined that the allegations did not in fact come within the purview of the section. Deer Creek Constr. Co. v. Peterson, 412 So. 2d 1169 (Miss. 1982).

Trial court properly found that defendant art dealers had engaged in deceitful and unfair advertising where the evidence showed that 90 percent of the paintings came from Hong Kong and where witnesses testified that the advertisements, even though defendants' advertisements had claimed they were the work of local artists, had persuaded them to attend the art sales and that they probably would not have attended had they known the true facts. Southwest Starving Artists Group, Inc. v. State ex rel. Summer, 364 So. 2d 1128 (Miss. 1978).

2. Private right of action.

In its suit seeking payment of an unpaid patient bill from a preferred provider organization, a hospital was not entitled to bring a private cause of action under Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-24-15, 75-24-5 of the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act because the hospital was not an individual who purchased a good for personal or family purposes and instead was a provider of services for commercial, for-profit reasons. River Region Med. Corp. v. Am. Lifecare, Inc., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21693 (S.D. Miss. Mar. 17, 2008).

§ 75-24-13. Powers of receivers; right of injured party to participate; jurisdiction of court.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Informal resolution required.
3. Class actions barred.
4. Private right of action.

1. In general.

Consumers' claim that several corporations involved in the gasoline industry had committed price gouging in violation of the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act, Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-24-1 et seq., was dismissed where they failed to allege that they had made a purchase as required by Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-24-15 and 75-24-25, and that failure could not be cured by amendment because many of the named corporations did not sell gasoline directly to Mississippi consumers. Cole v. Chevron USA, Inc., 554 F. Supp. 2d 655 (S.D. Miss. 2007).

Mississippi Court of Appeals held that an automobile insurance policy is not "merchandise" subject to the provisions of the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act, and therefore a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim was granted in an action under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-5 based on an allegation that an insurer fraudulently used an information service to obtain lower values on vehicles that were a total loss; moreover, an insured failed to attempt to resolve the claim, as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-15(2). Taylor v. Southern Farm Bureau Casualty Co., 954 So. 2d 1045 (Miss. Ct. App. 2007).

A prevailing plaintiff in a deceptive trade practices action was not entitled to attorney's fees, although § 75-24-15(2) provided for an award of attorney's fees to a prevailing plaintiff in such actions at the time the plaintiff filed his original complaint and when he filed an amended complaint which added the deceptive trade practices claim, since (1) the amended version of § 75-24-15, which eliminated the provision for an award of attorney's fees to prevailing plaintiffs, became effective 3 months before the case was tried, and applied to the case, and (2) the plaintiff never acquired any "right" to recover attorney's fees for violation of the deceptive trade practices statute, for only when he prevailed would he have been entitled to recover the fees, even under the former version of § 75-24-15. Wilson v. Nelson Hall Chevrolet, Inc., 871 F. Supp. 279 (S.D. Miss. 1994), aff'd in part, 77 F.3d 479 (5th Cir. 1996).

2. Informal resolution required.

In a case in which a musical artist had sued an entertainment company alleging a claim for unfair competition under Mississippi law, but the artist had not first attempted to resolve the claim through the informal dispute settlement program established by the Attorney General, as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-15(2), the artist's claim was barred. Montalto v. Viacom Int'l, Inc., 545 F. Supp. 2d 556 (S.D. Miss. 2008).

Husband and wife's argument that the trial court improperly granted summary judgment in favor of the agent, lending company, and others, on the husband's and wife's claim under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-15 was improper because the husband and wife admitted that they did not take any steps to resolve the claim through informal resolution as required by § 75-24-15(2). Dominquez v. Palmer, 970 So. 2d 737 (Miss. Ct. App. 2007).

Consumers' claim that several corporations involved in the gasoline industry had committed price gouging in violation of the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act, Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-24-1 et seq., was dismissed where they failed to attempt informal pre-suit resolution, as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-15(2). Cole v. Chevron USA, Inc., 554 F. Supp. 2d 655 (S.D. Miss. 2007).

3. Class actions barred.

Class action bar was applied to bar the consumers' class action claims of price gouging against several corporations involved in the gasoline industry because, under the Erie doctrine, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-24-15(4) was a substantive law that did not directly collide with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Cole v. Chevron USA, Inc., 554 F. Supp. 2d 655 (S.D. Miss. 2007).

4. Private right of action.

In its suit seeking payment of an unpaid patient bill from a preferred provider organization, a hospital was not entitled to bring a private cause of action under Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-24-15, 75-24-5 of the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act because the hospital was not an individual who purchased a good for personal or family purposes and instead was a provider of services for commercial, for-profit reasons. River Region Med. Corp. v. Am. Lifecare, Inc., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21693 (S.D. Miss. Mar. 17, 2008).

(b) Vacating, annulling, or suspending the corporate charter of a corporation created by or under the laws of this state or revoking or suspending the certificate of authority to do business in this state of a foreign corporation or revoking or suspending any other licenses, permits or certificates issued pursuant to law to such person which are used to further the allegedly prohibited practice;

§ 75-24-171. Liability of lessors for violations generally; availability of offsets; nature of remedies; limitation period.

(1) A lessor who fails to comply with the requirements of Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175 is liable to the consumer damaged thereby in an amount equal to the greater of:

(a) The actual damages sustained by the consumer as a result of the lessor's failure to comply with Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175;

(b) Twenty-five percent (25%) of the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership, but not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00); or

(c) Such lessor is also liable to the consumer for the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees as determined by the court.

(2) A consumer may not take any action to offset the amount for which a lessor is potentially liable under subsection (1) of this section against any amount owed by the consumer, unless the amount of the lessor's liability has been determined by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the lessor was a party. This subsection does not bar a consumer then in default on an obligation from asserting a violation of Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175 as an original action, or as a defense or counterclaim, to an action brought by a lessor against the consumer.

(3) The provisions of Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175 are cumulative with any other rights or remedies available in this state.

(4) No action under this section may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction more than one (1) year after the date the consumer made his last rental payment or more than one (1) year after the date of the occurrence of the violation that is the subject of the suit, whichever is later.

§ 75-24-173. Liability of lessors for unintentional violations or bona fide errors; effect of notification and adjustment of errors by lessors.

(1) If a lessor establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation of Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175 was unintentional or the result of a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid such errors, no penalty as specified in Section 75-24-171 may be imposed and validity of the transaction is not affected. Examples of bona fide errors are clerical errors, calculation errors, errors due to unintentionally improper computer programming or data entry and printing errors but do not include an error of legal judgment with respect to a lessor's obligations under Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175.

(2) A lessor has no liability under this section for any failure to comply with any requirement imposed under Sections 75-24-151 through 75-24-175 if

§ 75-25-1. Definitions.

As used in this chapter the following terms shall have the meaning indicated:

(a) The term "trademark" as used herein means any word, name, symbol, or device or any combination thereof used by a person to identify and distinguish the goods of such person, including a unique product, from those manufactured or sold by others, and to indicate the source of the goods, even if that source is unknown.

(b) The term "service mark" as used herein means any word, name, symbol or device or any combination thereof used by a person to identify and distinguish the services of one (1) person, including a unique service, from the services of others, and to indicate the source of the services, even if that source is unknown. Titles, character names used by a person and other distinctive features of radio or television programs may be registered as service marks notwithstanding that they, or the programs, may advertise the goods of the sponsor.

(c) The term "mark" as used herein includes any trademark or service mark entitled to registration under this chapter whether registered or not.

(d) The term "trade name" means any name used by a person to identify a business or vocation of such person.

(e) The term “person” and any other word or term used to designate the applicant or other party entitled to a benefit or privilege or rendered liable under the provisions of this chapter includes a juristic person as well as a natural person. The term “juristic person” includes a firm, partnership, corporation, union, association or other organization capable of suing and being sued in a court of law. .

(f) The term “applicant” as used herein embraces the person filing an application for registration of a mark under this chapter, and the legal representatives, successors or assigns of such person.

(g) The term “registrant” as used herein embraces the person to whom the registration of a mark under this chapter is issued, and the legal representatives, successors or assigns of such person.

(h) The term “use” means the bona fide use of a mark in the ordinary course of trade, and not made merely to reserve a right in a mark. For the purposes of this chapter, a mark shall be deemed to be in use:

(1) On goods when it is placed in any manner on the goods or other containers or the displays associated therewith or on the tags or labels affixed thereto, or if the nature of the goods makes such placement impracticable, then on documents associated with the goods or their sale, and the goods are sold or transported in commerce in this state, and

(2) On services when it is used or displayed in the sale or advertising of services and the services are rendered in this state.

(i) A mark shall be deemed to be “abandoned” when either of the following occurs:

(1) When its use had been discontinued with intent not to resume such use. Intent not to resume may be inferred from circumstances. Nonuse for two (2) consecutive years shall constitute prima facie evidence of abandonment; or

(2) When any course of conduct of the owner, including acts of omission as well as commission, causes the mark to lose its significance as a mark.

(j) The term “secretary” as used herein means the Secretary of State or the designee of the secretary charged with the administration of this chapter.

(k) The term “dilution” as used herein means dilution by blurring or dilution by tarnishment, regardless of the presence or absence of:

(1) Competition between the owner of the famous mark and other parties, or

(2) Actual or likely confusion, mistake, or deception, or

(3) Actual economic injury.

(l) The term “dilution by blurring” as used herein means association arising from the similarity between a mark or trade name and a famous mark that impairs the distinctiveness of the famous mark.

(m) The term “dilution by tarnishment” as used herein means association arising from the similarity between a mark or trade name and a famous mark that harms the reputation of the famous mark.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The buyer of a business was entitled to have the seller enjoined from using the name "Ham House" in connection with a new business started after the sale, where the name "Ham House" had become associated with the purchased business, and the seller's use of the name and advertisements similar to those used in the purchased business had created considerable confusion in the operation of the purchased business; the word "Ham House" having become associated with the purchased business, it acquired a secondary meaning protectable by injunction. Richardson v. Thomas, 257 So. 2d 877, 173 U.S.P.Q. 237 (Miss. 1972).

The word "Dixie" is a common geographical term generally used to indicate the southern part of the United States, and no proprietary rights can be acquired in such generic or geographical term. Eggleston v. American Fid. Assurance Co., 245 So. 2d 839 (Miss. 1971).

The facts that an oil company's transport trucks traveled Mississippi's highways bearing the words "Another Load of Dixie Gas", and that over a three or four year period about ten thousand automobiles in the state bore bumper stickers stating "I Use Dixie Gas" were not sufficient to support the company's claim to the exclusive use of the trade name "Dixie Gas" over the entire state, where the trucks hauled gasoline only from the company's bulk plant to local stations, rather than traveling all over the state, and where the bumper stickers were the result of a single contest, rather than the product of a continuous advertising campaign. Eggleston v. American Fid. Assurance Co., 245 So. 2d 839 (Miss. 1971).

§ 75-25-3. Registrability.

A mark by which the goods or services of any applicant for registration may be distinguished from the goods or services of others shall not be registered if it:

- (a) Consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive or scandalous matter; or
- (b) Consists of or comprises matter which may disparage or falsely suggest a connection with persons, living or dead, institutions, beliefs, or national symbols, or bring them into contempt, or disrepute; or
- (c) Consists of or comprises the flag or coat of arms or other insignia of the United States, or of any state or municipality, or any foreign nation, or any simulation thereof; or
- (d) Consists of or comprises the name, signature or portrait identifying a particular living individual, except by the individual's written consent; or
- (e) Consists of a mark which, (1) when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or (2) when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant is primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or (3) is primarily merely a surname; however, nothing in this subsection (e) shall prevent the registration of a mark used by the applicant which has become distinctive of the applicant's goods or services. The secretary may accept as evidence that the mark has become distinctive, as used on or in connection with the applicant's goods or services, proof of continuous use thereof as a mark by the applicant in this state for the five (5) years before the date on which the claim of distinctiveness is made; or
- (f) Consists of or comprises a mark which so resembles a mark registered in this state or a mark or trade name previously used by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive.

§ 75-25-5. Application for registration; requirements.

(a) Subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter, any person who uses a mark may file in the office of the secretary, in a manner complying with the requirements of the secretary, an application for registration of that mark setting forth, but not limited to, the following information:

(1) The name and business address of the person applying for such registration; and, if a corporation, the state of incorporation, or if a partnership or other entity, the state in which the entity is organized and the names of the general partners, owners and/or managers, as specified by the secretary;

(3) The date when the mark was first used anywhere and the date when it was first used in this state by the applicant or predecessor in interest; and

(4) A statement that the applicant is the owner of the mark, that the mark is in use, and that, to the knowledge of the person verifying the application, no other person has registered, either federally or in this state, or has the right to use such mark either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of such other person, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.

(b) The secretary may also require a statement as to whether an application to register the mark, or portions or a composite thereof, has been filed by the applicant or a predecessor in interest in the United States Patent and Trademark Office; and, if so, the applicant shall provide full particulars with respect thereto including the filing date and serial number of each application, the status thereof and, if any application was finally refused registration or has otherwise not resulted in a registration, the reasons therefor.

(c) The secretary may also require that a drawing of the mark, complying with such requirements as the secretary may specify, accompany the application.

(d) The application shall be signed and verified by oath, affirmation or declaration subject to perjury laws by the applicant or by a member of the firm or an officer of the corporation or association applying.

(e) The application shall be accompanied by three (3) specimens showing the mark as actually used.

ment parts were new, so the RV met all applicable standards and was merchantable and fit for ordinary use. Byrd v. Paw Paw's Camper City, 967 So. 2d 1251 (Miss. Ct. App. 2007).

§ 75-25-7. Examination of application for registration; requirements; effect; appeal; priority of concurrent applications for same or similar marks.

(a) Upon the filing of an application for registration and payment of the application fee, the secretary may cause the application to be examined for conformity with this chapter.

(b) The applicant shall provide any additional pertinent information requested by the secretary including a description of a design mark and may make, or authorize the secretary to make, such amendments to the application as may be reasonably requested by the secretary or deemed by applicant to be advisable to respond to any rejection or objection.

(c) The secretary may require the applicant to disclaim an unregistrable component of a mark otherwise registrable, and an applicant may voluntarily disclaim a component of a mark sought to be registered. No disclaimer shall prejudice or affect the applicant's or registrant's rights then existing or thereafter arising in the disclaimed matter, or the applicant's or registrant's rights of registration on another application if the disclaimed matter be or shall have become distinctive of the applicant's or registrant's goods or services.

(d) Amendments may be made by the secretary upon the application submitted by the applicant upon applicant's agreement; or a fresh application may be required to be submitted.

(e) If the applicant is found not to be entitled to registration, the secretary shall advise the applicant thereof and of the reasons therefor. The applicant shall have a reasonable period of time specified by the secretary in which to reply or to amend the application, in which event the application shall then be reexamined. This procedure may be repeated until:

(1) The secretary finally refuses registration of the mark; or

(2) the applicant fails to reply or amend within the specified period, whereupon the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

(f) If the secretary finally refuses registration of the mark, the applicant may appeal such refusal to the First Judicial District of the Hinds County Chancery Court. The secretary's refusal may be reversed, but without costs to the secretary, on proof that all the statements in the application are true and that the mark is otherwise entitled to registration.

(g) In the instance of applications concurrently being processed by the secretary seeking registration of the same or confusingly similar marks for the same or related goods or services, the secretary shall grant priority to the applications in order of filing. If a prior-filed application is granted a registration, the other application or applications shall then be rejected. Any rejected applicant may bring an action for cancellation of the registration upon grounds of prior or superior rights to the mark, in accordance with the provisions of Section 75-25-17.

§ 75-25-9. Issuance and delivery of certificate of registration; admissibility in evidence.

Upon compliance by the applicant with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary shall cause a certificate of registration to be issued and delivered to the applicant. The certificate of registration shall be issued under the signature of the secretary and the seal of the state, and it shall show the name and business address and, if a corporation, the state of incorporation, or if a partnership or other entity, the state in which the partnership or other entity is organized and the names of the general partners, owners, and/or managers, as specified by the secretary, of the person claiming ownership of the mark, the date claimed for the first use of the mark anywhere and the date claimed for the first use of the mark in this state, the class of goods or services and a description of the goods or services on or in connection with which the mark is used, a reproduction of the mark, the registration date and the term of the registration.

§ 75-25-25. Owner of famous mark entitled to injunction against another's commercial use of the famous mark; "famous" defined; geographic limitations of injunctive relief; permitted uses of famous mark.

(a) Subject to the principles of equity, the owner of a mark which is famous and distinctive, inherently or through acquired distinctiveness, in this state shall be entitled to an injunction against another person's commercial use of a mark or trade name, if such use begins after the mark has become famous and is likely to cause dilution of the famous mark, and to obtain such other relief as is provided in this section.

(b) A mark is famous if it is widely recognized by the general consuming public of this state or a geographic area in this state as a designation of source of the goods or services of the mark's owner. In determining whether a mark is famous, a court may consider factors such as, but not limited to:

(1) The duration, extent, and geographic reach of advertising and publicity of the mark in this state, whether advertised or publicized by the owner or third parties;

(2) The amount, volume, and geographic extent of sales of goods or services offered under the mark in this state;

(3) The extent of actual recognition of the mark in this state; and

(4) Whether the mark is the subject of a state registration in this state, or a federal registration under the Act of March 3, 1881, or under the Act of February 20, 1905, or on the principal register under the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended.

(c) In an action brought under this section, the owner of a famous mark shall be entitled to injunctive relief throughout the geographic area in which the mark is found to have become famous prior to commencement of the junior use, but not beyond the borders of this state. If the person against whom the injunctive relief is sought willfully intended to cause dilution of the famous mark, then the owner shall also be entitled to the remedies set forth in this chapter, subject to the discretion of the court and the principles of equity.

(d) The following shall not be actionable under this section:

(1) Any fair use, including a nominative or descriptive fair use, or facilitation of such fair use, of a famous mark by another person other than as a designation of source for the person's own goods or services, including use in connection with:

- (A) Advertising or promotion that permits consumers to compare goods or services; or
- (B) Identifying and parodying, criticizing, or commenting upon the famous mark owner or the goods or services of the famous mark owner;
- (2) Noncommercial use of the mark; and
- (3) All forms of news reporting and news commentary.

1. Summary judgment.

Company and the agents were entitled to summary judgment on the developer's misappropriation of trade secrets claim under the Mississippi Uniform Trade Secrets Act, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-26-1, et seq., because the developer's failure to present an expert precluded him from the ability to establish that his software in the circumstances was not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons by reverse engineering, and the developer's efforts to keep his software secret were sorely inadequate. Pepper v. Int'l Gaming Sys., LLC, 312 F. Supp. 2d 853 (N.D. Miss. 2004).

(ii) Is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Trade secret.
2. Misappropriation.

1. Trade secret.

Because a service provider failed to base its allegations of fraud on any specific facts, a chancery court did not abuse its discretion in refusing to allow the provider access to the highly confidential pricing models of its primary competitor under Miss. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(7) and Miss. Code Ann. § 75-26-3(d). Elec. Data Sys. Corp. v. Miss. Div. of Medicaid, 853 So. 2d 1192 (Miss. 2003).

By soliciting and selling made-to-order clothing within a restricted time period and geographic area through use of a customer list that was a trade secret under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-26-3, the employee breached his employment contract and was liable for a refund of value for the cost of training him and attorney's fee costs for enforcing the agreement; the court awarded the company summary judgment on the issue of liability but not as to damages. Tom James Co. v. Hudgins, 261 F. Supp. 2d 636 (S.D. Miss. 2003).

Appellate court reversed the granting of an injunction where the chancellor did not properly consider whether an alleged secret was readily ascertainable by proper means. Marshall v. Gipson Steel, Inc., 806 So. 2d 666 (Miss. 2002).

A customer list was a trade secret since the list had independent economic value as evidenced by the fact that marketing companies were willing to pay money to obtain it and as the plaintiff took reasonable steps to maintain the secrecy of the list. Fred's Stores, Inc. v. M & H Drugs, Inc., 725 So. 2d 902 (Miss. 1998).

The chancellor erred when he applied the strict definition of a trade secret found in subsection (d) as the sole standard to measure the availability under § 25-61-9 to the general public of a proposal to operate a coin operated laundry facility for a university since the Public Records Act protects a broader range of information than just that covered under the definition contained in the Trade Secrets Act. Caldwell & Gregory, Inc. v. University of S. Miss., 716 So. 2d 1120 (Ct. App. 1998).

2. Misappropriation.

Because defendant former employer stated only that defendant former employee may have contacted the employer's customers indirectly or may have caused a letter to be sent from a former supplier to a customer trying to "stir up trouble," but the employer's representative stated he had no proof that the employee had communicated what the employer considered to be privileged or confidential information to a third party, a misappropriation of trade secrets claim under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-26-3(b), (d), 75-26-5, was not likely to prevail on the merits for purposes of a preliminary injunction. Block Corp. v. Nunez, — F. Supp. 2d —, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 34374 (N.D. Miss. Apr. 25, 2008).

§ 75-26-5. Injunctive relief; protective orders.

(1) Actual or threatened misappropriation may be enjoined. Upon application to the court, an injunction shall be terminated when the trade secret has ceased to exist, but the injunction may be continued for an additional reasonable period of time in order to eliminate commercial advantage that otherwise would be derived from the misappropriation.

(2) In exceptional circumstances, an injunction may condition future use upon payment of a reasonable royalty for no longer than the period of time for which use could have been prohibited. Exceptional circumstances include, but are not limited to, a material and prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation that renders a prohibitive injunction inequitable.

(3) In appropriate circumstances, affirmative acts to protect a trade secret may be compelled by court order.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Merits of claim.

Because defendant former employer stated only that defendant former employee may have contacted the employer's customers indirectly or may have caused a letter to be sent from a former supplier to a customer trying to "stir up trouble," but the employer's representative stated he had no proof that the employee had communicated what the employer considered to be privileged or confidential information to a third party, a misappropriation of trade secrets claim under Miss. Code Ann. § 75-26-3(b), (d), 75-26-5, was not likely to prevail on the merits for purposes of a preliminary injunction. Block Corp. v. Nunez, — F. Supp. 2d —, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 34374 (N.D. Miss. Apr. 25, 2008).

§ 75-26-7. Damages for misappropriation; liability for royalty.

(1) Except to the extent that a material and prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation renders a monetary recovery inequitable, a complainant is entitled to recover damages for misappropriation. Damages can include both the actual loss caused by misappropriation and the unjust enrichment caused by misappropriation that is not taken into account in computing actual loss. In lieu of damages measured by any other methods, the damages caused by misappropriation may be measured by imposition of liability for a reasonable royalty for a misappropriator's unauthorized disclosure or use of a trade secret.

(2) If willful and malicious misappropriation exists, the court may award exemplary damages.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990, ch. 442, § 4, eff from and after July 1, 1990.

Cross References — Punitive damages, generally, see § 11-1-65.

§ 75-26-9. Attorney's fees.

If (a) a claim of misappropriation is made in bad faith, (b) a motion to terminate an injunction is made or resisted in bad faith or (c) willful and malicious misappropriation exists, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990, ch. 442, § 5, eff from and after July 1, 1990.

§ 75-26-11. Protection of trade secrets during action.

In an action under this chapter, a court shall preserve the secrecy of an alleged trade secret by reasonable means, which may include granting protective orders in connection with discovery proceedings, holding in-camera hearings, sealing the records of the action and ordering any person involved in the litigation not to disclose an alleged trade secret without prior court approval.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990, ch. 442, § 6, eff from and after July 1, 1990.

Cross References — Public access to records, generally, see § 25-61-11.

§ 75-26-13. Statute of limitations.

An action for misappropriation must be brought within three (3) years after the misappropriation is discovered or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been discovered. For the purposes of this section, a continuing misappropriation constitutes a single claim.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990, ch. 442, § 7, eff from and after July 1, 1990.

§ 75-26-15. Application of provisions to other laws, actions or proceedings.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), this chapter displaces conflicting tort, restitutionary and other law of this state providing civil remedies for misappropriation of a trade secret.

(2) This chapter does not affect:

(a) Contractual remedies, whether or not based upon misappropriation of a trade secret;

(b) Other civil remedies that are not based upon misappropriation of a trade secret; or

(c) Criminal remedies, whether or not based upon misappropriation of a trade secret.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Preemption.

The plaintiff's claims for relief other than misappropriation of trade secrets, i.e., unfair competition, intentional interference with a business relationship, intentional interference with a lawful trade, and intentional interference with a business interest, were not preempted or displaced by the Mississippi Uniform Trade Secrets Act since each of the claims could stand alone and withstand summary judgment even without proof that a stolen customer list was a trade secret. Fred's Stores, Inc. v. M & H Drugs, Inc., 725 So. 2d 902 (Miss. 1998).

§ 75-26-17. Construction of provisions.

This chapter shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this chapter among states enacting it.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990, ch. 442, § 9, eff from and after July 1, 1990.

§ 75-26-19. Severability provisions.

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

§ 75-27-3. Meaning of terms.

When used in this article:

(1) The word “person” means both the plural and singular, as the case demands, and includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, companies, societies, and associations.

(2) The words “weight(s) and (or) measure(s)” means all weights and measures of every kind, all instruments and devices and all electronic systems that employ a laser bar code reader to retrieve product identity, price and other information stored in computer memory, for weighing and measuring, or in the computing of any basic charge or payment for products bought or services rendered on the basis of weight or measure or count and any appliances and accessories associated with such instruments and devices, except that the term does not include meters for the measurement of electricity, gas, or water when the meters are operated in a public utility system, or production from oil and gas wells under the supervision of the State Oil and Gas Board. Such electricity, gas, and water meters are hereby specifically excluded from this article, and none of the provisions of this article shall apply to such meters or to any appliances or accessories associated with them.

(3) The words “sell” and “sale” means barter and exchange.

(4) The term “director” and “deputy director” means, respectively, the State Director of Weights and Measures, who shall be the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce, and the Deputy State Director of Weights and Measures, who shall serve as the administrator.

(5) The term “inspector” means a state inspector of weights and measures.

(6) The term “intrastate commerce” means any and all commerce or trade that is begun, carried on, and completed wholly within the limits of the State of Mississippi, and the phrase “introduced into intrastate commerce” shall be construed to define the time and place at which the first sale and delivery of a commodity is made within the state, and delivery being made either directly to the purchaser or to a common carrier for shipment to the purchaser.

(7) The term “commodity in package form” means commodity put up or packaged in any manner in advance of sale in units suitable for either wholesale or retail sale, exclusive, however, of an auxiliary shipping container enclosing packages that individually conform to the requirements of this article. An individual item or lot of any commodity not in package form as defined in this section, but on which there is marked a selling price based on an established price per unit of weight or of measure, shall be construed to be commodity in package form.

(8) The term “Handbook 44” means the National Institute of Standards and Technology Handbook 44, “Specifications, Tolerances, and Other Technical Requirements for Weighing and Measuring Devices.”

§ 75-27-5. Systems of weights and measures.

The system of weights and measures in customary use in the United States and the metric system of weights and measures are jointly recognized, and one or the other of these systems shall be used for all commercial purposes in the State of Mississippi. The definitions of basic units of weights and measures, the tables of weight and measure, and weights and measures equivalents, as published by the National Bureau of Standards, are recognized and shall govern weighing and measuring equipment and transactions in the state.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A defendant was improperly convicted of possession of more than one ounce of marijuana where the marijuana in his possession weighed 29.8 grams which, although more than the avoirdupois ounce of 28.3 grams, was less than the troy or apothecaries ounce of 31.1 grams; if the legislature had intended for the avoirdupois ounce to be used, it would have distinguished the avoirdupois ounce from the troy or apothecaries ounce as specified in the National Bureau of Standards Handbook which provides that the word “avoirddupois" or the abbreviation "avdp" be used to specify that unit of weight. Horton v. State, 408 So. 2d 1197 (Miss. 1982).

The imposition of a sentence of five years for possession of phencyclidine, a Schedule I drug, was excessive under § 41-29-139 which provides for a sentence not exceeding three years for possession of a controlled substance classified as a Schedule I or II drug. Horton v. State, 408 So. 2d 1197 (Miss. 1982).

§ 75-27-7. Definitions of special units of measure.

The term "barrel" shall mean a unit of thirty-one (31) gallons. However, the term "barrel," when used in reference to seafood or parts thereof, shall be the measure defined by ordinance of the Mississippi Commission on Marine Resources under authority of Sections 49-15-1 through 49-15-67, Mississippi Code of 1972. The term "ton" shall mean a unit of two thousand (2,000) pounds avoirdupois weight. The term "cord" shall mean the amount that is contained in a space of one hundred twenty-eight (128) cubic feet when such is ranked and well stowed.

§ 75-27-9. State standards of weight and measure.

Such weights and measures in conformity with the standards of the United States as have been supplied to the state by the federal government or otherwise obtained by the state for use as state standards shall, when the same shall have been certified as being satisfactory for use as such by the National Bureau of Standards, be the state standards of weight and measure. The state standards shall be kept in a safe and suitable place in the office or laboratory of the state division of weights and measures, they shall not be removed from the said office or laboratory except for repairs or for certification, and they shall be submitted at least once in ten (10) years to the National Bureau of Standards for certification. The state standards shall be used only in verifying the office standards and for scientific purposes.

The office standards and field standards shall be verified upon their initial receipt and at least once each year thereafter, the office standards by direct comparison with the state standards and the field standards by comparison with the office standards.

§ 75-27-19. Specific powers and duties of directors; regulations.

The director may adopt, amend or repeal regulations for the enforcement of this article, which regulations shall have the force and effect of law. These regulations may include (1) standards of net weight, measure or count, and reasonable standards of fill, for any commodity in package form, (2) rules governing the technical and reporting procedures to be followed and the report and record forms and marks of approval and rejection to be used by inspectors of weights and measures in the discharge of their official duties, and (3) exemptions from the sealing or marking requirements of Section 75-27-31 with respect to weights and measures of such character or size that such sealing or marking would be inappropriate, impracticable, or damaging to the apparatus in question. These regulations shall include specifications, tolerances and regulations for weights and measures of the character of those specified in Section 75-27-23, designed to eliminate from use, without prejudice to apparatus that conforms as closely as practicable to the official standards, those (1) that are not accurate, (2) that are of such construction that they are faulty — that is, that are not reasonably permanent in their adjustment or will not repeat their indications correctly, or (3) that facilitate the perpetration of fraud. The specifications, tolerances and regulations for commercial weighing and measuring devices, together with amendments thereto, as recommended by the National Institute of Standards and Technology and published in Handbook 44 and supplements thereto, or in any publication revising or superseding Handbook 44, shall be the specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and measuring devices of the State of Mississippi, except insofar as specifically modified, amended or rejected by a regulation issued by the director. For the purposes of this article, apparatus shall be deemed to be "correct" when it conforms to all applicable requirements promulgated as specified in this section; other apparatus shall be deemed to be "incorrect." The division shall levy no charges or fees for the field tests or inspections made under this article; however, the director shall adopt a schedule of fees for calibration and testing services provided by the State Metrology Laboratory. Fees collected for such calibration and testing shall be deposited in the State Treasury in the special fund for the Department of Agriculture and Commerce. The director shall require persons installing scales with a weight capacity of ten thousand (10,000) pounds or more to secure a permit for each such scale installed, establish a fee not to exceed Fifty Dollars (\$50.00) for such permit and require such person to supply the director with scale and scale foundation blueprints and specifications for each installation before installation of the scale. Applications for permit shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the director. The director shall establish and adopt scale pit and approach specifications for scales with a capacity of ten thousand (10,000) pounds or more. However, weighing devices with a capacity of ten thousand (10,000) pounds or more used to weigh road construction materials shall be exempt from the requirements of this article. Such weighing devices for road construction materials shall have a tolerance of one-half of one percent ( $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1%) in lieu of the requirements of Handbook 44 and shall be regulated by the Mississippi Department of Transportation instead of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce. For purposes of this section, the term "road construction materials" shall include, but not be limited to, sand, gravel, asphalt, fill dirt, topsoil and concrete. The term "road construction materials" shall not include timber or timber products.

his findings, in writing, to the supervisory board and to the executive officer of the institution concerned.

§ 75-27-23. General testing.

When not otherwise provided by law, the director shall have the power to inspect and test, to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures kept, offered, or exposed for sale or purchase. It shall be the duty of the director within a twelve-month period, or less frequently if in accordance with a schedule issued by him, and as much oftener as he may deem necessary to inspect and test, to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures commercially used (1) in determining the weight, measurement or count of commodities or things sold or purchased, or offered or exposed for sale or purchase, on the basis of weight, measure, or of count, or (2) in computing the basic charge or payment for services rendered on the basis of weight, measure, or of count. Provided, that with respect to single-service devices — that is, devices designed to be used commercially only once and to be then discarded — and with respect to devices uniformly mass-produced, as by means of a mold or die, and not susceptible of individual adjustment, tests may be made on representative samples of such devices; and the lots of which such samples are representative shall be held to be correct or incorrect upon the basis of the results of the inspections and tests on such samples.

The manufacturer or distributor of any weighing device(s) offered for sale, sold, installed for commercial use or used commercially in this state shall subject such device to type evaluation testing by the National Type Evaluation Program (NTEP), National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST). Any weighing device not covered by a certificate of conformance from such agency shall not be used commercially in this state.

Purchasers of pulpwood, in determining payment to seller, may convert from weight to volume or volume to weight. Except as otherwise provided in this article, any commodity in package form introduced or delivered for introduction into or received in intrastate commerce, kept for the purpose of sale, or offered or exposed for sale in intrastate commerce shall bear on the outside of the package a definite, plain, and conspicuous declaration of (1) the identity of the commodity in the package unless the same can easily be identified through the wrapper or container, (2) the net quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or count, and (3) in the case of any package kept, offered, or exposed for sale, or sold any place other than on the premises where packed, the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor. Provided, that in connection with the declaration required under clause (2), neither the qualifying term "when packed" or any words of similar import shall be used. Provided further, that under clause (2) the director shall, by regulation, establish (a) reasonable variations to be allowed, which shall include variations below the declared weight or measure caused by ordinary and customary exposure, only after the commodity is introduced into intrastate commerce, to conditions that normally occur in good distribution practice and that unavoidably result in decreased weight or measure, (b) exemptions as to small packages, and (c) exemptions as to commodities put up in variable weights or sizes for sale intact and either customarily not sold as individual units or customarily weighed or measured at time of sale to the consumer.

§ 75-27-113. Measure of timber.

(1) Timber purchased by weight or measured volume shall be purchased by weight on the basis of tonnage or pounds with one (1) ton equaling two thousand (2,000) pounds avoirdupois weight, or by measured volume so long as the measured volume is not calculated by weight but is derived from any of the standards provided in subsection (2).

(2) When timber is purchased by measured volume, the timber shall be measured by either cubic feet, Doyle Log Rule, International ¼ Inch Rule or Scribner Decimal C Rule.

(3) No person, firm or corporation, shall use any scales or measuring device in the purchase of timber unless the same is true and accurate. (5)(a) The State Director of Weights and Measures, the Deputy Director of Weights and Measures and any state inspector of weights and measures are hereby vested with police powers, such as given to sheriff and constables, for the sole purpose of issuing citations, without warrant, to any person who the Director, Deputy Director or inspector has probable cause to believe is violating this section, or who shall impede, hinder or otherwise prevent or attempt to prevent the testing of scales or measuring devices or enforcement of this chapter. The citation shall be returnable to the Deputy Director of Weights and Measures. No citation for a violation of this section shall be issued after one (1) year from the date of the violation.

(b) The Deputy Director of Weights and Measures, or his designee, shall within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the citation, dismiss the citation, issue a written warning or levy a fine of not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for the first offense; not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the second offense if the second offense occurs within six (6) months of the first offense; or not more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) for the third and subsequent offenses, if the third or subsequent offenses occur within six (6) months of the first offense. A person, firm or corporation operating any scales or measuring devices in the purchase of timber at more than one (1) location in the state shall not be subject to fines for second or subsequent offenses unless the offenses occur at the same location on separate days. A citation shall record each and every violation of this section but for the purposes of determining second and subsequent offenses under this section, all violations of this section committed by one (1) person, firm or corporation at one (1) location during one (1) day shall constitute one (1) offense.

§ 75-27-207. Sealing or making of weighing device; condemned scales.

Whenever the commissioner of agriculture and commerce finds that a weighing device corresponds with the standards in his possession, he shall seal or mark such weighing device with an appropriate label or tag. He shall mark "condemned-not to be used" on incorrect weighing devices, or devices which do not meet the requirements of this article. The owner or user of such latter named devices shall not again use such devices unless, and until, same have been repaired or changed by such owner or user and have been approved by the commissioner of agriculture and commerce or authorized agent and sealed and marked as provided above. § 75-27-209. Permit required; fee; renewal; limit; bond; report.

(1) No person, firm or corporation covered by the provisions of Section 75-27-201 shall engage in the sale or purchase of livestock, by weight, without first having secured a permit, issued by the commissioner of agriculture and commerce, for a fee not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars (\$150.00), provided, however, in operating a packing house, only one (1) permit shall be required for any firm, corporation or other such place of business, though a number of persons may be employed in the packing house, whose duties may include or be limited to the weighing of cattle, except that each separate location where any livestock is purchased or processed shall be considered to be a separate business. Permits shall be issued or renewed annually, beginning July 1, 1958, and may be revoked by the issuing office for good cause shown. Initial permits issued after the month of July for any person covered by the provisions of Section 75-27-201, the charge shall be at the rate of one-twelfth ( $\frac{1}{12}$ ) of the stipulated fee for each remaining month in the fiscal year. Permits issued under the provisions of this article shall not be transferable and shall apply to only the particular yard, sales barn, meat packer, commission merchant or other particular persons covered by this article; and an additional permit must be obtained for each additional such business. Each person covered by the provisions of Section 75-27-201 shall execute and maintain a surety bond payable to the State of Mississippi with securities to be approved by the Secretary of State for the faithful performance of their functions under this article and said bond may be put in suit by any damaged party. Provided, however, any such person may elect to maintain, in whole or partial substitution for such surety bond, one or more irrevocable letters of credit, surety bonds or trust fund agreements, or combination thereof. The total amount of the letter(s) of credit, surety bond(s) or trust fund agreement(s) or combination thereof, shall not be less than the total required amount of the surety bond. All bonds, letters of credit or trust fund agreements shall in matter of form, content, and calculated coverage meet the requirements of the Code of Federal Regulations Title 9, Part 201, Packers and Stockyards Administration General Bonding Regulations or as such regulations may be amended. In no case shall the amount of bond coverage be less than ten thousand dollars (\$10,000.00). In the event of default by persons covered by this article the commissioner of agriculture and commerce may, at his discretion, be named as trustee for the dispersal of moneys calculated to be due and payable to individuals injured by such default as determined by the Packers and Stockyards Administration. In the event a buyer under the terms of this article has more than one (1) employee engaged in the weighing of livestock, a single bond covering all persons weighing livestock shall be deemed sufficient for the purposes of this article. However, the aggregate liability of the surety for all such suits shall, in no event, exceed the sum of said bond. Any person who has met the requirements of federal law by posting a similar bond, letter of credit or trust fund agreement and filing a copy of such instrument with the commissioner of agriculture and commerce shall be exempt from the above bond requirement of making a State of Mississippi bond for the protection of the public. All surety bonds, letters of credit or trust fund agreements shall be filed with the commissioner of agriculture and commerce. Instruments thus filed shall be construed to cover the sale or purchase of livestock at any place of business defined in Section 75-27-201 and it shall be immaterial that the actual purchase or sale was made at some place other than or away from the place of business of seller or purchaser if the purchase or sale was made in the name of such a person as is defined in Section 75-27-201, and the bond shall be construed to cover the issuance of checks in payment for livestock where the maker or payer or endorser, making the same, uses his business name to describe a place of business covered by Section 75-27-201 and the check is not paid for any reason and is due and payable.

(2) Each livestock sales barn, auction sales barn, meat packer, commission merchant, or other similar business, defined in Section 75-27-201, shall make a monthly report at the end of each month to the commissioner of agriculture and commerce showing the number of livestock sold or bought by species.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Persons engaged in buying or selling of livestock by weight do not fall within scope of Section 75-27-209 as long as transaction is based on results of weights	obtained within reasonable period of time prior to transaction by weighing livestock on approved scales. #### § 75-27-211. Inspection of equipment; checking animals; permits and fees; cost of administration; testing equipment on request; seal of approval.

It shall be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture and commerce, either by himself or his duly authorized agents, to inspect, examine and test any and all equipment used by such livestock sales establishments, and to check the weights of animals sold at such time, and place, and in such manner as he may deem proper and necessary to carry out the intent of this article. The said commissioner shall also issue such permits and collect such fees as are herein provided. All monies collected under this article shall be paid into the general fund in the state treasury.

Provided further, the commissioner is hereby authorized, upon written request, to test the scales, or other weighing devices, of any person in this state desiring such tests, and if the commissioner finds such scales, or other weighing devices to be accurate, within the approved tolerances, he may place his seal of approval thereon. The commissioner shall charge for such services a sum sufficient to defray the expenses thereof, and no part of such cost shall be paid from other funds of said commissioner. A strict accounting of all sums received for such testing and approval shall be made.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Section 75-27-305(1) controls over Section 75-27-303(3), therefore only an individual, or human being, and not a corporation, may be licensed as a bonded weighmaster in this state. Spell, September 6, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0561.

Statutory provisions authorizing an individual who is a United States citizen, a Mississippi resident, 21 years of age and of good moral character to be licensed as a bonded weighmaster do not prohibit the licensing of a corporation, partnership or other business entity as a bonded weighmaster. Spell, July 18, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0358.

§ 75-27-307. Licensing provisions; fees; compensation of bonded weighmaster.

(1) Any person, as defined by Section 75-27-303(3), or business before engaging in business as a public weighmaster shall obtain a license from the commissioner. Applications for such license shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the commissioner. Licenses issued hereunder by the commissioner shall expire on June 30 of each year and application for renewal thereof shall be made annually, before the expiration date. The fee for such license and all subsequent renewals for an individual who is not employed by a business shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00). § 75-27-313. Surety bond.

Said bond may be put in suit by any damaged party. However, the aggregate liability of the surety regardless of the number of claims shall not exceed the bond penalty.

A weight or measurement certificate shall be so prepared as to show clearly that weight, weights, measure or measurements were actually determined. If the weight certificate form provides for the entry of gross, tare and net weights, in any case in which only the gross, tare and net weights is determined by the weighmaster, he or she shall strike through or otherwise cancel the printed entries for the weights not determined or computed. If gross and tare weights are shown on a weight certificate and both weights were not determined on the same scale and on the day for which the certificate is dated, the weighmaster shall identify on the certificate the scale used for determining each such weight and the date of each such determination.

(2) A licensed bonded weighmaster shall not use any scale to weigh a load the value of which exceeds the nominal or rated capacity of the scale. When the gross or tare weight of any vehicle or combination of vehicles is to be determined, the weighing shall be performed upon a scale having a platform of sufficient size to accommodate such vehicle or combination of vehicles. (2) The commissioner is authorized to suspend or revoke the license of any bonded weighmaster (a) when he is satisfied, after a hearing upon ten (10) days' notice to the licensee, said licensee has violated any provision of this regulation, or (b) when a bonded weighmaster has been convicted in any court of competent jurisdiction of violating any provision of this regulation.

(3) Any person who requests a bonded weighmaster to weigh or measure any property, produce, commodity or article falsely or incorrectly, or who requests a false or incorrect weight or measurement certificate, or any person who issues a weight or measurement certificate simulating the weight or measurement certificate prescribed in this article and who is not a bonded weighmaster, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed as requiring the commissioner or his duly appointed agent or representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of legal proceedings as a result of minor violations of this article when he or she believes that the public interest will best be served by a suitable notice of warning in writing.

(3) The commissioner is hereby authorized to apply for and the court to grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this article or any rule or regulation promulgated and adopted hereunder notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law. ## JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In customer's suit against enterprise for breach of an implied warranty of merchantability and negligence because customer found a roach in his food, nowhere in Miss. Code Ann. § 75-29-3 did it state that a trial judge had to apply the adulterated food laws standard under § 75-29-2, over any other, such as the foregoing standards, that might be applicable. CEF Enters. v. Betts, 838 So. 2d 999 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003).

This section and [former] § 75-29-15 refer to the inspection, sale, manufacture, keeping for sale and preparation for sale of unwholesome meat and poultry as therein described, and these sections have no application to the use for food, by the owner, of meat from healthy cattle, although such animals were accidentally killed. ### JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The surety under a "blanket" public employees performance bond covering the administrator, trustees, librarian, dietitian, superintendent of nurses, and bookkeeper of a county hospital, was not entitled to recover from the administrator any part of a $6,000 shortage which occurred during the administrator's tenure at the hospital, where the administrator had inherited from his predecessor the mode of operation and continued it without objection by the trustees or by the State Auditing Department, and where the State Auditor's report as to the shortage made no attempt to fix responsibility for the shortage. ## § 75-29-604. Hearings; process; appeals; civil penalties; informal administrative review under certain circumstances.

(1) When a written complaint is made against a person for violation of this article, or any of the rules or regulations, the commissioner, or his designee, shall conduct a full evidentiary hearing. The complaint shall be in writing and shall be filed in the office of the department. The commissioner shall serve the accused with a copy of the complaint and a summons by any of the methods set forth in Rule 4 of the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure or by certified mail. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the summons and a copy of the complaint, the accused shall file a written answer with the department. Upon receipt of the written answer of the accused, the matter shall be set for hearing before the commissioner within a reasonable time. If the accused fails to file an answer within the thirty (30) days, the commissioner may enter an order by default against the accused. The commissioner may issue subpoenas to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents. Compliance with the subpoenas may be enforced by any court of general jurisdiction in this state. The testimony of witnesses shall be upon oath or affirmation, and they shall be subject to cross-examination. The proceedings shall be recorded. If the commissioner determines that the complaint lacks merit, he may dismiss same. If he finds that there is substantial evidence showing that a violation has occurred, he may impose any or all of the following penalties upon the accused: (a) levy a civil penalty in the amount of no more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each violation; (b) issue a stop sale order; (c) require the accused to relabel the honey or honey products that he is offering or exposing for sale which is not labeled in accordance with this article; or (d) seize any lot of honey or honey products that is not in compliance with this article and destroy, sell or otherwise dispose of the honey and honey products and apply the proceeds of the sale to the costs and civil penalties levied with the balance to be paid to the accused. The decision of the commissioner, or his designee, shall be in writing, and it shall be delivered to the accused by certified mail.

(2) Either the accused or the department may appeal the decision of the commissioner to the circuit court of the county of residence of the accused or, if the accused is a nonresident of the State of Mississippi, to the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi. The appellant shall have the record transcribed and file it with the circuit court. The appeal shall otherwise be governed by all applicable laws and rules affecting appeals to circuit court. If no appeal is perfected within the required time, the decision of the commissioner shall then become final.

(3) The decision of the circuit court may then be appealed by either party to the Mississippi Supreme Court in accordance with the existing law and rules affecting such appeals.

(4) When any violation of this article, or the rules and regulations occurs, or is about to occur, that presents a clear and present danger to the public health, safety or welfare requiring immediate action, any of the department's field inspectors, and any other persons authorized by the commissioner, may issue an order to be effective immediately before notice and a hearing that imposes any or all of the following penalties against the accused: (a) issue a stop sale order; (b) require the accused to relabel any honey or honey products that he is offering or exposing for sale and which is not labeled in accordance with this article; or (c) seize any lot of honey or honey products that is not in compliance with this article and destroy, sell or otherwise dispose of the honey or honey products and apply the proceeds of the sale to the cost and any civil penalties levied with the balance to be paid to the accused. The order shall be served upon the accused in the same manner that the summons and complaint may be served upon him. The accused shall then have thirty (30) days after service of the order upon him within which to request an informal administrative review before the Director of the Bureau of Regulatory Services in the department, or his designee, who shall act as reviewing officer. If the accused makes a timely request, the reviewing officer shall conduct an informal administrative review within ten (10) days after the request is made. If the accused does not request an informal administrative review within the thirty (30) days, then he will be deemed to have waived his right to the review. At the informal administrative review, subpoena power shall not be available, witnesses shall not be sworn nor be subject to cross-examination and there shall be no court reporter or record made of the proceedings. Each party may present its case in the form of documents, oral statements or any other method. The rules of evidence shall not apply. The reviewing officer's decision shall be in writing, and it shall be delivered to the parties by certified mail. If either party is aggrieved by the order of the reviewing officer, he may appeal to the commissioner for a full evidentiary hearing in accordance with the procedures in subsection (1) of this section, except that there shall be no requirement for a written complaint or answer to be filed by the parties. The appeal shall be perfected by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner within thirty (30) days after the order of the reviewing officer is served on the appealing party. The hearing before the commissioner, or his designee, shall be held within a reasonable time after the appeal has been perfected. Failure to perfect an appeal within the allotted time shall be deemed a waiver of such right.

(5) The Commissioner may publish the names and addresses of anyone who violates this article.

(i) The milking takes place in a clean environment on a cement or comparable floor;

(ii) The milking place is enclosed by a wall and/or a screen to prevent insects from entering the milking area;

(iii) A fly strap is located in the milking area; and

(iv) Sterile containers are used in the milking process and for storage.

It shall not be unlawful to store raw goat milk in a separate sterile place from pasteurized goat milk. The Cooperative Extension Service at Alcorn State University shall publish and make available literature on the requirements of this subsection, and other related milk-goat maintenance, explaining the recommended care of milk goats and the process of goat milk production and other related subjects. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "incidental sales" means sales from a farm where not more than nine (9) goats are producing milk.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "person" includes an individual, firm, partnership, association or corporation, foreign or domestic.

(5) All fees collected by the board under this section shall be paid into a special fund within the Department of Health to be used by the department to discharge its duties under this section.

(6) Any person coming within the provisions of this section who fails to comply with or violates any of the provisions of this section or regulations promulgated thereunder, unless otherwise specifically provided in this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or confined in jail for not more than sixty (60) days, or both.

(7) Any person who sells or offers for sale adulterated milk or milk products or cream or frozen desserts or any milk or cream having therein any foreign substance or coloring matter or any chemicals or preservatives, whether for the purpose of increasing the quantity of milk or cream or for improving its appearance or for the purpose of preserving the condition of sweetness thereof, or for any other purpose whatsoever, or unpasteurized milk or milk products except as otherwise authorized by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or confined in jail not more than sixty (60) days, or both; however, nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the addition of vitamins to milk or milk products in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the board or to prohibit the sale of pasteurized milk or cream or frozen desserts except unlawful cream or unlawful milk products or unlawful frozen desserts as defined in the rules and regulations promulgated by the board.

(8)(a) Any person doing business in the State of Mississippi and engaged in the production, manufacture, sale or distribution of any dairy products that, for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor in any locality or creating a monopoly, discriminates between different sections, localities, communities, cities or towns of the state by selling such commodity at a lower rate or price in one (1) section, locality, community, city or town than such commodity is sold by such person in any other section, locality, community, city or town, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality and in the actual cost of the transportation from the point of production or purchase, if a raw product, to the place of sale, storage or distribution, is guilty of unfair discrimination, which is prohibited and declared unlawful; however, prices made to meet competition in such section, locality, community, city or town shall not be in violation of this subsection.

(b) Any person doing business in the State of Mississippi and engaged in the business of purchasing for manufacture, storage, sale or distribution of any dairy product, that, for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor or creating a monopoly, discriminates between different sections, localities, communities, cities or towns in the state by purchasing such commodity at a higher rate or price in one (1) section, locality, community, city or town than is paid for such commodity by such person in any other section, locality, community, city or town, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality, and in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the point of manufacture, sale or distribution or storage, is guilty of unfair discrimination, which is prohibited and declared to be unlawful; however, prices made to meet competition in such locality, section, community, city or town shall not be a violation of this subsection.

(c) Any person convicted of a violation of this subsection, shall be fined not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or shall be imprisoned in jail not more than twelve (12) months, or both.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to any person who does not sell his milk, cream, butter or other products mentioned herein to others.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected a typographical error in (7). The word “the” was inserted between “by” and “board” so that “regulations promulgated by board” now reads as “regulations promulgated by the board.” The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its May 16, 2002, meeting.

Am Jur. 35 Am. Jur. 2d, Food §§ 39 et seq.

§ 75-31-203. Application.

This article applies to farm milk tanks, as defined, only when these are used, or are to be used, under an express contract between the producer and the purchaser and on the premises of the producer, for the commercial measurement of milk or other fluid dairy products. If such measurement is accomplished by the means of a fluid meter, this paragraph does not apply; in such case, the meter shall be subject to approval by the commissioner and to the applicable provisions of the article for liquid measuring device.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4560-72; Laws, 1958, ch. 156, § 2, eff from and after passage (approved May 6, 1958).

§ 75-31-205. Definitions.

“Commissioner” shall mean the commissioner of agriculture and commerce of the State of Mississippi.

“Farm milk transport operator” shall mean one who grades, samples and gauges milk in farm milk tanks and transports milk from farms to milk plants.

“Commissioner’s representative” shall mean one who is designated by the commissioner to enforce the provisions of this article.

“Farm milk tank” shall mean a unit for measuring milk or other fluid dairy product, comprising a combination of:

(a) A stationary tank, whether or not equipped for cooling its contents.

(b) Means for reading the level of liquid on the tank, such as a removable gauge rod or surface gauge.

(c) A chart for converting level-of-liquid readings to gallons and pounds.

(d) Chart readings shall also be shown in avoirdupois weight in conjunction with gallon readings on the basis of eight and six-tenths (8.6) pounds milk per gallon.

(e) Each compartment of a subdivided tank shall, for purposes of this article, be construed to be a farm milk tank. (These units are variously known commercially as farm bulk tanks, farm cooling tanks, farm holding tanks, and producers’ tanks.)

(f) “Gauge rod” shall mean a graduated, “dip stick” type of measuring rod designed to be partially immersed in the liquid and to be read at the point where the liquid surface crosses the rod.

(g) “Surface gauge” shall mean a combination of a stationary indicator and a moveable, graduated element designed to be brought into contact with the surface of the liquid from above.

(h) “Other measuring device” shall mean any other means of measuring contents of tank, which must be approved by the commissioner.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4560-73; Laws, 1958, ch. 156, § 3, eff from and after passage (approved May 6, 1958).

§ 75-31-207. Specifications for tanks.

(1)(a) Design — Level: A farm milk tank shall be in normal operation position when it is in level. The tank shall be equipped with suitable special means by which this level can be determined and established, such as a permanently attached two-way level, or other approved and accurate means of reference for level determinations. (A plumb bob is not considered satisfactory for leveling farm milk tanks and shall not be used.) Where two-way levels are used, the indicating lines shall exactly coincide with the extreme limit of the bubble in each instance and the level shall not be less than one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) inch length each way and on tanks six (6) feet long or longer there shall be two (2) such levels, one (1) on each end. Levels shall not be attached to any pipe or other fixture connected to the tank.

(b) Fraudulent construction: A farm tank and all devices designed to be used with or attached thereto and used in connection therewith, shall be of such design and construction that they do not facilitate the perpetration of fraud. Blueprints or photostats showing details of the design and construction of each brand or model of farm milk tanks, including measuring device, shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval.

(c) Permanence: A farm milk tank shall be of such design, construction and material that it will withstand ordinary usage without impairment of the accuracy of measurements made therein. The shell, bulkheads and supporting framework shall be of such design, material and construction that they will not become distorted, under any conditions of liquid lading. The tanks shall be rigidly installed in level on the floor of the milk house without use of removable blocks or shims under the legs.

(d) Identifications: Each farm milk tank shall bear the name of the manufacturer and his address, together with the model and serial number of the individual tank. Each gauge rod or surface gauge shall bear the serial number of the individual tank for which it is intended to be a part of.

(e) Discharge outlet or valve: A farm milk tank shall be equipped with a discharge outlet or valve through which the tank may be completely emptied when the tank is in level.

(f) Complete drainage: A farm milk tank shall be so designed and constructed and shall be so installed that the tank may be completely emptied through the discharge outlet or valve when the tank is in level.

(g) Calibration: Upon installation and/or reinstallation at any farm, the tank shall be satisfactorily calibrated to "deliver" the indicated capacities within the tolerances allowable.

(h) Capacity: The capacity of a farm milk tank shall be determined as the highest liquid level reading obtainable where agitation of liquid will not overflow the tank.

(i) Testing medium: Water shall be used as the medium in determining the capacity of farm milk tanks. (Litmus paper shall not be used in connection with calibrations.)

(2) Approval seals — When the farm milk tank installation has been officially tested and approved, the gauge rod or surface gauge and the chart, as well as the tank itself, shall be suitably marked to verify such approval by the commissioner or his representative.

(3) Responsibility of installation — It shall be the responsibility of the manufacturer, his agent or dealer, to install the farm milk tank as per specifications and regulations stipulated in this article and in such manner as to give accurate measure and satisfactory service. The manufacturer, his agent or dealer, shall notify the commissioner of the date and location each installation is expected to be completed and have his installation engineer or representative present to assist the state agency in checking the correct setting, gauging and calibration of each farm milk tank. No farm milk tank installed after this article becomes effective shall be put in use on any dairy farm until its setting, gauging and calibration have been approved by the commissioner and purchaser.

(4) Responsibility of calibration — It shall be the responsibility of the farm milk tank manufacturer to calibrate farm milk holding tanks. Such calibration shall be made at the factory of the manufacturer or field calibrated. Beginning with the lowest reading on the calibration chart, factory calibration shall be readily field checkable in five-gallon intervals; or reasonable multiples thereof. All equipment used for tank calibration within the State of Mississippi must be approved by the commissioner.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4560-74; Laws, 1958, ch. 156, § 4; Laws, 1974; ch. 389, eff from and after passage (approved March 22, 1974).

§ 75-31-209. Gauge rod bracket or support.

If a tank is designed for use with a gauge rod, a substantial and rigid gauge rod bracket or other suitable supporting elements for positioning the gauge rod shall be so constructed that whenever the rod is placed in engagement with the bracket or supports and released, the rod will automatically seat itself at a fixed height and in a vertical position. When a gauge rod is properly seated on its bracket or supports, there shall be a clearance of at least three (3) inches between the graduated face of the rod and any tank wall or other surface that it faces.

The arrangements shall be such that it shall be impossible to reverse the reading position. The part of the gauge rod bracket which is designed to hold the gauge rod and which comes in contact with the gauge rod shall be sufficiently hardened that, under continual usage or careless handling, it will not become so worn that it will allow the gauge rod to hang to an improper depth in the tank, thereby causing an error in the measure of the milk in the tank.

§ 75-31-211. Surface gauge bracket or supports.

If a tank is designed for use with a surface gauge, a substantial or rigid surface gauge bracket or other suitable supporting elements for positioning the surface gauge shall be provided. A surface gauge and its bracket or other supporting elements shall be so constructed that whenever the gauge assembly is placed in engagement with the bracket or supports, the indicator, if not permanently mounted on the tank, will automatically seat itself in correct operating position, and the graduated element will be vertically positioned and will be securely held at any height to which it may be manually set.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4560-76; Laws, 1958, ch. 156, § 6, eff from and after passage (approved May 6, 1958).

§ 75-31-213. Indicating means.

(1) Gauge rod — When properly seated in position, a rod shall not touch the bottom of the tank unless this is required by the design of the supporting elements. The rod shall be graduated throughout at intervals corresponding to the gallonage range within which the readings of liquid level to be made. Farm holding tanks shall be so constructed that nothing shall prevent vertical insertion of the gauge rod. That part of the gauge rod designed to hold the gauge rod in the gauge rod bracket and which comes in contact with the gauge and bracket, shall be sufficiently hardened that, under continual usage or careless handling, it will not become so worn that it will permit the gauge rod to hang to an improper depth in the tank, thereby causing an error in the measuring of the milk in the tank.

(2) Surface gauge — When properly engaged with its bracket and set to its lowest position, the surface gauge shall not touch the bottom of the tank. The gauge shall be graduated throughout at intervals corresponding to the gallonage range within which the readings of liquid level are to be made.

§ 75-31-215. Spacing, width and identification of graduations; gauge rod; chart.

(1) Spacing, width and identification of graduations — On a gauge rod or surface gauge, the spacing of the graduations, center to center, shall be 0.03125 ( $\frac{1}{32}$ ) inch, if graduations are in inches, or one (1) millimeter, if graduated in centimeters. The width of any graduation mark or line shall not exceed .008 of an inch (0.2mm) and shall not be less than .0055 of an inch (0.1mm).

(2) Graduation identification — The graduation scale shall be in terms of inches and fractions of an inch, or centimeters and fractions of a centimeter. No error shall be greater than  $\frac{1}{32}$  inch in the entire length of gauge rod or surface gauge, if graduations are in inches, or one (1) millimeter if in centimeters. Main graduation marks or lines shall be successively longer than the minimum graduation marks or lines, and shall be identifiable in spacings not to exceed one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) inch, if graduations are in inches, or five (5) millimeters, if graduations are in centimeters. Graduations shall start at the bottom of the gauge rod or surface gauge and shall be regular in sequence.

(3) Graduation — Gauge rod graduations and numerals identifying same shall be milled, etched or otherwise indented, but indentations shall not be so deep as to cause a capillary effect preventing straight line readings across the entire face of the gauge rod. Surface gauge graduations shall be of such material that they will not become obliterated. Graduations shall be parallel and at a ninety (90) degree angle to the perpendicular axis of the gauge rod or surface gauge.

(4) Values of graduations — On a gauge rod or surface gauge, the graduations shall be designated in inches and fractions thereof or centimeters and fractions thereof. In either of these cases there shall be provided by the manufacturer for each such rod or gauge and each tank with which it is associated, a volume chart showing volume in terms of gallons and pounds of liquid in the tank, corresponding to each graduation on the rod or gauge.

(5) Dimensions and material — A gauge rod shall be made of 18-8 stainless steel or of other suitable approved material and design. A gauge rod shall be rectangular in shape and shall be not less than one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) inch in thickness and not less than three-fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) inch in width.

(6) Gauge rod — When properly seated in position, a rod shall not touch the bottom of the tank unless this is required by the design of the supporting elements. The rod shall be graduated throughout an interval corresponding to the gallonage range within which readings of liquid level are to be made. The graduated face of the rod shall have a dull finish.

(7) The maximum swing allowable at the bottom of the gauge rod when in reading position shall not exceed one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) inch.

(8) Chart — A chart shall be supplied with each farm milk tank and shall show values at least to the nearest pound for a farm milk tank of all capacities. All letters and figures on a chart shall be distinct and easily readable.

(a) Opposite each increment shall be shown the value of that individual increment in terms of United States avoirdupois weight.

(b) The chart shall bear the name and address of the manufacturer; of the producer; the model and serial number of the farm milk tank for which it is intended; the date of the calibration; the name of the person making calibration and the signature of the commissioner's representative, if any, who witnesses the calibration; a legend stating that the calibration figures are based on  $\frac{1}{32}$  inch increments, if graduations are in inches, or one (1) millimeter, if graduations are in centimeters.

(c) Four (4) copies of each chart shall be furnished, all four (4) copies to be certified by the commissioner's representative, if there be one, witnessing the calibration; one (1) copy to be kept by the dairy; one (1) copy to be kept by the manufacturer; and one (1) by the commissioner's representative who witnessed the calibration, and in the absence of such an official, one (1) copy shall be mailed to the commissioner's representative, Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, Jackson, Mississippi. One (1) copy is to be given the processor who picks up the milk.

(d) The dairyman's chart shall be laminated and sealed between transparent sheets of waterproof material, after having had the imprint of the seal of the Dairy Division, Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, imprinted thereon. Where both sides are utilized, both sides shall be shown, and shall be hung or otherwise placed in a conspicuous place in the dairyman's milk house in which the farm milk tank is located.

(e) All printing and/or typing shall be clear and distinct and all calibration figures shall be placed exactly in line with the increments they are intended to represent.

§ 75-31-217. Portable tank.

A portable tank shall be of the center-reading type.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4560-79; Laws, 1958, ch. 156, § 9, eff from and after passage (approved May 6, 1958).

§ 75-31-219. Installation.

(1) Farm milk tanks and farm milk tank installations shall in every instance meet the State of Mississippi specifications and tolerances, as provided in this article, and conform with the rules and regulations of the commissioner of agriculture and commerce, as provided herein.

(2) Farm milk tanks with adjustable legs — Adjustable legs shall be flat across the bottom and shall have permanently attached thereto a metal plate four (4) inches square by at least  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch in thickness, or in lieu thereof, a metal flange of comparable dimensions permanently affixed to the bottom of the legs.

(3) Milk house floor — If the concrete floor of the dairyman's milk house is less than four (4) inches thick or is in poor condition, a concrete pier shall be provided for each leg of the farm milk tank.

(4) Concrete piers — Concrete piers shall not be less than six (6) inches by six (6) inches across the top and shall taper to not less than twelve (12) inches by twelve (12) inches across the bottom and shall not be less than eighteen (18) inches in depth. The top of each pier shall extend only to a point approximately two (2) inches below the surface of the milk house floor; in locations where the weather is very cold, all piers must go below the "frost line" for their foundations.

(5) All farm milk tanks shall be filled to capacity during leveling operations and shall be completely filled prior to the calibration thereof, for the purpose of setting the tank to a permanent position.

§ 75-31-221. Tolerances.

(1) Minimum tolerance values — On all farm milk tanks, the maintenance and acceptance tolerances applied shall not be smaller than one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) the value of the minimum graduated interval on the gauge rod or surface gauge.

(2) Basic tolerance values — Basic maintenance and acceptance tolerance on underregistration and overregistration shall be as follows: (The error, at any liquid level, of a tank to which the tolerance is applied, is the difference between the gallonage shown for that level on the gallonage chart and the corresponding gallonage determined by test.) Basic maintenance and acceptance tolerances, on underregistration and on overregistration on farm milk tanks are not more than  $\frac{1}{32}$  of an inch, if graduated in inches, or one (1) millimeter, if graduations are in centimeters.

(1) For the purpose of this article, the words and terms used herein shall have ascribed to them the following meanings:

(a) The word "person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations, and any other legal entity recognized by law.

(b) The terms "meat" and "meat-food products," whenever used in this article, shall include the carcasses or parts thereof, of cattle, sheep, goats, other ruminants, including exotic animals, swine, horses, mules, rabbits, poultry and ratites and the meat and meat-food products of such animals.

(c) The term "food unfit for human consumption" shall be construed to include the meat and meat-food products of horses and mules and all meats or meat-food products which are so affected with disease that it would be dangerous to use the meat or other parts for human food; also all meats or meat-food products which are contaminated, putrid, unsound, unhealthful, or otherwise unfit for food, or which have been derived from any animal which has died as a result of disease or accident, or which was in a dying condition at the time of slaughter.

(d) The word "establishment" as used in this article, shall include: (i) any building or structure in which slaughtering, butchering, meat processing, meat canning, meat packing, meat manufacturing or rendering is carried on; and (ii) the ground upon which such building or structure is erected, and so much ground adjacent thereto as is used in carrying on the business of such establishment, including drains, gutters, waste disposal and cesspools used in connection with the establishment.

(e) The word "equipment," as used in this article, shall include all machinery, fixtures, containers, vessels, tools, implements and apparatus used in and about an establishment.

(f) The word "commissioner," as used in this article, shall mean the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce, or his duly authorized deputies.

(g) The word “ratite,” means a member of a group of large flightless birds including the ostrich, rhea and emu.

(h) The words “exotic animal,” mean a member of a species of game not indigenous to this state, including axis deer, fallow deer, red deer or other cloven-hooved ruminant animals and ratites.

(2) All persons engaged in business as a meat broker, jobber, dealer, distributor, peddler, transporter, or wholesaler of any carcasses of meat animals or poultry or parts or products thereof, whether fresh, frozen, cured or otherwise and whether canned, wrapped, packaged or prepackaged, but not otherwise handled, whether intended for human food or other purposes, or any person engaged in the business as a public warehouseman storing any such items or products shall register with the commissioner on forms provided and shall operate under the applicable inspection authority provided in this article and by the Mississippi Meat Inspection Act of 1968 [Chapter 35 of Title 75], provided persons operating the aforementioned nonslaughter and nonprocessing businesses are exempt from the license and fee specified in Section 75-33-7.

(3) The slaughtering by any person of animals and poultry of his own raising, and the processing and transportation by him of animals and poultry products exclusively for use by him and members of his household and his nonpaying guests and employees, shall be exempt from the provisions of this article. Any other operations of an unlicensed, unapproved slaughterhouse and/or processing facility to escape the provisions of this article shall be unlawful, and any person found guilty of such violation shall be punished as provided in Section 75-33-37.

(4) The provisions of this article shall not apply to poultry producers with respect to poultry of their own raising on their own farms on the same basis as now provided in the United States Wholesome Poultry Products Act and regulations thereunder, and such exemptions shall be consistent with said act and regulations. However, the adulteration and misbranding provisions of said act, other than the requirement of the inspection legend, shall apply to articles which are exempt from inspection by said act and regulations.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4575-02; Laws, 1960, ch. 141, § 2; Laws, 1972, ch. 477, § 1; Laws, 1974, ch. 490; Laws, 1996, ch. 543, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 1996.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Religious rituals.

1. In general.

Defendant's actions violated both the language and the spirit of the Mississippi law that seeks to protect the health of consumers by requiring the sanitary operation of slaughterhouses; defendant allowed persons to come to him for assistance with their religious obligations, purchase an animal from him, pay him for his assistance with a religious ceremony in the form of a ritual slaughter, and then permitted them to leave with the meat. Spell v. Muhammad, 756 So. 2d 748 (Miss. 2000).

Sections 75-33-1 et seq. were enacted for the purpose of licensing and regulating persons engaged in the business of manufacturing, slaughtering and preparing animals to be used for meat and meat-food products to be sold, and do not apply to wholesome meat accidentally killed and prepared for the owner's use. King v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 244 Miss. 486, 142 So. 2d 222 (1962).

2. Religious rituals.

Defendant's assertion that he fit into the exception carved out for ritual slaughter under subsection (3) because he gave the meat away and only charged for the ritual slaughter, did not justify the chancellor's allowing defendant greater freedoms than either subsection (3) or the First Amendment requires. Spell v. Muhammad, 756 So. 2d 748 (Miss. 2000).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Adoption of federal meat inspection regulations.

1. In general.

Sections 75-33-1 et seq. were enacted for the purpose of licensing and regulating persons engaged in the business of manufacturing, slaughtering and preparing animals to be used for meat and meat-food products to be sold, and do not apply to tion rules and regulations codified in 9 C.F.R. § 310.25(a)(2)(v)(A), because the Meat, Meat-Food and Poultry Regulation and Inspection Law of 1960, Miss. Code

Ann. § 75-33-5, did not require that a meeting be held each time a regulation was adopted. Slay v. Spell, 882 So. 2d 254 (Miss. Ct. App. 2004).

§ 75-33-7. Licenses; fees; applications; issuance; posting; agreements with federal authorities as to poultry inspection.

(1) It shall be the duty of every person operating an establishment as defined in Section 75-33-3, except retail dealers, restaurants or eating places and establishments operating under the U.S. Department of Agriculture system of inspection, to apply to the commissioner for a license to operate such establishment before July 1, 1960, and annually thereafter before July of each succeeding year, and pay to the commissioner at the time said application for registration and license is filed, a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for each establishment operated, and a like fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for the renewal thereof.

The fees for the issuance of the license and the renewals thereof, together with such other fees and charges authorized by this article, shall be kept by the commissioner in a separate fund to be used to defray the expenses of the enforcement of this article. A strict accounting shall be made of all funds received and disbursed.

(2) The application for a license shall be made on a form to be supplied by the commissioner, and shall show the location of each establishment and the name and address of the owner, and the name and address of the lessor or lessee. The application shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person applying for the license that the facts set forth are true and correct.

(3) Upon approval of application for license and payment of license fee, and upon approval of sanitary conditions in the establishment, and every place used in connection therewith, the commissioner shall issue to each applicant a license which shall expire on June 30 of each year, and which shall authorize the operation of said establishment for the fiscal year, or portion thereof, for which a license is issued.

(4) Such license shall be posted in a conspicuous place in or at the place of business of such licensee, and exposed for inspection by any person or persons who may be properly authorized to make such examination.

(5) From and after the first day of July 1960, it shall be unlawful for any person to operate an establishment unless said establishment is duly licensed and inspected in accordance with the provisions of this article.

The commissioner of agriculture and commerce shall develop and administer a poultry inspection program which shall require mandatory poultry product inspection that imposes antemortem and postmortem inspection, reinspection and sanitation requirements that are at least equal to those under the federal Poultry Products Inspection Act of 1968 [21 USCS §§ 451 et seq.], and the regulations thereunder with respect to all or certain classes of persons engaged in slaughtering poultry or processing poultry products for use as human food solely for distribution with this state.

Any existing provision of law in regard to fees, mandatory requirements, other options, or inspection administration in conflict herewith, shall not affect the foregoing mandatory inspection provision.

Provided, further, that the commissioner of agriculture and commerce shall be authorized to enter into a cooperative agreement with the U. S. Department of Agriculture for compliance with the Poultry Products Inspection Act of 1968 and amendments thereto [21 USCS §§ 451 et seq.], for the purpose of financing and enforcing a mandatory antemortem and postmortem inspection, reinspection and sanitation requirements that are at least equal to those under the within cited federal act with respect to all or certain persons engaged in slaughtering poultry or processing poultry products in this state for use as human food solely for distribution within this state. The commissioner is further empowered to make inspection of other poultry slaughtering and processing facilities when he deems same necessary to the proper sanitation and distribution of such products solely within this state.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Sections 75-33-1 et seq. were enacted for the purpose of licensing and regulating persons engaged in the business of manufacturing, slaughtering and preparing animals to be used for meat and meat-food products to be sold, and do not apply to wholesome meat accidentally killed and prepared for the owner's use. King v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 244 Miss. 486, 142 So. 2d 222 (1962).

§ 75-33-31. Grading and inspection services; establishment of grades and quality; minimum standards.

Any person engaged in any of the businesses covered by this article may obtain from the commissioner a grading service and/or inspection service of the products of his business and the commissioner is hereby authorized and directed to provide such service to any person applying for same. The commissioner is authorized to establish grades and quality of the carcasses, or the parts thereof, of cattle, sheep, goats, other ruminants, rabbits and poultry, but each such grade or quality shall meet the minimum standards for the like grade or quality as required by the United States Department of Agriculture. However, the commissioner may, in his discretion, establish a grade of lower quality or designation than is now recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture, but such grade and quality so established and designated shall be clearly marked and with such identification as to avoid any confusion with grades or qualities as designated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. However, no grade or quality shall be established or designated which will permit the sale of any meat, meat-food products or poultry unfit for human consumption.

§ 75-33-33. Additional inspections and grading service; agreements; federal financial assistance; inspection of plants not federally inspected; training of inspectors; reimbursement of state for inspection services by certain plants.

Any person desiring inspection service over and above the inspection service normally provided by the commissioner for sanitary purposes, and any person desiring a grading service as authorized by this article, shall pay the commissioner for such services. The person requesting such services shall pay the commissioner a sum sufficient to cover the salary or wages of the inspector, or the grader, plus necessary travel and other authorized expenses, and a reasonable sum for administration expenses. All expenses to be paid hereunder shall be that sum agreed upon with the commissioner.

The commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to recognize and accept any bona fide agreements and arrangements now in existence, or that may hereafter be made, between any person carrying on any business covered by this article and the proper officials of any county and/or municipality wherein local inspection service is to be provided by the county or the municipality as a condition or covenant to the establishing or operating of such business. The commissioner may, in his discretion, enter into an agreement with the appropriate agency of the United States Department of Agriculture to receive financial assistance therefrom in helping carry out the purpose of this article, and to pay a reasonable state-matching contribution as may be required.

The commissioner shall inspect for wholesomeness all plants in operation which are not under federal inspection. Except as otherwise provided herein, the state shall pay the full costs for such inspection after September 1, 1968. After July 1, 2001, the state shall pay the full costs for such inspection services of quail and rabbit processing plants. Provided that so long as funds are available which have been appropriated by the Legislature for product inspection, the commissioner may employ and train inspection personnel and assign such personnel to plants for inspection for wholesomeness. No state funds shall be used for payment of overtime or for grading. Except as otherwise provided herein for inspection services of quail and rabbits, plant management shall reimburse the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce for inspection services of ratites and other exotic animals that are not regulated by mandate under the Federal Meat Inspection Act or the Federal Poultry Products Inspection Act. Plants requesting such services must make application for voluntary inspection services and obtain an establishment "V" number.

§ 75-35-3. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, except as otherwise specified, the following terms shall have the meanings stated below:

(a) The term “commissioner” means the “commissioner of agriculture and commerce of the State of Mississippi”, or his duly authorized deputies.

(b) The term “firm” means any partnership, association, or other unincorporated business organization.

(c) The term “meat broker” means any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of buying or selling carcasses, parts of carcasses, meat, or meat food products of cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equines on commission, or otherwise negotiating purchases or sales of such item or products other than for his own account or as an employee of another person, firm, or corporation.

(d) The term “renderer” means any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of rendering carcasses, or parts or products of the carcasses, of cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equines, except rendering conducted under inspection under this article.

(e) The term “animal food manufacturer” means any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of manufacturing or processing animal food derived wholly or in part from carcasses or parts or products of the carcasses, of cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equines.

(f) The term “unfit for human food” means as defined in the “Meat, Meat-Food and Poultry Regulation and Inspection Law of 1960”, appearing in subsection (c) of Section 75-33-3, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(g) The term “meat food product” means any product capable of use as human food which is made wholly or in part from any meat or other portion of the carcass of any cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, excepting products which contain meat or other portions of such carcasses only in a relatively small proportion or historically have not been considered by consumers as products of the meat food industry, and which are exempted from definition as a meat food product by the commissioner under such conditions as he may prescribe to assure that the meat or other portions of such carcasses contained in such product are not adulterated and that such products are not represented as meat food products. This term as applied to food products of equines shall have a meaning comparable to that provided in this paragraph with respect to cattle, sheep, swine, and goats.

(h) The term "capable of use as human food" shall apply to any carcass, or part or product of a carcass, of any animal, unless it is denatured or otherwise identified as required by regulations prescribed by the commissioner to deter its use as human food, or it is naturally inedible by humans.

(i) The term "prepare" means slaughtered, canned, salted, rendered, boned, cut up, or otherwise manufactured or processed.

(j) The term "adulterated" shall apply to any carcass, part thereof, meat or meat food product under one or more of the following circumstances:

(1) if it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health; but in case the substance is not an added substance, such article shall not be considered adulterated under this clause if the quantity of such substance in or on such item or product does not ordinarily render it injurious to health;

(2)(A) if it bears or contains (by reason of administration of any substance to the live animal or otherwise) any added poisonous or added deleterious substance (other than one which is (i) a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity; (ii) a food additive; or (iii) a color additive) which may, in the judgment of the commissioner, make such item or product unfit for human food;

(B) if it is, in whole or in part, a raw agricultural commodity and such commodity bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended;

(C) if it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended;

(D) if it bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 706 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act: provided, that an article which is not adulterated under clause (B), (C), or (D) shall nevertheless be deemed adulterated if use of the pesticide chemical, food additive, or color additive in or on such item or product is prohibited by regulations of the commissioner in establishments at which inspection is maintained under this article;

(3) if it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance or is for any other reason unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food;

(4) if it has been prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have become contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health;

(5) if it is, in whole or in part, the product of an animal which has died otherwise than by slaughter; or which was diseased or was in a dying condition at the time of slaughter;

(6) if its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health;

(7) if it has been intentionally subjected to radiation, unless the use of the radiation was in conformity with a regulation or exemption in effect pursuant to Section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act;

(8) if any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom; or if any substance has been substituted, wholly or in part therefor; or if damage or inferiority has been concealed in any manner; or if any substance has been added thereto or mixed or packed therewith so as to increase its bulk or weight, or reduce its quality or strength, or make it appear better or of greater value than it is; or

(9) if it is margarine containing animal fat and any of the raw material used therein consisted in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance.

(k) The term “misbranded” shall apply to any carcass, part thereof, meat or meat food product under one or more of the following circumstances:

(1) if its labeling is false or misleading in any particular;

(2) if it is offered for sale under the name of another food;

(3) if it is an imitation of another food, unless its label bears, in type of uniform size and prominence, the word “imitation” and immediately thereafter, the name of the food imitated;

(4) if its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading;

(5) if in a package or other container unless it bears a label showing (A) the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor; and (B) an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count; provided, that under clause (B) of this subparagraph (5), reasonable variations may be permitted, and exemptions as to small packages may be established, by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

(6) if any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or other labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs, or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use;

(7) if it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a definition standard of identity or composition has been prescribed by regulations of the commissioner under Section 75-35-15 unless (A) it conforms to such definition and standard, and (B) its label bears the name of the food specified in the definition and standard and, insofar as may be required by such regulations, the common names of optional ingredients (other than spices, flavoring, and coloring) present in such food;

(8) if it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a standard or standards of fill of container have been prescribed by regulations of the commissioner under Section 75-35-15, and it falls below the standard of fill of container applicable thereto, unless its label bears, in such manner and form as such regulations specify, a statement that it falls below such standard;

§ 75-35-5. Legislative finding.

Meat and meat food products are an important source of the nation's total supply of food. It is essential in the public interest that the health and welfare of consumers be protected by assuring that meat and meat food products distributed to them are wholesome, not adulterated, and properly marked, labeled, and packaged. Unwholesome, adulterated, or misbranded meat or meat food products are injurious to the public welfare, destroy markets for wholesome, not adulterated, and properly labeled and packaged meat and meat food products, and result in sundry losses to livestock producers and processors of meat and meat food products, as well as injury to consumers. The unwholesome, adulterated, mislabeled, or deceptively packaged products can be sold at lower prices and compete unfairly with the wholesome, not adulterated, and properly labeled and packaged products, to the detriment of consumers and the public generally. It is hereby found that regulation by the commissioner and cooperation by this state and the United States as contemplated by this chapter are appropriate to protect the health and welfare of consumers and otherwise effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

§ 75-35-7. Inspection of cattle and other equine prior to entry into slaughtering establishments; separation and slaughtering of diseased animals; commissioner authorized to examine and inspect for methods of slaughtering and to provide for suspension of inspection services where animals slaughtered in inhumane manner.

(a) For the purpose of preventing the use in intrastate commerce, as hereinafter provided, of meat and meat food products which are adulterated, the commissioner shall cause to be made, by inspectors appointed for that purpose, an examination and inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, and other equine before they shall be allowed to enter into any slaughtering, packing, meat canning, rendering, or similar establishment in this state in which slaughtering and preparation of meat and meat food products of such animals are conducted; and all cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, and other equine found on such inspection to show symptoms of disease shall be set apart and slaughtered separately from all other cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equine, and when so slaughtered, the carcasses of said cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equine shall be subject to a careful examination and inspection, all as provided by the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner as herein provided for.

(b) For the purpose of preventing the inhumane slaughtering of livestock, the commissioner shall cause to be made, by inspectors appointed for that purpose, an examination and inspection of the method by which cattle, sheep, swine, ratites, nontraditional livestock, rabbits, goats, horses, mules and other equine are slaughtered and handled in connection with slaughter in the slaughtering establishments inspected under this article. The commissioner may refuse to provide inspection to a new slaughtering establishment or may cause inspection to be suspended temporarily at a slaughtering establishment if the commissioner finds that any cattle, sheep, swine, ratites, nontraditional livestock, rabbits, goats, horses, mules or other equine have been slaughtered or handled in connection with slaughter at such establishment by any method not in accordance with Sections 75-35-21(d) and 75-35-8 until the establishment furnishes assurances satisfactory to the commissioner that all slaughtering and handling in connection with slaughter of livestock shall be in accordance with such a method.

§ 75-35-8. Humane methods of slaughtering and handling.

(1) For purposes of this chapter, the following methods of slaughtering and handling are declared to be humane:

(a) In the case of cattle, calves, horses, mules, sheep, swine, ratites, nontraditional livestock, rabbits and other livestock, all animals are to be rendered insensible to pain by a single blow or gunshot or by an electrical, chemical or other means which is rapid and effective before being shackled, hoisted, thrown, cast or cut; or

(b) By slaughtering and handling in connection with such slaughtering in accordance with the ritual requirements of the Jewish faith or any other religious faith that prescribes a method of slaughter whereby the animal suffers loss of consciousness by anemia of the brain caused by the simultaneous and instantaneous severance of the carotid arteries with a sharp instrument.

(2) In addition to the methods prescribed in subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner may designate as humane any methods of slaughtering and handling which have been so designated by the United States Secretary of Agriculture on or before April 7, 1981, pursuant to United States Code Section 7-1904. The commissioner is further authorized to designate as humane other methods of slaughtering and handling which have been demonstrated by research, investigation and experimentation to be humane with reference to the speed and scope of slaughtering operations and with reference to other existing methods and then current scientific knowledge.

§ 75-35-9. Post-mortem examination and labeling of carcasses; destruction of condemned carcasses; reinspection.

For the purposes hereinbefore set forth, the commissioner shall cause to be made by inspectors appointed for that purpose, as hereinafter provided, a post-mortem examination and inspection of the carcasses and parts thereof of all cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, and other equines, capable of use as human food, to be prepared at any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment in this state in which such products are prepared. The carcasses and parts thereof of all such animals found to be not adulterated shall be marked, stamped, tagged, or labeled, as "Inspected and Passed", or appropriate stamp or markings. Said inspectors shall label, mark, stamp, or tag as "Inspected and Condemned", or appropriate stamp or markings, all carcasses and parts thereof of animals found to be adulterated; and all carcasses and parts thereof thus inspected and condemned shall be destroyed for food purposes by the said establishment in the presence of an inspector. The commissioner may remove inspectors from any such establishment which fails to so destroy any such condemned carcass or part thereof. Said inspectors, after said first inspection shall, when they deem it necessary, reinspect said carcasses or parts thereof to determine whether since the first inspection the same have become adulterated, and if any carcass or any part thereof shall, upon examination and inspection subsequent to the first examination and inspection, be found to be adulterated, it shall be destroyed for food purposes by the said establishment in the presence of an inspector; and the commissioner may remove inspectors from any establishment which fails to so destroy any such condemned carcass or part thereof.

The foregoing provisions shall apply to all carcasses or parts of carcasses of cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, and other equines or the meat or meat products thereof, capable of use as human food, which may be brought into any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment, where inspection under this article is maintained, and such examination and inspection shall be had before the said carcasses or parts thereof shall be allowed to enter into any department wherein the same are to be treated and prepared for meat food products. § 75-35-15. Labeling of receptacles or covering of meat or meat food products; labeling requirements generally; standards of identity or fill; false or misleading labels.

(1) When any meat or meat food product has been inspected as hereinbefore provided and marked "Mississippi inspected and passed" or appropriate marking shall be placed or packed in any can, pot, tin, canvas, or other receptacle or covering in any establishment where inspection under the provisions of this chapter is maintained, the person, firm, or corporation preparing said product shall cause a label to be attached to said can, pot, tin, canvas, or other receptacle or covering, under supervision of an inspector, which label shall state that the contents thereof have been "Mississippi inspected and passed" or appropriate marking under the provisions of this chapter, and no inspection and examination of meat or meat food products deposited or enclosed in cans, tins, pots, canvas, or other receptacle or covering in any establishment where inspection under the provisions of this chapter is maintained shall be deemed to be complete until such meat or meat food products have been sealed or enclosed in said can, tin, pot, canvas, or other receptacle or covering under the supervision of an inspector.

(2) All carcasses, parts of carcasses, meat and meat food products inspected at any establishment under the authority of this chapter and found to be not adulterated, shall at the time they leave the establishment bear, in distinctly legible form, directly thereon or on their containers, as the commissioner may require, the information required under paragraph (k) of Section 75-35-3.

(3) The commissioner, whenever he determines such action is necessary for the protection of the public, may prescribe: (1) the styles and sizes of type to be used with respect to material required to be incorporated in labeling to avoid false or misleading labeling of any products or animals subject to this article or Article 3 of this chapter; (2) definitions and standards of identity or composition for items subject to this article and standards of fill of container for such products not inconsistent with any such standards established under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or under the Federal Meat Inspection Act, and there shall be consultation between the commissioner and the secretary of agriculture of the United States prior to the issuance of such standards to avoid inconsistency between such standards and the federal standards.

(4) No item or product subject to this article shall be sold or offered for sale by any person, firm, or corporation, under any name or other marking or labeling which is false or misleading, or in any container of a misleading form or size, but established trade names and other marking and labeling and containers which are not false or misleading and which are approved by the commissioner, are permitted.

(5) If the commissioner has reason to believe that any marking or labeling or the size or form of any container in use or proposed for use with respect to any item subject to this article is false or misleading in any particular, he may direct that such use be withheld unless the marking, labeling, or container is modified in such manner as he may prescribe so that it will not be false or misleading. If the person, firm, or corporation using or proposing to use the marking, labeling or container does not accept the determination of the commissioner, such person, firm, or corporation may request a hearing, but the use of the marking, labeling, or container shall, if the commissioner so directs, be withheld pending hearing and final determination by the commissioner. Any party aggrieved by such final determination may, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of such final determination, effect an appeal therefrom to the chancery court of the county in which such party resides or in which the principal place of his business is domiciled; and, on appeal, such chancery court shall affirm, modify, or set aside the commissioner's final determination.

The accused may be notified by serving a copy of the summons and complaint on the accused or any of his officers, agents or employees by personal service or by certified mail. The accused shall file with the department a written response to the complaint within the thirty-day period. If the accused fails to file an answer within such time, the commissioner or his designee may enter an order by default against the accused. If the accused has filed an answer, the matter shall be set for hearing before the commissioner or his designee.

The commissioner may issue subpoenas to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents. Compliance with such subpoenas may be enforced by any court of general jurisdiction in this state. The testimony of witnesses shall be upon oath or affirmation, and they shall be subject to cross-examination. The proceedings shall be recorded by a court reporter. If the commissioner or his designee determines that the complaint lacks merit, he may dismiss it. If he finds that there is substantial evidence showing that a violation of any of the statutes or regulations has been committed, he may impose any or all of the following penalties upon the accused:

(a) Levy a civil penalty in the amount of no more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each violation;

(b) Revoke or suspend any license, permit or privilege granted to the accused under the terms of this chapter or Section 75-33-1 et seq.;

(c) Retain product, reject equipment or facilities, slow or stop a line or refuse to allow the processing of a specifically identified product;

(d) Refuse to allow the marks of inspection to be applied to a product; or

(e) Take any other action authorized by law or regulation. The commissioner's decision shall be in writing, and it shall be delivered to the accused by any of the methods described herein for service of the summons and complaint on the accused.

(2) Either the accused or the department may appeal the decision of the commissioner to the circuit court of the county of residence of the accused or, if the accused is a nonresident of the State of Mississippi, to the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi. The appellant shall have the obligation of having the record transcribed and filed with the circuit court. The appeal shall otherwise be governed by all applicable laws and rules affecting appeals to circuit court. If no appeal is perfected within the required time, the decision of the commissioner, or his designee, shall then become final.

(3) The decision of the circuit court may then be appealed by either party to the Mississippi Supreme Court in accordance with the existing laws and rules affecting such appeals.

(2) In situations where persons otherwise would be entitled to a hearing prior to an order entered pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the State Veterinarian may issue such an order to be effective upon a later date without hearing unless a person subject to the order requests a hearing within ten (10) days after receipt of the order. The order shall contain or shall be accompanied by a notice of opportunity for hearing stating that a hearing must be requested within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice and order. The order and notice shall be served in person by the State Veterinarian or his agent or by certified mail, return receipt requested. address provided by such person in his most recent registration or license or permit application.

(3) In situations where persons otherwise would be entitled to a hearing prior to an order, the State Veterinarian may issue an order to be effective immediately if the State Veterinarian or his agent has reasonable cause to believe that an act, practice or transaction is occurring or is about to occur; that the situation constitutes a situation of imminent peril to the public safety or welfare; and that the situation therefore requires emergency action. The emergency order shall contain findings to this effect and reasons for the determination. The order shall contain or be accompanied by a notice of opportunity for hearing which may provide that a hearing will be held if and only if a person subject to the order requests a hearing within ten (10) days of the receipt of the order and notice. The order and notice shall be served by the State Veterinarian, or his agent, by certified mail, return receipt requested. In the case of an individual registered with or issued a license or permit by the Board of Animal Health, receipt of the order and notice will be conclusively presumed five (5) days after the mailing of the order by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address provided by such person in his most recent registration or license or permit application.

(4) Any request for hearing made pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall specify: (a) in what respects such person is aggrieved, (b) any and all defenses such person intends to assert at the hearing, (c) affirmation or denial of all the facts and findings alleged in the order, and (d) an address to which any further correspondence or notices in the proceeding may be mailed. Upon such a request for hearing, the State Veterinarian shall schedule and hold the hearing, unless postponed by mutual consent, within thirty (30) days after receipt by the State Veterinarian of the request therefor. The State Veterinarian shall give the person requesting the hearing notice of the time and place of the hearing by certified mail to the address specified in the request for hearing at least fifteen (15) days prior to the time of the hearing.

1. In general.

This section does not require a public gin to submit all of its books and records to any person who desires to see them. Hiawatha Gin Co. v. Mississippi Farm Bureau Cotton Ass'n, 138 Miss. 605, 103 So. 345 (1925).

This chapter is constitutional as to its provisions relating to cotton oil mills. State ex rel. Collins v. Crescent Cotton Oil Co., 116 Miss. 398, 77 So. 185 (1918), aff'd, 257 U.S. 129, 42 S. Ct. 42, 66 L. Ed. 166 (1921).

6. Under former § 75-41-5.

Attorney-general has no authority to grant permission to a corporation to own and operate gins in violation of this chapter. Eastman Oil Mills v. State, 130 Miss. 63, 93 So. 484 (1922).

State officers cannot authorize the commission of offenses, and they have no power to authorize the continuance of any act or business in violation of law. Eastman Oil Mills v. State, 130 Miss. 63, 93 So. 484 (1922).

The fact that a nonresident corporation operating a cottonseed oil mill in its own state and cotton gins in Mississippi ships out of the latter state for use in its oil mill all of the cottonseed which may be purchased in connection with its ginning operations does not make such operation an instrumentality of interstate commerce so as to invalidate this provision. Crescent Cotton Oil Co. v. Mississippi, 257 U.S. 129, 42 S. Ct. 42, 66 L. Ed. 166 (1921).

The limitation of the restrictions imposed on corporations only does not deny the equal protection of the laws where it is inferable that the restraint of the evil aimed at could be accomplished by controlling corporations only. Crescent Cotton Oil Co. v. Mississippi, 257 U.S. 129, 42 S. Ct. 42, 66 L. Ed. 166 (1921).

Law forbidding cotton oil mill to operate a cotton gin except where its cotton oil plant is located is not invalid as a burden on interstate commerce. Crescent Cotton Oil Co. v. State, 121 Miss. 615, 83 So. 680 (1920), aff'd, 257 U.S. 129, 42 S. Ct. 42, 66 L. Ed. 166 (1921).

It is within the power of the state to forbid a corporation manufacturing cottonseed oil products to operate a cotton gin, except where its oil plant is located, and to impose a penalty for doing so with the added penalty on foreign corporation of forfeiture of its right to do business. State ex rel. Collins v. Crescent Cotton Oil Co., 116 Miss. 398, 77 So. 185 (1918), aff'd, 257 U.S. 129, 42 S. Ct. 42, 66 L. Ed. 166 (1921).

§ 75-41-3. Cotton weighers to keep register for entry of all cotton with marks, numbers, stamps.

Every public cotton weigher, and every person who weighs cotton for any warehouse or gin or cotton buyer, shall keep a book or register, in which he shall enter all marks or stamps provided for in Section 75-41-1 appearing upon each bale of cotton weighed by him, and shall allow an inspection of such entries at any time by any person interested to make it. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Former § 74-41-7 authorized oil mills to own gins of limited capacity.

Former § 75-41-9 imposed penalties for operating gins in violation of Chapter 41.

§ 75-41-11. Certain combinations of cotton ginner in restraint of trade prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for chain operators of cotton gins, operating gins in two or more places within the State of Mississippi, to discriminate in prices paid for cottonseed or in the prices charged for ginning services; the necessary operating expenses, freight rates, and other proper elements affecting prices being considered, and the effect of which would be to destroy or attempt to destroy competition at either or any of said places in which said gins shall be operated. Provided, however, that a reduction in the charge for the service herein mentioned made in any locality for the purpose of meeting legitimate competition, or a higher price paid for seed in any locality, when such higher price paid for seed is paid in meeting legitimate competition, shall not constitute a violation of this chapter. And it shall be sufficient to make out a prima facie case of a violation to show a lower charge for the service herein mentioned in one locality than another, or to show a higher price paid for said seed in one locality than another, differences of freight and other necessary expenses of operating business considered.

§ 75-43-27. Suspension, cancellation or revocation of license; return of license.

(1) If a farm warehouseman is convicted of any crime involving fraud or deceit, or if the commissioner determines that any farm warehouseman has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or any of the rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner pursuant to this chapter, the commissioner may, at his discretion, suspend, cancel or revoke the license of such farm warehouseman.

(2) All proceedings for the suspension, cancellation or revocation of licenses shall be before the commissioner, and the proceedings shall be in accordance with rules and regulations which shall be adopted by the commissioner. No license shall be cancelled or revoked, except after a hearing before the commissioner, upon reasonable notice to the licensee and an opportunity to appear and defend. The commissioner may temporarily suspend the license of a licensee for good and reasonable cause before notice or hearing, and the licensee shall be entitled to a hearing on such temporary suspension without undue delay. Whenever the commissioner shall suspend, cancel or revoke any license, he shall prepare an order so providing which shall state the reason or reasons for such suspension, cancellation or revocation. The order shall be sent, by certified mail, by the commissioner to the licensee at the address of the farm warehouse licensed. Within thirty (30) days after the mailing of the order, the licensee, if dissatisfied with the order of the commissioner, may appeal to the chancery court of the county where the farm warehouse is located by filing a written notice of appeal alleging the pertinent facts upon which such appeal is grounded. At the time of the filing of the appeal, the appellant shall give a bond for costs conditioned upon his prosecution of the appeal without delay and payment of all costs assessed against him. Appeal may be with supersedeas and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 11-51-31.

(3) In case a license issued to a farm warehouseman expires or is suspended, revoked or cancelled by the commissioner or his designated representative, such license shall be immediately returned to the commissioner and the farm warehouseman shall forthwith comply with the provisions of Section 75-43-51.

§ 75-43-29. Warehouseman's bond; cancellation of bond by surety; self-insurance.

(1) Before any person is granted a license pursuant to Section 75-43-3, such person shall give a bond to the commissioner executed by the farm warehouseman as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in this state as a surety, such bond to be approved by the commissioner of insurance. The bond shall be in favor of the commissioner for the benefit of all persons interested, their legal representatives, attorneys or assigns, conditioned upon the faithful compliance by the farm warehouseman with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the state department of agriculture and commerce applicable thereto. The aggregate liability of the surety to all depositors or storers of grain shall not exceed the sum of such bond. The bond may be cancelled at any time by the surety by giving written notice to the commissioner of agriculture and commerce of its intention to cancel the bond, and all liability thereunder shall terminate thirty-five (35) days after the mailing of such notice, except that such notice shall not affect any claims arising under the bond, whether presented or not, before the effective date of the cancellation notice.

(2) In lieu of the bond required in subsection (1) of this section, an applicant for a license may be a self-insurer by posting with the commissioner cash, federal treasury bills, notes, securities or bonds, provided such notes, securities or bonds are secured by the federal government or the State of Mississippi in an amount equivalent to the bond as provided in Section 75-43-31.

§ 75-43-31. Amount of warehouseman's bond; blanket bond; increasing amount of bond.

(1) The amount of bond to be furnished for each farm warehouse shall be fixed at a rate of not less than twenty cents (20¢) per bushel for the first one million (1,000,000) bushels of licensed capacity; not less than fifteen cents (15¢) per bushel for the next one million (1,000,000) bushels of licensed capacity; and not less than ten cents (10¢) per bushel for all licensed capacity over two million (2,000,000) bushels; provided that in no case shall the amount of the bond be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00), except as prescribed in subsection (3) of this section. The licensed capacity shall be equal to the maximum number of bushels of grain that the farm warehouse can accommodate for storage. In no event shall the liability of the surety accumulate for each successive license period during which this bond is in force, but shall be limited in the aggregate to the bond amount or changed by appropriate rider or endorsement.

(2) A farm warehouseman who is licensed or is applying for licenses to operate two (2) or more farm warehouses may give a single bond meeting the requirements of this chapter to cover all such farm warehouses within the state. In such cases all farm warehouses to be covered by the bond shall be deemed to be one (1) warehouse for purposes of determining the amount of bond required under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If the commissioner finds that conditions exist which warrant requiring additional bond, there shall be added to the amount of bond such further amount as is determined to be reasonable by the commissioner.

§ 75-43-33. Additional bond to cover obligations when application made for amendment to license.

If an application is made for an amendment to a license and no bond previously filed by the farm warehouseman under Sections 75-43-29 and 75-43-31 covers obligations arising during the period covered by such amendment, the farm warehouseman shall file with the commissioner an additional bond in such amount as may be determined by the commissioner.

SOURCES: Laws, 1978, ch. 434, § 11, eff from and after July 1, 1978.

§ 75-43-35. Actions on bonds or against self-insurers for failure to redeem warehouse receipts.

(1) In the absence of any contrary contractual agreement between the parties, it shall be the duty of the farm warehouseman to redeem a warehouse receipt within ten (10) days of the demand for the redemption of such receipt. Any holder of a warehouse receipt issued to a farm warehouseman by the commissioner, who has made demand for redemption of such receipt, which demand was, without lawful excuse, not satisfied within ten (10) days, shall notify the commissioner in writing and shall have the right to bring action against the farm warehouseman and the surety on the farm warehouseman's bond for payment of the market value of the grain represented by such warehouse receipt, such market value to be determined as of the date of the demand, plus legal interest accrued from the date of the demand. The surety has the responsibility to pay within fifteen (15) days following receipt by the surety of the notice of the demand for redemption. In the event the farm warehouseman is a self-insurer, as provided in Section 75-43-29, the holder of a warehouse receipt shall have the right to bring action against the farm warehouseman to the extent of the amount posted in lieu of the bond. The commissioner shall pay to the holder of the warehouse receipt, to the extent of the bond posted, any judgment obtained by the holder of a warehouse receipt against a self-insurer. The commissioner may also pay to the holder of a warehouse receipt the amount of the market value of the grain, provided that the farm warehouseman agrees to such payment; provided, however, the license of the farm warehouseman shall be suspended upon such payment until such time as the warehouseman posts a bond as provided in this chapter, or posts with the commissioner a sum equivalent to that paid by the commissioner on behalf of such warehouseman.

(2) In all actions in which judgment is rendered against any surety company under the provisions of this section, if it appears from evidence that the surety company has wilfully and without just cause refused to pay the loss upon demand, the court, in rendering judgment, shall allow the plaintiff the amount of the plaintiff's expenses, including court costs and attorney's fees, to be recovered and collected as part of the costs. The amount of any payment of costs and attorney's fees under this subsection will not reduce the surety's remaining liability on its bond.

§ 75-43-37. Maintenance of grade of grain; failure to maintain grade.

(1) It shall be the duty of each farm warehouseman to whom a warehouse receipt or receipts have been issued to maintain the grade of the grain which he certified in his application for a warehouse receipt, as required by Section 75-43-7.

(2) If the farm warehouseman does not maintain the grade of the grain which he certified in the application, he shall be liable on his bond, or on the amount posted in lieu of the bond, to the holder of the warehouse receipt who has made demand for the redemption of the receipt for the amount of the damages sustained by the holder of the receipt. The holder of the receipt shall give notice to the commissioner, and payment shall be made, in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 75-43-35.

(3) The right of the holder of the warehouse receipt to make a claim against the bond or amount posted in lieu of the bond for failure of the warehouseman to maintain the grade of the grain shall exist only while the grain is still in the warehouse or on the premises of the storage facility. Once the holder of the receipt removes the grain from the premises of the storage facility, he relinquishes all right to make a claim against the bond or amount posted in lieu of the bond for damages sustained because of a decrease in the grade of the grain.

§ 75-43-39. Examination of warehouse by commissioner.

Every farm warehouse for which there is a warehouse receipt outstanding shall be examined monthly by the commissioner. The cost of such examination shall be included in the annual license fee. The commissioner, at his discretion, may make additional examinations of any public grain warehouse at any time. If any discrepancy is found as a result of additional examination, the cost of such examination is to be paid by the farm warehouseman. The commissioner shall examine and inspect the grain stored in the farm warehouse, and shall determine the quantity of the grain stored in each container in the warehouse. The commissioner shall maintain a record and file of all inspections made of the warehouses and of the results of such inspections.

§ 75-44-21. Maintenance of net assets for payment of indebtedness arising from conduct of warehouse.

(1) Each grain warehouseman shall have and maintain above all exemptions and liabilities, total net assets available for the payment of any indebtedness arising from the conduct of the grain warehouse in an amount equal to at least twenty cents (20¢) multiplied by the maximum number of bushels of grain for which the grain warehouse is licensed, provided that no person may be licensed as a grain warehouseman under the regulations in this part unless he has available net assets of at least twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00); and provided further, that any deficiency in net assets required above the minimum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) may, at the discretion of the commissioner, be supplied by a commensurate increase in the amount of the grain warehouseman's bond furnished pursuant to Sections 75-44-29, 75-44-31, 75-44-33 and 75-44-35. In determining total available net assets, credit may be given for insurable assets such as buildings, machinery, equipment and merchandise inventory only to the extent of the current market value of such assets and only to the extent that such assets are protected by insurance against loss or damage. Such insurance shall be in the form of lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do business and subject to service of process in suits brought in this state, and which provide that no cancellation shall be effective unless thirty (30) days' advance notice of such cancellation is given to the commissioner.

(2) If a grain warehouseman is licensed or is applying for license to operate two (2) or more grain warehouses, the maximum total number of bushels which all such facilities will accommodate when stored in the manner customary to the warehouses, as determined by the commissioner, shall be considered in determining whether the grain warehouseman meets the available net assets requirement of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of this section only, capital stock as such shall not be considered a liability.

§ 75-44-25. Suspension, cancellation or revocation of license; return of license.

(1) If a grain warehouseman is convicted of any crime involving fraud or deceit or if the commissioner determines that any grain warehouseman has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or any of the rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner pursuant to this chapter, the commissioner may, at his discretion, suspend, cancel or revoke the license of such grain warehouseman.

(2) All proceedings for the suspension, cancellation or revocation of licenses shall be before the commissioner, and the proceedings shall be in accordance with rules and regulations which shall be adopted by the commissioner. No license shall be cancelled or revoked except after a hearing before the commissioner upon reasonable notice to the licensee and an opportunity to appear and defend. The commissioner may temporarily suspend the license of a licensee for good and reasonable cause before notice or hearing and the licensee shall be entitled to a hearing on such temporary suspension without undue delay. Whenever the commissioner shall suspend, cancel or revoke any license he shall prepare an order so providing which shall state the reason or reasons for such suspension, cancellation or revocation. Said order shall be sent, by certified mail, by the commissioner to the licensee at the address of the grain warehouse licensed. Within thirty (30) days after the mailing of said order, the licensee, if dissatisfied with the order of the commissioner, may appeal to the chancery court of the county where the grain warehouse is located by filing a written notice of appeal alleging the pertinent facts upon which such appeal is grounded. At the time of the filing of the appeal, the appellant shall give a bond for costs conditioned upon his prosecution of the appeal without delay and payment of all costs assessed against him. Appeal may be with supersedeas and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 11-51-31.

(3) In case a license issued to a grain warehouseman expires or is suspended, revoked or cancelled by the commissioner or his designated representative, such license shall be immediately returned to the commissioner and the grain warehouseman shall forthwith comply with the provisions of Section 75-44-67.

§ 75-44-29. Warehouseman's bond; cancellation of bond by surety; self-insurance.

(1) Before any person is granted a license pursuant to Section 75-44-23 such person shall give a bond to the commissioner executed by the grain warehouseman as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in this state as a surety. The bond shall be in favor of the commissioner for the benefit of all persons interested, their legal representatives, attorneys or assigns, conditioned upon the faithful compliance by the grain warehouseman with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the State Department of Agriculture and Commerce applicable thereto. The aggregate liability of the surety to all depositors or storers of grain shall not exceed the sum of such bond. The bond may be cancelled at any time by the surety by giving written notice to the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce of its intention to cancel the bond and all liability thereunder shall terminate thirty-five (35) days after the mailing of such notice except that such notice shall not affect any claims arising under the bond, whether presented or not, before the effective date of the cancellation notice.

(2) In lieu of the bond required in subsection (1) of this section an applicant for a license may be a self-insurer by posting with the commissioner any of the following:

- (a) Cash;
- (b) Certificates of deposit from any bank or banking corporation insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;
- (c) Irrevocable letters of credit from any bank or banking corporation insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;
- (d) Federal treasury bills; or
- (e) Notes, securities or bonds secured by the federal government or the State of Mississippi.

Self insurers shall post an amount equivalent to the amount of the bond required in Section 75-44-31.

§ 75-44-31. Amount of warehouseman's bond; blanket bonds; increasing amount of bond.

(1) The amount of bond to be furnished for each grain warehouse shall be fixed at a rate of twenty-five cents (25¢) per bushel for the first one million (1,000,000) bushels of licensed capacity; twenty cents (20¢) per bushel for the next one million (1,000,000) bushels of licensed capacity; and fifteen cents (15¢) per bushel for all licensed capacity over two million (2,000,000) bushels; provided that in no case shall the amount of the bond be less than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) or more than one million dollars ($1,000,000.00), except as prescribed in subsection (3) of this section. The licensed capacity shall be equal to the maximum number of bushels of grain that the grain warehouse can accommodate for storage. In no event shall the liability of the surety accumulate for each successive license period during which this bond is in force, but shall be limited in the aggregate to the bond amount or changed by appropriate rider or endorsement.

(2) A grain warehouseman who is licensed or is applying for licenses to operate two (2) or more grain warehouses may give a single bond meeting the requirements of this chapter to cover all such grain warehouses within the state. In such cases all grain warehouses to be covered by the bond shall be deemed to be one (1) warehouse for purposes of determining the amount of bond required under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) In case of a deficiency in the net assets required by Section 75-44-21, there shall be added to the amount of the bond determined in accordance with subsection (1) of this section an amount equal to such deficiency. In any other case in which the commissioner finds that conditions exist which warrant requiring additional bond, there shall be added to the amount of bond such further amount as is determined to be reasonable by the commissioner.

If an application is made for an amendment to a license and no bond previously filed by the grain warehouseman under Sections 75-44-29 and 75-44-31 covers obligations arising during the period covered by such amendment, the grain warehouseman shall file with the commissioner an additional bond in such amount as may be determined by the commissioner.

§ 75-44-35. Actions on bonds or against self-insurers for failure to deliver grain to holder of warehouse receipt; costs.

(1) It shall be the duty of the grain warehouseman to deliver grain to the holder of a warehouse receipt within ten (10) days of the demand for the redemption of such receipt. In the event the grain warehouseman fails to deliver grain to the holder of a warehouse receipt within ten (10) days of the demand the holder of the warehouse receipt may make demand of the surety for payment under the bond. The surety has the responsibility to pay within fifteen (15) days following receipt by the surety of the notice of the demand for redemption. Any holder of a warehouse receipt issued by a grain warehouseman who has made demand for redemption of such receipt, which demand was, without lawful excuse, not satisfied within ten (10) days, shall notify the commissioner in writing and shall have the right to bring action against the grain warehouseman and the surety on the grain warehouseman's bond for payment of the market value of the grain represented by such warehouse receipt, such market value to be determined as of the date of the demand, plus legal interest accrued from the date of the demand. In the event the grain warehouseman is a self-insurer as provided in Section 75-44-29 the holder of a warehouse receipt shall have the right to bring action against the grain warehouseman to the extent of the amount posted in lieu of the bond. The commissioner shall pay to the holder of the warehouse receipt, to the extent of the bond posted, any judgment obtained by the holder of a warehouse receipt against a self-insurer. The commissioner may also pay to the holder of a warehouse receipt the amount of the market value of the grain provided that the grain warehouseman agrees to such payment; provided, however, the license of the grain warehouseman shall be suspended upon such payment until such time as the warehouseman posts a bond as provided in this chapter or posts with the commissioner a sum equivalent to that paid by the commissioner on behalf of such warehouseman.

(2) In all actions in which judgment is rendered against any surety company under the provisions of this section, if it appears from evidence that the surety company has wilfully and without just cause refused to pay the loss upon demand, the court in rendering judgment shall allow the plaintiff the amount of the plaintiff's expenses including court costs and attorney's fees, to be recovered and collected as part of the costs. The amount of any payment of costs and attorney's fees under this subsection will not reduce the surety's remaining liability on its bond.

(1) Every grain warehouseman shall at all times keep the grain stored in the grain warehouse insured by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state. The grain is to be insured for its full market value against loss by fire, inherent explosion, lightning and windstorm, and failure to do so shall make the grain warehouseman liable for the same. All such policies shall provide that no cancellations shall be effective unless thirty (30) days' prior notice is given the commissioner.

(2) If fire, inherent explosion, lightning or windstorm shall destroy or damage all or part of the grain stored in any grain warehouse, the grain warehouseman shall, upon demand by the holder of any warehouse receipt for such grain, and upon being presented with the warehouse receipt, make settlement for the fair market value after deducting the warehouse charges.

All such grain is to be inspected, weighed and graded by an inspector except that:

(a) The depositor and the grain warehouseman may agree upon a sample taken from the lot of grain to be offered for storage as being a true and representative sample.

(b) The depositor and the grain warehouseman may agree upon the grade of the grain offered for storage and a warehouse receipt may be issued on the agreed grade.

(1) Every grain warehouse shall be examined by the commissioner each year. The cost of such examination shall be included in the annual license fee. The commissioner, at his discretion, may make additional examinations of any grain warehouse at any time. If any discrepancy is found as a result of additional examination, the cost of such examination is to be paid by the grain warehouseman.

(2) Every grain warehouse shall at least annually send to the commissioner a copy of its financial statement prepared by an accountant licensed by the State of Mississippi and sworn to by the accountant and grain warehouseman.

(3) The commissioner may, in his discretion, require an unqualified audit by an accountant licensed by the State of Mississippi as a requirement for licensing, and inspect the grain warehouse's business, mode of conducting the same, facilities, equipment, inventories, property, books, records, accounts, papers and minutes of proceedings held at such grain warehouse, and any other records deemed relevant to the operation of the grain warehouse by the commissioner.

§ 75-45-163. Misbranding.

A commercial feed shall be deemed to be misbranded:

§ 75-45-165. Adulteration.

A commercial feed shall be deemed to be adulterated:

- (a) If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health; however, in case the substance is not an added substance, such commercial feed shall not be considered adulterated under this subsection if the quantity of such substance in such commercial feed does not ordinarily render it injurious to health;
- (b) If it bears or contains any added poisonous, added deleterious, or added nonnutritive substance which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 406 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, other than one which is a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity, or a food additive;
- (c) If it is, or it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act; or
- (d) If it is a raw agricultural commodity and it bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 408(a) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. However, where a pesticide chemical has been used in or on a raw agricultural commodity in conformity with an exemption granted or a tolerance prescribed under Section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and such raw agricultural commodity has been subjected to processing such as canning, cooking, freezing, dehydrating, or milling, the residue of such pesticide chemical remaining in or on such processed feed shall not be deemed unsafe if such residue in or on the raw agricultural commodity has been removed to the extent possible in good manufacturing practice. In such case the concentration of such residue in the processed feed shall not exceed the tolerance prescribed for the raw agricultural commodity. Feeding of such processed feed shall not result, or be likely to result, in a pesticide residue, unsafe within the meaning of Section 408(a) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, in the edible product of the animal.

(e) If it is, or it bears or contains, any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 706 of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

(i) It is, in whole or in part, the product of a diseased animal or of an animal which has died otherwise than by slaughter which is unsafe within the meaning of Section 402(a)(1) or (2) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act;

(j) If its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health; or

(k) If it has been intentionally subjected to radiation, unless the use of the radiation was in conformity with the regulation or exemption in effect pursuant to Section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

(l) If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom or any less valuable substance substituted therefor.

(m) If its composition or quality falls below or differs from that which it is purported or is represented to possess by its labeling. For the purposes of adjudging adulteration under this paragraph, the commissioner shall be guided by "permitted analytical variations" from the guaranteed value for each feed component or analytically measurable index of the feed quality. Such permitted analytical variations from guaranteed values shall be set forth by regulation by the commissioner and State Chemist.

(n) If it contains a drug and the methods used in or the facilities or controls used for its manufacture, processing, or packaging do not conform to current good manufacturing practice regulations promulgated by the commissioner and State Chemist to assure that the drug meets the requirement of this article as to safety and has the identity and strength and meets the quality and purity characteristics which it purports or is represented to possess. In promulgating such regulations, the commissioner and State Chemist shall adopt the current good manufacturing practice regulations for Type A medicated articles and Type B and Type C medicated feed established under authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, unless they determine that they are not appropriate to the conditions which exist in this state.

§ 75-45-167. Inspection fees.

(1) An inspection fee at the rate of Twenty-five Cents (25¢) per ton shall be paid on commercial feeds distributed in this state by the person whose name appears on the label as the manufacturer, guarantor or distributor, subject to the following:

(a) No fee shall be paid on a commercial feed if the payment has been made by a previous distributor.

(b) No fee shall be paid on customer-formula feeds if the inspection fee is paid on the commercial feeds which are used as ingredients therein.

(c) No fee shall be paid on commercial feeds which are used as ingredients for the manufacture of commercial feeds. If the fee has already been paid, credit shall be given for such payment.

(2) In the case of a commercial feed which is distributed in the state only in packages of ten (10) pounds or less, an annual fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per brand shall be paid on or before January 1 of each year in lieu of the inspection fee specified in subsection (1).

(3) The minimum inspection fee shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00) annually.

(4) Any feed manufactured in the state which is used by a distributor or his contract feeders to feed his own livestock, poultry, or fish, or feed which is distributed in tonnage bulk to any commercial grower of an aquatic species, including, but not limited to, catfish, shall be exempt from the inspection fee on both purchased ingredients and finished feed. To qualify for the above exemption, a permit must be obtained from the commissioner annually and the permit used to obtain exemption on feed ingredients. Any services the Mississippi State Chemical Laboratory or the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce provide for permit holders will be paid for according to mutually agreeable prices between both parties.

§ 75-45-169. Reports, records and penalty fees.

Each person who is liable for the payment of an inspection fee shall:

(a) File, not later than the last day of January of each year, an annual statement, setting forth the number of net tons of commercial feeds distributed in this state during the preceding calendar year, and upon filing such statement shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in Section 75-45-167. Inspection fees which are due and owing and have not been remitted to the Department of Agriculture and Commerce within fifteen (15) days following the due date shall have a penalty fee of ten percent (10%) (minimum Ten Dollars ($10.00)) added to the amount due when payment is finally made. The assessment of this penalty fee shall not prevent the department from taking other actions as provided in this article.

(b) Keep such records as may be necessary or required by the commissioner to indicate accurately the tonnage of commercial feed distributed in this state; the commissioner shall have the right to examine such records to verify statements of tonnage. Failure to make an accurate statement of tonnage or to pay the inspection fee or comply as provided herein shall constitute sufficient cause for the cancellation of the facilities' permit to sell commercial feeds in Mississippi.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation substituted "feeds" for "fees" in subsection (b). The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its May 16, 2002, meeting.

The inspection may include the verification of only such records, and production and control procedures as may be necessary to determine compliance with the good manufacturing practice regulations established under paragraph (d) of Section 75-45-165.

(2) A separate notice shall be given for each such inspection, but a notice shall not be required for each entry made during the period covered by the inspection. Each such inspection shall be commenced and completed with reasonable promptness. Upon completion of the inspection, the person in charge of the facility or vehicle shall be so notified.

(3) If the officer or employee making such inspection of a factory, warehouse, vehicle or other establishment has obtained a sample in the course of the inspection, upon completion of the inspection and prior to leaving the premises or vehicle he, upon request, shall give to the owner, operator, or agent in charge, a receipt describing the samples obtained.

(4) If the owner of any factory, warehouse, vehicle or establishment described in subsection (1), or his agent, refuses to admit the commissioner or his agent to inspect in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the commissioner is authorized to obtain from any state court a warrant directing such owner or his agent to submit the premises described in such warrant to inspection.

(5) For the purpose of the enforcement of this article, the commissioner or his duly designated agent is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises including any vehicle of transport during regular business hours to have access to, and to obtain samples, and to examine records relating to distribution of commercial feeds.

(6) Sampling and analysis shall be conducted in accordance with methods published by the AOAC International, or in accordance with other generally recognized methods.

(7) The results of all analyses of official samples shall be forwarded by the State Chemist to the person named on the label and to the purchaser. When the inspection and analysis of an official sample indicates a commercial feed has been adulterated or misbranded and upon request within thirty (30) days following receipt of the analysis the State Chemist shall furnish to the registrant a portion of the sample concerned.

(8) The commissioner and State Chemist, in determining for administrative purposes whether a commercial feed is deficient in any component, shall be guided by the official sample as defined in paragraph (p) of Section 75-45-153 and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsections (3), (5), and (6) of this section.

release of said commercial feed or for permission to process or relabel said commercial feed to bring it into compliance with this article.

§ 75-45-182. Complaints against persons violating this article; administrative procedures; remedies; appeals.

(1) When a complaint is made against a person for violating any of the provisions of this article, or any of the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, the Director of the Commercial Feed Division within the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, or his designee, shall act as the reviewing officer. The complaint shall be in writing and shall be filed in the office of the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce ("department"). The reviewing officer shall deliver to the accused a copy of the complaint along with any supporting documents and a request for the accused to respond to the charges within thirty (30) days after service of the complaint upon the accused. Notification to the accused may be accomplished by certified mail or by any of the methods provided in Rule 4 of the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure. The accused shall respond in the form of a written answer along with all supporting documents. Upon expiration of the thirty-day period, the reviewing officer shall examine all pleadings and documents filed in the case for the purpose of determining the merit of the complaint, or the lack thereof. No evidentiary hearing shall be held at this stage.

If the reviewing officer determines that the complaint lacks merit, he may dismiss same. If he finds that there is substantial evidence showing that a violation of this article or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder has occurred, the reviewing officer may impose any or all of the following penalties upon the accused: (a) levy a civil penalty in an amount of no more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each violation; (b) revoke or suspend any permit, license or registration issued to the accused under the terms of this article and accompanying regulations; (c) issue a stop sale order; (d) issue a "withdrawal from distribution" order; (e) require the accused to relabel any product offered for sale which is not labeled in accordance with the provisions of this article; or (f) seize any product that is not in compliance with this article and destroy, sell or otherwise dispose of the product and apply the proceeds of any such sale to the costs herein and any civil penalties levied hereunder, with the balance to be paid according to the law. If any costs or penalties assessed hereunder have not been paid, they may be collected through a court system. A copy of the reviewing officer's decision shall be sent to the accused by certified mail. Either the accused or the department may appeal the decision of the reviewing officer to the commissioner by filing a notice of appeal with the department within thirty (30) days of receipt of the reviewing officer's decision. If no appeal is taken from the order of the reviewing officer within the allotted time, the order shall then become final.

(2) In the event of an appeal, the commissioner, or his designee, shall conduct a hearing relative to the charges. At the hearing before the commissioner, or his designee, the matter shall be heard de novo; the department shall have subpoena power, the witnesses shall be placed under oath and shall be subject to direct and cross examination and the testimony shall be recorded. Compliance with such subpoenas may be enforced by any court of general jurisdiction in this state. The commissioner, or his designee, shall receive and hear all the evidence and arguments offered by both parties and shall afford the accused a full opportunity to present all his defenses.

Within a reasonable time after the hearing, the commissioner, or his designee, shall render an opinion, which either affirms, reverses or amends the order of the reviewing officer in whole or in part, and the order shall be final. A copy of the commissioner's order shall be sent to the accused by certified mail.

(3) Either the accused or the department may appeal the decision of the commissioner or his designee to the circuit court of the county of the residence of the accused, or if the accused is a nonresident of the State of Mississippi, to the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi. The appellant shall have the obligation of having the record transcribed and filing same with the circuit court. The appeal shall otherwise be governed by all applicable laws and rules affecting appeals to the circuit court. If no appeal is perfected within the required time, the decision of the commissioner, or his designee, shall then become final.

(4) The decision of the circuit court may then be appealed by either party to the Mississippi Supreme Court in accordance with the existing law and rules affecting such appeals.

(5) When any violation of this article or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder occurs or is about to occur that presents a clear and present danger to the public health, safety or welfare requiring immediate action, the commissioner or any of the department's field inspectors may issue an order to be effective immediately before notice and a hearing that imposes any or all of the following penalties upon the accused: (a) a stop sale order; (b) a "withdrawal from distribution" order; (c) a requirement that the accused relabel a product that he is offering for sale which is not labeled in accordance with this article; or (d) the seizure of any product that is not in compliance with this article and the destruction, sale or disposal of the product and the application of the proceeds of such sale to the costs and civil penalties herein, with the balance to be paid according to law. The order shall be served upon the accused in the same manner that the summons and complaint may be served upon him. The accused shall then have thirty (30) days after service of the order upon him within which to request an informal administrative review before the reviewing officer. If the accused makes such a request within the required time, the reviewing officer shall provide an informal administrative review to the accused within ten (10) days after such request is made. If the accused does not request an informal administrative review within such time, then he will be deemed to have waived his right to same. At the informal administrative review, subpoena power shall not be available, witnesses shall not be sworn nor be subject to cross-examination and there shall be no court reporter or record made of the proceedings. Each party may present its case in the form of documents, oral statements or any other method. The rules of evidence shall not apply. The reviewing officer's decision shall be in writing, and it shall be sent to the accused by certified mail. If either party is aggrieved by the order of the reviewing officer, he may appeal to the commissioner for a full evidentiary hearing in accordance with the procedures described in subsection (2) of this section, except that there shall be no requirement for a written complaint or answer to be filed by the parties. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner within thirty (30) days after the order of the reviewing officer is served on the appealing party. The hearing before the commissioner, or his designee, shall be held within a reasonable time after the appeal has been perfected. Failure to perfect an appeal within the allotted time shall be deemed a waiver of such right.

§ 75-45-305. Surety bond; certificate of deposit; letter of credit.

(1) Every person licensed as a grain dealer shall have filed with the department a surety bond signed by the dealer as principal and by a responsible company authorized to execute surety bonds within the State of Mississippi. A grain dealer may file with the department, in lieu of a surety bond, a certificate of deposit or irrevocable letter of credit from any bank or banking corporation insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, payable to the commissioner, as trustee. The principal amount of the certificate of deposit or the amount of the letter of credit shall be the same as that required for a surety bond under this article and the interest thereon shall be made payable to the purchaser thereof. Such bond shall be a principal amount (to the nearest One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00)) equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate dollar amount paid, by the dealer to producers for grain purchased from them during the dealer's last completed fiscal year or in the case of a dealer who has been engaged in business as a grain dealer for less than one (1) year or who has not theretofore engaged in such business, ten percent (10%) of the estimated aggregate dollar amount to be paid by the dealer to producers for grain purchased from them during the next fiscal year. Such bond shall not be less than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) nor more than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), except as otherwise authorized by this article. The commissioner shall determine the sufficiency of any letter of credit.

(2) The commissioner may, when he questions a grain dealer's ability to pay producers for grain purchased, require a grain dealer to post an additional bond in a dollar amount deemed appropriate by the commissioner. Failure to post such additional bond or certificate of deposit or irrevocable letter of credit, constitutes grounds for suspension or revocation of a license issued under this article.

(3) Any required bond or bonds shall be executed by the grain dealer as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in this state as a surety. The bond shall be in favor of the commissioner for the benefit of all persons interested, their legal representatives, attorneys or assigns, conditioned upon the faithful compliance by the grain dealer with the provisions of this article and the rules and regulations of the State Department of Agriculture and Commerce applicable thereto. The aggregate liability of the surety shall not exceed the sum of such bond. The bond may be cancelled at any time by the surety by giving written notice to the commissioner of its intention to cancel the bond and all liability thereunder shall terminate sixty (60) days after the mailing of such notice except that such notice shall not affect any claims arising under the bond, whether presented or not, before the effective date of the cancellation notice.

(4) Any grain dealer who is of the opinion that his net worth and assets are sufficient to guarantee payment to producers for grain purchased by him may request the commissioner to be relieved of the obligation of filing a bond in excess of the minimum bond of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00). Such request shall be accompanied by a financial statement of the applicant made within six (6) months of the date of such request certified by a certified public accountant. If such financial statement discloses net assets and a net worth of an amount equal to at least three (3) times the amount of the bond required by this article and the commissioner is otherwise satisfied as to the financial ability and resources of the applicant, the commissioner may waive that portion of the required bond in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00). However, in the case of a grain dealer whose net worth is not equal to three (3) times the amount of bond required, the commissioner may allow such grain dealer to waive in One Thousand Dollar ($1,000.00) increments a portion of the bond required in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00). The percentage factor to be applied to the bond required in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) shall be determined by dividing actual net worth by the net worth required to waive all bond in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00). If the result of this computation provides a percentage factor of eighty percent (80%) or greater, then that same percentage of the bond in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) may be waived. The grain dealer shall then provide to the commissioner a surety bond in the amount of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) plus any additional bond required in excess thereof.

(5) Any grain dealer who purchases grain from producers only in connection with or as an incident to some other business and whose total purchases of grain from producers during any fiscal year do not exceed an aggregate amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) may satisfy the bonding requirements of this article by filing with the commissioner a bond, or certificate of deposit or irrevocable letter of credit from any bank or banking corporation insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, at the rate of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or fraction thereof of the dollar amount to be purchased, with a minimum bond, certificate of deposit or irrevocable letter of credit of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and a current financial statement.

(6) Failure of a grain dealer to file a bond, or certificate of deposit, or letter of credit, and to keep such bond, certificate of deposit or line of credit in force, or to maintain assets adequate to assure payment to producers for grain purchased from them shall be grounds for the suspension or revocation of a license issued under this article.

(7) When the commissioner has determined that a grain dealer has defaulted payment to producers for grain which he has purchased from them, the commissioner shall determine through appropriate legal procedures the producers and the amount of defaulted payment and as trustee of the bond shall immediately after such determination call for the dealer's surety bond or bonds, or other pledged financial assets, to be paid to him for distribution to those producers who should receive the benefits. Should the defaulted amount owed the producers be less than the principal amount of the bond or bonds or pledged financial assets, then the surety bank, or banking corporation shall be obligated to pay only the amount of the default.

§ 75-45-307. Issuance and renewal of license.

If the department is satisfied:

- (a) that the applicant is of good business reputation,
- (b) that the applicant has adequate bonding under Section 75-45-305,
- (c) that the applicant maintains a permanent business location in this state, and

(d) that the applicant has sufficient financial resources to guarantee payment to producers for grain purchased from them, the commissioner shall issue a license to the applicant or shall renew the applicant's license. Licenses shall be issued or renewed annually for a period ending ninety (90) days after the last day of the applicant's fiscal year. The license or renewal thereof issued by the department under this section shall be posted in the principal office of the licensee in this state. A certificate shall be posted in each location listed on a licensee's application where he engages in the business of buying grain. In the case of a licensee operating a truck or tractor trailer unit the licensee is required to have a certificate that the license is in effect and that a bond or certificate of deposit has been filed and is carried in each truck or tractor trailer unit used in connection with the purchase of grain from producers. Upon request of a licensee and payment of the fee thereof, the commissioner shall issue to the licensee a certificate that a license has been issued or renewed and a bond filed as required by this article.

§ 75-45-309. Examinations; inspections; suspension or revocation of license; hearings.

(1) Every licensed grain dealer shall be examined by the commissioner each year. The cost of such examination shall be included in the annual license fee. The commissioner, at his discretion, may make additional examinations at any time. If any discrepancy is found as a result of additional examination, the cost of such examination is to be paid by the grain dealer.

(2) The commissioner may inspect the premises used by any grain dealer in the conduct of his business at any time and the books, accounts, records and papers of every such grain dealer shall at all times during business hours be subject to inspection by the commission. Each grain dealer may also be required to make such reports of his activities, obligations and transactions as deemed necessary by the commissioner to protect the producer as set forth in the rules and regulations.

(3) If a grain dealer violates any of the provisions of this article, his license and certificate of license may be removed from his premises by any department employee charged with the enforcement of this article and returned to the department. Such removal shall constitute a suspension of the license.

(4) The commissioner may upon his own motion, and shall upon the verified complaint in writing of any person setting forth facts which if proved would constitute grounds for refusal, suspension or revocation of a license under this article, investigate the actions of any applicant or any person or persons applying for, holding or claiming to hold a license.

(5) The commissioner within ten (10) days after removing and suspending a license as provided in this section or before refusing to issue or renew or before otherwise suspending or revoking a license shall set a date for a hearing thereon and at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing, shall notify in writing the applicant for or holder of a license, thereafter called the respondent, that a hearing will be held on the date designated to determine whether the respondent is privileged to hold such license and shall afford the respondent opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. Such written notice may be served by personal service on the respondent or by mailing the same by registered or certified mail to the place of business last theretofore specified by the respondent in the last application or notification to the department.

(6) At the time and place fixed in the notice, the commissioner shall proceed to hear the matter and any charges made and both the respondent and any complainant shall be accorded opportunity to present in person or by counsel such statements, testimony, evidence and argument as may be pertinent to the matter or charges or to any defenses thereto. The commissioner may continue such hearing from time to time.

§ 75-45-311. Failure to make payment to producer.

If a grain dealer should fail or refuse to make payment to a producer for grain purchased when such payment is requested by the producer and the request is made within one hundred sixty (160) days of the date of sale or the date of delivery of such grain to the dealer, whichever is later, but in case of deferred pricing, delayed pricing, priced-later, or similar contractual arrangements, no more than two hundred seventy (270) days after the date of delivery, the producer may notify the commissioner in writing, by certified mail when possible, of such failure or refusal within the period of one hundred sixty (160) days or ten (10) days thereafter. The commissioner upon receiving such notice shall take whatever action is necessary. The producer furnishing such written notice within the prescribed length of time is entitled to the benefits of the grain dealer's bond. However, if a producer fails to furnish written notice to the commissioner within the prescribed time, then such producer is not entitled to any benefits under the grain dealer's bond. Grain dealer liability under priced-later contracts, open-priced contracts, deferred price contracts, or similar agreements shall accrue under the bond in effect at the date of default as determined by the commissioner.

§ 75-45-315. Prohibited acts; penalties; injunctions.

(1) Any person who engages in business as a grain dealer without securing a license or who does not have a valid license or is in violation of this article or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or who shall impede, obstruct, hinder or otherwise prevent or attempt to prevent the commissioner or his duly authorized agent in performance of his duty in connection with this article or its rules and regulations, or any grain dealer who refuses to permit inspection of his premises, books, accounts or records as provided in this article shall, upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for the first violation, and not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each subsequent violation or imprisoned in a penal institution other than the state penitentiary for not more than six (6) months, or both. In case of a continuing violation or violations, each day and each violation occurring constitutes a separate and distinct offense.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to whom any violation is reported to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction without delay. Before the commissioner reports a violation for prosecution he may give the grain dealer an opportunity to present his views at an informal hearing.

(3) The commissioner may apply for and the circuit court may grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this article or any rules and regulations promulgated under the article notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law. Any such injunction is to be issued without notice and without bond.

(4) The commissioner may apply for, and the appropriate chancery court may grant, a temporary or permanent injunction restraining a grain dealer from disposing of any grain owned, in whole or in part, or held, or in his possession, whether owned in whole or in part, or from anyone removing any grain in which the grain dealer or producers from which he has purchased grain have an interest, in violation of any of the provisions of this article. Such injunction is to be issued without notice and without bond.

§ 75-47-1. Title of chapter.

This chapter shall be known as the "Mississippi Fertilizer Law of 1970."

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A former law is repealed by a later enactment which covers its entire scheme although the provisions are somewhat different; and a statute not repugnant to former one, but clearly intended to prescribe the only rule in the case provided for, repealed former statute, and a statute comprising the complete scheme to control sale of fertilizer repealed a prior statute regulating the same subject. Swift & Co. v. Sones, 142 Miss. 660, 107 So. 881 (1926).

Where two acts are passed by the legislature on the same day with reference to the same subject matter one does not necessarily repeal the other, but they should be harmonized if possible. Swift & Co. v. Sones, 142 Miss. 660, 107 So. 881 (1926).

§ 75-47-3. Enforcing officials.

This chapter shall be administered jointly by the commissioner of agriculture and commerce of the State of Mississippi, hereinafter referred to as the commissioner, and the state chemist of Mississippi, as specified in the following sections.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-02; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 2, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

§ 75-47-5. Definitions of words and terms.

(a) The term “commercial fertilizer” means any substance containing one or more recognized plant nutrient(s) which is used for its plant nutrient content and which is designed for use or claimed to have value in promoting plant growth, except unmanipulated animal and vegetable manures, marl, lime, limestone, wood ashes and gypsum, and other products exempted by regulation of the commissioner and state chemist.

(1) A “fertilizer material” is a commercial fertilizer which either:

A. Contains important quantities of no more than one (1) of the primary plant nutrients (nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash), or

B. Has approximately eighty-five (85%) of its plant nutrient content present in the form of a single chemical compound, or

C. Is derived from a plant or animal residue or by-product or a natural material deposit which has been processed in such a way that its content of primary plant nutrients has not been materially changed except by purification and concentration.

(2) A “mixed fertilizer” is a commercial fertilizer containing any combination or mixture of fertilizer materials in which is included at least two (2) primary plant food elements.

(3) A “specialty fertilizer” is a commercial fertilizer distributed primarily for nonfarm use, such as home gardens, lawns, shrubbery, flowers, golf courses, municipal parks, cemeteries, greenhouses and nurseries.

(4) A “bulk fertilizer” is a commercial fertilizer distributed in a nonpackaged form.

(b) The term “brand” means a term, design, or trademark used in connection with one or several grades of commercial fertilizer.

(c) Guaranteed Analysis:

(1) Until the commissioner and state chemist prescribe the alternative form of “guaranteed analysis” in accordance with the provisions of subpara-graph (2) hereof, the term "guaranteed analysis" shall mean the minimum percentage of plant nutrients claimed in the following order and form:

- A. Total Nitrogen (N) ..... percent
 Available Phosphoric Acid ( $P_2O_5$ ) ..... percent
 Soluble Potash ( $K_2O$ ) ..... percent

B. For unacidulated mineral phosphatic materials, total phosphoric acid and degree of fineness must also be guaranteed, for basic slag degree of fineness must also be, and total phosphoric acid may be guaranteed. For bone, tankage and other organic phosphate materials, the total phosphoric acid and/or degree of fineness may also be guaranteed.

C. Guarantees for plant nutrients other than nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium may be permitted or required by regulation of the commissioner and state chemist. The guarantees for such other nutrients shall be expressed in the form of the element. The sources of such other nutrients (oxides, salt, chelates, etc.) may be required to be stated on the application for registration and may be included as a parenthetical statement on the label. Other beneficial substances or compounds, determinable by laboratory methods, also may be guaranteed by permission of the commissioner and state chemist and with the advice of the director of the agricultural and forestry experimental station. When any plant nutrients or other substances or compounds are guaranteed, they shall be subject to inspection and analysis in accord with the methods and regulations prescribed by the state chemist.

D. Potential basicity or acidity expressed in terms of calcium carbonate equivalent in multiples of fifty pounds per ton, when required by regulation.

(2) When the commissioner and state chemist find, after public hearing following due notice, that the requirement for expressing the guaranteed analysis of phosphorus and potassium in elemental form would not impose an economic hardship on distributors and users of fertilizer by reason of conflicting labeling requirements among the states, they may require by regulation thereafter that the "guaranteed analysis" shall be in the following form:

- Total Nitrogen (N) ..... percent
 Available Phosphorus (P) ..... percent
 Soluble potassium (K) ..... percent

Provided, however, that the effective date of said regulation shall be not less than six (6) months following the issuance thereof, and provided, further, that for a period two (2) years following the effective date of said regulation the equivalent of phosphorus and potassium may also be shown in the form of phosphoric acid and potash; provided, however, that after the effective date of a regulation issued under the provisions of this section, requiring that phosphorus and potassium be shown in the elemental form, the guaranteed analysis for nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium shall constitute the grade.

(d) The term "grade" means the percentage of total nitrogen, available phosphorus or phosphoric acid, and soluble potassium or soluble potash stated in whole numbers in the same terms, order and percentages as in the guaranteed analysis. Provided, however, that fertilizer materials, bone meal, manures, and similar raw materials may be guaranteed in fractional units.

(e) The term “official sample” means any sample of commercial fertilizer taken by the commissioner or his agent and designated as “official” by the state chemist.

(f) The term “ton” means a net weight of two thousand (2,000) pounds avoirdupois.

(g) The term “percent” or “percentage” means the percentage by weight.

(h) The term “person” includes individual, partnership, association, firm and corporation.

(i) The term “distributor” means any person who imports, consigns, manufactures, produces, compounds, mixes, or blends commercial fertilizer, or who offers for sale, sells, barter or otherwise supplies commercial fertilizer in this state.

(j) The term “registrant” or “guarantor” means the person who manufactures, blends, sells or offers fertilizer for sale under his name or brand, and who is registered with the Department of Agriculture and Commerce under the provisions of this chapter or rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(k) The term “label” means the display of all written, printed or graphic matter upon the immediate container or statement accompanying a commercial fertilizer.

(l) The term “labeling” means all written, printed or graphic matter, upon or accompanying any commercial fertilizer, or advertisements, brochures, posters, television and radio announcements used in promoting the sale of such commercial fertilizers.

(m) The term “unit” means one percent (1%) of the nutrient referred to in a ton of fertilizer.

§ 75-47-7. Registration.

(1) Each brand and grade of commercial fertilizer shall be registered before being distributed in this state. The application for registration shall be submitted to the commissioner on forms furnished by the commissioner, and shall be accompanied by a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per brand and grade, except that those fertilizers sold in packages of ten (10) pounds or less shall be registered at a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) each. One-half (½) of the fees collected for the registration of fertilizer products or Five Dollars ($5.00) per brand and grade and Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for those fertilizers sold in packages of ten (10) pounds or less shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury described under Section 69-23-7(2), and such funds shall be subject to appropriation by the Mississippi Legislature. Such fees shall be used by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce and the Department of Environmental Quality to carry out a program of protecting the underground water resources from commercial fertilizers or fertilizer materials. Upon approval by the commissioner and State Chemist a copy of the registration shall be furnished to the applicant. All registrations expire on June 30 of the following year. The application shall include the following information:

- (a) The net weight.
- (b) The brand and grade.
- (c) The guaranteed analysis.
- (d) The name and address of the registrant.

(2) A distributor shall not be required to register any commercial fertilizer which is already registered under this chapter by another person, providing the label does not differ in any respect.

(3) A distributor shall not be required to register each grade of commercial fertilizer formulated according to specifications which are furnished by a consumer prior to mixing, but shall be required to register his firm in a manner and at a fee as prescribed in the regulations by the commissioner and State Chemist, and to label such fertilizer as provided in Section 75-47-9(2). All fees collected by the commissioner shall be paid into the State Treasury.

(4) After a public hearing open to all interested parties, the commissioner, State Chemist, and Director of Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experimental Station shall have authority to establish minimum amounts of plant nutrients which may be guaranteed and to promulgate ratios and minimum analysis grades of mixed fertilizers adequate to meet the agricultural needs of the state. Such a list shall be published and furnished to fertilizer manufacturers and guarantors on or before June 1 of each year.

(5) Pursuant to a notice from the Department of Environmental Quality under Section 49-17-26 in relation to state underground water quality standards, the Commissioner of Agriculture shall provide for modification of the labeling of any fertilizer, or suspend or cancel the registration of any fertilizer or any use of any fertilizer, or adopt a regulation in accordance with Section 69-23-9 to protect the underground water resources, as defined in the Federal Safe Drinking Water Act, in the shortest reasonable time.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-04; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 4; Laws, 1987, ch. 523, § 5; Laws, 1991, ch. 530, § 25, eff from and after July 1, 1991.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1987, ch. 523, § 7, effective from and after July 1, 1987, provides as follows:

"Nothing in this act shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for fees or charges due or accrued under the Mississippi Economic Poison Law of 1950 or the Mississippi Fertilizer Law of 1970 prior to the date on which this act becomes effective, whether such assessments, appeals, suits, claims or actions shall have been begun before the date on which this act becomes effective or shall thereafter be begun; and the provisions of such laws are expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment and collection fees due or accrued and execution of any warrant under such laws prior to the date on which this act becomes effective, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for failure to comply therewith."

Federal Aspects — The Federal Safe Drinking Water Act is codified at 42 USCS §§ 300f et seq.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Failure of seller of commercial fertilizers to comply with the requirements of 1942 Code §§ 4450-4474, particularly the requirement for registration as dealer, the purchase of stamps, the payment of inspection fees, and the giving of notice to the commissioner of agriculture of shipments did not constitute a defense to an action for damages for breach of contract for purchase of fertilizer, since contract covered the purchase of a lawful commodity and was not malum in se but merely malum prohibitum. Gardner v. Reed, 207 Miss. 306, 42 So. 2d 206 (1949).

The commissioner of agriculture was without authority to refuse registration of trade mark, brand and tag of fertilizer merely for the reason of applicant's past violations of law. Garner v. Delta Cotton Oil Co., 142 Miss. 844, 108 So. 149 (1926).

§ 75-47-9. Labels.

(1) Any commercial fertilizer distributed in this state in containers shall have placed on or affixed to the container a label setting forth in clearly legible and conspicuous form the information required by Section 75-47-7 (1)(a), (b), (c), and (d) of this chapter. In case of bulk shipments, this information in written or printed form shall accompany delivery and be supplied to the purchaser at time of delivery.

(2) A commercial fertilizer formulated according to specifications which are furnished by a consumer prior to mixing shall be labeled to show the net weight, guaranteed analysis, and the name and address of the distributor.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-05; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 5, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

Cross References — Requirement that commercial fertilizer distributor label fertilizer as provided in this section, see § 75-47-7.

Misbranding, see § 75-47-21.

§ 75-47-11. Inspection fees.

(1) There shall be paid to the commissioner for all commercial fertilizers distributed in this state an inspection fee at the rate of Twenty-five Cents (25¢) per ton, provided that sales to manufacturers or exchanges between them are hereby exempted. Fees so collected shall be used for the payment of the costs, by act of the Legislature, of inspection, sampling and analysis, and other expenses necessary for the administration of this chapter. On individual packages of commercial fertilizer containing ten (10) pounds or less, there shall be paid in lieu of the annual registration fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per brand and grade and the Twenty-five Cent (25¢) per ton inspection fee, an annual registration fee and inspection fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each brand and grade sold or distributed. Where a person sells commercial fertilizer in packages of ten (10) pounds or less and in packages over ten (10) pounds, this annual registration and inspection fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) shall apply only to that portion sold in packages of ten (10) pounds or less, and that portion sold in packages over ten (10) pounds shall be subject to the same inspection fee of Twenty-five Cents (25¢) per ton as provided in this chapter.

(2) Every registrant or guarantor who distributes a commercial fertilizer in this state shall file with the commissioner, on forms furnished by the commissioner, a quarterly statement for the periods ending September 30, December 31, March 31 and June 30, setting forth the number of net tons of each commercial fertilizer distributed in this state during such quarter. The report shall be due on or before the thirtieth day of the month following the close of each quarter. Upon such statement the registrant shall pay the inspection fee at the rate stated in paragraph (1) of this section.

If the tonnage report is not filed and the payment of inspection fee is not made within thirty (30) days after the end of the quarter, a collection fee amounting to ten percent (10%) of the amount, but in no case less than Ten Dollars ($10.00), shall be assessed against the registrant, and the amount of fees due shall constitute a debt and become the basis of a judgment against the registrant.

(3) When more than one person is involved in the distribution of a commercial fertilizer, the last person who has the fertilizer registered and who distributes to a nonregistrant, dealer or consumer, is responsible for reporting the tonnage and paying the inspection fee.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-06; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 6; Laws, 1973, ch. 411, § 1; Laws, 1987, ch. 523, § 6; Laws, 1997, ch. 448, § 2, eff from and after July 1, 1997.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1987, ch. 523, § 7, effective from and after July 1, 1987, provides as follows:

“SECTION 7. Nothing in this act shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for fees or charges due or accrued under the Mississippi Economic Poison Law of 1950 or the Mississippi Fertilizer Law of 1970 prior to the date on which this act becomes effective, whether such assessments, appeals, suits, claims or actions shall have been begun before the date on which this act becomes effective or shall thereafter be begun; and the provisions of such laws are expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment and collection fees due or accrued and execution of any warrant under such laws prior to the date on which this act becomes effective, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for failure to comply therewith.”

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Failure of seller of commercial fertilizers to comply with the requirements of 1942 Code §§ 4450-4474, particularly the requirement for registration as dealer, the purchase of stamps, the payment of inspection fees, and the giving of notice to the commissioner of agriculture of shipments did not constitute a defense to an action for damages for breach of contract for purchase of fertilizer, since contract covered the purchase of a lawful commodity and was not malum in se but merely malum prohibitum. Gardner v. Reed, 207 Miss. 306, 42 So. 2d 206 (1949).

§ 75-47-13. Tonnage reports.

All fertilizer registrants transacting, distributing or selling commercial fertilizer to a nonregistrant shall file with the commissioner a summary quarterly report showing the county code of the consignee, each grade of commercial fertilizer, the amounts in tons, the Uniform Fertilizer Tonnage Reporting System (UFTRS) code, the form in which the fertilizer was distributed (bag, bulk or liquid) and the use (farm or non-farm). This report of tonnage sold shall be reported by one (1) of the following methods:

(a) Submitting a summary report on forms furnished by the commissioner; or

(b) Submitting an electronic disk format or text file acceptable to the UFTRS. Each reporting method shall be due on the specified dates set forth in Section 75-47-11(2). No information furnished to the commissioner under this section shall be disclosed in such a way as to divulge the methods of operation of any registrant.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-07; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 7; Laws, 1997, ch. 448, § 3, eff from and after July 1, 1997.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Failure of seller of commercial fertilizers to comply with the requirements of 1942 Code §§ 4450-4474, particularly the requirement for registration as dealer, the purchase of stamps, the payment of inspection fees, and the giving of notice to the commissioner of agriculture of shipments did not constitute a defense to an action for damages for breach of contract for purchase of fertilizer, since contract covered the purchase of a lawful commodity and was not malum in se but merely malum prohibitum. Gardner v. Reed, 207 Miss. 306, 42 So. 2d 206 (1949).

§ 75-47-15. Inspection; sampling; analysis.

(1) It shall be the duty of the commissioner, who may act through his authorized agent, to sample and inspect, and of the state chemist to make analyses of and test commercial fertilizers distributed within this state at any time and place and to such an extent as they may deem necessary to determine whether such commercial fertilizers are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner, individually or through his agent, is authorized to enter upon any public or private premises or carriers during regular business hours in order to have access to commercial fertilizers subject to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations pertaining thereto, and to the records relating to their distribution.

(2) In drawing any official sample and in making any analysis, the officially adopted methods and terminology of the Association of Official Analytical Chemists shall be used. In cases not covered by such officially adopted methods and terminology, the state chemist shall, as soon as practicable and from other sources deemed proper, adopt and publish appropriate methods and terminology.

(3) The state chemist and commissioner, in determining for administrative purposes whether any commercial fertilizer is deficient in plant food, shall be guided solely by the official sample as defined in paragraph (e) of Section 75-47-5, and obtained and analyzed as provided for in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The results of official analysis of commercial fertilizers and portions of official samples shall be distributed by the state chemist as provided in the regulations.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where samples of fertilizers are not drawn and forwarded as required by statute, certificate of state chemist is not admissible in evidence. Swift & Co. v. Sones, 142 Miss. 660, 107 So. 881 (1926).

§ 75-47-17. Plant food deficiency.

(1) Penalty for Nitrogen, Available Phosphoric Acid or Phosphorus and Potash or Potassium — If the analysis shall show that commercial fertilizer is deficient in one or more of its guaranteed primary plant foods (NPK) beyond the "investigational allowances" as established by regulation, or if the overall index value of the fertilizer is below the level established by regulation, a penalty of three times the commercial value of such deficiency(ies) shall be assessed on each ton of fertilizer in the lot or shipment represented by the sample analyzed.

(2) Penalties for Other Deficiencies — Deficiencies beyond the investigational allowances as established by regulation in any other constituent(s) covered under Section 75-47-5 paragraph (c)(1) B, C, and D, which the registrant is required to or may guarantee, shall be evaluated and penalties prescribed therefor by the commissioner and state chemist.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent any person from appealing to a court of competent jurisdiction praying for judgment as to the justification of such penalties.

(4) All penalties assessed under this section shall be paid to the commissioner, who shall deposit the same in the state treasury.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-09; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 9, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

Cross References — Commercial values of ingredients, see § 75-47-19.

§ 75-47-19. Commercial value.

For the purpose of determining the commercial values to be applied under the provisions of Section 75-47-17, the state chemist shall determine and publish annually the values per unit of nitrogen, available phosphoric acid, and soluble potash in commercial fertilizers in this state. If guarantees are as provided in Section 75-47-5(c)(2), the value shall be per unit of nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium. The values so determined and published shall be used in determining and assessing penalties.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-10; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 10, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

§ 75-47-21. Misbranding.

No person shall distribute misbranded fertilizer. A commercial fertilizer shall be deemed to be misbranded:

- (a) If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular.
- (b) If it is distributed under the name of another fertilizer product.
- (c) If it is not labeled as required in Section 75-47-9 and in accordance with regulations prescribed under this chapter.

(d) If it purports to be or is represented as a commercial fertilizer, or is represented as containing a plant nutrient or commercial fertilizer unless such plant nutrient or commercial fertilizer conforms to the definition of identity, if any, prescribed by regulation of the commissioner and state chemist. In the adopting of such regulations, the commissioner and state chemist shall give due regard to commonly accepted definitions and official fertilizer terms such as those issued by the Association of American Fertilizer Control Officials.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-11; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 11, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

§ 75-47-23. Adulteration.

No person shall distribute an adulterated fertilizer product. A commercial fertilizer shall be deemed to be adulterated:

- (a) If it contains any deleterious or harmful ingredient in sufficient amount to render it injurious to beneficial plant life when applied in accordance with directions for use on the label, or if adequate warning statements or directions for use, which may be necessary to protect plant life are not shown upon the label.

(b) If its composition falls below or differs from that which it is purported to possess by its labeling.

(c) If it contains unwanted crop seed or weed seed.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Under a former statute giving a right of action for the sale of adulterated fertilizers, the term "fertilizer" being defined as including substances, chemicals and compounds, whether natural or artificial products, castor pomace, cottonseed meal, etc., but not including cottonseed, unmixed cottonseed products, such as a product composed of equal parts of the pulverized kernels and of pulverized hulls of the cottonseed, were not fertilizers. Gilmore Puckett Grocery Co. v. J. Lindsey Wells Co., 103 Miss. 468, 60 So. 580 (1912).

§ 75-47-25. Publications.

The commissioner shall publish at least annually and in such forms as he may deem proper: (a) Information concerning the distribution of commercial fertilizers, (b) Results of analyses based on official samples of commercial fertilizers distributed within the state as compared with the analyses guaranteed under Section 75-47-7 and Section 75-47-9.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-13; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 13, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

§ 75-47-27. Rules and regulations.

The commissioner and state chemist are authorized to prescribe and, after a public hearing following due public notice, to enforce such rules and regulations relating to investigational allowances, definitions, records, and the distribution of commercial fertilizers, and any other matters not inconsistent with the meaning and intent of this chapter, as may be necessary to carry into effect the full intent and meaning of this chapter.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 4450-14; Laws, 1970, ch. 263, § 14, eff from and after the first day of July, 1970.

§ 75-47-31. Cancellation of registrations.

The commissioner and state chemist are authorized and empowered to cancel the registration of any brand of commercial fertilizer or to refuse to register any brand of commercial fertilizer as herein provided, upon satisfactory evidence that the registrant has used fraudulent or deceptive practices in the evasions or attempted evasions of the provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder: Provided, that no registration shall be revoked or refused until the registrant shall have been given the opportunity to appear for a hearing by the commissioner and state chemist.

§ 75-47-33. "Stop sale" orders.

The commissioner may issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale, use, or removal" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of commercial fertilizer and to hold at a designated place when the commissioner finds said commercial fertilizer is being offered or exposed for sale in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter until the law has been complied with and said commercial fertilizer is released in writing by the commissioner, or said violation has been otherwise legally disposed of by written authority. The commissioner shall release the commercial fertilizer so withdrawn when the requirements of the provisions of this chapter have been complied with and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the withdrawal have been paid.

In the event the court finds the said commercial fertilizer to be in violation of this chapter and orders the condemnation of said commercial fertilizer, it shall be disposed of in any manner consistent with the quality of the commercial fertilizer and the laws of the state: Provided, that in no instance shall the disposition of said commercial fertilizer be ordered by the court without first giving the claimant an opportunity to apply to the court for release of said commercial fertilizer or for permission to process or relabel said commercial fertilizer to bring it into compliance with this chapter.

§ 75-47-37. Violations.

(1) If it shall appear from the examination of any commercial fertilizer that any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder have been violated, the commissioner shall cause notice of the violations to be given to the registrant, distributor, or possessor from whom said sample was taken; any person so notified shall be given opportunity to be heard under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the commissioner. If it appears after such hearing, either in the presence or absence of the person so notified, that any of the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations issued thereunder have been violated, the commissioner may certify the facts to the proper prosecuting attorney.

(2) Any person convicted of violating any provision of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued thereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the commissioner or his representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of seizure proceedings as a result of minor violations of the chapter when he believes that the public interests will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing.

(4) It shall be the duty of each prosecuting attorney to whom any violation is reported to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction without delay.

(5) The commissioner is hereby authorized to apply for and the court to grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated under the chapter notwithstanding the existence of other remedies at law. Said injunction shall be issued without bond.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Failure of seller of commercial fertilizers to comply with the requirements of 1942 Code §§ 4450-4474, particularly the requirement for registration as dealer, the purchase of stamps, the payment of inspection fees, and the giving of notice to the commissioner of agriculture of shipments did not constitute a defense to an action for damages for breach of contract for purchase of fertilizer, since contract covered the purchase of a lawful commodity and was not malum in se but merely malum prohibitum. Gardner v. Reed, 207 Miss. 306, 42 So. 2d 206 (1949).

§ 75-47-39. Exchanges between manufacturers.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict or avoid sales or exchanges of commercial fertilizers to each other by importers, manufacturers, or manipulators who mix fertilizer materials for sale or as preventing the free and unrestricted shipments of commercial fertilizer to manufacturers or manipulators who have registered their brands as required by the provisions of this chapter.

§ 75-49-3. Definitions.

Unless clearly indicated otherwise by the context, the following words when used in this chapter, for the purpose of this chapter, shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section:

(a) "Manufactured home" means a structure defined by, and constructed in accordance with, the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974, as amended (42 USCS 5401 et seq.), and manufactured after June 14, 1976.

(b) "Mobile home" means a structure manufactured before June 15, 1976, that is not constructed in accordance with the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974, as amended (42 USCS 5401 et seq.). It is a structure that is transportable in one or more sections, that, in the traveling mode, is eight (8) body feet or more in width and thirty-two (32) body feet or more in length, or, when erected on site, is two hundred fifty-six (256) or more square feet, and that is built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and includes any plumbing, heating, air conditioning and electrical systems contained therein; except that such term shall include any structure which meets all the requirements and with respect to which the manufacturer voluntarily files a certification required by the commissioner and complies with the standards established under this chapter.

(c) "Modular home" means a structure which is: (i) transportable in one or more sections; (ii) designed to be used as a dwelling when connected to the required utilities, and includes plumbing, heating, air conditioning and electrical systems with the home; (iii) certified by its manufacturers as being constructed in accordance with a nationally recognized building code; and (iv) designed to be permanently installed at its final destination on an approved foundation constructed in compliance with a nationally recognized building code. The term "modular home" does not include manufactured housing as defined by the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974.

(d) "Modular home contractor" means a licensed residential building contractor or a licensed retailer who buys factory-built modular homes for resale to the general public, whether to be located on the consumer's home site or a land-home package on property owned by the modular home contractor. A Mississippi licensed modular home contractor is authorized to sell new modular homes for installation on a consumer's home site or as part of a land-home package without the necessity of maintaining a separate sales center. A modular home contractor shall be responsible for the installation requirements for modular housing as provided in Section IV of the rules and regulations for Uniform Standards Code for the Factory-built Homes as related to modular homes.

(e) "Factory-built home" means a mobile home, a manufactured home, and a modular home as those terms are defined herein.

(f) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Mississippi.

(g) "Chief Deputy State Fire Marshal" means the individual appointed by the Commissioner of Insurance, who, along with his employees, is designated by the commissioner to implement and enforce this chapter and to maintain, among other duties, the Factory Built Division of the Insurance Department.

(h) "Division" means the Factory Built Division of the State Fire Marshal's Office.

(i) “Person” means any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association or other type of business entity.

(j) “Retailer” means any person engaged in the retail sale of new or used manufactured mobile or modular homes to the general public.

(k) “Developer” means any person who buys factory-built homes and real estate and then offers to sell or lease to the general public land-home “package deals” consisting of a home with real estate. Upon renewal of a license, a developer must provide documentation to the Department of Insurance that he or she has at least five (5) available manufactured or modular home sites. A developer shall be responsible for installation requirements for manufactured or modular housing as set forth in Section IV of the rules and regulations for the Uniform Standards Code for Factory-Built Homes Law.

(l) “Independent contractor installer or transporter” means any person who is engaged for hire in the movement or transportation, or both, or the installation, blocking, anchoring and tie-down of a factory-built home. An “independent contractor installer or transporter” shall not include persons who do not hold themselves out for hire to the general public for the purposes described in this definition.

(m) “Manufacturer” means any person engaged in the production (construction) of manufactured homes or modular homes.

(n) “Installation” means the assembly of a manufactured building, components of manufactured building on site and the process of affixing a manufactured building to land, a foundation, footings or an existing building and service connections which are a part thereof.

The commissioner may require such information as is reasonably necessary for the enforcement of this act. All rules and regulations adopted and promulgated pursuant to this act shall be subject to the provisions of the Mississippi Administrative Procedures Law as provided in Section 25-43-1 et seq., Mississippi Code of 1972.”

Amendment Notes — The 2007 amendment added (c)(iv); added (d) and redesignated former (d) through (l) as present (e) through (m); and made a minor stylistic change.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1.5. Special exception to a zoning ordinance.

Where the home in question was properly considered a manufactured home rather than a mobile home, no special exception to Hancock County, Miss., Zoning Ordinance § 905 was needed. Perez v. Garden Isle Cmty. Ass'n, — So. 2d —, 2003 Miss. LEXIS 604 (Miss. Nov. 6, 2003).

§ 75-49-5. Statement of policy; rule-making power.

(1) Factory-built homes, because of the manner of their construction, assembly and use and that of their systems, components and appliances (including heating, plumbing and electrical systems), like other finished products having concealed vital parts, may present hazards to the health, life and safety of persons and to the safety of property unless properly manufactured. In the sale of factory-built homes, there is also the possibility of defects not readily ascertainable when inspected by purchasers. It is the policy and purpose of this state to provide protection to the public against those possible hazards, and for that purpose to forbid the manufacture and sale of new factory-built homes which are not properly constructed and anchored and blocked at the homesite so as to provide reasonable safety and protection to their owners and users. It is also the policy of this state that used factory-built homes be properly anchored and blocked at the homesite.

(2) The commissioner is hereby authorized and directed to investigate and examine into engineering and construction practices and techniques, the properties of construction materials used in the construction and assembly of factory-built homes, their electrical, plumbing, heating and other systems and appliances, their anchoring and blocking systems and techniques, fire prevention and protective techniques and measures to promote safety of persons and property and protect the health of users of such factory-built homes. The commissioner, in the interest of such public safety, is authorized to employ a minimum of three (3) additional employees in the Manufactured Housing Division of the Insurance Department to serve as Fire Marshal I, Deputies in the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

(3) All manufactured homes shall meet the requirements set forth in the Federal Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards (24 CFR Section 3280), established by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development in accordance with the National Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974, as amended (42 U.S.C.S. 5401 et seq.), or such amendments to the standards as are adopted by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development after July 1, 1992.

(4) The commissioner is also authorized and empowered to issue, promulgate and enforce all rules and procedures which in his judgment are necessary and desirable to make effective the construction standards so established. The commissioner is also empowered to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations for the safe anchoring and blocking of factory-built homes when they are delivered to the site where they are intended to be used for human habitation. When promulgating and enforcing such rules and regulations the commissioner shall take into consideration the rapidly changing technical advances continually being made by the industry.

§ 75-49-7. Compliance with commissioner's rules.

(1) No person may manufacture, sell or offer for sale, or transport or install any factory-built home which has been constructed after July 1, 1970, unless such manufactured home, its components, systems and appliances were constructed and assembled in accordance with rules of the commissioner issued to afford reasonable protection to persons and property with respect to the construction, assembly and sale of such factory-built homes, and unless compliance with such rules be evidenced in the manner required by the commissioner's rules.

(2) From and after July 1, 1992, no dealer, transporter or installer shall deliver or cause to be delivered any factory-built home to any person at any site where such home is to be used for human habitation without anchoring and blocking such home in accordance with rules, regulations and procedures promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to Section 75-49-5; provided, however, that a period of thirty (30) days from date of delivery shall be allowed for the anchoring and blocking of such homes.

(3) The requirements of this chapter with regard to any transporter of factory-built housing are in addition to the requirements of any other law currently in effect.

§ 75-49-9. Annual licensing and renewal requirements and procedures; fees; penalties; establishment and implementation of installation program; installation inspection and fee.

(1) After July 1, 1992, every manufacturer, every transporter or installer, developer and every retailer who sells, manufactures, transports or installs new or used factory-built homes within the State of Mississippi shall apply for and obtain a license from the commissioner.

(2) If a factory-built home is new, the applicant shall certify in the application to the commissioner that the applicant will comply with the construction standards set forth under rules and regulations provided in Section 75-49-5 herein, and that the applicant has obtained a current and valid tax identification number.

(3) Applications shall be obtained from and submitted to the commissioner on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(4) The original license fee and all annual renewals thereof shall be Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) for manufacturing plants that build manufactured homes and Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) for manufacturing plants that manufacture modular homes located within or without the State of Mississippi manufacturing or delivering homes for sale within the State of Mississippi and One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) per manufactured home and/or modular home retailer location and developer location and modular home contractor within the State of Mississippi. The licensing fee for a manufactured home and/or modular home independent contractor transporter or installer is One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each company. The fee for modular home plan review shall be Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per floor plan; however, this fee shall not apply to any modular home plan reviews completed before July 1, 1998. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (10) of this section, the license shall be valid for a period of one (1) year from the date of issuance, or until revoked as provided herein.

(5) After July 1, 1992, every manufacturer, transporter or installer or seller who first sells, manufactures, transports or installs a new or used factory-built home in this state, before such first construction, sale, transportation or installation shall apply for and obtain a license from the commissioner. The fee shall be paid to the commissioner in such manner as the commissioner may by rule require. All funds received by the commissioner shall be deposited in a special fund account in the State Treasury to the credit of the Department of Insurance.

(6) Every manufacturer of manufactured homes in the state shall pay a monitoring inspection fee to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, or the secretary's agent, for each manufactured home produced in the state by the manufacturer. The fee shall be in an amount established by the secretary pursuant to the National Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974, 42 USCS 5401 et seq. and as amended by the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act of 2000. The portion of the fee which is returned to the state shall be deposited by the commissioner in a special fund account in the State Treasury to the credit of the Department of Insurance.

(7) The commissioner shall investigate and examine all applicants for all licenses by holding such hearings as he shall deem necessary or conducting investigations or examinations, or any combination thereof, as to the fitness or expertise of the applicant for the type of license for which the applicant applied. A license shall be granted only to a person who bears a good reputation for honesty, trustworthiness, integrity and competency to transact the business in such a manner as to safeguard the interest of the public and only after satisfactory proof of such qualifications has been presented to the commissioner.

(8) The commissioner shall take all applicants under consideration after having examined them through oral or written examinations, or both, before granting any license. If the applicant is an individual, examination may be taken by his personal appearance for examination or by the appearance for examination of one or more of his responsible, full-time managing employees; and if a partnership or corporation or any other type of business or organization, by the examination of one or more of the responsible, full-time managing officers or members of the executive staff of the applicant's firm. Every application by an individual for a license to sell, transport or install new or used mobile, manufactured and modular homes shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the applicant, and every such application by a partnership or corporation shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of a partner or an officer thereof. The applications for licenses shall be in such form and detail as the commissioner shall prescribe.

(9) The holder of any valid license issued by the commissioner on July 1, 1988, shall be automatically issued an equivalent license in the same category for which his previous license was issued if the licensee is in compliance with this chapter.

(10) Beginning July 1, 1988, every license issued under this chapter shall be issued annually and shall expire on June 30 following the date upon which it was issued. License fees shall not be prorated for the remainder of the year in which the application was made but shall be paid for the entire year regardless of the date of the application. The commissioner shall, on or before April 30, 1989, and on or before April 30 of each succeeding year thereafter, forward a "Notice of Renewal," by regular United States mail, to each licensee at his or its last known post office address. After depositing the "Notice of Renewal" in the United States mail, the commissioner shall have no other duty or obligation to notify the licensee of the expiration of his or its annual license. The failure of the licensee to obtain a renewal license on or before June 30 of the ensuing license period shall act as an automatic suspension of the license unless the commissioner, for good cause shown in writing and the payment of an amount equal to double the renewal fee for said delinquency, lifts the suspension and issues the renewal license. During the period of suspension any practice by the licensee under the color of such license shall be deemed a violation of this chapter. Annual renewals of a retailer's license shall require, as a condition precedent, that the retailer verify by oath or affirmation that he maintains a retail sales lot in accordance with all rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner and that the lot has three (3) or more new or used factory-built homes located thereon for retail sale as a residential dwelling or for any other use at the time of application.

(11) The commissioner may enter into an agreement with the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development to establish or implement an installation program that meets the requirements set by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, or the secretary's agent, pursuant to the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974, 42 USCS 5401 et seq., and as amended by the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act of 2000, may conduct installation inspections under this program, may charge an installation inspection fee in an amount established by the secretary, and may contract with a third party to assist with the implementation and enforcement of this program.

§ 75-49-11. Administration of chapter.

The commissioner, acting through the Chief Deputy State Fire Marshal and the Factory Built Division of the Insurance Department, is hereby charged with the administration of this chapter. The commissioner may make and amend, alter or repeal, general rules and regulations of procedure for carrying into effect all provisions of this chapter, for obtaining statistical data respecting manufactured, mobile and modular homes, for establishing bonding and insurance requirements for the licensure of manufacturers, modular contractors, developer retailers and transporters or installers of factory-built homes, and to prescribe means, methods and practices to make effective such provisions, and he may make such investigations and inspection as in his judgment are necessary to enforce and administer this chapter.

The commissioner is authorized and empowered to require each manufacturer, modular contractor, developer, retailer and transporter or installer of factory-built homes to establish and maintain such records, make such reports and provide such information as he may reasonably require to determine whether the manufacturer, modular contractor, developer, retailer, transporter or installer has acted or is acting in compliance with this chapter and the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974, as amended (42 USCS 5401 et seq.) and as amended by the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act of 2000, and other rules and regulations prescribed according to this chapter. The commissioner, or a person duly designated by the commissioner, is authorized to inspect appropriate books, papers, records and documents of any manufacturer, modular contractor, developer, retailer, transporter or installer of factory-built homes which are relevant to determining if the licensee has acted or is acting in compliance with this chapter and the Federal Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards (24 CFR Section 3280) and other rules and regulations prescribed according to this chapter.

§ 75-49-13. Hearings and appeals.

(1) The commissioner shall not:

(a) Deny an application for a license without first giving the applicant a hearing, or an opportunity to be heard, on the question of whether he is qualified under the provisions of this chapter to receive the license applied for.

(b) Revoke or suspend a license without first giving the licensee a hearing, or an opportunity to be heard, on the question of whether there are sufficient grounds under the provisions of this chapter upon which to base such revocation or suspension.

(2) Any interested party shall have the right to have the commissioner call a hearing for the purpose of taking action in respect to any matter within the commissioner’s jurisdiction by filing with the commissioner a verified complaint setting forth the grounds upon which the complaint is based.

(3) The commissioner may on his own motion call a hearing for the purpose of taking action in respect to any matter within his jurisdiction.

(4) When a hearing is to be held before the commissioner, the commissioner shall give written notice thereof to all parties whose rights may be affected thereby. The notice shall set forth the reason for the hearing and the questions or issues to be decided by the commissioner at such hearing and the time when and the place where the hearing will be held. All such notices shall be mailed to all parties, whose rights may be affected by such hearing by registered or certified mail, and addressed to their last known address.

(5) All parties whose rights may be affected at any hearing before the commissioner shall have the right to appear personally and by counsel, to cross-examine witnesses appearing against them, and to produce evidence and witnesses in their own behalf. The commissioner shall make and keep a record of each such hearing and shall provide a transcript thereof to any interested party upon his request and at his expense. Testimony taken at all such hearings shall be taken either stenographically or by machine.

(6) If any party who is notified of a hearing in accordance with the requirements of this chapter fails to appear at such hearing, either in person or by counsel, then and in that event the commissioner may make any decision and take any action he may deem necessary or appropriate with respect to any issue or question scheduled for hearing and decision by him at such hearing which affects or may affect the rights of such defaulting party, and such defaulting party shall have no right of appeal under the provisions of this chapter.

(7) All decisions of the commissioner with respect to the hearings provided for in this section shall be incorporated into orders of the commissioner. All such orders shall be made available during normal office hours for inspection by interested persons.

(8) It shall be the duty of the sheriffs and constables of the counties of this state and of any employee of the commissioner, when so directed by the commissioner, to execute any summons, citation or subpoena which the commissioner may cause to be issued and to make his return thereof to the commissioner. The sheriffs and constables so serving and returning same shall be paid for so doing fees provided for such services in the circuit court. Any person who appears before the commissioner or a duly designated employee of his department in response to a summons, citation or subpoena shall be paid the same witness fee and mileage allowance as witnesses in the circuit court. In case of failure or refusal on the part of any person to comply with any summons, citation or subpoena issued and served as above authorized or in the case of the refusal of any person to testify or answer to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated or the refusal of any person to produce his record books and accounts relating to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the chancery court of any county of the State of Mississippi, or any chancellor of any such court in vacation, may, on application of the commissioner, issue an attachment for such person and compel him to comply with such summons, citation or subpoena and to attend before the commissioner or his designated employee and to produce the documents specified in any subpoena duces tecum and give his testimony upon such matters as he may be lawfully required. Any such chancery court, or any chancellor of any such court in vacation, shall have the power to punish for contempt as in case of disobedience of like process issued from or by any such chancery court, or by refusal to testify therein in response to such process, and such person shall be taxed with the costs of such proceedings.

(9) The following procedure shall govern in taking and perfecting appeals:

(a) Any person who is a party to any hearing before the commissioner and who is aggrieved by any decision of the commissioner with respect to any hearing before him, unless prevented by the provisions of subsection (6) of this section, shall have the right of appeal to the chancery court of the county of such person's residence or principal place of business within this state, but if any such person is a nonresident of this state he shall have the right of appeal to the chancery court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi. All such appeals shall be taken and perfected within sixty (60) days from the date of the decision of the commissioner which is the subject of the appeal, and the chancery court to which such appeal is taken may affirm such decision or reverse and remand the same to the commissioner for further proceedings as justice may require or dismiss such decision. All such appeals shall be taken and perfected, heard and determined, either in term time or in vacation, on the record, including a transcript of pleadings and evidence, both oral and documentary, heard and filed before the commissioner. In perfecting any appeal provided by this chapter, the provisions of law respecting notice to the reporter and allowance of bills of exceptions, now or hereafter in force, respecting appeals from the chancery court to the supreme court shall be applicable, provided, however, that the reporter shall transcribe his notes, taken stenographically or by machine, and file the record with the commissioner within thirty (30) days after approval of the appeal bond, unless, on application of the reporter, or of the appellant, an additional fifteen (15) days shall have been allowed by the commissioner to the reporter within which to transcribe his notes and file the transcript of the record with the commission.

(b) Upon the filing with the commissioner of a petition of appeal to the proper chancery court, it shall be the duty of the commissioner, as promptly as possible, and in any event within sixty (60) days after approval of the appeal bond, to file with the clerk of said chancery court to which the appeal is taken, a copy of the petition for appeal and of the decision appealed from, and the original and one (1) copy of the transcript of the record of the proceedings and evidence before the commission. After the filing of said petition, the appeal shall be perfected by the filing of a bond in the penal sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) with two (2) sureties or with a surety company qualified to do business in Mississippi as surety, conditioned to pay the costs of such appeal, said bond to be approved by the commissioner or by the clerk of the chancery court to which such appeal is taken.

(10) No decision of the commissioner made as a result of a hearing under the provisions of this section shall become final with respect to any party affected and aggrieved by such decision until such party shall have exhausted or shall have had an opportunity to exhaust all of his remedies provided for by this section; provided, however, any such decision may be made final if the commissioner finds that failure to do so would be detrimental to the public interest or public welfare, but the finality of any such decision shall not prevent any party or parties affected and aggrieved thereby to appeal the same in accordance with the appellate procedure set forth in this section.

(11) The commissioner shall prescribe his rules of order or procedure in hearings or other proceedings before it under this chapter; provided, however, that such rules of order or procedure shall not be in conflict or contrary to the provisions of this section.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The performance of the statutory duty of making the inspections and tests of petroleum products sold in the state cannot be delegated to an undisclosed manufacturer residing outside of the state and having no agents in the state. Gordy v. Pan Am. Petro. Corp., 188 Miss. 313, 193 So. 29 (1940).

If a petroleum corporation delivered to a bulk station operator a car of kerosene suitable for illuminating purposes which could be used without dangerous consequences to the retail trade, the sale by the retailer of a petroleum product in the nature of gasoline as being kerosene, created no liability against such petroleum corporation even if it failed to comply with the statutory requirements as regards tests and inspections and the labeling of the product, since such failure would not constitute the proximate cause of the injury complained of. Gordy v. Pan Am. Petro. Corp., 188 Miss. 313, 193 So. 29 (1940).

An earlier form of this statute (L 1936, c 163) was construed as making it the duty of the seller of petroleum products in this state to know the contents of a shipment which he markets for use or resale. Gordy v. Pan Am. Petro. Corp., 188 Miss. 313, 193 So. 29 (1940).

§ 75-55-9. Signs.

Any person selling at retail gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel or kerosene, as defined in this chapter, shall at all times display signs as herein defined:

(a) All pumps and dispensing equipment for gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel or kerosene shall be marked conspicuously to show the total price per gallon of gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel or kerosene offered for sale, in figures of equal size and where fractional cents or figures are used therein, the combined height and width of the numerator and denominator shall be equal to the height and width of the other figures used. Provided, however, that any sign provided by the manufacturer of the retail pump or dispensing equipment which shows the total price per gallon and is part of the computing mechanism of such pumps and dispensing equipment shall be considered as being in compliance with this subsection.

(b) All signs placed on the premises of any service station and any highway, road, street or alley leading thereto advertising the price per gallon of gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel or kerosene offered for sale, shall show the registered brand name and total price in figures of equal size, and where fractional figures are used therein, the width of the numerator and denominator of the fraction shall be equal to one-third ( $\frac{1}{3}$ ) of the width of the other figures, but the combined height of the numerator and denominator shall be the same as that of the other figures. Where a decimal is used, then the fraction shall be at least one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) the height of the other figures used in the sign, and the fraction shall be at least one-third ( $\frac{1}{3}$ ) of the width of the other figures used in the sign. All figures and fractional figures shall be painted the same color as the other figures used in the sign. The total price per gallon on signs located on all premises of any service station and on highways, roads, streets or alleys leading to the service station shall be in agreement as to the total price per gallon shown on the retail pump dispensing the same brand of gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel or kerosene as that being so advertised. All signs advertising the price per gallon of gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel or kerosene offered for sale through self-service operated pumps at retail service stations shall clearly indicate that the posted price per gallon and brand is offered for sale through self-service pumps.

(c) Containers of gasoline below fifty (50) gallons capacity, or any product flashing below one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit, shall be painted red; provided that containers, not of metal and of a capacity of one (1) gallon or less, may carry a red label designating the product.

(d) All filler pipes for petroleum bulk storage tanks and retail station storage tanks shall be identified by painting a sign on the intake pipe cap or within six (6) inches thereof in lettering not less than two (2) inches in height and not less than one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) inch in width the following: for premium gasoline or alcohol blended fuel, the letter "P"; for regular leaded grade gasoline or alcohol blended fuel, the letter "R"; for third grade gasoline, the letters "3G"; for unleaded gasoline or alcohol blended fuel, the letters "UG"; for diesel fuel, the letter "D"; for kerosene, the letter "K"; for lubricating oil, the letters "LO"; for tractor fuel, the letters "TF"; the letter "S" for solvent; the letter "N" for naphtha; and for any other petroleum product classified as an oil not specifically specified in this subsection, the word "oil." In addition to existing requirements, all filler pipes for bulk and retail station tanks used for the storage of nonleaded gasoline shall be further identified as follows: for nonleaded premium gasoline, the letters "NLP"; and for nonleaded regular grade gasoline, the letters "NLR". Such lettering shall be painted on the intake pipe cap or within six (6) inches thereof, and shall be not less than two (2) inches in height and not less than one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) inch in width. ## § 75-55-13. Lubricating oils.

It shall be unlawful to sell, offer or keep for sale, any lubricating oils, lubricants or mixtures of lubricants which are adulterated or falsely labeled in any particular. Reclaimed, recleaned, rerefined or previously used oils shall be plainly labeled and sold as such. The labeling and advertising appearing on any container used to store a previously used lubricating oil shall be strictly in accord with the kind of product contained therein. On the face of each sealed container containing a previously used motor or lubricating oil, the wording or sign used to indicate that the product has been previously used must be in well-balanced letters.

Labels on containers of reclaimed, recleaned, rerefined or recycled oil which meet the Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE) and American Petroleum Institute (API) classifications for current (one (1) of the previous two (2) chronological API service classifications) model year automotive engines shall be at least one-eighth ( $\frac{1}{8}$ ) inch high on containers of one (1) gallon or less, and at least one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) inch high on containers larger than one (1) gallon.

Reclaimed, recleaned, rerefined or previously used motor or lubricating oils, lubricants or mixtures of lubricants not meeting the classifications described in the preceding paragraph shall be labeled as follows: On one (1) quart containers the lettering shall not be less than three-eighths ( $\frac{3}{8}$ ) inches high; on one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) gallon containers the lettering shall be at least one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) inch high; on one (1) gallon containers the lettering shall be at least three-fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) inch high; and on five (5) gallon containers at least one (1) inch high; and on any storage can larger than five (5) gallons, a well-proportioned sign or lettering must appear with letters not less than two (2) inches high, indicating that the product has been previously used.

All tanks used for the storage of gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, other motor fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene or liquefied compressed gas, for wholesale or retail sales, shall be constructed and equipped in such manner as to allow the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce or his agents and employees to safely take an accurate physical inventory of the contents of such tanks at all reasonable hours.

All above ground tanks, drums or other containers used to store previously used motor or lubricating oils, before being rerefined or reprocessed, shall be marked "used oil" on a contrasting background with well-balanced letters not less than two (2) inches high.

Any person guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the first offense, and for a second or subsequent such offense, such person shall be enjoined from selling or distributing previously used motor or lubricating oil in any manner in this state for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, and any judge or chancellor now authorized to grant injunctions, shall grant an injunction without notice, enjoining such person from continuing in the business, as prescribed by this section.

§ 75-55-15. Container or distributing device to indicate manufacturer or distributor or trade name of product; penalties.

No person shall store, keep, expose for sale, offer for sale, or sell from any tank or container or from any pump or other distributing device or equipment, any gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene, illuminating oil, or lubricating oils or other similar products than those indicated by the name, trade name, symbol, or sign of the manufacturer or distributor of the trademark or trade name of the product appearing upon the tank, container, pump, or other distributing equipment from which the same are sold, offered for sale or distributed; provided that the product of any manufacturer may be sold from distributing equipment not bearing the name, trade name, symbol or sign of any manufacturer. Provided further, that no distributor or other person shall deliver any gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene, illuminating oils, or other similar products when such products are for resale to the consuming public and place said products in storage tanks, containers, or other devices when such storage tanks, containers, or other devices are labeled contrary to the true nature of the products being delivered or when such storage tanks, containers, or other devices bear any sign, symbol, trademark, or label not reflecting the true sign, symbol, trademark or name of the product being delivered.

All distributors or other persons receiving, storing, selling or distributing gasoline, alcohol blended fuel or oil in the State of Mississippi shall have plainly marked on the tanks, pumps, or other containers in which gasoline, alcohol blended fuel or oil is kept, words designating whether the product is gasoline, alcohol blended fuel or oil. No distributor or other person shall place any gasoline in a container marked oil or alcohol blended fuel, or any oil in a container marked gasoline or alcohol blended fuel, or alcohol blended fuel in any container marked gasoline or oil, nor shall there be any pipe or other connections between oil, gasoline and alcohol blended fuel containers. Provided, however, that nothing in this or any other law shall be construed to prohibit the use at common carrier pipeline terminals, of the same unloading lines to and between gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, and oil bulk storage stations, where adequate precautions have been taken to prevent contamination or adulteration of either oil, gasoline or alcohol blended fuel. No distributor or other person shall receive, store or distribute oil as gasoline or alcohol blended fuel nor gasoline as oil or alcohol blended fuel, nor alcohol blended fuel as oil or gasoline nor shall any distributor or other person make a false statement to the commissioner or his successor or any of his employees with reference to products received, stored, sold or delivered by such distributor or other person.

No distributor or other person shall sell or distribute or offer for sale or distribution gasoline and oil, or either, when such gasoline or oil, or either, is mixed, blended, or adulterated in this state in any manner or with any other product. Provided, however, this section shall not be construed to prevent any purchaser of gasoline and oil, or either, to adulterate such products after purchase to meet requirements of his individual uses and purposes, but in no event shall such purchaser sell or distribute such adulterated products, and it is not intended to levy a tax on crude oil produced in this state. Provided further, that blending pumps from which gasoline and lubricating oil are dispensed at the same time into a fuel tank or other container as marine fuel, may be installed by a distributor upon the prior issuance of a permit so to do by the commissioner or his successor, when said pumps shall have been approved by the Underwriter's Laboratories, Inc. Provided further, that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture of alcohol blended fuel.

Blending of grades of gasoline, additives, and compounds shall be limited to refineries, terminals, and blending pumps, and no person other than those employed at aforesaid facilities shall be permitted to blend any of the above-named products. Provided, however, that gasoline may be blended with alcohol to form alcohol blended fuel at other locations in the State of Mississippi as may be designated and licensed by the commissioner.

Any person guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for the first such offense and not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each such offense thereafter, and the penalty shall extend to principal and agent alike.

§ 75-55-21. Imitation of tradename.

(1) It shall be unlawful to entice into a service station, store, expose for sale, or sell petroleum products so as to deceive or tend to deceive the purchaser as to the nature, quality or identity of the same by false representation or by substitution, mixing, blending, or adulteration, or by the use of disguised signs, camouflaged or falsely labeled containers, tanks, pumps, or other dispensing equipment, or by imitating the design, symbol, or trade name under which recognized brands of such products are generally marketed.

It is provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall prevent a person, firm, association, or corporation, or their agents or servants from storing, exposing for sale, or selling any such petroleum products under the trade name, sign, symbol, or distinguishing mark adopted and used by such person, firm, association, or corporation in good faith, if such trade name, sign, symbol, or distinguishing mark is not deceitfully similar to that already in general use by any manufacturer or seller of such products.

(2) Persons claiming to offer for sale gasoline or other petroleum products of a higher standard than any legal or customary standard shall label the container or dispensing equipment completely with reference to the special standard claimed and such label shall constitute a full guaranty that the product sold will meet the standards claimed in every particular.

(3) Any person guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for such offense, or imprisonment not to exceed twelve (12) months, or both, and such person shall be enjoined from selling or distributing gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene, or oil, in any manner in this state for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, and any judge or chancellor now authorized to grant injunctions shall grant an injunction enjoining such person from continuing in the gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene, or oil business, as prescribed by this section.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A contract under which a petroleum product distributor acquired the right to use owner's trademarks in sale of owner's products, but which recognized owner's right to market directly its products within the same trade territory under the same trademarks, was not a void contract in violation of this section [Code 1942, § 5092], because there was no intent on the part of the trademark owner to deceive the public in disposing of its products under the trademark. Humble Oil & Ref. Co. v. Standard Oil Co., 229 F. Supp. 586, 141 U.S.P.Q. 153 (S.D. § 75-55-22. Permit authorizing engaging in business as producer of alcohol blended fuel.

Any person located in Mississippi, except the holder of a refiner or a processor's permit, who blends or mixes alcohol blended fuel for sale, delivery, exchange or use in Mississippi shall obtain from the commissioner a permit authorizing him to engage in business as a producer of alcohol blended fuel. Each producer of alcohol blended fuel shall have the necessary equipment to insure a complete and homogeneous mixture. The finished product shall meet all of the state's standards and specifications and shall not be transferred, sold, exchanged, delivered, used or disposed of by any other means until approved by the commissioner and the State Chemist.

All alcohol blended fuel transported or imported into the State of Mississippi shall comply with all specifications and standards adopted by this state for such use.

All gasoline, leaded or unleaded, kept, offered, or exposed for sale, or sold, at retail containing one percent (1%) or more by volume of ethanol, methanol or an ethanol/methanol mixture, shall be identified as "with" or "containing" (or similar wording) "ethanol," "methanol" or "ethanol/methanol" on the upper fifty percent (50%) of the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position, in a type at least one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) inch in height, and one-sixteenth ( $\frac{1}{16}$ ) inch stroke (width of type). All letters shall be black with a contrasting background.

All distributors, processors, refiners, and any other persons receiving, storing, selling, distributing or transporting gasoline that contains one percent (1%) by volume or more of methanol, ethanol or other alcohol shall identify the type or chemical name and percentage of such alcohol on any invoice, bill of lading, shipping paper or on any other type of documentation which is used in normal and customary practice in the petroleum industry.

The Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce (the “commissioner”) and his agents and employees shall have full access, ingress and egress, at all reasonable hours, to any place or building wherein internal combustion engine fuels, lubricating oils or other like products are stored, transported, sold, offered or exposed for sale. The commissioner and his agents or employees may open for inspection any case, package or other container, tank, pump, tank car, storage tank, stationary engine or tractor, and enter upon any barge, vessel or other vehicle of transportation and, with instruments conforming to the standards of weights and measures most recently adopted by the Division of Institute of Standards and Technology of the United States Department of Commerce, check any measuring device of the volume or weight of contents of any container. Furthermore, the commissioner and his agents or employees may take samples, not exceeding one (1) gallon, for analysis.

Any distributor or other person failing or refusing to permit the commissioner and his agents and employees to exercise any right or authority granted the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce under the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for the first offense, and, upon conviction, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail for sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person guilty of a second violation of this section shall, in addition to the other penalty provided herein, be enjoined from continuing in the gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene or oil business in this state for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, and any judge or chancellor now authorized to grant injunctions shall grant an injunction enjoining said distributor or other person from continuing in the gasoline, alcohol blended fuel, diesel fuel, kerosene or oil business for the period prescribed by this section, provided that no injunction shall be issued unless not less than five (5) days’ notice is given in the manner prescribed by law.

Any room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place where any petroleum product is received, stored, manufactured, refined, distilled, blended, compounded, sold or distributed in violation of this chapter, and any such petroleum product and all property kept and used in maintaining the same, is hereby declared to be a common nuisance. If such nuisance be found to exist, any judge or chancellor authorized to issue injunctions may issue an injunction, enjoining and restraining the continuance of such nuisance for a period of not less than three (3) months, nor more than one (1) year.

§ 75-55-37. Penalty.

(1) The commissioner or his duly appointed representatives shall have the right to request an inspection of any pump, truck, or other equipment, and if upon such inspection any such pump, truck, or other equipment is found to be inaccurate to the extent that a test thereof shows a deficiency of more than twenty-five (25) cubic inches on a five (5) gallon measurement, or if the right to inspect any such pump, truck, or other equipment is refused or denied the commissioner, or his duly authorized representatives, he or they shall have the right to immediately close and lock said pump and other equipment or to seal same with the commissioner's seal. If such pump, truck, or other equipment is found to be inaccurate but the deficiency is twenty-five (25) cubic inches or less on a five (5) gallon measurement, then the commissioner or his representative shall give the owner or operator thereof forty-eight (48) hours within which to correct such inaccuracy and if such person fails or refuses to correct same within said period then the commissioner or his representative shall have the right to lock and seal such pump or other equipment in the same manner as provided above.

It shall be prima facie presumed upon any refusal to allow the right to inspect that the pump, truck, or other equipment sought to be inspected is inaccurate to the extent set forth above, or is operating in violation of this chapter. When any such pump or other equipment is locked or sealed, it may not be unlocked or the seal thereon broken except in the presence of a mechanic or other person called for the purpose of repairing the inaccuracy in the machinery of such pump or other equipment, and such inaccuracy shall be immediately thereafter repaired, and the pump or other equipment properly regulated. The commissioner may, in his discretion, require an affidavit from the mechanic repairing such pump or other equipment, or any other proof which he may deem advisable to the effect that said pump was unlocked or the seal thereon broken in the presence of such mechanic, and that the inaccuracies therein were thereupon completely repaired or regulated.

When a state or factory seal is broken on the measuring adjustment device on a retail pump, it shall be the duty of the station operator to notify the commissioner by United States mail, within twenty-four (24) hours, after the breaking of said seal. After the commissioner has received written notice as herein provided and he or his agent has resealed the measuring adjustment device on the pump or pumps at this station, it shall be unlawful for the owner or operator of the station or any of his employees to break a state or factory seal on the measuring adjustment device on any pump at the station during the ensuing ninety (90) days without the prior approval of the commissioner or his agent.

The State of Mississippi shall have a lien on all pumps trucks, and other equipment used by any distributor, or other person, in the operation of his business for any tax or penalty due the State of Mississippi because of any violation of this chapter. Such lien shall be paramount to any and all private liens and all the provisions set out in Chapter 7 of Title 85 of the Mississippi

Code of 1972, shall be applicable herein for the purpose of securing the enforcement of said lien, and particularly the right to secure the issuance of a writ of summons and seizure and proceedings had and done after the issuance of said writ shall be applicable. Provided, however, that the commissioner shall not be required to give any bond in any such case.

Any person or officer, agent or employee thereof who shall violate any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for the first offense and not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for each subsequent offense or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days or both.

(2) If any petroleum product manufactured, distributed, stored, offered for sale or sold by any person, manufacturer, distributor, jobber or retailer in the State of Mississippi shall be adjudged by the commissioner to be in violation of the provisions of the Petroleum Products Inspection Law of Mississippi or any regulation adopted for the enforcement and administration of such law, he shall immediately issue an order of stop sale on such petroleum products. In the event subsequent violations of the foregoing provisions are detected in the product within a twelve (12) month period of time between such violations, the commissioner may assess a civil penalty in an amount not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and not more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) for each petroleum product determined to be in violation.

(3) The commissioner is authorized to suspend, revoke and/or permanently deny a license under the Petroleum Products Inspection Law of Mississippi to any person, firm, corporation or other organization determined to be guilty of two (2) or more violations per location, per year, of the Petroleum Products Inspection Law of Mississippi and the rules and regulations in force pursuant thereto.

(4) In lieu of, or in addition to, the penalties provided above, the commissioner and the State Chemist shall have the power to institute and maintain in the name of the state any and all proceedings necessary or appropriate to enforce the provisions of the Petroleum Products Inspection Law of Mississippi and the rules and regulations in force pursuant thereto, in the appropriate circuit, chancery, county or justice court in which venue may lie. The commissioner and the State Chemist may obtain mandatory or prohibitory injunctive relief, whether temporary or permanent, and it shall not be necessary for the state to post a bond or prove that no adequate remedy is available at law.

(5) All penalties assessed by the commissioner under this section shall be deposited in the State General Fund.

(1) Any person who repairs, adjusts or removes an official seal from a petroleum pump or metering device shall, before engaging in such activity, obtain a license from the commissioner upon showing that he is qualified to repair, adjust and test petroleum pumps and/or metering devices. Application for a petroleum equipment repairman's license shall be made annually on forms prescribed and furnished by the commissioner. A fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) shall be paid by the applicant at the time application for such license is made. All licenses issued hereunder shall expire on the thirtieth day of June next after its issuance. Any person so licensed shall, within three (3) days after he repairs or adjusts a petroleum pump, metering or measuring device or removes an official seal therefrom, make a report thereof to the commissioner on a form provided for such purpose by the Department of Agriculture and Commerce.

(2) Upon receipt of a license, the petroleum equipment repairman shall acquire a seal press, one (1) die of which shall be inscribed with his license number. All official pump or meter seals removed by the licensed petroleum equipment repairman shall be replaced and such replaced seals shall clearly show the license number of the petroleum equipment repairman replacing the seal(s).

(3) The commissioner shall have authority to prescribe and adopt regulations establishing additional requirements and/or qualifications for petroleum equipment repairmen.

(4) Any person, company or corporation who violates or causes to be violated any provision of this section or any rule or regulation adopted hereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not less than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment for not more than six (6) months, or by both fine and imprisonment; upon a second or subsequent conviction thereof, violators shall be punished by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00),

§ 75-56-9. Registration; specimens; documentation of claims; certificate of registration; cancellation; hearing.

On or before the first day of July of each year, and before any antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant, may be distributed, for the permit year beginning July 1, the manufacturer, packager or person whose name appears on the label shall make application to the State Chemist on forms provided by the latter for registration for each brand of antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant, which he desires to distribute. The application shall be accompanied by specimens or facsimiles of labeling for all container sizes of each brand to be distributed, and by a properly labeled sample of the product. The State

Chemist or his designated employees shall inspect, test or analyze the product and review the labeling. Upon request of the State Chemist or his designated employees, any registrant or his representative shall provide documentation of any claim made upon the label or labeling for any of his products regulated by this chapter and sold or offered for sale in the state. If the product is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards established by this chapter and if the product is not in violation of this chapter, the State Chemist or his designated employees shall issue a certificate of registration authorizing the distribution of such product in this state for the permit year. If the product is adulterated or misbranded, if it fails to meet the standards established by this chapter or if it is in violation of this chapter, the State Chemist or his designated employees shall refuse to register the product and shall return the application to the applicant stating how the product or labeling is not in conformity. If the State Chemist or his designated employees shall, at a later date, find that a properly registered antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant has been materially altered or adulterated, or a change has been made in the name, brand or trademark under which the product is sold, or that it violates the provisions of this chapter, he shall notify the applicant that the license authorizing sale of the product is canceled. No antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant license shall be canceled unless the registrant shall have been given an opportunity for a hearing before the State Chemist to modify his application in order to comply with the requirements of this chapter.

(ii) States the name and place of business of the registrant or person for whom registered;

(iii) States the net quantity of contents (in terms of liquid measure) separately and accurately in a uniform location upon the principal display panel; and

(iv) Contains a statement warning of any hazard of substantial injury to human beings which may result from the intended use or reasonable foreseeable misuse of the product as provided by applicable federal and state product safety laws.

(b) If the label on an undiluted product in a container of less than five (5) gallons, or the labeling for a container of five (5) gallons or more, does not contain a statement or chart showing the appropriate amount, percentage, proportion or concentration of the product to be used to provide (i) claimed protection from freezing at a specified degree or degrees of temperature, (ii) claimed protection from corrosion, or (iii) claimed increase of boiling point or protection from overheating.

(c) If the principal ingredient is propylene glycol and the container does not bear a statement on the label not to use a conventional coolant hydrometer for propylene glycol coolants.

prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant for analysis together with specimens of labeling. All samples so taken shall be properly sealed and sent to the State Chemist for examination, together with all labeling appertaining thereto. It shall be the duty of the State Chemist or his designated employees to examine promptly all samples received in connection with the administration and enforcement of this chapter and to report the results of such examination to the commissioner or his designated employees.

such package if five (5) gallons or more, does not bear the information required by Section 75-56-13; provided, that the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce and the State Chemist may by regulation establish labeling and other reasonable requirements for the sale of a properly registered antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant from a bulk container into a container supplied by or for the purchaser.

(f) Refill any container bearing a registered label, other than a customer's container, without first obtaining permission from the registrant.

(g) Refuse, when requested, to permit a purchaser to see the container from which antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant is drawn for installation into the purchaser's vehicle.

(h) Distribute any antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant not in compliance with the Federal Hazardous Substances Act and Poison Prevention Packaging Act and their respective regulations.

§ 75-56-21. "Stop sale" and "withdrawal from distribution" orders; condemnation and confiscation; evidentiary use of analysis; request for distribution data.

(1) When the Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce finds any antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant being distributed in violation of Section 75-56-19 of this chapter, or of any of the rules and prescribed regulations duly promulgated and adopted under this chapter, he may issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale" or "withdrawal from distribution" order, warning the distributor not to dispose of any of the lot of antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant in any manner until written permission is given by the commissioner or the court. Copies of such orders shall also be sent by registered mail to the registrant and to the person whose name and address appears on the labeling of the antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant. The commissioner shall release for distribution the lot of antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant so withdrawn when said Section 75-56-19 and applicable rules and regulations have been complied with. If compliance is not obtained within thirty (30) days, the commissioner may begin proceedings for condemnation.

(2) Any lot of antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant not in compliance with such provisions and regulations shall be subject to seizure upon complaint of the commissioner to the district court in the county in which the product is located. In the event the court finds the product to be in violation of this chapter, it may then order the condemnation of the product and the product shall be disposed of in any manner consistent with the rules and regulations of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce and the laws and regulations of the federal and state governments at the expense of the claimants thereof; however, in no instance shall the disposition of the product be ordered by the court without first giving thirty (30) days' notice, by registered mail at his last known address, to the owner of same, if he is known to the commissioner and to the registrant, if the product is registered, at the address shown on the label or on the registration certificate, so that such persons may apply to the court for the release of the product or for permission to process or relabel the product so as to bring it into compliance with this chapter.

(3) A copy of the analysis made by the Mississippi State Chemical Laboratory of any antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant certified by the State Chemist shall be administered as evidence in any court of the state on trial of any issue involving the merits of antifreeze or engine coolant as defined and covered by this chapter.

(4) When the commissioner finds any antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant being distributed in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, he may request, and the person who is primarily responsible for the product must promptly supply to him, the distribution data for such product in this state, so as to assure that violative products are not further distributed herein and that an orderly withdrawal from distribution may be attained where necessary to protect the public interest.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the commissioner to report for prosecution or for institution of libel proceedings, minor violations of the chapter whenever he believes that the public interest will be best served by a suitable notice of warning in writing to the registrant or the person whose name and address appears on the label.

§ 75-56-25. Furnishing statement of formulae or other suitable evidence; confidentiality requirements.

The State Chemist may, if required for the analysis of antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant for the purposes of registration, require the applicant to furnish a statement of the formula of such product, unless the applicant can furnish other satisfactory evidence that such product is not adulterated or misbranded. Such statement shall state the content of inhibitor ingredients in generic terms if such inhibitor ingredients total less than five percent (5%) by weight of the antifreeze or engine coolant or prediluted antifreeze or prediluted engine coolant. In lieu of a detailed product description, the State Chemist may allow the registrant to furnish other evidence which satisfactorily meets his requirements. All statements pertaining to the formula furnished under this section shall be privileged and confidential and shall not be made public or open to the inspection of any person, firm, association or corporation other than the enforcement agency. No such statement shall be subject to subpoena nor shall the same be exhibited or disclosed before any administrative or judicial tribunal by virtue of any order or subpoena of such tribunal unless with the consent of the applicant furnishing such statement to the State Chemist. The disclosure of any such information, except as provided in this section, shall constitute a misdemeanor.

§ 75-56-27. Penalties.

Any person found by the commissioner or the State Chemist to be in violation of any provision of this chapter may be assessed a penalty as provided in Section 75-55-37. In addition to or in lieu of such penalties, the commissioner may suspend or revoke the permit or license of such person issued under terms of this chapter. The commissioner shall notify such person of such action in writing delivered by first class United States Mail. Such person shall have fifteen (15) days after the notice is mailed within which to request in writing a hearing before the commissioner or his designee for the purpose of deciding whether or not the penalty imposed should be allowed to stand. The commissioner may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents or physical evidence, administer oaths and hear testimony.

If such person does not deliver the written request for a hearing within such time to the commissioner, the commissioner's original decision shall be final. An appeal, if taken, must be perfected within thirty (30) days after the decision of the commissioner with the circuit court of the county of the residence of the accused. If such person is a nonresident of the State of Mississippi, the case shall be appealed to the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi. If any penalty imposed by the commissioner is not paid within thirty (30) days of becoming final, the commissioner may take appropriate legal action to collect such penalty and the court shall award the commissioner reasonable attorney's fees and court costs to collect the penalty. The commissioner may adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In an action for personal injuries sustained by a truck driver as a result of a liquefied petroleum gas explosion, the trial court did not err in excluding as evidence a printed pamphlet purporting to contain the rules and regulations of the Motor Vehicle Comptroller where the pamphlet was not properly authenticated, but the rules and regulations of the Motor Vehicle Comptroller, had they been properly authenticated, would have been admissible in evidence. Jenkins v. Cogan, 238 Miss. 543, 119 So. 2d 363 (1960).

In an action for personal injuries sustained by a truck driver as the result of a liquefied petroleum gas explosion allegedly caused by the negligence of defendant's employee, who was not a licensed and qualified installer and repairer of liquefied petroleum systems, in undertaking to remove from the saddle tank on a propane propelled truck a vapor return valve and install a new one thereon, evidence, although conflicting, sustained a jury verdict for plaintiff. Jenkins v. Cogan, 238 Miss. 543, 119 So. 2d 363 (1960).

§ 75-57-5. Definitions.

Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions which follow govern the construction and meanings of the terms used in this chapter:

(a) "Liquefied compressed gas" means both liquefied petroleum gas and anhydrous ammonia when the latter is used exclusively for commercial fertilizer.

(b) "Liquefied petroleum gas" means any material having a vapor pressure not exceeding that allowed for commercial propane, composed predominantly of the following hydrocarbons, either by themselves or as mixtures: propane, propylene, butane (normal butane or isobutane) and butylene (including isomers).

(c) "Natural gas and compressed natural gas" means any gaseous mixture containing primarily methane.

(d) "Anhydrous ammonia" means the compound formed by the combination of the two (2) gaseous elements, nitrogen and hydrogen, in the proportions of one (1) part of nitrogen to three (3) parts of hydrogen by volume. Anhydrous ammonia is ammonia gas in compressed and liquefied forms. It is not to be confused with aqueous ammonia, which is a solution of ammonia gas in water.

Both liquefied petroleum gas and anhydrous ammonia are gaseous at normal atmospheric temperatures and pressures but are readily liquefiable by the application of moderate pressures.

(e) "Natural gas carburetion system" means any compressed natural gas carburetion system.

(f) "Natural gas fueling system" means an assembly consisting of compressors, containers, piping and other delivery devices for the purpose of compressing natural gas for use as a fuel in a motor vehicle and thereafter storing and/or dispensing the compressed natural gas for such use.

(g) "Installer" means any person who has satisfactorily passed an examination under the supervision of the Commissioner of Insurance testing his knowledge and ability to install or repair properly domestic systems, industrial systems, liquefied petroleum gas carburetion systems, natural gas carburetion systems, bulk plant systems, standby plant systems, anhydrous ammonia systems, or other similar systems and who holds an installer's certificate as provided in this chapter.

(h) "Container" means any vessel, including cylinders, tanks, portable tanks and cargo tanks, used for the transporting or storing of the liquefied compressed gases or compressed natural gas, except containers which are subject to inspection under federal laws or regulations.

(i) "Compressed gas" means any material or mixture having in the container an absolute pressure exceeding forty (40) pounds per square inch absolute at seventy (70) degrees Fahrenheit or, regardless of the pressure, at seventy (70) degrees Fahrenheit, having an absolute pressure exceeding one hundred four (104) pounds per square inch absolute at one hundred thirty (130) degrees Fahrenheit.

(j) "Flammable liquid" means any liquid having a closed cup flash point below one hundred four (104) degrees Fahrenheit and having a vapor pressure not exceeding forty (40) pounds per square inch absolute at one hundred (100) degrees Fahrenheit.

(k) "Gas appliance" means any device which utilizes gas to produce light, heat, power, refrigeration or air conditioning.

(l) "System" means an assembly consisting of one or more containers with a means for conveying liquefied compressed gas or compressed natural gas from the container or containers to dispensing or consuming devices (either continuously or intermittently) and which incorporates components intended to achieve control of quantity, flow, pressure or state (either liquid or vapor). Agricultural implements and commercial installations used in refrigeration plants are excluded where anhydrous ammonia is used.

(m) "Atmospheric pressure container" means any container for the refrigerated storage of liquefied anhydrous ammonia designed for a maximum working pressure of fifteen (15) pounds per square inch gauge or less and having a water capacity in excess of seven hundred thousand (700,000) gallons.

(n) "Distributor" means any person who is engaged in the distribution of liquefied compressed gases, either wholesale or retail. Also included under this definition are "commercial carriers," as identified by the Interstate Commerce Commission, who transport or haul liquefied compressed gases which are to be distributed or sold within this state.

(o) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust or any other group or combination acting as a unit, and includes the plural as well as the singular in number. "Person" shall include husband or wife or both where joint benefits are derived from the operation of a business or activity covered under this chapter. "Person" shall include any state, county, municipality or other agency engaged in a business or activity covered under this chapter.

§ 75-57-7. Containers.

After March 16, 1948, all containers and pertinent equipment used, sold, and installed in this state for the storage, dispensing and transportation of liquefied compressed gases for the purposes of providing gas for industrial, commercial, agricultural, and domestic uses shall be designed, constructed, equipped, manufactured, and installed as specified in this chapter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Purchaser of butane gas tank in 1945 is not entitled to recover damages from seller for alleged sale to him of defective tank on ground that violation of the Liquefied Compressed Gas Equipment Inspection Act of 1948, designed to protect buyers, is negligence as matter of law, as that act was not in effect at time of sale and installation of tank, and no violation of that act or act in effect at time of sale was shown. Mississippi Butane Gas Sys. v. Welch, 208 Miss. 637, 45 So. 2d 262 (1950).

§ 75-57-9. Adoption of national codes and standards; modification of standards by State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board; exemptions.

Copies of all codes and standards referred to in the foregoing are available for public use and inspection at the office of the Commissioner of Insurance. The State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board is fully authorized and empowered in the exercise of its authority granted under this section to change, delete from or amend from time to time the national code and standards adopted by reference in this section. Any changes, deletions or amendments made to the national codes and codes adopted by reference in this section shall be made in strict compliance with the Mississippi Administrative Procedures Law, Chapter 43, Title 25, Mississippi Code of 1972, and with the approval of the Commissioner of Insurance. The State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board is fully authorized and empowered in the exercise of the authority granted under this section to exempt or grant deviations from the national code and standards adopted by reference in this section with respect to reconditioned or remanufactured railroad tank car pressure vessels designed for and used as stationary storage tanks for agricultural fertilizers.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

This section does not preclude municipality from extending its limits to include areas within which were located ammonia storage plants. Parker Gin Corp. v. Town of Drew, 214 Miss. 147, 58 So. 2d 372 (1952), overruled on other grounds, In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

§ 75-57-31. Removal of anhydrous ammonia storage plants from municipalities; regulation of vehicles transporting anhydrous ammonia; investigation of complaints involving storage facilities and subsequent condemnation proceedings.

The governing body of any municipality is authorized to require the removal of any anhydrous ammonia storage plant which may be located within its corporate limits, if, after hearing, it is established that such plant is unsafe in any manner. Any aggrieved person may appeal from such decision of the governing body to the circuit court in the county where such municipality is located. The governing authorities of any municipality are also authorized and empowered to regulate and control the operation of vehicles transporting anhydrous ammonia over the streets of such municipality to restrict the operation of such vehicle to such streets as shall be designated by said authorities and to regulate and restrict the parking of such vehicles upon municipal streets.

The State Board of Health is authorized, empowered and directed to investigate any complaints as to anhydrous ammonia storage facilities when such complaints are in the nature of a nuisance, health or property hazard. If, after an investigation and hearing, it is determined that the complaints are well founded, the State Board of Health shall immediately condemn any such storage facility and the owner or operator thereof shall, within ninety (90) days from date of condemnation, remove such storage facility to a place which will meet the approval of the State Board of Health or immediately empty the storage facility and discontinue its use. When any person fails or refuses to comply with the orders of the State Board of Health, the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board or Commissioner of Insurance may seek an order of any circuit or chancery court to carry out the orders of the State Board of Health, and the violator shall be assessed all legal expenses, costs of court and all other expenses necessary to effectuate the orders of the State Board of Health.

§ 75-57-33. Installing and charging cylinders.

No cylinder installation shall be made unless the cylinders are designed, fabricated, tested and marked in accordance with the regulations of the United States Department of Transportation or the United States Interstate Commerce Commission, and constructed for a designed pressure of not less than two hundred forty (240) pounds per square inch. Cylinders with a water capacity of less than two hundred fifty (250) pounds shall be charged by weight with liquefied petroleum gas only at bulk storage or cylinder filling plants and not from mobile units such as delivery trucks, except cylinders installed as part of a system burning liquefied petroleum gas or compressed natural gas as a motor fuel or for farming purposes such as in flame cultivators or hot air balloon cylinders. Cylinders with a water capacity of two hundred fifty (250) pounds or larger may be charged at the installation from mobile units, provided they are equipped with a fixed liquid level gauging device and a filling valve, which is designed in accordance with the national standards and codes, in addition to other required or acceptable valves and fittings. Cylinders with a water capacity of two hundred fifty (250) pounds or larger, in addition to having all the necessary valves and fittings, must be installed permanently in accordance with the national standard and codes.

§ 75-57-35. Applicability of regulations of State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board and of national associations.

Wherein sections of this chapter do not exceed those requirements of the current published regulations of the National Fire Protection Association applicable to liquefied petroleum gas, the laws and regulations of the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board shall be followed.

When amendments are made to the liquefied petroleum gas regulations of the National Fire Protection Association, such amendments may be adopted, provided they do not conflict with other sections of this chapter. Should a conflict occur between the National Fire Protection Association regulations or any regulations referred to in this chapter and the liquefied petroleum gas regulations of the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, then the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board's regulation shall govern. The inspection and approval of the inspectors in accordance with this chapter shall be in addition to approvals and listings of Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., American Gas Association or other national testing laboratories. Provided further, that all compressed gas containers covered by this chapter shall be approved by the inspectors provided for herein.

§ 75-57-47. Installation of systems, etc.; inspection; correction of installations, etc.; certificates and permits; remedies for violations.

(1) From and after March 16, 1948, any installer or other person who shall install, connect, alter, extend, change or repair any liquefied compressed gas or compressed natural gas system, container or appliance whatsoever, or who shall install, connect, change, extend, alter or repair any piping or fitting connected with or attached to any liquefied compressed gas or compressed natural gas container, system or appliance shall, within fifteen (15) days after the completion thereof, give notice to the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, in writing, on forms to be provided by the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, that such installation, connection, alteration, extension, change or repair has been made, which notice shall give full details with reference thereto, and shall give the name of the person at whose order same was made, and the name of the installer, as provided in this chapter, under whose supervision the installation, alteration, etc., was made and the address of the premises upon which same was made. Any person who shall install, connect, alter, extend, change or repair any liquefied compressed gas or compressed natural gas system, container or appliance, or any piping or fitting connected or attached thereto, without giving notice to the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board as provided herein shall be subject to the sanctions set out in this chapter.

(2) Upon receiving notice of any installation of a liquefied compressed gas system or natural gas fueling system other than a liquefied petroleum gas carburetion system, it shall be at the discretion of the Commissioner of Insurance to cause same to be inspected, and if he or she approves same after such inspection, he or she shall leave upon such premises a written certificate of approval. Upon receiving notice of any connection, alteration, extension, change or repair to any system required to be inspected at the time of installation under the provisions of this subsection, the Commissioner of Insurance may cause the system to be inspected if he or she believes that sufficient change or repair has been made so as to alter the system from its original installation.

If, after such inspection, the inspector finds that the installation or repair has not been properly made, he or she shall report such fact to the distributor or installer making the installation and request that corrections be made within seventy-two (72) hours after the time of such inspection, if the defects are such that can be corrected without the necessity of condemning the entire system. Any distributor or installer who fails or refuses to make the corrections after requested so to do by the inspector, after a hearing before the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, may have his authority or certificate of compliance suspended or revoked.

Installers, as defined in this chapter, are hereby authorized to issue temporary certificates of approval for use before inspection by the Commissioner of Insurance, but no certificate issued by an installer shall be valid for a period longer than one hundred twenty (120) days from date of completion or alteration, repair or installation covered by said certificate. The provisions of this paragraph shall not relieve the dealer, or other person, from the liability of having such installation inspected by the Commissioner of Insurance, as provided in this chapter.

All certificates of approval and permits issued by liquefied gas inspectors under the terms of this section shall be executed in duplicate, and the copy thereof shall be filed and preserved in the office of the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board for not less than three (3) years from the date thereof.

(3) All liquefied petroleum gas carburetion systems and natural gas carburetion systems shall be installed by an installer, or automobile manufacturer, or be inspected by a representative of the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board or Commissioner of Insurance when not installed by such qualified installer or manufacturer.

All liquefied petroleum or natural gas carburetion systems installed on vehicles, including school buses, used in public transportation shall be inspected by a field inspector. The State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board may cause to be inspected any installations of liquefied petroleum gas or natural gas carburetion systems on any other type vehicles as they deem necessary. All such installations shall comply with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board.

No person may, for a fee, install liquefied petroleum or natural gas carburetion systems unless such person holds a license as an installer issued by the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board.

Any person who operates a vehicle on which a liquefied petroleum or natural gas carburetion system has been installed by a person other than an installer shall apply to the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board for inspection of such installation within fifteen (15) days of such installation. No distributor of liquefied petroleum or natural gas, or any other person, shall fill or cause to be filled any such system which has not been inspected as required by this chapter.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this subsection shall be subject to the penalties provided in this chapter.

(4) No distributor of liquefied compressed gas, or other person, shall fill, cause to be filled, or permit to be filled, any container or system unless the installation, alteration, extension, connection, change and repair thereof, and of all appliances connected and used therewith, and of all pipings and fittings connected or attached thereto, shall have first been inspected and approved by an inspector of the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board or Commissioner of Insurance or installed or altered by an installer as described in this chapter, and unless there is exhibited to such distributor or other person the approval of the inspector or installer provided for in the foregoing paragraphs; nor shall any person turn on or use such systems, containers, appliances, piping or fittings until same have been so inspected and approved, and such approval is exhibited to him. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this subsection, after a duly called hearing before the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, may have his license suspended or revoked.

(5) Any liquefied compressed gas dealer, or other person, may apply to the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, for permission to take an examination to qualify as an installer, as defined under the provisions of this chapter. The State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board shall prepare an examination which is sufficient to test the knowledge of the applicant as to his qualifications for installing, repairing, altering, etc., equipment used in the handling of liquefied compressed gases and of his knowledge of the handling and storage of such gases. If, after examination, the applicant is found to be competent and to possess sufficient qualifications, the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board shall issue to such applicant a license or certificate which shall designate the system or systems which the applicant is qualified to install. The State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board shall have the authority to establish different classes of installers. Should the holder of any such certificate perform his duties in an unworkmanlike manner or be guilty of negligence, carelessness, drunkenness on duty, or other good cause, then the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board may cancel the certificate, good cause being shown; however, before the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board shall cancel any such certificate it shall give the holder thereof five (5) days' written notice of its intention so to do, and shall grant to the person holding such certificate an opportunity to be heard before the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board at such time and place as shall be fixed in such notice, to show cause, if any he or she can, why the license or certificate should not be suspended or revoked. Upon application to the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, and upon reexamination of the applicant by the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board, a new certificate may be issued, but no such renewal certificate shall be issued within sixty (60) days of the cancellation of the original certificate. The State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board shall have authority to conduct any type examination of applicants desiring renewal certificates which will, in its opinion, test applicant's qualifications for the issuance of a renewal certificate. Any installer's certificates heretofore issued and outstanding shall be valid until suspended or revoked.

(6) Any dealer or installer who shall alter or change any system, or bulk storage plant system, or who shall substitute or change any such fitting, after said system has been approved by an inspector of the Commissioner of Insurance, without first obtaining the permission of such an inspector so to do, may be enjoined from continuing in the business of a dealer or installer, as defined in this chapter, in the State of Mississippi for a period of not less than one (1) year, and any judge or chancellor authorized to grant injunctions may grant and issue the injunction herein authorized, but no such injunction shall be issued except upon notice of not less than five (5) days to the dealer or installer sought to be enjoined. It is expressly provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent a dealer or an installer from making additional installations to any such system, provided that proper notice thereof is given to the Commissioner of Insurance on forms provided by him or her in the same manner as such notice is required to be given in cases of installations, repairs and alterations; nor shall anything herein prevent a dealer or an installer from making emergency repairs to any system or fitting when such repairs are made necessary by a mechanical defect, breakdown or injury to such system or fitting, but in the event of such emergency repairs, the dealer or installer making same shall, within fifteen (15) days after making such repairs, give the Commissioner of Insurance notice of the details and facts thereof in writing.

It is expressly provided, however, that in lieu of filing with the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board evidence that such insurance, as outlined above, is in force, any such person may file with the State Liquefied Compressed Gas Board a good and sufficient surety bond executed by a surety company licensed to do business in this state in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), which said bond shall be payable to the State of Mississippi and shall be conditioned to guarantee the payment of all damages which proximately result from any act of negligence on the part of such person, or their agents or employees, while engaged in any of the activities herein specified. Nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit or inhibit the unitization of a field or pool.

(b) Safe Harbor Provision — The operator of a well permitted prior to July 1, 1991, or the operator of a field or pool unitized prior to July 1, 1991, pursuant to Section 53-3-7 or Section 53-3-101 et seq., Mississippi Code of 1972, who desires to comply with the provisions of this chapter may bring such well or unitized field or pool within the provisions of this chapter by giving all non-operators notice of his intent to comply with the provisions of this chapter. Unless a non-operator so notified delivers to the operator's office a written notification rejecting such an offer to have the provisions of this chapter held applicable to his proportionate interest within thirty (30) days after the operator has placed such notice in the United States mail postage prepaid, the provisions of this chapter and all benefits accruing to an operator hereunder shall be deemed applicable to such non-operator's proportionate interest. Only the operator or successor operator of a well permitted prior to July 1, 1991, or field or pool unitized prior to July 1, 1991, may initiate such action as is necessary to bring such well or unitized field or pool within the provisions of this chapter. In no event shall this provision be deemed to affect any existing contract between the owners of a well or unitized field or pool.

(d) "Gas" shall mean all natural gas, whether hydrocarbon or nonhydrocarbon or any combination or mixture thereof, including hydrocarbons, hydrogen sulphide, helium, carbon-dioxide, nitrogen, hydrogen, casinghead gas, occluded natural gas from coal seams, and all other hydrocarbons not defined as oil in Section 75-58-7(c) above. For the purposes of this chapter only, the term gas shall not include gas which is consumed in operations on a well or which is vented or lost.

(e) "Operator" is defined as the party designated by the Board as the operator of the well.

(f) "Non-operator" shall mean an owner, as defined by Section 53-1-3, Mississippi Code of 1972, who is not designated as the operator.

(h) "Nonconsenting non-operator" is defined as a non-operator who has affirmatively elected to market his share of gas and not have the operator market his share of gas.

(i) "Net proceeds" is defined as the total amount of money received from the sale of gas, less (i) costs incident to marketing and transportation of gas incurred by the operator to third parties and (ii) severance, privilege, maintenance or other taxes measured on or by production.

(j) "Direct cost" is defined as a cost actually incurred by the operator in the marketing of gas from a well.

(k) "Balancing party" shall include operators and non-operators as defined in this chapter as well as other interest owners who have exercised a right to take production in kind.

(l) "Underproduction" shall mean the volumetric amount by which the volume of gas taken by a balancing party in any month is less than such party's entitlement for such month.

(m) "Overproduction" shall mean the volumetric amount by which the volume of gas taken by a balancing party in any month is greater than such party's entitlement for such month.

(n) "Cumulative underproduction" shall mean the total underproduction attributable to a balancing party, as adjusted so as to reflect any cash balancing as provided by Section 75-58-13(c), and any makeup gas taken for volumetric balancing.

(o) "Cumulative overproduction" shall mean the total overproduction attributable to a balancing party, as adjusted so as to reflect any cash balancing as provided by Section 75-58-13(c), and any makeup gas taken for volumetric balancing.

(p) "Underproduced party" shall mean a balancing party credited with cumulative underproduction.

(q) "Overproduced party" shall mean a balancing party charged with cumulative overproduction.

§ 75-58-9. Duties and responsibilities of operators marketing gas of non-operators; payments.

(a) On or before ten (10) days after the filing with the board of the initial test results for a gas well or oil well capable of producing gas in commercial quantities, the operator shall furnish, by United States mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the initial test results for the well filed with the board to all non-operators owning a record title interest in the production unit for such well as of a date not more than ninety (90) days prior to the filing with the board of the application to drill.

Upon furnishing the initial test results to all non-operators, the operator shall file with the board a list of all non-operators. Should the address of any non-operator be unknown to the operator after diligent search and inquiry, the operator shall so notify the Board, and any such non-operator shall be deemed for all purposes of this chapter as a consenting non-operator.

(b) The operator shall market the gas of all non-operators in a well subject to this chapter except as follows: (1) any non-operator (a "nonconsenting non-operator") who delivers a written notification to operator's office within thirty (30) days after the mailing to such non-operator the test results required by Section 75-58-9(a) that such non-operator will be responsible for and will market its share of gas and (2) as otherwise provided herein. After the thirty (30) day notice period has expired, operator shall send a notice to the board identifying which non-operators have elected to be or have been deemed to be consenting non-operators and which non-operators have elected to be nonconsenting non-operators. The operator shall have no obligation to market the gas attributable to any nonconsenting non-operator.

(c) In fulfilling operator's responsibility to market consenting non-operator's gas pursuant to Section 75-58-9(b), operator has the continuing option of marketing consenting non-operator's share of gas pursuant to a short-term contract or submitting a qualifying long-term contract to the consenting non-operators.

Should operator desire to market consenting non-operators' share of gas under a long-term contract in a well which is subject to this chapter on or after the date upon which the application to drill the well is filed with the board, operator shall submit by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the consenting non-operators a qualifying long-term contract. Should a consenting non-operator not accept such offer by executing and delivering to the operator at operator's office the qualifying long-term contract within thirty (30) days after the date that operator placed the qualifying long-term contract in the United States mail, then and in such event, the offer to purchase shall be deemed to have expired and such consenting non-operator shall be deemed to have become a non-consenting non-operator at the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, and operator shall thereafter have no further obligation to market the gas owned by that consenting non-operator. The operator shall furnish to the buyer the qualifying long-term contract executed by the consenting non-operators, and shall furnish to the Board a notice designating those consenting non-operators which have become nonconsenting non-operators. Save and except where the buyer of gas is contractually obligated to operator to offer a qualifying long-term contract to the consenting non-operators, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an obligation on the part of any buyer of gas to offer a qualifying long-term contract. This chapter shall not be construed to enlarge or alter in any way any purchaser's obligations under any gas purchase contract.

In marketing consenting non-operator's share of gas under a short-term contract, operator shall market the gas of the consenting non-operators upon such terms and conditions as a reasonably prudent operator would market such gas; provided, however, that in fulfilling such obligation, operator shall incur no liability to the consenting non-operator save and except as to acts of willful misconduct or gross negligence. In the event operator intends to market consenting non-operator's share of gas under a short-term contract with an affiliate or subsidiary of operator, operator shall so notify the consenting non-operators.

(d) Any consenting non-operator shall have the right to become a nonconsenting non-operator by delivering to operator a written notice thereof at least sixty (60) days prior to any yearly anniversary of the date that the operator filed the initial test results with the Board. Such an election shall become effective on the later to occur of: (i) the next anniversary of the date that the operator filed the initial test results with the Board, or (ii) the expiration date of the gas purchase agreement then covering the consenting non-operator's share of gas. Operator shall thereafter have no further obligation to market the gas owned by any consenting non-operator electing to become a nonconsenting non-operator. Operator shall furnish to the Board a notice identifying any consenting non-operator who has elected to become a nonconsenting non-operator.

(e) Should a change of operator occur with respect to a well which is subject to this chapter, the successor operator shall furnish to all consenting non-operators within thirty (30) days after assuming operations of such well a notice of change of operator.

Any consenting non-operator shall have the right to become a nonconsenting non-operator by furnishing to the successor operator a written notice advising the successor operator of same within thirty (30) days after the operator places in the United States mail, postage prepaid, the notice required by Section 75-58-9(e), with such consenting non-operator to become a nonconsenting non-operator effective on the later to occur of (i) the expiration date of the gas purchase agreement then covering such consenting non-operator's share of gas, or (ii) the first day of the second month after the date of the consenting non-operator's written notice to the successor operator. Operator shall send a notice to the Board identifying any consenting non-operators who have elected to become nonconsenting non-operators.

As to the remaining consenting non-operators, the successor operator shall market the gas of such consenting non-operators in accordance with the terms and provisions of this chapter.

(f) The net proceeds from the sale of the consenting non-operator's share of gas production shall be paid by the buyer to the operator. The operator shall not be responsible for the payment of any taxes or encumbrances with respect to the net proceeds except as specifically provided herein. The operator shall pay, for and on behalf of itself and the consenting non-operators, any severance, privilege and/or maintenance taxes due on the production of gas marketed by the operator. Save and except as otherwise provided in this chapter, or by law, the net proceeds derived from the first sale of the consenting non-operator's share of gas shall be paid by the operator to the consenting non-operators within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of receipt by the operator of the net proceeds derived for such first sale of production, and thereafter no later than sixty (60) days after the date of receipt by the operator of the net proceeds for subsequent production of the consenting non-operator's share of gas. Save and except as provided by Section 53-3-7, Mississippi Code of 1972, the consenting non-operators shall be and shall remain responsible for the payment of any proceeds due any royalty, overriding royalty and/or production payment which burden and/or encumber the interest of such consenting non-operators, and the operator shall have no liability to any owner of royalty, overriding royalty and/or production payment which burdens and/or encumbers the interest of the non-operators where the operator pays the net proceeds derived from the sale of the consenting non-operator's share of gas as herein provided. The operator and the consenting non-operators shall have no liability to any owner of royalty, overriding royalty and/or production payment which burdens and/or encumbers the interest of the nonconsenting non-operators.

(g) A non-operator's rights under this chapter shall not be affected by his status as a consenting or nonconsenting owner under Section 53-3-7, Mississippi Code of 1972; provided, however, during any period of the recovery of cost or alternate charges, the share of production from the pooled unit well attributable to the nonconsenting owner's nonconsenting interests therein shall be delivered to his purchaser or market, if any, with the proceeds received therefrom to be paid by the purchaser to the operator for the account of the operator and the appropriate consenting owners; if, however, the nonconsenting owner does not have a purchaser or market which is taking the production, then such share of production shall be sold by the operator to the operator's purchaser or market, with the proceeds received therefrom to be paid by the purchaser to the operator for the account of the operator and the appropriate consenting owners.

Right of operators and non-operators to enter into private agreements relating to matters provided for in chapter, see § 75-58-17.

§ 75-58-11. Duties, responsibilities, etc. of operators and non-operators; relationship between operators and non-operators.

(a) Each consenting non-operator shall be responsible for and shall pay to the operator that consenting non-operator's share of direct and actual marketing expenses relating to the marketing of consenting non-operator's gas, including, but not limited to, capital expenses, third-party transportation costs, pipeline penalties, fines, refunds, reimbursements, adjustments, direct costs, and contractual liabilities to third parties. Consenting non-operators shall not be liable for damages resulting from operator's gross negligence or willful misconduct in fulfilling operator's obligations under this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to impose any liability upon consenting non-operators except as provided by this chapter. In addition, each consenting non-operator shall pay to operator a marketing fee in an amount equal to two and one-half percent (2-½%) of consenting non-operator's monthly net proceeds; provided, however, the sum of all marketing fees received by operator from all consenting non-operators in a well shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month, per well, as adjusted for inflation as herein provided. If the sum of the marketing fee, when based upon the above percentage of net proceeds, would exceed the limitation herein provided, as adjusted for inflation, then each consenting non-operator's marketing fee shall be determined by dividing its percentage ownership in the well by the total percentage ownership of all consenting non-operators in that well, and multiplying the resultant number by the currently effective well limitation. The well limitation of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month, per well shall be effective through January 31, 1993. On February 1, 1993, and each February 1 thereafter, the well limitation shall be adjusted for inflation by dividing the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (as published by the United States Department of Labor) for the prior calendar year by the same Consumer Price Index for calendar year 1991, and multiplying the resultant number by Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). This calculation shall be performed and results published by the Mississippi Oil and Gas Board. At the election of operator, operator may deduct the marketing fees prior to paying the net proceeds to the consenting non-operators, or operator may submit invoices to the consenting non-operators for the marketing fees.

(b) If the operator has obtained a transportation contract with a third party prior to the date on which the application to drill is filed with the board and said contract contains a capacity or volume limitation, then the operator has the option of (1) having the consenting non-operator participate in this preexisting transportation contract (however, if the preexisting transportation contract contains a discount to the operator which is not generally available, then the operator may charge the consenting non-operator the undiscounted transportation tariff applicable to the transaction) or (2) make a good faith effort to secure a separate transportation contract for consenting non-operator's share of gas. If the operator has obtained a transportation contract with a third party prior to the date on which the application to drill is filed and said contract contains a provision which prevents operator from shipping consenting non-operator's gas under that transportation contract, then operator shall make a good faith effort to secure a separate transportation contract for consenting non-operator's share of gas. If the operator secures a separate transportation contract for consenting non-operator's share of gas, then consenting non-operator shall be liable to the operator for the actual cost of securing the separate transportation contract.

(c) This chapter shall not be construed as imposing fiduciary duties upon an operator marketing the gas of a consenting non-operator or creating a fiduciary relationship between the operator and a consenting non-operator.

(d) An operator shall in no event be held liable to any non-operator for any liability, damage, loss, cost or expense relating to the marketing of gas resulting from or arising out of any act or omission of the operator when the operator is acting in compliance with the terms and conditions of this chapter, except in the case of fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of operator.

(e) Any sums due under this chapter from consenting non-operators to operator shall be paid to operator within thirty (30) days after receipt of demand from operator. In addition to the rights of the operator to collect all sums due, the operator has the right to deduct from the net proceeds received for any consenting non-operator's share of gas produced from a well, any amount owed with respect to that well by that consenting non-operator by virtue of this chapter.

§ 75-58-13. Gas imbalances; operator statements; cash balancing; oil and other minerals; costs and expenses; deliverability tests.

(a) Gas Imbalances — Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, if any balancing party takes and disposes of less than its entitlement during any calendar month, then the volume not taken by such party may be taken by any other party or parties as allocated by the operator.

(b) Operator Statements — Not less frequently than quarterly, the operator shall furnish the balancing parties a written statement showing (a) the total volume of gas taken by each party during the month or months being reported; (b) the makeup gas taken by each party during the month or months; (c) the cumulative volume of gas taken by each party as of the end of that month or months; and (d) the cumulative overproduction or cumulative underproduction, if any, of each party for the time period being reported, as adjusted by any cash balancing as provided by Section 75-58-13(c). The operator statement shall be current as of the production month which falls two (2) months prior to the time the operator statement is issued. Makeup gas taken by an underproduced party shall be credited to the account of the underproduced party in the order of accrual of underproduction.

(c) Cash Balancing — Any overproduced party has the right, but not the obligation, exercisable not more frequently than once a year, to cash balance its cumulative overproduction with underproduced parties. After permanent cessation of production, each overproduced party shall be required to cash balance with underproduced parties. In order to cash balance, the overproduced party shall first furnish a statement to the underproduced parties and to the operator showing the volume and value of the cumulative overproduction, based upon the net proceeds actually received by the overproduced party for the cumulative overproduction, less (i) two and one-half percent (2-½%) of the net proceeds received by the overproduced party for the cumulative overproduction, and (ii) the direct and actual marketing expenses and transportation costs attributable to the cumulative overproduction. Within sixty (60) days after issuance of the statement as described above, the overproduced party shall pay each underproduced party in accordance with the statement and without interest. To the extent any values used to calculate a cash settlement hereunder are subject to a refund by the overproduced party pursuant to law, regulation or governmental order, the underproduced party receiving such cash settlement shall, prior to payment thereof, agree in writing to indemnify the overproduced party against the underproduced party's proportionate part of any refund, including interest which the overproduced party shall be required to make.

(d) Volumetric Balancing — Each underproduced party shall have the right to take makeup gas during a month after first giving the operator and all other non-operators written notice at least fifteen (15) days before the beginning of a calendar month.

The right of all underproduced parties to take makeup gas shall be limited to the lesser of (1) ten percent (10%) of the overproduced party's entitlement of gas or (2) fifty percent (50%) of the underproduced party's interest in the well. If two or more underproduced parties desire to take makeup gas during the same month and the combined volume they desire to take exceeds the volume available as makeup gas, then the underproduced parties shall share the makeup gas in proportion to their cumulative underproduction. In no event shall any overproduced party be allocated less than ninety percent (90%) of that overproduced party's entitlement. Makeup gas taken by an underproduced party shall be credited to the account of the underproduced party in the order of accrual of underproduction.

(e) Oil and Other Minerals — Regardless of the volume of gas actually taken by any balancing party, such party shall share in the production of oil, condensates and other minerals separated in the facilities operated for the production of oil and gas from the well. Operator and non-operators shall share in and own the production of all oil as produced and saved, notwithstanding such party's status as an overproduced party or underproduced party.

(f) Costs and Expenses — Regardless of the volume of gas actually taken by any balancing party, such party shall bear costs and expenses as otherwise provided in agreements between the parties or as provided by law.

(g) Deliverability Tests — At the request of any balancing party, operator shall, subject to operational constraints, produce the entire well stream for a deliverability test not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours in duration if required under such requesting party's gas purchase agreement. The gas produced and delivered during such deliverability test shall be allocated to the balancing parties on the basis of their entitlement, provided, however, that should any purchaser of gas owned by the balancing parties not requesting such deliverability test fail or refuse to accept such gas or any part thereof, then and in such event, the gas not so taken shall be allocated as overproduction to the balancing party requesting the deliverability test.

Right of operators and non-operators to enter into private agreements relating to matters provided for in chapter, see § 75-58-17.

§ 75-58-15. Interest of payments; interpleader actions; jurisdiction over disputes.

(a) Interest — Should any person fail to make any payment required under this chapter when the same is due, interest shall accrue at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date due until paid, provided, however, should operator fail to remit payment of net proceeds to any consenting non-operator within the time herein provided because the title of such consenting non-operator is not marketable, the rate of interest as to the net proceeds attributable to such consenting non-operator shall be five percent (5%) accruing from the date when due until the title is rendered marketable. Marketability of title shall be determined in accordance with the then current legally recognized real property law governing title to oil and gas interests. Where the title to a balancing party's interest is not marketable, and where all the claimants to such interest are not consenting non-operators, operator may refuse to produce and deliver any gas attributable to such interest until such time as the title is rendered marketable. Gas attributable to such interest shall be allocated as underproduction.

(b) Interpleader — An operator shall have the right to initiate an action of interpleader where the operator may be exposed to double or multiple liability in the payment of net proceeds. Upon deposit with the court of the net proceeds plus accrued interest thereon as of the date of such deposit as provided by this chapter, operator shall thereafter be relieved of all liability relating to the net proceeds and accrued interest so deposited with the court. Operator shall be entitled to deduct and/or receive from the net proceeds and accrued interest all reasonable costs incurred by operator in such action of interpleader. An overproduced party desiring to cash balance shall also have the right to initiate an action of interpleader where such overproduced party may be exposed to double or multiple liability in the payment of proceeds for cash balancing. Upon deposit with the court of the proceeds for cash balancing, such overproduced party shall thereafter be relieved of all liability relating to such proceeds so deposited with the court. The overproduced party shall be entitled to deduct and/or receive from the proceeds for cash balancing all reasonable costs incurred by such overproduced party in such action of interpleader.

(c) Jurisdiction Over Disputes — Jurisdiction and venue for any proceeding brought pursuant to this chapter shall be in the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District for Hinds County, Mississippi, or in the chancery court of any county in which all or part of the unit for the well is situated.

§ 75-58-17. Right of operators and non-operators to enter into private agreements; effect of agreements.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit the right of operators and non-operators to enter into agreements providing for marketing of gas, marketing fees, balancing or any other matter addressed by this chapter. Any such valid agreement shall supersede the provisions of this chapter to the extent said agreement addresses matters covered in this chapter.

SOURCES: Laws, 1991, ch. 490, § 9, eff from and after July 1, 1991.

§ 75-58-19. Disclosure to third parties by non-operators of documents or information received from operators.

All non-operators who receive information relating to a gas purchase agreement from an operator in connection with or as required by this chapter shall hold and treat each document as confidential and shall not disclose such documents or the terms thereof to third parties, except those persons required to see said documents in order to decide whether a non-operator should become a consenting non-operator or nonconsenting non-operator. The provisions of this Section 75-58-19 shall have no application to any gas purchase agreement executed by the non-operator.

The Commission on Proprietary School and College Registration shall issue a certificate of registration to an applicant of good reputation, offering one or more courses of instruction upon determining that the applicant has the facilities, resources and faculty to provide students with the kind of instruction that it proposes to offer. A certificate of registration shall be granted or denied within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the application therefor by the commission. Any certificate issued by the commission is valid only for the institution and courses for which it is issued and does not cover other schools or branches operated by the owner. A certificate of registration is valid for two (2) years unless earlier revoked for cause by the commission. The commission shall adopt rules and regulations for administration of the registration process. § 75-60-15. Certificate of registration; fees; registration of new course offerings; school franchises.

(1) The initial application fee shall be Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) which shall accompany each application for certificate of registration, and the renewal fee shall be Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00). There shall be an additional initial fee based upon the applicant school's gross tuition income collected during the first year after registration, according to the following schedule:

GROSS ANNUAL TUITION INCOME FEE

0 — \$1,249,999.00..... $\frac{2}{10}$  of 1%

\$1,250,000.00 or above..... $\frac{1}{10}$  of 1%

Such additional fee shall be paid within thirty (30) days after the end of such year. There shall be an additional annual renewal fee based upon the school's gross tuition income collected during the previous license year, according to the same schedule which shall accompany application for renewal. Such additional and renewal fees are each subject to a maximum fee of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) and a minimum fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

(2) If a renewal fee is not paid at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of a school's certificate of registration, in addition to the renewal fee, there shall be a delinquent fee of one-tenth of one percent ( $\frac{1}{10}$  of 1%) of such school's gross tuition revenues collected during the previous registration year, with a maximum fee of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars (\$2,500.00) and a minimum fee of Twenty-five Dollars (\$25.00). The reinstatement registration fee for a suspended school shall be Five Hundred Dollars (\$500.00). No portion of any license fee shall be subject to refund.

(3) A certificate of registration shall be issued or denied within sixty (60) days after receipt of the application by the commission.

(4) No new program of study shall be offered by any school holding a certificate of registration until it is registered with and approved by the commission in accordance with procedures which shall be established by the commission. After such course is registered in accordance with the approval procedures provided for herein, it shall be included as a part of any renewal of a certificate of registration. Each application for the original registration of a new course shall be accompanied by a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

(5) A certificate of registration shall be valid only for the school and courses for which it is issued and shall not include other schools or additional locations of a school unless each such additional location (a) offers only courses which are identical to courses offered at the registered location and (b) is under the same ownership, management and control as that of the registered location except as may be provided otherwise in this section. Such additional locations meeting such requirements shall be identified as “annexes” on a certificate application. Gross tuition revenues for the registered location and all annexes shall be combined for the purpose of determining fees payable under this section.

(6) The fee submitted with the application is not returnable to the applicant, even though a certificate of registration is not issued.

§ 75-60-17. Surety bond or deposit for certificate of registration.

The application for a certificate of registration shall be accompanied by a surety bond in the penal sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) with conditions and in a form prescribed by the Commission on Proprietary School and College Registration with at least one (1) corporate bonding company approved by the Department of Insurance as surety thereon. The bond shall provide for the indemnification of any person suffering loss as the result of any false certification, school closure, any fraud or misrepresentation used in behalf of the principal in procuring such person’s enrollment in a course of instruction, including repayment of tuition paid in advance by any student. The liability of the surety on such bond for the school covered shall not exceed the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) as an aggregate for all students for all breaches of the conditions of the bond by the school. The term of the bond shall be continuous, but it shall be subject to cancellation by the surety in the manner described in this section. The bond shall provide blanket coverage for the acts of all persons engaged as agents of the school without naming them and without regard to the time they are engaged during the term of the bond.

The surety may terminate the bond upon giving a sixty-day written notice to the principal and to the Commission on Proprietary School and College Registration, but the liability of the surety for acts of the principal and its agents shall continue during the sixty (60) days of cancellation notice. The notice does not absolve the surety from liability which accrues before the cancellation becomes final but which is discovered after that date and which may have arisen at any time during the term of the bond. Unless the bond is replaced by that of another surety before the expiration of the sixty (60) days’ notice of cancellation, the certificate of registration shall be suspended. Any person subject to this chapter required to file a bond with an application for a certificate of registration may file, in lieu thereof, cash, a certificate of deposit, or government bonds in the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00). Said deposit is subject to the same terms and conditions as are provided for in the surety bond required herein. Any interest or earnings on such deposits are payable to the depositor.

For each enumerated offense, a second or further violation committed within the previous five (5) years shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for each such violation.

(1) If a preneed provider ceases to do business or the provider’s license issued by the State Board of Funeral Service is revoked or suspended or the registration to sell preneed funeral contracts is revoked or lapsed and application for a replacement registration has not been filed, the provider shall within thirty (30) days submit to the Secretary of State a complete listing of names and addresses of all active contracts. The provider shall also notify all contract purchasers in writing that their contracts are to be transferred to another registered provider of the purchaser's choice. The Secretary of State shall review and approve the form of the notice. The transferor shall then transfer the contracts and notify the Secretary of State of the providers selected within sixty (60) days of the termination of the preneed registration. § 75-63-81. Preneed Contracts Loss Recovery Fund; creation, purpose, administration, loss recovery fee, reimbursement for claims; prohibition against use of existence of fund for sales, solicitation, or inducement to purchase contract; Preneed Contracts Loss Recovery Association; directors, appointment, compensation; appeals.

(1) There is established a Preneed Contracts Loss Recovery Fund, hereinafter referred to as the "fund," to be administered by directors of the Preneed Contracts Loss Recovery Association, hereinafter referred to as the "association." Directors are to be appointed by the Secretary of State. The purpose of the fund is to reimburse the estates, or in the absence of an estate filing, the purchaser or applicant with payment jointly to the funeral home providing services or merchandise or both, of beneficiaries of preneed funeral contracts who have suffered financial loss as a result of the misfeasance, fraud, default, failure or insolvency of a registered Mississippi preneed provider.

(2) The fund shall be funded from a charge not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10.00) to be added to the cost of every preneed contract sold from and after July 1, 2009; however, if the preneed contract is funded solely with insurance that is protected by the Mississippi Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association, then that fee shall not be charged. The association may reduce, suspend or resume collection of the fee at any time and for any period to ensure that a sufficient amount is available to meet anticipated disbursements and to maintain an adequate reserve consistent with actuarial guidance.

The per-contract fees shall be remitted quarterly to the association for each quarter of the calendar year with a quarterly fee form as prescribed by the Secretary of State. The per-contract fee is not subject to the trusting requirements of Section 75-63-59. The fees shall be remitted to the association no later than fifteen (15) days after each quarter. Absent the Secretary of State's approval of an extension for good cause shown, preneed providers failing to timely report and remit the per-contract fee to the association may be subject to a penalty of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per day for each day of delinquency, payable to the fund.

(3) All sums received by the association shall be held in a separate account maintained by the State Treasurer to be used solely as provided in this article. Warrants to the fund may only be issued by the Department of Finance and Administration upon request by a majority vote of the directors of the Preneed Contracts Loss Recovery Association. All interest or other income earned on the fund shall be retained by the fund.

(4) Reimbursements from the fund must not exceed the total payment made for preneed funeral services or merchandise, cemetery services or merchandise, or both. No current insurance benefits or future graduated insurance benefits may be reimbursed, including any current or future graduated insurance benefits in any insurance company insolvency guaranty fund association. Upon the death of the beneficiary and the applicant's compliance with all applicable rules of the association, reimbursement from the fund may be made to the estate of the beneficiary, the purchaser or applicant with payment jointly to the funeral home or cemetery providing services or merchandise or both, only to the extent to which losses are not bonded or otherwise covered. If the association makes payments from the fund under this section, the association is subrogated in the reimbursed amount and may bring an action against any person or entity, including a preneed provider. The association may enforce claims it may have for restitution or otherwise and may employ and compensate from the fund consultants, legal counsel, accountants and other persons it considers appropriate to assure compliance with this section.

(5) The association shall investigate all applications made and may reject or allow claims in whole or in part. Payment may be made only to the extent that monies are available in the fund, and payments may be prorated among claimants. Reimbursements for completed claims must be processed subject to availability of monies in the fund. The association has complete discretion to determine the order and manner of payment of approved applications. The association may approve one (1) application, in whole or in part, that includes more than one (1) reparation claim for the benefit of purchasers of prepaid contracts of an insolvent registrant as part of a plan to arrange for another registrant to assume the obligations of the licensee being liquidated if the association finds that the plan is reasonable and is in the best interests of the contract beneficiaries. All payments are a matter of privilege and not a right, and no person has a right in the fund as a third-party beneficiary or otherwise.

(6) The association shall develop a form of application for reimbursement.

(7) This fund and all interest earned may be used only as prescribed in this section and may not be used for any other purposes to the extent losses are not bonded, insured, or otherwise covered, protected or reimbursed. Further, all monies deposited into the fund shall not be subject to any deduction, tax, judgment lien, levy, or any other type of assessment except as may be provided in this article. The association may expend monies from the fund to:

(a) Make reimbursements on approved applications;

(b) Purchase insurance to cover losses and association liability as considered appropriate by the directors and not inconsistent with the purpose of the fund;

(c) Invest portions of the fund as are not currently needed to reimburse losses and maintain adequate reserves, as are permitted to be made by fiduciaries under state law;

(d) Pay the expenses of the association for administering the fund, including employment of legal counsel, accountants, consultants and other persons the board considers necessary to assure compliance with this section.

(8) No person may make, publish, disseminate, circulate or place before the public, or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, poster or over any radio station or television station, or in any other way, any advertisement, announcement, or statement that uses the existence of the fund for the purpose of sales, solicitation or inducement to purchase any form of preneed contract covered under this article.

(9) The Secretary of State may establish rules and regulations necessary to implement the purposes of the section including, but not limited to, rules governing the association's operations, claim procedures, determination of solvency or insolvency of a preneed provider, claimant eligibility and determination of appropriate loss payee.

(10) No purchaser or representative of a purchaser is provided in this section with any administrative right or legal or equitable right to any funds collected for this association to satisfy any judgment or economic loss of the purchaser from a prepaid funeral or cemetery organization except for the purposes of this section. This fund is established for the discretionary relief of purchasers and their representatives of prepaid funeral or cemetery contracts from insolvent prepaid funeral or cemetery organizations or prepaid funeral businesses with severe trust fund account shortages as determined by the directors. Coverage is limited to the claimant's actual contract payments made. There shall be no fund coverage for additional economic damages, attorney's fees, recovery costs, interest, other equitable relief or noneconomic damages.

Further, no claimant shall be eligible for compensation from the fund unless the contract purchaser for whom a claim is asserted paid to the preneed provider the loss recovery fee required by subsection (2) of this section. The fund shall have no liability for preneed contracts sold or claims that occurred or accrued before July 1, 2009.

(11) There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any director of the association, the Secretary of State, his representatives, agents or employees for any act or omission by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this article, or in its administration, dispensation, handling or collection of funds for the program.

(12) Directors of the association shall be appointed by the Secretary of State and shall consist of no fewer than five (5), one (1) from each of the Mississippi Supreme Court Districts and two (2) from the state at large. In making director appointments the Secretary of State shall consider, among other things, whether all association members are fairly represented. #### § 75-66-1. Definitions.

(1) "Home solicitation sale" means a consumer credit sale of goods or services in which the seller or person acting for him engages in a personal solicitation of the sale at a residence of the buyer and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is there given to the seller or a person acting for him. It does not include a sale made pursuant to a preexisting revolving charge account, or a preexisting installment account allowing a series of sales, or a sale made pursuant to prior negotiations between the parties at a business establishment at a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale, or where the sale is initiated by the buyer, or where the seller is regulated by the Mississippi Public Service Commission. Where the first contact has been made by the seller or by someone on behalf of the seller, then any home solicitation sale made following such contact shall not be deemed to have been initiated by the buyer.

(2) "Consumer Credit Sale" is a sale of goods or services in which:

- (a) credit is granted by a person who regularly engages as a seller in credit transactions of the same kind;
- (b) the buyer is a person other than an organization;
- (c) the goods or services are purchased primarily for a personal, family or household purpose; and
- (d) either the debt is payable in installments or a credit service charge is made.

§ 75-66-3. Buyer's right of cancellation; notice.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, in addition to any right otherwise to revoke an offer, cancel a contract or rescind a contract, the buyer has the right to cancel a home solicitation sale until midnight of the third business day after the day at which the buyer signs an agreement or offer to purchase which complies with this chapter.

(2) Cancellation occurs when the buyer gives written notice of cancellation to the seller at the address stated in the agreement or offer to purchase.

(3) Notice of cancellation, if given by certified or registered mail, is given when it is deposited in a mailbox properly addressed and postage prepaid.

(4) Notice of cancellation given by the buyer need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates by any form of written expression the intention of the buyer not to be bound by the home solicitation sale.

(5) The buyer may not cancel a home solicitation sale if the buyer requests the seller to provide goods or services without delay because of an emergency, and

(a) the seller in good faith makes a substantial beginning of performance of the contract before the buyer gives notice of cancellation, and

(b) in the case of goods, the goods cannot be returned to the seller in substantially as good condition as when received by the buyer.

(1) In a home solicitation sale, unless the buyer requests the seller to provide goods or services without delay in an emergency, the seller must present to the buyer and obtain his signature to a written agreement or offer to purchase or his signature to a statement executed simultaneously with and attached to the written agreement or offer to purchase, which written statement, offer to purchase or attached statement, designates as the date of the transaction the date on which the buyer actually signs and contains a statement of the buyer's rights which shall comply with either subsection (2) or subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The statement must:

(a) appear under the conspicuous caption: "BUYER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL," and

(b) read as follows: "If this agreement was solicited at your residence and you do not want the goods or services, you may cancel this agreement by mailing a notice to the seller by certified or registered mail. The notice must say that you do not want the goods or services and must be mailed before midnight on the third business day after you sign this agreement. The notice must be mailed to: _____ (insert name and mailing address of seller). If you cancel, the seller may keep all or part of your cash down payment, but in no event may the seller retain an amount in excess of five percent (5%) of the cash price or the amount of the cash down payment whichever is the lesser."

(3) A home solicitation sales contract which contains the notice of cancellation in the form and content required by rule or regulation of the Federal Trade Commission shall comply with the requirements of this section if it contains information to the consumer concerning his right to cancel at least equal to that required by subsection (2).

(4) Until the seller has complied with this section, the buyer may cancel the home solicitation sale by notifying the seller in any manner and by any means of his intention to cancel.

If the seller fails to comply with an obligation imposed by this section, or if the buyer avoids the sale on any ground independent of his right to cancel provided by the provisions on the buyer's right to cancel as provided by Section 75-66-3 (1) of this chapter or revokes his offer to purchase, the seller is not entitled to retain a cancellation fee.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where a finance company charges interest on the money loaned at the rate of 5 per cent per annum for the entire period of the loan and then aggregates the principal and interest and divides the total into monthly instalments, even though the interest yield which the finance company receives for the use of its money is in most instances more than 6 per cent, the loans did not have the rate of interest exceeding 6 per cent and those notes held by the company on such loans were not subject to ad valorem taxes. Bailey v. North Am. Fin. Co., 212 Miss. 97, 54 So. 2d 227 (1951).

Usurious commission charged by broker did not affect title to notes and trust deed which had already been perfected in lender. Guaranty Inv. & Loan Co. v. Stevens, 161 Miss. 473, 137 So. 335 (1931).

Where one negotiating loan charged usurious commission, purchaser of notes and trust deed and its assignee are holders in due course. Guaranty Inv. & Loan Co. v. Stevens, 161 Miss. 473, 137 So. 335 (1931).

This section does not repeal the law authorizing building and loan associations. Tiley v. Grenada Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 143 Miss. 381, 109 So. 10 (1926).

§ 75-67-41. Loan paid before maturity; how.

In any such loan contract as authorized in Section 75-67-39, provision may be made requiring the borrower, upon exercising any option to repay the loan before maturity, or upon any default in the payment of the monthly instalments of principal and interest, or upon the breach of any covenant entitling the lender to declare the whole indebtedness due and payable and to a foreclosure of the security, to repay the loan upon the following basis of settlement: The principal debt, with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, and allowing credit for all payments of instalments of principal and interest upon loan, with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum from date of payment to said lender, computed annually in accordance with the laws of the State of Mississippi.

Any such loan contract, and all provisions thereof, shall be valid for the amount of the principal and interest charged, and such contracts shall not be held usurious.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In an action alleging violations of both the Truth in Lending Act and the Mississippi State Small Loan Regulatory Law, the United States District Court did not abuse its discretion in refusing to assert pendent jurisdiction over the state law claims where, although the original complaint had stated three specific allegations of violations of the Mississippi statute, thus implying that these were the sole claims under that statute, the petitioners had articulated additional state law violations on the basis of the evidence adduced at trial only after the close of the evidence, thus denying the respondents a fair opportunity to defend against those claims, and where the case involved a substantial issue of state constitutional law which had not been addressed by the Mississippi Supreme Court. Jones v. Fitch, 665 F.2d 586 (5th Cir. 1982).

Since § 75-67-111 contains a statute of limitations governing suits under the Mis-

Mississippi Small Loan Regulatory Law (§§ 75-67-101 et seq.) by "any person" it is clear that the legislature did not intend that only the state comptroller of banks would be able to sue and thus the statute contemplates enforcement not only by the state comptroller of banks but also by private citizens. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

On appeal from the dismissal of a complaint to cancel a loan made under the Small Loan Regulatory Act, on the grounds that the lender had not permitted the borrower to decide whether insurance on the loan was to be written on a single or dual policy, in violation of an applicable regulation, the chancellor's decision in favor of the lender would be affirmed where it was not erroneous or against the weight of the evidence and where the chancellor had heard and considered the testimony and had concluded that the debtor had not made out a cause for relief. Tower Loan of Miss., Inc. v. Mills, 376 So. 2d 1347 (Miss. 1979).

The purpose of the Small Loan Regulatory Law was to remedy an unsavory condition and to regulate and control the small loan business. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

Substantial compliance with the requirements of the Small Loan Regulatory Law is not sufficient to avoid the penalties for its violation. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

The Small Loan Regulatory Law is not limited to any special person or group but is available to all who can qualify and secure the licenses to operate thereunder, and is therefore not a special but a general act and does not violate the constitution. Giles v. Friendly Fin. Co., 185 So. 2d 659 (Miss. 1966), appeal dismissed, cert. denied, 385 U.S. 21, 87 S. Ct. 228, 17 L. Ed. 2d 20 (1966).

Service charges earned by a loan broker operating under the Small Loan Regulatory Law constituted taxable income to him for federal income tax purposes, including any portion of the service charge retained by the lender as a guaranty that broker could fulfill his obligations to the lender. United States v. Britt, 335 F.2d 907 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied, 379 U.S. 971, 85 S. Ct. 669, 13 L. Ed. 2d 563 (1965).

There is no disposition on the part of the supreme court to praise the Small Loan Regulatory Law. Powell v. Sowell, 245 Miss. 53, 145 So. 2d 168 (1962), error overruled, 245 Miss. 64, 146 So. 2d 576 (1962).

75-67-201 et seq.) of this state, except those specifically exempt by the provisions of this article, who, in addition to any other rights and powers he or it might otherwise possess, shall engage in the business of lending money either directly or indirectly, to be paid back in monthly installments or other regular installments for periods of more or less than one (1) month, and whether or not the lender requires security from the borrower as indemnity for the repayment of the loan.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In view of the expressed intent of the Legislature that this act shall be "liberally construed to effect the purpose of the law," the phrase "without the exercise of due care" has been construed to mean that the licensee is not excused from performing the acts required by the Small Loan Regulatory Law by printing in the note form an acknowledgment of the makers that they have received the written statement required by Code 1942, § 5591-14, for otherwise the lender could avoid performing the statutory requirement by simply writing in the note an acknowledgment that the acts required of it had been performed. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

Service charges earned by a loan broker are taxable in full under federal income tax statutes in year in which they were earned although a portion of the service charge was retained by the lender as a guaranty that broker would fulfill his obligations. United States v. Britt, 335 F.2d 907 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied, 379 U.S. 971, 85 S. Ct. 669, 13 L. Ed. 2d 563 (1965).

Loan broker's service charges are not "interest," so as to render loan usurious.

Hooper v. Aetna Fin. Co., 244 Miss. 799, 145 So. 2d 907 (1962).

§ 75-67-105. License required.

(1) No person shall engage in the business of lending money except as authorized by this article, and without being the holder of a valid and subsisting license to engage in such business as provided by the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Section 75-67-201 et seq.).

(2) Every person engaged in the business of lending money as authorized by this article shall have a physical office located in the State of Mississippi. A separate license is required for each office doing business in the State of Mississippi. Each electronic loan processing machine owned or operated by a licensed office is required to possess a separate license and have a permanent address with loan records to be maintained in a designated licensed office in the state.

The tax levied by this section [Code 1942, § 9696-134] may not be required of a finance company which has paid the tax levied by Code 1942, § 9341, where it is not shown to have engaged in the business of an industrial loan company, industrial bank, or Morgan Plan Company. *Winter v. The financial institutions mentioned in this section [Code 1942, § 9696-134] are those which invest funds chiefly in personal loans made by them to consumers, and which obtain or are authorized to obtain their funds from individual savers, either through the acceptance of deposits or the sale of investment certificates. *Winter v. Liability of a finance company, also carrying on an industrial loan business, to the municipal tax imposed on such business is not affected by its payment of the state tax imposed on finance companies. *Winter v. ## § 75-67-107. Responsibility for administering provisions of Article 3.

The provisions of this article shall be enforced and administered by the state comptroller of banks and his duly authorized agents, representatives and employees.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 5591-04; Laws, 1958, ch. 170, § 4, eff from and after July 1, 1958.

Editor's Note — Section 81-1-117 abolished the office of state comptroller, and provided that the functions, duties and responsibilities would be assumed by the commissioner of banking and consumer finance.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Since § 75-67-111 contains a statute of limitations governing suits under the Mississippi Small Loan Regulatory Law (§§ 75-67-101 et seq.) by "any person" it is clear that the legislature did not intend that only the state comptroller of banks would be able to sue and thus the statute contemplates enforcement not only by the state comptroller of banks but also by private citizens. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

§ 75-67-109. Misleading advertising.

It shall be a violation of this article for any licensee to advertise, print, display, publish, broadcast or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published or broadcast, in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to rates, terms or conditions of lending money or for arranging, negotiating, procuring, or guaranteeing any loan or loans for any person which is false, misleading or deceptive. It shall also be a violation of this article for any licensee to offer or give to any borrower or prospective borrower any premium of any sort, whether by cash, check or goods or merchandise as an inducement to the making, brokering or renegotiation of any loan.

§ 75-67-111. Licensees to keep records; requirements as to.

Each licensee shall keep and use in his business such books, accounts and other records which shall be in accordance with sound and accepted business practices and shall be in such form as will clearly reflect all loan transactions for every borrower and will enable the commissioner to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this article, or the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Section 75-67-201 et seq.). Such records shall be kept with respect to each loan transaction for a period of at least twenty-four (24) months after the final transaction on such loan. The records shall be kept in accordance with instructions of the commissioner and, in addition to any information which may be required by the commissioner, such records shall be so maintained as to clearly reflect, over the signature of the borrower, the following:

- (a) Cash received by the borrower;
- (b) Charges for interest;
- (c) Charges for recording fees and insurance, if any;
- (d) Total amount of note;
- (e) Period of time for which loan is extended; and
- (f) Federal annual percentage rate and the state contract rate.

All such records shall be open to the inspection of the commissioner or his duly authorized representatives at all times during regular business hours. Any suit brought against a licensee by any person on account of the violation or alleged violation of any of the provisions of this article with reference to any loan transaction shall be brought within twenty-four (24) months after the final maturity date of the loan, and not thereafter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A plaintiff was permitted to pursue a private right of action for an alleged violation of the Small Loan Regulatory Act, since § 75-67-111 contemplates such an action. Tew v. Dixieland Fin., Inc., 527 So. 2d 665 (Miss. 1988), but see Tower Loan v. Commissioner, 1996 Tax Ct. Memo LEXIS 162 (1996).

Since § 75-67-111 contains a statute of limitations governing suits under the Mississippi Small Loan Regulatory Law (§§ 75-67-101 et seq.) by "any person" it is clear that the legislature did not intend that only the state comptroller of banks would be able to sue and thus the statute contemplates enforcement not only by the state comptroller of banks but also by private citizens. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

The comptroller shall have the authority to require the attendance of any and all persons and to examine such persons under oath relative to any loan transactions which are the subject matter of any examination, investigation or hearing held under any of the provisions of this article.

§ 75-67-115. Expenses of examinations; paid by licensee.

The commissioner may charge the licensee an examination fee in an amount not less than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) nor more than Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) for each office or location within the State of Mississippi, plus any actual expenses incurred while examining the licensee's records or books that are located outside the State of Mississippi. However, in no event shall a licensee be examined more than once in a two-year period unless for cause shown based upon consumer complaint and/or other exigent reasons as determined by the commissioner.

All expense fees paid to the commissioner shall be deposited by the commissioner in the State Treasury in a special and separate fund to be known as the "Consumer Finance Fund."

If any finance charge in excess of that expressly permitted by Section 75-17-21 is contracted for or received, all finance charges and other charges shall be forfeited and may be recovered, whether the contract be executed or executory. If any finance charge is contracted for or received that exceeds the maximum finance charge authorized by law by more than one hundred percent (100%), the principal and all finance charges and other charges shall be forfeited and any amount paid may be recovered by suit; and, in addition, the licensee and the several members, officers, directors, agents, and employees thereof who shall have participated in such violation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), in the discretion of the court; and, further, the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall forthwith cite such licensee to show cause why its license should not be revoked and proceedings thereon shall be as is specifically provided in the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Section 75-67-201 et seq.).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Section § 75-67-119 has not been repealed by implication by the repeal of § 75-67-117. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

The remedy for charging borrowers more than the actual cost of insurance premiums under §§ 75-67-119 and 75-67-121 is the invalidation of the loan contract and the refunding to the borrower of all payments of any nature made under its terms. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

Forfeiture of interest and finance charges under § 75-17-1 was improper where the excessive charges were the result of an honest mistake and therefore exempt from forfeiture within the meaning of § 75-67-119. United Cos. Mtg. & Inv. of S.W. Miss., Inc. v. Lester, 394 So. 2d 1350 (Miss. 1981).

Interest and service charges collectible on a loan repaid before maturity out of credit life insurance which the borrower was required to procure are based on the number of months which the loan had run before such repayment. Jackson Inv. Co. v. Wingo, 248 Miss. 388, 159 So. 2d 175 (1964).

That a borrower was charged seventeen cents in excess of the permissible amount does not invalidate the contract of loan. Powell v. Sowell, 245 Miss. 53, 145 So. 2d 168 (1962), error overruled, 245 Miss. 64, 146 So. 2d 576 (1962).

§ 75-67-120. Deferral of installment of loan made by small loan licensee; charge for deferral; rules and regulations.

(1) With respect to any loan made or handled by a licensee hereunder, the licensee and the borrower may, at any time, agree to a deferral of all or part of one or more unpaid installments, and the licensee may make and collect a charge therefor, subject to the following provisions:

(a) A deferral postpones the scheduled due date of an installment or installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for the deferment period.

(b) The deferment period is that period of time for which the payment is or the payments are deferred.

(c) The deferral charge shall not exceed an amount equal to the result of applying the annual percentage rate, as defined by the federal Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z, provided in the original agreement between the licensee and the borrower, to the amount deferred for the deferment period, calculated without regard to differences in the lengths of months, but proportionately for a part of a month, counting each day as one-thirtieth ( $\frac{1}{30}$ ) of a month. A deferral charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period.

(d) If a loan is prepaid in full during a deferment period, then the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferral charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment in full.

(e) A deferral charge may be collected at the time it is assessed or at any time thereafter.

(f) Any payment received at the time of the deferment may be applied first to the deferral charge and the remainder, if any, to the unpaid balance of the loan, but if such payment is sufficient to pay, in addition to the appropriate delinquency charge, any installment which is in default, it shall be first so applied, and such installment shall not then be deferred or be subject to the deferral charge.

(g) No installment on which a delinquency charge has been collected shall be deferred or included in the computation of the deferral unless such delinquency charge is refunded to the borrower or credited to the deferral charge.

(h) In addition to the deferral charge, the licensee may make appropriate additional charges as provided in this chapter. The amount of such charges which are not paid in cash may be added to the amount deferred for the purpose of calculating the deferral.

(i) Any such deferral agreement shall be evidenced in writing, which shall include:

- (i) The amount of the deferral charge;
- (ii) The amount or amounts deferred;
- (iii) The date to which, or the time period for which, payment is deferred; and
- (iv) The nature and amount of any other charges made at the time.

(j) No deferral charge may be made for a period after the date that the licensee elects to accelerate the maturity of the loan.

(k) No more than two (2) deferrals on which the charge authorized in this section is made, may be made, or agreed to be made, in any twelve-month period.

(2) Whenever the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance deems it necessary to do so, he shall have the authority to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to prevent abuse of the provisions of this section.

§ 75-67-121. Recording and attorney's fees; insurance premiums; licensee may offer borrower opportunity to purchase auto club membership under certain circumstances.

Any licensee under this article may charge any borrower on loans of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or more the actual cost of recording any instrument executed as security for a loan; any reasonable fee paid to an attorney for investigating the title to any property given as security for a loan; the actual cost of any premium paid for insurance upon any property given as security for a loan, such insurance to be placed with an insurance company agent of the borrower's selection so long as it is licensed to do business in the State of Mississippi; the actual cost of any premium paid for life, health and/or accident insurance on any borrower where the amount of insurance required is not in excess of the amount of the loan and the premium for the insurance is in keeping with that usually and customarily paid for like insurance.

In addition, after the licensee has fully approved the loan to the borrower, the licensee may offer the borrower the opportunity to purchase an auto club membership. The licensee shall inform the borrower in writing that the purchase of an auto club membership is optional and is not required as a condition of receiving the loan, and that failure to purchase an auto club membership will not affect the licensee's approval of the loan or the receipt of the loan by the borrower. The notification shall be initialed by the borrower. If the borrower chooses to purchase an auto club membership, the licensee shall allow the borrower to pay the cost of the auto club membership using funds other than the proceeds of a loan or have the cost deducted from the proceeds of any loan obtained from the licensee. The borrower shall be allowed to cancel the auto club membership for a full refund of the purchase price at any time within thirty (30) days after the date of purchase from the licensee if the borrower has not used any of the services provided through the auto club membership. The commissioner shall monitor the number of loans made by licensees with which the borrower chooses to purchase an auto club membership, and shall report that information to the Chairmen of the House Banking and Financial Services Committee and the Senate Business and Financial Institutions Committee by January 1, 2009. This paragraph shall stand repealed on July 1, 2010.

Whenever he finds it necessary, the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall have the power to adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations to prevent the abuse of this section and the making of excessive charges under this section.

Amendment Notes — The 2008 amendment, in the second paragraph, substituted “January 1, 2009” for “January 1, 2007” in the next-to-last sentence, and extended the date of the repealer for the paragraph by substituting “July 1, 2010” for “July 1, 2008” in the last sentence.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The Mississippi legislature must have meant by “actual cost” the cost of the licensee, otherwise it would have used a different phrase such as “actual cost including a reasonable commission”; since the legislature has already permitted lenders to make a handsome profit by allowing them to charge borrowers interest of up to 36 percent per annum further compensation in the form of commissions for insurance sales seems unwarranted, especially because the purpose of credit life, disability, and property insurance is to protect the lender, not the borrower, by insuring that a loan will be repaid despite destruction of collateral or impairment of the borrower’s earning ability. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

The remedy for charging borrowers more than the actual cost of insurance premiums under §§ 75-67-119 and 75-67-121 is the invalidation of the loan contract and the refunding to the borrower of all payments of any nature made under its terms. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

Where an insurance company charges consumers for $1000 of property insurance on a wrecked car worth only $25, the consumer’s signature on the insurance application does not constitute a representation that the car is worth the $1000 liability limit noted on the face of the application. Bailey v. Defenbaugh & Co., 513 F. Supp. 232 (N.D. Miss. 1981).

Under § 75-67-121, which permits a licensee to charge a borrower the “actual cost of any premium” paid for insurance where the premium is in keeping with that usually and customarily paid for like insurance, a licensee may legally charge premiums up to the statutorily regulated maximum regardless of the commissions the licensee receives from the insurance company. The statute allows a licensee to collect the total cost of the premiums, not just the cost of the premiums less any commission the licensee receives. Tew v. Dixieland Fin., Inc., 527 So. 2d 665 (Miss. 1988), but see Tower Loan v. Commissioner, 1996 Tax Ct. Memo LEXIS 162 (1996).

§ 75-67-122. Authorization for small loan licensees to charge and collect bad check charge.

Any licensee hereunder who receives a check, draft, negotiable order of withdrawal or like instrument drawn on a bank or other depository institution given by any person in full or partial repayment of a loan or other extension of credit may, if such instrument is not paid or is dishonored by such institution, charge and collect from the borrower or person to whom the credit was extended, a bad check charge in an amount not to exceed the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00). This charge may be made only once with respect to the same instrument, and after the nonpayment or dishonor of the instrument, it shall be returned by the licensee to the borrower or person to whom credit was extended. This charge shall not be deemed to be interest, finance charge or other charge made as an incident to or as a condition to the grant of the loan or other extension of credit and shall not be included in determining the limit on charges which may be made in connection with the loan or extension of credit as provided in this chapter or in any other law of this state.

Editor's Note — Former § 75-67-125 prohibited licensees from engaging in both lending and brokering.

§ 75-67-127. Requirements for making and payment of loans; confession of judgment; incomplete instruments; penalty.

(1) Every licensee shall:

(a) At the time any loan is made, deliver to the borrower, or if there are two (2) or more borrowers to one (1) of them, a statement in the English language, disclosing (i) the date of the loan, (ii) the amount of the loan, (iii) the schedule of payments or a description thereof, (iv) the type of the security, which may be by mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate or personal property, or both, (v) the name and address of the licensed office and of each person primarily obligated on the note, and (vi) the total amount of finance charges expressed as a dollar amount and as an annual percentage rate.

(b) For each payment made on account of any such loan, give to the person making it at the time the payment is made a receipt specifying in plain, clear and simple terms the amount of the payment and the balance owing on the combined principal and finance charges after credit for each payment. When payment is made by check or money order, the licensee shall not be required to furnish a receipt. Compliance with the Federal Truth in Lending Act shall constitute compliance with this section.

(c) When loans made or handled by a licensee under the provisions of the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law are paid in full prior to maturity, after July 1, 1974, whether by cash, renewal or otherwise, refund to the borrower the finance charge exceeding one dollar ($1.00) calculated on the rule of the sum of the digits, commonly known as the "Rule of 78ths." The refund shall be based and calculated on the number of days by which the loan is paid in advance, less twenty (20) days.

(d) Upon repayment of the loan in full, release any mortgage or security agreement and restore any pledge unless such mortgage, security agreement or pledge continues to secure an obligation to the licensee, and cancel and return any note and any assignment given to the licensee for the loan which is repaid.

(2) No licensee shall:

(a) Take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney running to himself or to any third person to confess judgment or to appear for the borrower in a judicial proceeding; nor

(b) take any note, promise to pay, or instrument of security that does not disclose the amount of the loan before the addition of precomputed charges, a schedule of payments or a description thereof, the agreed rate of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after the loan is made.

(3) Any contract of loan in the making or collection of which any provision of this section shall have been violated, either knowingly or without the exercise of due care to prevent the same, shall be void and the licensee shall have no right to collect or receive any principal, charges or recompense whatsoever.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The record suggested that defendants, a lender and an affiliated insurer, had complied with the statutory and regulatory requisites in calculating refunds of unearned premiums for property insurance under the Rule of 78ths. Smith v. Tower Loan of Miss., Inc., 216 F.R.D. 338 (S.D. Miss. 2003).

Mississippi's finance charge statute contains a tiered structure permitting higher annual percentage rates for smaller loans than larger loans. Smith v. Tower Loan of Miss., Inc., 216 F.R.D. 338 (S.D. Miss. 2003).

Rule of 78th's method of computation in case of prepayment of loan by one licensed under Small Loan Privilege Tax Act, § 75-67-201 et seq., as authorized by provision of Small Loan Regulatory Act, § 75-67-127(1)(c), is not affected by general usury statute, § 75-17-31, where laws at issue originated in same enactment (Chapter 565, Laws, 1974) and are reasonably assumed to comprise rational and noncontradictory scheme, and where special and particular statutes control over general usury statute in event of conflicts between legislative provisions. Benoit v. United Cos. Mtg., Inc., 504 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1987).

An action by a borrower against a finance company for recovery of damages based upon the Truth in Lending Act was not barred by a prior state action instituted by the finance company for collection on a note in which it was held that the finance company had violated § 75-67-

127(2)(b); since the violations or wrongs sued for under the Truth in Lending Act were different than those addressed in the state action, they constituted two separate causes of action. White v. World Fin. of Meridian, Inc., 653 F.2d 147 (5th Cir. 1981).

Substantial compliance with the requirements of the Small Loan Regulatory Law is not sufficient to avoid the penalties for its violation. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

The burden of proof is upon the borrowers to show that the lender-licensee did not furnish them with a statement showing the amount and date of the loan as provided in Code 1942, § 5591-09, or issue receipts to them for payments made on the loan as required by that section. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

When borrowers had introduced proof showing noncompliance with the statutory requirements of this, the burden of going forward with the evidence was upon the lender-licensee to show "due care" by explaining the failure to comply with the statutory requirements, and this is especially true where a party has special knowledge of required evidence, or where such evidence is within the control of such party, as is true of the lender-licensee in the usual case. Consumers Credit Corp. v. Stanford, 194 So. 2d 868 (Miss. 1967).

(2) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing as defined in Section 75-67-237 in cases of revocation of license, impose a civil penalty against any licensee if the licensee is adjudged by the commissioner to be in willful violation of the provisions of this article. The civil penalty shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per violation and shall be deposited into the Consumer Finance Fund of the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance. § 75-67-217. Procedure when application is filed; issuance or denial of license generally; prohibition against issuance of licenses to banks, trust companies, etc.

When any application is filed for a license under the provisions of this article and the requisite fee is paid and the necessary bond furnished, the commissioner shall make an investigation for the purpose of determining whether or not the financial responsibility, previous experience, character and general fitness of the applicant (including the members thereof if the applicant is a firm, partnership or association, and the officers and directors thereof, if the applicant is a corporation) are such as to merit the respect and confidence of the community in which the business is to be operated and to warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, efficiently and in compliance with the provisions of the applicable laws of this state, and the regulations promulgated by the department. For applications both for original licenses and for renewal licenses, the commissioner shall make a determination either to approve or to disapprove the issuance of the license, and his determination shall be conveyed in writing to the applicant within sixty (60) days after the date the application is received by the commissioner. If such determination shall be in the affirmative, then the commissioner shall thereupon issue to the applicant a license, in such form as the commissioner may deem proper, for the operation of such business at the location stated in the application, which license shall be valid for a period of one (1) year. If the application is denied, the commissioner shall give written notice of the denial to the applicant, together with the reason or reasons for the denial. If the commissioner does not issue the license or give written disapproval of the issuance of the license within the required sixty-day period, the license shall be deemed approved and issued effective the next calendar day. In all cases where the proper application for a renewal license shall be filed, it shall be lawful for the applicant to operate his business while the application is pending before the commissioner and until the license has been issued or the application has been rejected, as provided in this section. If any licensee shall desire to change his place of business within the same municipality during the period for which the license is valid, he shall make written application therefor to the commissioner who shall issue a new license for the unexpired portion of the year showing the new location of the business. However, nothing herein shall authorize or permit a change in the place of business of a licensee to a location outside of the original municipality.

same has been exhausted, the comptroller shall require an additional bond in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) conditioned as provided by this article. If, after ten (10) days' written notice by the comptroller, any licensee shall fail, neglect or refuse to furnish such additional bond, the license held by such persons shall be forthwith cancelled by the comptroller. Any person holding a license under the provisions of this article may discontinue his business by giving the comptroller written notice thereof and surrendering his license to the comptroller, but such action shall in nowise relieve the licensee or the surety on his bond from any liability which may have accrued or existed at the time of the surrender of such license nor shall impair or affect the obligation of any lawful pre-existing contract between the licensee and any other person, firm or corporation.

§ 75-67-237. Revocation of license; procedure and review by court.

The commissioner may, if he be of the opinion that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a licensee has willfully violated any of the provisions of this article, or the Small Loan Regulatory Law (Section 75-67-101 et seq.), or any regulation of the commissioner made under the authority of either, or any other applicable statute of this state, upon written notice to the licensee distinctly specifying the charges against him, cite the licensee to appear before him to show cause why his license should not be revoked. Such notice shall fix the date, time and place of the hearing, which hearing shall not be held less than ten (10) days from the date of such notice. At such hearing the licensee shall have the right to be heard either in person or by counsel, to produce witnesses in his behalf, and to examine and cross-examine all witnesses who may testify.

If, after the hearing, the commissioner finds that the licensee has been guilty of willfully violating any provision of this article, or the Small Loan Regulatory Law (Section 75-67-101 et seq.), or any regulations made by the commissioner under the authority of either, or any other applicable statute of the State of Mississippi, the commissioner shall forthwith revoke the license involved; otherwise, the proceedings shall be dismissed. At all such hearings, the commissioner shall cause the evidence to be taken down and a record made thereof and he shall make a written finding and decision and shall cause same to be included in the record. The original of the record shall be retained by the commissioner and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the licensee. Any licensee whose license is revoked by the commissioner may, within twenty (20) days after such revocation, appeal to the circuit court of the county where the business is being conducted, as in cases of appeal from an order of a lesser tribunal. The trial on appeal shall be de novo.

Any licensee who is exempt from liability for an act or omission under Section 75-67-245 shall not have his license revoked under this section for the same act or omission.

If the law enforcement agency supplies the appropriate computer software and the pawnbroker has the appropriate computer hardware, all transactions shall be made available by means of electronic transmission through a modem or similar device or by providing a computer disc to the law enforcement agency within seventy-two (72) hours of the transaction. Any pawnbroker who is recording transactions through the use of computer hardware on March 24, 2001, and is provided such appropriate software shall not cease or alter the use of his computer hardware unless authorized by the law enforcement agency.

(3) All goods purchased across the counter by the pawnbroker shall be maintained on the premises by the pawnbroker for at least fourteen (14) calendar days if the pawnbroker makes available all transactions either electronically or on computer disc to the appropriate law enforcement agency as provided in subsection (2) above. Otherwise, the pawnbroker shall maintain on the premises the purchased goods for twenty-one (21) calendar days.

§ 75-67-317. Redemption or repurchase of pledged goods; liability of pawnbroker for lost or damaged pledged goods; lost, destroyed or stolen pawn ticket.

(1) Any person properly identifying himself as pledgor or as authorized representative of the pledgor and presenting a pawn ticket to the pawnbroker shall be entitled to redeem or repurchase the pledged goods described in such ticket. In the event such pledged goods are lost or damaged while in the possession of the pawnbroker, it shall be the responsibility of the pawnbroker to replace the lost or damaged goods with like kinds of merchandise and proof of replacement shall be defense to any prosecution. (2) If the pawn ticket is lost, destroyed or stolen, the pledgor shall so notify the pawnbroker in writing, and receipt of such notice shall invalidate such pawn ticket, if the pledged goods have not been previously redeemed. § 75-67-321. License required to engage in business as pawnbroker; license fee; penalty for late payment of fee.

(1) A person may not engage in business as a pawnbroker or otherwise portray himself as a pawnbroker unless the person has a valid license authorizing engagement in the business. A separate license is required for each place of business under this article. The commissioner may issue more than one (1) license to a person if that person complies with this article for each license. A new license or application to transfer an existing license is required upon a change, directly or beneficially, in the ownership of any licensed pawnshop and an application shall be made to the commissioner in accordance with this article.

(2) When a licensee wishes to move a pawnshop to another location, the licensee shall give thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the commissioner who shall amend the license accordingly.

(3) Each license shall remain in full force and effect until relinquished, suspended, revoked or expired. With each initial application for a license, the applicant shall pay the commissioner a license fee, which includes premiums for examinations, of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), and on or before December 1 of each year thereafter, an annual renewal fee, which includes premiums for examinations, of Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($350.00). However, when more than one (1) license to an applicant is issued, the commissioner, for each subsequent license, may only impose a fee, which includes premiums for examinations, of Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($350.00) at the time of application, and an annual renewal fee, which includes premiums for examinations, of Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($350.00) on or before December 1 of each year thereafter. If the annual fee remains unpaid thirty (30) days after December 1, the license shall thereupon expire, but not before December 31 of any year for which the annual fee has been paid. If any person engages in business as provided for in this article without paying the license fee provided for in this article commencing business or before the expiration of the person's current license, as the case may be, then the person shall be liable for the full amount of the license fee, plus a penalty in an amount not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each day that the person has engaged in such business without a license or after the expiration of a license. All licensing fees and penalties authorized in this section shall be paid into the Consumer Finance Fund of the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance.

(4) Notwithstanding other provisions of this article, the commissioner may issue a temporary license authorizing the operator of a pawnshop on the receipt of an application to transfer a license from one person to another or on the receipt of an application for a license involving principals and owners that are substantially identical to those of an existing licensed pawnshop. The temporary license is effective until the permanent license is issued or denied.

(5) Notwithstanding other provisions of this article, neither a new license nor an application to transfer an existing license shall be required upon any change, directly or beneficially, in the ownership of any licensed pawnshop incorporated under the laws of this state or any other state so long as the licensee continues to operate as a corporation doing a pawnshop business under the license. The commissioner may, however, require the licensee to provide such information as he deems reasonable and appropriate concerning the officer and directors of the corporation and persons owning in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of the corporation.

(1) To be eligible for a pawnbroker license, an applicant shall:

(a) Operate lawfully and fairly within the purposes of this article;

(b) Not have been convicted of a felony in the last ten (10) years or be active as a beneficial owner for someone who has been convicted of a felony in the last ten (10) years;

(c) File with the commissioner a bond with good security in the penal sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), payable to the State of Mississippi for the faithful performance by the licensee of the duties and obligations pertaining to the business so licensed and the prompt payment of any judgment which may be recovered against such licensee on account of damages or other claim arising directly or collaterally from any violation of the provisions of this article; such bond shall not be valid until it is approved by the commissioner; such applicant may file, in lieu thereof, cash, a certificate of deposit, or government bonds in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00); such deposit shall be filed with the commissioner and is subject to the same terms and conditions as are provided for in the surety bond required herein; any interest or earnings on such deposits are payable to the depositor.

(d) File with the commissioner an application accompanied by the initial license fee required in this article.

(e) Submit a set of fingerprints from any local law enforcement agency. In order to determine the applicant's suitability for license, the commissioner shall forward the fingerprints to the Department of Public Safety; and if no disqualifying record is identified at the state level, the fingerprints shall be forwarded by the Department of Public Safety to the FBI for a national criminal history record check.

(2) Every licensee shall post his license in a conspicuous place at each place of business.

(3) Every licensee shall post and display a sign which measures at least twenty (20) inches by twenty (20) inches in a conspicuous place and in easy view of all persons who enter the place of business. The sign shall display bold, blocked letters, easily readable, with the following information: "This pawnshop is licensed and regulated by the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance. If you encounter any unresolved problem with a transaction at this location, you are entitled to assistance. ## § 75-67-325. Suspension or revocation of license; conditional license; surrender of license; reinstatement of license; enforcement by Commissioner of Banking.

(1) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke any license if it finds that:

(a) The licensee, either knowingly, or without the exercise of due care to prevent the same, has violated any provision of this article;

(b) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed or had been known to exist at the time of the original application for such license, clearly would have justified the commissioner in refusing such license;

(c) The licensee has aided, abetted or conspired with an individual or person to circumvent or violate the requirement of this article;

(d) The licensee, or a legal or beneficial owner of the license, has been convicted of a crime that the commissioner finds directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the occupation of pawnbroker.

(2) The commissioner may conditionally license or place on probation a person whose license has been suspended or may reprimand a licensee for a violation of this article.

(3) The manner of giving notice and conducting a hearing as required by subsection (1) of this section shall be performed in accordance with Mississippi Administrative Procedures Law, Section 25-43-1, et seq., Mississippi Code of 1972.

(4) Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering it to the commissioner with written notice of its surrender, but such surrender shall not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior thereto.

(5) No revocation, suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any pledgor. Any pawn transaction made without benefit of license is void.

(6) The commissioner may reinstate suspended licenses or issue new licenses to a person whose license or licenses have been revoked if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have justified the commissioner in refusing originally to issue a license under this article.

(7) The appropriate local law enforcement agency shall be notified of any licensee who has his license suspended or revoked as provided by this article.

(8) The Commissioner of Banking shall enforce the provisions of this section.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

This section specifically prohibits a municipality from enacting an ordinance that is more restrictive than the provisions of the Mississippi Pawnshop Act. Houston, October 18, 1995, A.G. Op. #95-0704.

The statute only applies to municipalities, and there is no similar provision for counties to enact ordinances concerning the regulation of pawnshops; thus, the legislature has preempted the area of law regarding the regulation of pawnshops except as provided for by the statute, and a county may not enact an ordinance regulating pawnshops within the county. Adams, Jan. 14, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0699.

§ 75-67-403. Definitions.

The following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Appropriate law enforcement agency" means the sheriff of each county in which the title pledge lender maintains an office, or the police chief of the municipality or law enforcement officers of the Department of Public Safety in which the title pledge lender maintains an office.

(b) "Attorney General" means the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi.

(c) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance of the State of Mississippi, or his designee, as the designated official for the purpose of enforcing this article.

(d) "Identification" means a government issued photographic identification.

(e) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, trust, association or other legal entity.

(f) "Pledged property" means any personal property certificate of title that is deposited with a title pledge lender in the course of the title pledge lender's business and is the subject of a title pledge agreement.

(g) "Pledgor" means the person to whom the property is titled.

(h) "Title pledge agreement" means a thirty-day written agreement whereby a title pledge lender agrees to make a loan of money to a pledgor, and the pledgor agrees to give the title pledge lender a security interest in unencumbered titled personal property owned by the pledgor. The pledgor shall agree that the title pledge lender keep possession of the certificate of title. The pledgor shall have the exclusive right to redeem the certificate of title by repaying the loan of money in full and by complying with the title pledge agreement. When the certificate of title is redeemed, the title pledge lender shall release the security interest in the titled personal property and return the personal property certificate of title to the pledgor. The title pledge agreement shall provide that upon failure by the pledgor to redeem the certificate of title at the end of the original thirty-day agreement period, or at the end of any extension(s) thereof, the title pledge lender shall be allowed to take possession of the titled personal property. The title pledge agreement shall contain a power of attorney which authorizes the title pledge lender to transfer title to the pledged property from the pledgor to the title pledge lender upon failure to redeem the pledged property on or before the maturity date of the title pledge agreement, or any extension thereof. The title pledge lender shall take physical possession of the certificate of title for the entire length of the title pledge agreement, but shall not be required to take physical possession of the titled personal property at any time. A title pledge lender may only take unencumbered certificates of title for pledge, but may encumber the title as part of the title pledge transaction by perfecting its security interest in the titled property.

(i) "Title pledge lender" means any person engaged in the business of making title pledge agreements with pledgors; provided, however, that the following are exempt from the definition of "title pledge lender" and from the provisions of this article: any bank which is regulated by the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance, the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or any other federal or state authority and all affiliates of such bank, and additionally any bank or savings and loan association whose deposits or accounts are eligible for insurance by the Bank Insurance Fund or the Savings Association Insurance Fund or other fund administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any successor thereto, and all affiliates of such banks and savings and loan associations, any state or federally chartered credit union and finance company subject to licensing and regulation by the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance.

(j) "Title pledge office" means the location at which, or premises in which, a title pledge lender regularly conducts business. No business other than title pledge business shall be conducted at a title pledge office.

(k) "Title pledge service charge" means a charge for investigating the title, appraising the titled personal property to which the pledged property relates, documenting and closing the title pledge agreement transaction, making required reports to appropriate law enforcement officials, and for all of the services provided by the title pledge lender.

(l) "Title pledge transaction form" means the instrument on which a title pledge lender records title pledge agreements pursuant to this article.

(m) "Titled personal property" means any personal property the ownership of which is evidenced and delineated by a state-issued certificate of title.

(n) "Records" or "documents" means any item in hard copy or produced in a format of storage commonly described as electronic, imaged, magnetic, microphotographic or otherwise, and any reproduction so made shall have the same force and effect as the original thereof and be admitted in evidence equally with the original.

SOURCES: Laws, 1997, ch. 610, § 3; Laws, 2000, ch. 621, § 20, eff from and after passage (approved May 23, 2000.)

§ 75-67-405. Title pledge transaction form.

At the time the title pledge lender enters into each title pledge agreement, the title pledge lender shall complete a consecutively numbered title pledge transaction form for such transaction, and the pledgor shall sign the completed form. The commissioner shall approve the design and format of the title pledge transaction form, which shall elicit the information required under this section. In completing the title pledge transaction form, the title pledge lender shall record the following information, which shall be typed or written indelibly and legibly in English:

(a) The make, model and year of the titled personal property to which the pledged property relates.

(b) The vehicle identification number, or other comparable identification number, along with the license plate number, if applicable, of the titled personal property to which the pledged property relates.

(c) The name, address, date of birth, physical description, Social Security number of the pledgor and one (1) photo identification.

(d) The date of the transaction.

(e) The identification number and the type of identification (including the issuing agency) accepted from the pledgor.

(f) The amount of money advanced, which shall be designated as the "amount financed."

(g) The maturity date of the title pledge agreement, which shall be thirty (30) days after the date of the transaction.

(h) The total title pledge service charge payable on the maturity date, designated as the "finance charge."

(i) The total amount (amount financed plus finance charge) which must be paid to redeem the pledged property on the maturity date, designated as the "total of payments."

(j) The annual percentage rate, computed in accordance with the regulations adopted by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to the Federal Truth in Lending Act.

SOURCES: Laws, 1997, ch. 610, § 4, eff from and after passage (approved April 22, 1997).

Federal Aspects — The Federal Truth in Lending Act is codified at 15 USCS §§ 1601 et seq.

§ 75-67-407. Information to be included on title pledge transaction forms.

(1) The following information shall also be printed on all title pledge transaction forms:

(a) The name and address of the title pledge office.

(b) The statement that:

(i) The pledgor is not obligated to redeem the pledged certificate of title;

(ii) If the pledgor does not redeem the pledged certificate of title on or before the maturity date of the title pledge agreement, the title pledge lender may take possession of the titled personal property to which the certificate of title relates;

(iii) If the pledgor does not redeem the pledged property within thirty (30) days of the maturity date by paying all outstanding principal, interest and other fees, then the pledgor forfeits all right, title and interest in and to the titled personal property and the pledged property to the title pledge lender, who shall thereby acquire an absolute right of title and ownership to the titled personal property; and

(iv) If this title pledge transaction form is lost, destroyed or stolen, the pledgor shall immediately advise the issuing title pledge lender.

(c) The statement that "The pledgor represents and warrants that the titled personal property to which the pledged property relates is not stolen, it has no liens or encumbrances against it, and the pledgor has the right to enter into this transaction."

(d) Immediately above the signature of the pledgor or seller, the statement that "I, the pledgor declare under penalty of perjury that I have read the foregoing document and that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts contained in it are true and correct."

(2) At the time of the transaction, the title pledge lender shall deliver to the pledgor a copy of the completed title pledge transaction form.

SOURCES: Laws, 1997, ch. 610, § 5, eff from and after passage (approved April 22, 1997).

§ 75-67-409. Verification statement; record of transactions of pledged property.

(1) The pledgor shall sign a statement verifying that the pledgor is the rightful owner of the pledged property and is entitled to pledge it. The pledgor shall receive an exact copy of the title pledge agreement which shall be signed by the title pledge lender or any employee of the title pledge lender.

(2) The title pledge lender shall maintain a record of all transactions of pledged property on the premises for a period of two (2) years. A title pledge lender upon request shall provide to the appropriate law enforcement agency a complete record of all transactions. These records shall be a correct copy of the entries made of the title pledge transaction, except as to the amount of cash advanced for the pledged property and the monthly title pledge charge.

(3) The title pledge lender shall maintain records that contain a complete payment history of each customer evidencing all principal payments, service charge and/or other charges. Those records also shall reflect any unpaid principal balance as well as a payoff balance that includes the accrued service charges.

§ 75-67-411. Right to redeem pledged property; failure to redeem.

(1) A pledgor shall have no obligation to redeem pledged property or make any payment on a title pledge transaction. Upon the pledgor's failure to redeem the pledged property on or before the maturity date of the title pledge agreement or any extension or continuation thereof, the title pledge lender has the right to take possession of the titled personal property and to exercise a power of attorney to transfer title to the pledged property. In taking possession, the title pledge lender or his agent may proceed without judicial process if this can be done without breach of the peace; or, if necessary, may proceed by action to obtain judicial process.

(2) If, within thirty (30) days after the maturity date, the pledgor redeems the pledged property by paying all outstanding principal, interest and other customary fees, the pledgor shall be given possession of the titled personal property and the pledged property without further charge.

(3) If the pledgor fails to redeem the pledged property during the thirty-day period provided in subsection (2) of this section, then the pledgor shall thereby forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the titled personal property and the pledged property to the title pledge lender who shall thereby acquire an absolute right of title and ownership to the titled personal property. The title pledge lender shall then have the sole right and authority to sell or dispose of the titled personal property.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding subsections of this section, the pledgor shall have three (3) business days after the title pledge lender has taken possession of the titled personal property to redeem the property by paying the amount of the unpaid principal balance, the delinquent service charge and the actual cost of the repossession. The cost of repossession shall include towing charges, storage charges paid to a third party and repairs made to the property to render it operable.

(5) If the property is sold after the three-business-day period, the title pledge lender shall return to the pledgor eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount received from the sale above the amount of the unpaid principal balance, the delinquent service charge, the actual cost of the repossession and a sales fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). However, any titled personal property that is deemed to be salvage by the title pledge lender may be sold or otherwise disposed of immediately upon repossession.

(6) The title pledge transaction form shall contain a provision written in boldface type of at least fourteen (14) point size that notifies the pledgor that the titled personal property is subject to sale at any time after the three-business-day period has expired, unless the property is deemed to be salvage by the title pledge lender, in which case the property may be sold or otherwise disposed of immediately. The transaction form shall have a space located near that provision that the pledgor must initial.

§ 75-67-413. Title pledge service charge; extension of title pledge transaction period; additional payments on same pledged property to be evidenced by separate title pledge agreement.

(1) A title pledge lender may contract for and receive a title pledge service charge in lieu of interest or other charges for all services, expenses, cost and losses of every nature not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the principal amount, per month, advanced in the title pledge transaction.

(2) Any interest, charge or fees contracted for or received, directly or indirectly, in excess of the amount permitted under subsection (1) of this section shall be uncollectible and the title pledge transaction shall be void. The title pledge service charge allowed under subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed earned, due and owing as of the date of the title pledge transaction and a like sum shall be deemed earned, due and owing on the thirty-first day from the date of the transaction and on every thirtieth day thereafter.

(3) By agreement of the parties, the maturity date of the title pledge transaction may be extended or continued for thirty-day periods, provided that the service charges as specified in subsection (1) are not exceeded for any extensions. All extensions or continuations of the title pledge transaction shall be evidenced in writing. No accrued interest or service charge shall be capitalized or added to the original principal of the title pledge transaction during any extension or continuation. Beginning with the first extension or continuation and at each successive extension or continuation thereafter, the pledgor shall be required to reduce the principal amount financed by at least ten percent (10%) of the original principal amount of the title pledge transaction. Notwithstanding any provision in this article to the contrary, if the pledgor fails to pay at least ten percent (10%) of the original principal amount at any such extension or continuation, the title pledge lender may, at its option, either (a) declare the outstanding principal and any service charges to be immediately due and payable, or (b) allow the transaction to be extended or continued, provided that the title pledge lender shall reduce the principal amount of the loan by ten percent (10%) of the original principal amount solely for the purposes of calculating its service charge. This reduction in principal shall continue to be owing by the pledgor in accordance with the title pledge transaction, but that amount shall not be entitled to accrue interest or service charges thereafter.

(4) Any additional payment of funds on the same pledged property must be evidenced by a separate title pledge agreement. A title pledge lender shall not advance funds to a pledgor to pay off an existing title pledge agreement.

SOURCES: Laws, 1997, ch. 610, § 8; Laws, 2000, ch. 621, § 23, eff from and after passage (approved May 23, 2000.)

§ 75-67-415. Prohibited actions of title pledge lender.

A title pledge lender, or any agent or employee of such title pledge lender, shall not:

(a) Falsify or intentionally fail to make an entry of any material matter in a title pledge lender transaction form.

(b) Refuse to allow the commissioner, the appropriate law enforcement official, state attorney, or any of their designated representatives having appropriate jurisdiction, to inspect completed title pledge transaction forms or pledged property during the ordinary hours of the title pledge lender's business or other times acceptable to both parties.

(c) Enter into a title pledge agreement with a person under the age of eighteen (18) years.

(d) Make any agreement requiring or allowing the personal liability of a pledgor or the waiver of any of the provisions of this article.

(e) Knowingly enter into a title pledge agreement with any person who is under the influence of drugs or alcohol when such condition is visible or apparent, or with any person using a name other than his own name or the registered name of his business.

(f) Enter into a title pledge agreement in which the amount of money loaned in consideration of the pledge of any single certificate of title exceeds Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00).

(g) Fail to exercise reasonable care in the safekeeping of pledged property or of titled personal property repossessed pursuant to this article.

(h) Fail to return pledged property or repossessed titled personal property to a pledgor, with any and all of the title pledge lender's liens on the property properly released, upon payment of the full amount due the title pledge lender, unless the property has been seized or impounded by an authorized law enforcement agency, taken into custody by a court, or otherwise disposed of by court order.

(i) Sell or otherwise charge for insurance in connection with a title pledge agreement.

SOURCES: Laws, 1997, ch. 610, § 9, eff from and after passage (approved April 22, 1997).

§ 75-67-417. Presentation of title pledge transaction form; lost, destroyed, or stolen forms.

(1) Any person presenting identification of himself and presenting the pledgor's copy of the title pledge transaction form to the title pledge lender is presumed to be entitled to redeem the pledged property described in the title pledge lender transaction form; provided, however, that if the title pledge lender determines that the person is not the original pledgor, the title pledge lender is not required to allow the redemption of the pledged property by such person. The person redeeming the pledged property must sign the pledgor's copy of the title pledge transaction form, which the title pledge lender may retain to evidence such person's receipt of the pledged property. If the person redeeming the pledged property is not the original pledgor, that person must show identification to the title pledge lender, and the title pledge lender shall record the person's name and address on the title pledge transaction form retained by the title pledge lender. The title pledge lender shall not be liable to the original pledgor for having allowed the redemption of the pledged property by another person pursuant to this subsection (1).

(2) If the pledgor's copy of the title pledge transaction form is lost, destroyed or stolen, the pledgor must notify the title pledge lender in writing by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or in person evidenced by a signed receipt, and receipt of this notice shall invalidate such title pledge transaction form if the pledged property has not previously been redeemed. Before delivering the pledged property or issuing a new title pledge transaction form, the title pledge lender shall require the pledgor to make a written statement of the loss, destruction or theft of the pledgor's copy of the title pledge transaction form. The title pledge lender shall record on the written statement the type of identification and the identification number accepted from the pledgor, the date the statement is given and the number of the title pledge transaction form lost, destroyed or stolen. The statement shall be signed by the title pledge lender or the title pledge office employee who accepts the statement from the pledgor. A title pledge lender is entitled to a fee not to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00) in connection with each such lost, destroyed or stolen title pledge transaction form and the taking of a properly prepared written statement.

(3) No sales tax shall be deemed due or collectible in connection with the redemption of pledged property under this article.

§ 75-67-419. License requirements for title pledge lender; annual fees; temporary license.

(1) A person may not engage in business as a title pledge lender or otherwise portray himself as a title pledge lender unless the person has a valid license authorizing engagement in the business. A separate license is required for each place of business under this article. The commissioner may issue more than one (1) license to a person if that person complies with this article for each license. A new license or application to transfer an existing license is required upon a change, directly or beneficially, in the ownership of any licensed title pledge office and an application shall be made to the commissioner in accordance with this article.

(2) When a licensee wishes to move a title pledge office to another location, the licensee shall give thirty (30) days prior written notice to the commissioner who shall amend the license accordingly.

(3) Each license shall remain in full force and effect until relinquished, suspended, revoked or expired. With each initial application for a license, the applicant shall pay the commissioner at the time of making the application a license fee of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00), and on or before June 1 of each year thereafter, an annual renewal fee of Four Hundred Seventy-five Dollars ($475.00). If the annual fee remains unpaid thirty (30) days after June 1, the license shall thereupon expire, but not before June 30 of any year for which the annual fee has been paid. If any person engages in business as provided for in this article without paying the license fee provided for in this article before commencing business or before the expiration of such person's current license, as the case may be, then the person shall be liable for the full amount of the license fee, plus a penalty in an amount not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each day that the person has engaged in the business without a license or after the expiration of a license. All licensing fees and penalties shall be paid into the Consumer Finance Fund of the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance.

(4) Notwithstanding other provisions of this article, the commissioner may issue a temporary license authorizing the operation of a title pledge office on the receipt of an application to transfer a license from one person to another or on the receipt of an application for a license involving principals and owners that are substantially identical to those of an existing licensed title pledge office. The temporary license is effective until the permanent license is issued or denied.

(5) Notwithstanding other provisions of this article, neither a new license nor an application to transfer an existing license shall be required upon any change, directly or beneficially, in the ownership of any licensed title pledge office incorporated under the laws of this state or any other state so long as the licensee continues to operate as a corporation doing a title pledge business under the license. The commissioner may, however, require the licensee to provide such information as he deems reasonable and appropriate concerning the officer and directors of the corporation and persons owning in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of the corporation.

§ 75-67-421. Eligibility requirements for title pledge lender license.

(1) To be eligible for a title pledge lender license, an applicant shall:

- (a) Operate lawfully and fairly within the purposes of this article;
- (b) Not have been convicted of a felony in the last ten (10) years or be active as a beneficial owner for someone who has been convicted of a felony in the last ten (10) years;
- (c) File with the commissioner a bond with good security in the penal sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for each location at which the applicant proposes to engage in the business of title pledge lending, but in no event shall the aggregate amount of the bond for all locations per applicant exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) and no more than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) shall be payable or recoverable on the bond for each location; the bond shall be payable to the State of Mississippi for the faithful performance by the licensee of the duties and obligations pertaining to the business so licensed and the prompt payment of any judgment which may be recovered against the licensee on account of damages or other claim arising directly or collaterally from any violation of the provisions of this article; the bond shall not be valid until it is approved by the commissioner; the applicant may file, in lieu thereof, cash, a certificate of deposit, or government bonds in the amount of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for each location at which the applicant proposes to engage in the business of title pledge lending, but in no event shall the aggregate amount of the cash, certificate of deposit or government bonds for all locations per applicant exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) and no more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) shall be payable or recoverable on the cash, certificate of deposit or government bonds for each location; the deposit of the cash, certificate of deposit or government bonds shall be filed with the commissioner and is subject to the same terms and conditions as are provided for in the surety bond required herein; any interest or earnings on such deposits are payable to the depositor.

(d) File with the commissioner an application accompanied by a set of fingerprints from any local law enforcement agency, and the initial license fee required in this article. In order to determine the applicant's suitability for license, the commissioner shall forward the fingerprints to the Department of Public Safety; and if no disqualifying record is identified at the state level, the fingerprints shall be forwarded by the Department of Public Safety to the FBI for a national criminal history record check.

(2) Upon the filing of an application in a form prescribed by the commissioner, accompanied by the fee and documents required in this article, the department shall investigate to ascertain whether the qualifications prescribed by this article have been satisfied. If the commissioner finds that the qualifications have been satisfied and, if he approves the documents so filed by the applicant, he shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business of title pledge lending in this state.

(3) Complete and file with the commissioner an annual renewal application accompanied by the renewal fee required in this article.

(4) The license shall be kept conspicuously posted in the place of business of the licensee.

§ 75-67-423. Grounds for suspension of license; notice and hearing requirements.

(1) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke any license if it finds that:

(a) The licensee, either knowingly, or without the exercise of due care to prevent the same, has violated any provision of this article;

(b) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed or had been known to exist at the time of the original application for the license, clearly would have justified the commissioner in refusing the license;

(c) The licensee has aided, abetted or conspired with an individual or person to circumvent or violate the requirements of this article;

(d) The licensee, or a legal or beneficial owner of the license, has been convicted of a crime that the commissioner finds directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the occupation of title pledge lender.

(2) The commissioner may conditionally license or place on probation a person whose license has been suspended or may reprimand a licensee for a violation of this article.

(3) The manner of giving notice and conducting a hearing as required by subsection (1) of this section shall be performed in accordance with Mississippi Administrative Procedures Law, Section 25-43-1 et seq., Mississippi Code of 1972.

(4) Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering it to the commissioner with written notice of its surrender, but such surrender shall not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior thereto.

(5) No revocation, suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any pledgor. Any title pledge transaction made without benefit of license is void.

(6) The commissioner may reinstate suspended licenses or issue new licenses to a person whose license or licenses have been revoked if no fact or condition then exists that clearly would have justified the commissioner in refusing originally to issue a license under this article.

(7) The appropriate local law enforcement agency shall be notified of any licensee who has his license suspended or revoked as provided by this article.

(8) The Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall enforce the provisions of this section.

Editor's Note — Section 25-43-1.101(3) provides that any reference to Section 25-43-1 et seq., referred to in subsection (3) of this section, shall be deemed to mean and refer to Section 25-43-1.101 et seq.

§ 75-67-425. Oath required for new or transferred license; application; contents of application.

(1) An application for a new title pledge office license, the transfer of an existing title pledge office license or the approval of a change in the ownership of a licensed title pledge office shall be under oath and shall state the full name and place of residence of the applicant, the place where the business is to be conducted and other relevant information required by the commissioner. If the applicant is a partnership, the application shall state the full name of each partner. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall state the full name and address of each officer, shareholder and director.

§ 75-67-505. Licensing requirements. [Repealed effective July 1, 2012].

(1)(a) A person may not engage in business as a check casher or otherwise portray himself as a check casher unless the person has a valid license authorizing engagement in the business. A separate license is required for each place of business under this article and each business must be independent of, and not a part of, any other business operation. A check cashing business shall not be a part of, or located at the same business address with, a pawnshop, title pledge office and small loan company.

(b) A check cashing business shall (i) have a definitive United States Postal address and E911 address; (ii) comply with local zoning requirements; (iii) have a minimum of one hundred (100) square feet with walls from floor to ceiling separating the operation from any other businesses; (iv) have an outside entrance, but may be located in an area that has a common lobby shared by other businesses as long as the customers do not enter the check cashing business through another business; (v) have proper signage; and (vi) maintain separate books and records. Any licensee who does not cash any delayed deposit checks as authorized under Section 75-67-519 shall not be subject to the requirements of subparagraphs (i), (iii) and (iv) of this paragraph.

(c) A licensed check casher may sell, at the same location as his check cashing business, the following items and services: money orders; income tax preparation service; copy service; wire transfer service; notary service; pagers; pager service; prepaid cellular service; debit card; prepaid telephone cards; prepaid telephone service; and operate a processing center where utility bills, credit card payments and other payments are collected from the general public and governmental and private payments are distributed. In the event a licensee accepts wire transfers in the form of a direct deposit of a payroll check or other similar types of deposit, the licensee shall not encumber any transferred funds against a deferred deposit agreement or any delinquent deferred deposit agreement with such customer. The commissioner may authorize additional functions in addition to those provided in this subsection that may be performed as part of a check cashing business.

(d) The commissioner may issue more than one (1) license to a person if that person complies with this article for each license. A new license is required upon a change, directly or beneficially, in the ownership of any licensed check casher business and an application shall be made to the commissioner in accordance with this article.

(2) When a licensee wishes to move a check casher business to another location, the licensee shall give thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the commissioner who shall amend the license accordingly.

(3) Each license shall remain in full force and effect until relinquished, suspended, revoked or expired. With each initial application for a license, the applicant shall pay the commissioner at the time of making the application a license fee of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00), and on or before September 1 of each year thereafter, an annual renewal fee of Four Hundred Seventy-five Dollars ($475.00). If the annual renewal fee remains unpaid twenty-nine (29) days after September 1, the license shall thereupon expire, but not before the thirtieth day of September of any year for which the annual fee has been paid. If any licensee fails to pay the annual renewal fee before the thirtieth day of September of any year for which the renewal fee is due, then the licensee shall be liable for the full amount of the license fee, plus a penalty in an amount not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each day that the licensee has engaged in business after September 30. All licensing fees and penalties shall be paid into the Consumer Finance Fund of the Department of Banking and Consumer Finance.

(4) Notwithstanding other provisions of this article, the commissioner may issue a temporary license authorizing the operator of a check casher business on the receipt of an application for a license involving principals and owners that are substantially identical to those of an existing licensed check casher. The temporary license is effective until the permanent license is issued or denied.

Editor's Note — For repeal date of this section, see § 75-67-539.

Amendment Notes — The 2007 amendment reenacted and amended the section by deleting "or application to transfer an existing license" following "A new license" in the second sentence of (1)(d), and deleting former (5), which allowed the change of ownership of a licensed check cashing business without obtaining a new license for the business.

(1) The department may adopt reasonable administrative regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the enforcement of this article.

(2) To assure compliance with the provisions of this article, the department may examine the books and records of any licensee without notice during normal business hours. The commissioner may charge the licensee an examination fee in an amount not less than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) nor more than Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) for each office or location within the State of Mississippi plus any actual expenses incurred while examining the licensee's records or books that are located outside the State of Mississippi. However, in no event shall a licensee be examined more than once in a two-year period unless for cause shown based upon consumer complaint and/or other exigent reasons as determined by the commissioner.

(3) Each licensee shall keep and use in its business any books, accounts and records the department may require to carry into effect the provisions of this article and the administrative regulations issued under this article. Every licensee shall preserve the books, accounts and records of its business for at least two (2) years.

(4) Any fee charged by a licensee for cashing a check shall be posted conspicuously to the bearer of the check before cashing the check, and the fee shall be a service fee and not interest.

(5) Before a licensee deposits with any bank or other depository institution a check cashed by the licensee, the check shall be endorsed with the actual name under which the licensee is doing business.

(6) All personal checks cashed for a customer by a licensee shall be dated on the actual date the cash is tendered to the customer.

(7) No licensee shall cash a check payable to a payee unless the licensee has previously obtained appropriate identification of the payee clearly indicating the authority of the person cashing the check, draft or money order on behalf of the payee.

(8) No licensee shall indicate through advertising, signs, billboards or otherwise that checks may be cashed without identification of the bearer of the check; and any person seeking to cash a check shall be required to submit reasonable identification as prescribed by the department. The provisions of this subsection shall not prohibit a licensee from cashing a check simultaneously with the verification and establishment of the identity of the presenter by means other than presentation of identification.

(9) Within five (5) business days after being advised by the payor financial institution that a check has been altered, forged, stolen, obtained through fraudulent or illegal means, negotiated without proper legal authority or represents the proceeds of illegal activity, the licensee shall notify the department and the district attorney for the judicial district in which the check was received. If a check is returned to the licensee by the payor financial institution for any of these reasons, the licensee may not release the check without consent of the district attorney or other investigating law enforcement authority.

(10) If a check is returned to a licensee from a payor financial institution because there are insufficient funds in or on deposit with the financial institution to pay the check, the licensee or any other person on behalf of the licensee shall not institute or initiate any criminal prosecution against the maker or drawer of the personal check with the intent and purpose of aiding in the collection of or enforcing the payment of the amount owed to the check casher by the maker or drawer of the check.

(11) Nothing in this article shall prohibit a licensee from issuing coupons to customers or potential customers which are redeemable against a deferred deposit transaction provided the redemption results in a financial benefit to the customer on current or future transactions.

The Blue Sky Laws of the state were inapplicable where incorporators received no compensation for their work in procuring stock subscribers to corporation to be subsequently formed inasmuch as they were not agents and were not liable to the subscribers for failure to comply therewith. Guynn v. Shulters, 223 Miss. 232, 78

So. 2d 114, 50 A.L.R.2d 1088 (1955), error overruled 223 Miss. 232, 78 So. 2d 793, 50 A.L.R.2d 1088.

A corporation cannot limit the authority of its agent in the sale of its stock. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Wood, 213 Miss. 499, 57 So. 2d 141 (1952).

Annuity policies, though not life insurance policies, are not subject to the requirements of the Blue Sky Act, but, being such as life insurance companies are authorized to issue, are subject to the provisions of the statute regulating the business of life insurance companies. Hamilton v. Penn Mut. Life Ins. Co., 196 Miss. 345, 17 So. 2d 278 (1944).

Foreign corporation issuing stock, but without selling or offering for sale any of it in Mississippi, was not an "investment company" within Blue Sky Law, though resident who owned stock sold it to another within state. White v. Stewart, 166 Miss. 694, 145 So. 747 (1933).

Buyer's suit to rescind against brokers under Blue Sky Law must be brought under section relating to "dealers," not under that relating to "investment companies." White v. Stewart, 166 Miss. 694, 145 So. 747 (1933).

§ 75-71-109. Rules, forms, orders and hearings [Repealed effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) The Secretary of State may from time to time make, amend and rescind such rules, forms and orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including rules and forms governing registration statements, fees, applications and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this chapter, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of rules and forms, the Secretary of State may classify securities, persons and matters within his jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. The Secretary of State may by rule adopt exemptions from the registration requirements of Sections 75-71-301 and 75-71-401 where such exemptions are consistent with the public interest and with the purpose fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter.

(b) No rule, form or order may be made, amended or rescinded unless the Secretary of State finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter. In prescribing rules and forms the Secretary of State may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the securities and exchange commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this chapter to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statements, applications and reports wherever practicable.

(c) The Secretary of State may by rule or order prescribe (1) the form and content of financial statements required under this chapter, (2) the circumstances under which consolidated financial statements shall be filed, and (3) whether any required financial statements shall be certified by independent or certified public accountants. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices.

(d) All rules and forms of the Secretary of State shall be published.

(e) No provision of this chapter imposing any liability applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule, form or order of the Secretary of State, notwithstanding that the rule, form or order may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(f) Every hearing in an administrative proceeding shall be public unless the Secretary of State in his discretion grants a request joined in by all the respondents that the hearing be conducted privately.

The following transactions are exempted from Sections 75-71-113 and 75-71-401:

(1) Any isolated nonissuer transaction, whether effected through a broker-dealer or not.

(2) Any nonissuer distribution of an outstanding security if (A) a recognized securities manual contains the names of the issuer's officers and directors, a balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within eighteen (18) months, and a profit and loss statement for either the fiscal year preceding that date or the most recent year of operations, or (B) the security has a fixed maturity or a fixed interest or dividend provision and there has been no default during the current fiscal year or within the three (3) preceding fiscal years, or during the existence of the issuer and any predecessors if less than three (3) years, in the payment of principal, interest or dividends on the security.

(3) Any nonissuer transaction effected by or through a registered broker-dealer pursuant to an unsolicited order or offer to buy; but the Secretary of State may by rule require that the customer acknowledge upon a specified form that the sale was unsolicited, and that a signed copy of each such form be preserved by the broker-dealer for a specified period.

(4) Any transaction between the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is made and an underwriter, or among underwriters.

(5) Any transaction in a bond or other evidence of indebtedness secured by a real or chattel mortgage or deed of trust, or by an agreement for the sale of real estate or chattels, if the entire mortgage, deed of trust or agreement, together with all the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness secured thereby, is offered and sold as a unit.

(6) Any transaction by an executor, administrator, sheriff, marshal, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, guardian or conservator.

(7) Any transaction executed by a bona fide pledgee without any purpose of evading this chapter.

(8) Any offer or sale to a bank, savings institution, trust company, insurance company, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institution or institutional buyer, or to a broker-dealer, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or in some fiduciary capacity.

(9) The sale of its securities by an issuer during a period of twelve (12) consecutive months ending with the date of the sale in question to not more than ten (10) persons in this state if (A) the seller reasonably believes that all the buyers are purchasing for investment purposes only; (B) no commission or remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective buyer; and (C) no public advertising or solicitation is used in any such solicitation or sale.

Such offers or sales of securities shall be made only by duly elected and acting officers of the issuer, or by the general partner of a limited partnership, or a broker-dealer and his agents registered pursuant to this chapter.

The Secretary of State may by rule or order withdraw or further condition this exemption or waive one or more of the conditions herein.

(10) Any offer or sale of a preorganization certificate or subscription if (A) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective subscriber, (B) the number of subscribers does not exceed thirty-five (35), and (C) no payment is made by any subscriber.

(11) Any transaction pursuant to an offer to existing security holders of the issuer, including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities, nontransferable warrants, or transferable warrants exercisable within not more than ninety (90) days of their issuance, if (A) no commission or other remuneration (other than a standby commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state, or (B) the issuer first files a notice specifying the terms of the offer and the Secretary of State does not by order disallow the exemption within the next ten (10) full business days.

(12) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements have been filed under both this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under either law.

Where a company was registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities Division of the Secretary of State's Office, it was subject to service of process and personal jurisdiction under the statute. Allyn v. Wortman, 725 So. 2d 94 (Miss. 1998).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

II. Under Former § 75-71-31.

6. In general.

Although dealer, who was actively involved in consummating a challenged securities transactions, incurred no § 75-71-25 liability since he personally made no misrepresentation of material fact to buyer, such buyer, in a suit for rescission of sale of securities, could recover the full purchase price of the securities from the dealer, with interest from the date of payment under § 75-17-1, but attorney fees were not recoverable. Johnson v. Yerger, 612 F.2d 953 (5th Cir. 1980).

In an action for securities fraud, the trial court properly found a registered security agent to be guilty of fraud where the evidence showed, inter alia, that he had failed to tell plaintiffs that the investment involved a high degree of risk, that he had promised a guaranteed return of eight percent per annum, and that he had claimed the investment could be cashed in at any time with a small discount; nor did the statute of limitations begin to run at the time they received the prospectus, so as to bar the suit, where the evidence established that the security agent knew or should have known that even if plaintiffs undertook to peruse the prospectus, they would not be able to comprehend its contents due to a lack of education; the trial court properly found that plaintiffs were not entitled to relief against the corporate general partner and the individual general partners where they did not participate in the sale of the security to plaintiffs or induce them to make the purchase; the action would be remanded to the trial court for a determination of reasonable attorneys' fees, as authorized by statute. Seaboard Planning Corp. v. Powell, 364 So. 2d 1091 (Miss. 1978).

The sale of a negotiable promissory note by one who had not first obtained a certificate of exemption from the Secretary of State did not violate the blue sky laws. State v. Russell, 358 So. 2d 409 (Miss. 1978).

A corporation which issued its shares was a "seller" within the meaning of Code 1972, § 75-71-31, and was properly held liable since the sale of stock was without a certificate of authority. First Mobile Home Corp. v. Little, 298 So. 2d 676 (Miss. 1974).

7. Under former § 75-71-29.

I. Under Current Law.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

II. Under Former Law.

6. Under former § 75-71-13.

Surety failing to disclose in action filed against it, that appeals from dismissal of actions previously brought are pending, was estopped, as against plaintiffs in such previous actions, to assert that judgment in the subsequent action has exhausted its liability. United States Fid. & Guar. Co. v. Rice, 241 Miss. 307, 130 So. 2d 924 (1961).

Purpose of bond under former Code 1942, § 5367 was to protect purchasers of stock against loss on account of misrepresentation of any material fact. Hederi v. United States Fid. & Guar. Co., 237 Miss. 251, 114 So. 2d 615 (1959).

Under former Code 1942, § 5368, chancery court had jurisdiction over bill of complaint against surety on bond of bankrupt corporation for damages sustained by plaintiffs as result of purchase of worthless stock in bankrupt corporation through fraudulent representation of bankrupt corporation's stock salesman, notwithstanding corporation was in bankruptcy and the bankrupt had not been discharged. Rice v. United States Fid. & Guar. Co., 237 Miss. 247, 114 So. 2d 612 (1959).

In an action under the Blue Sky Law to enforce bonds issued by the surety, the recitals of the bond are to be construed most strongly against the surety. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Wood, 213 Miss. 499, 57 So. 2d 141 (1952).

Where application and permit which was issued pursuant to the issue of a bond by surety under the Blue Sky Law provided that this covered the sale of preferred stock "and none other" and the bond issued provided that it covered the sale by corporation of "its stock," and the sales of the common stock were induced by showing the bond to respective buyers, this bond covered the sale of any stock of the corporation. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Wood, 213 Miss. 499, 57 So. 2d 141 (1952).

7. Under former § 75-71-29.

Where the surety under the bond filed pursuant to Code 1972, § 75-71-29 had an opportunity to defend the action against its principal, and the evidence presented was sufficient to bind the principal under the Mississippi Securities Law, the surety was bound by the pro confesso judgment entered against the principal. First Mobile Home Corp. v. Little, 298 So. 2d 676 (Miss. 1974).

The following provisions govern the application of Section 75-71-321(a)(2)(H):

(1) The Secretary of State may not enter an order solely on the basis of lack of experience if the applicant or registrant is qualified by training or knowledge or both.

(2) The Secretary of State shall consider that an agent who will work under the supervision of a registered broker-dealer need not have the same qualifications as a broker-dealer, and that an investment adviser representative who will work under the supervision of a registered investment adviser need not have the same qualifications as an investment adviser.

(2) If the secretary of state by rule or otherwise requires, a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws (or their substantial equivalents) currently in effect, a copy of any agreements with or among underwriters, a copy of any indenture or other instrument governing the issuance of the security to be registered, and a specimen or copy of the security;

(3) If the secretary of state requests, any other information or copies of any documents filed under the Securities Act of 1933; and

(4) An undertaking to forward all future amendments to the federal prospectus, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date of the registration statement, promptly and in any event not later than the first business day after the day they are forwarded to or filed with the securities and exchange commission, whichever first occurs.

(c) A registration statement under this section automatically becomes effective at the moment the federal registration statement becomes effective if all the following conditions are satisfied: (1) no stop order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under Sections 75-71-425 through 75-71-431; (2) the registration statement has been on file with the secretary of state for at least ten (10) days; and (3) a statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for two (2) full business days or such shorter period as the secretary of state permits by rule or otherwise and the offering is made within those limitations. The registrant shall promptly notify the secretary of state by telephone or telegram of the date and time when the federal registration statement became effective and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall promptly file a post-effective amendment containing the information and documents in the price amendment. "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices, and other matters dependent upon the offering price. Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the secretary of state may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this subsection, if the secretary of state promptly notifies the registrant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when he notifies by telephone) of the issuance of the order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements of this subsection as to notice and post-effective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The secretary of state may by rule or otherwise waive either or both of the conditions specified in clauses (2) and (3) of this subsection. If the federal registration statement becomes effective before all the conditions in this subsection are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the secretary of state of the date when the federal registration statement is expected to become effective, the secretary of state shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone or telegram, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether he then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under Sections 75-71-425 through 75-71-431; but this advice by the secretary of state does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any time.

The secretary of state may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, any registration statement if he finds (1) that the order is in the public interest and (2) that:

(A) The registration statement as of its effective date or as of any earlier date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, or any amendment under Section 75-71-423 as of its effective date, or any report under Section 75-71-421 is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

(B) Any provision of this chapter or any rule, order or condition lawfully imposed under this chapter has been wilfully violated, in connection with the offering, by (i) the person filing the registration statement, or (ii) the issuer, any partner, officer or director of the issuer, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer, but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer, or (iii) any underwriter;

(C) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of an administrative stop order or similar order or a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state act applicable to the offering; but (i) the secretary of state shall not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this clause more than one (1) year from the date of the order or injunction relied on, and (ii) he shall not enter an order under this clause on the basis of an order or injunction entered under any other state act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section;

(D) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities which are illegal where performed;

(E) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(F) The offering has been or would be made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions or other compensation, or promoters' profits or participation, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options;

(G) When a security is sought to be registered by coordination, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by Section 75-71-403(b)(4); or

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

I. Under Current Law.

- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

II. Under former § 75-71-43.

6. In general.

I. Under Current Law.

1. In general.

The statute is virtually identical to § 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. § 77q, and, therefore, there is no private right of action under the statute. Allyn v. Wortman, 725 So. 2d 94 (Miss. 1998).

Section 75-71-501 creates cause of action for fraud or deceit in connection with securities transactions. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Rather than borrowing from cases involving federal Rule 10b-5 to create limitations period for § 75-71-501, more appropriate limitations period is that set forth in § 75-71-725; similarity between § 75-71-501 and Rule 10b-5 of Securities Act of 1934 does not mean that court can apply federal judicially-created statute of limitations to state statute. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Having determined that § 75-71-725 is most applicable limitations period, court found on basis of particular facts that genuine issue of material fact remained concerning whether exercise of reasonable diligence on part of plaintiff would have discovered violation, for purposes of determining beginning of running of limitations period. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Both Sections 75-71-717(a)(2) and § 75-71-501 contain implicit requirement of reasonable reliance, consistent with federal Rule 10b-5 of Securities Act of 1934. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

In deciding whether investor reasonably relied on misrepresentations made by insurance carrier and its subsidiary in connection with sale of security, court should consider sophistication and expertise of investor in financial and securities matters, existence of long-standing business or personal relationships between parties, access of investor to relevant information, existence of fiduciary relationship, defendant's concealment of fraud, investor's opportunity to detect any fraud, whether investor initiated stock transaction or sought to expedite same, and general or specific nature of misrepresentations. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Section 75-71-717(a)(2) creates independent cause of action and need not be construed in conjunction with § 75-71-501. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Securities laws are not designed to be insurance plan for cost of securities purchased in reliance upon material misstatements of fact or omissions to state material facts. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]*II. Under former § 75-71-43.*6. In general.

By affirmatively misrepresenting the prior ownership of corporate stock being offered for sale, second corporate officer engaged in an act that operated as a fraud and deceit upon the purchaser of the securities in violation of § 75-71-43(b)(2); furthermore, by utilizing broker's services to conceal his position, first corporate officer took affirmative action to perpetuate second corporate officer's misrepresentation, and by so doing, first corporate officer employed a device, scheme or artifice to defraud in violation of § 75-71-43(b)(1) and engaged in an act that operated as a fraud and deceit upon the purchaser of the securities in violation of § 75-71-43(b)(2). Accordingly, purchaser of the securities, whose sale was made in violation of the antifraud provisions of the Mississippi Securities Act, statutorily was entitled to rescind the transaction under Code 1972, § 75-71-31(2). Johnson v. Yerger, 612 F.2d 953 (5th Cir. 1980).

Defendant, who had issued, offered, sold and delivered certain unregistered securities in interstate commerce, had engaged in acts, practices and a course of business that operated as a fraud and a deceit and had employed deceptive devices, artifices and schemes to defraud plaintiff buyers in violation of this section where, inter alia, defendant promoted or engaged a district attorney as its so-called president to imply that all investments were safe and that the offering was legal, represented that secretary of state had approved the securities, and failed to register the issue with the Securities & Exchange Commission. Felts v. National Account Sys. Ass'n, 469 F. Supp. 54 (N.D. Miss. 1978).

§ 75-71-503. Prohibited practices concerning fraud, deceit, lack of disclosure; requirements as to investment advisory contracts; custody of securities or funds by investment adviser [Repealed effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) It is unlawful for any person who receives, directly or indirectly, any consideration from another person primarily for advising the other person as to the value of securities or their purchase or sale:

(1) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud the other person;

(2) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon the other person; or

(3) To act as principal for his own account, knowingly to sell any security from a client, or act as broker for a person other than such client knowingly to effect any sale or purchase of any security for the account of such client, without disclosing to such client in writing before the execution of such transaction the capacity in which he is acting and obtaining the consent of the client to such transaction. The prohibitions of this subparagraph shall not apply to any transaction with a customer of a broker-dealer if such broker-dealer is not acting as an investment adviser in relation to such transactions.

(b) In the solicitation of advisory clients, it is unlawful for any person to make any untrue statement of a material fact, or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

(c) Except as may be permitted by rule or order of the Secretary of State, it is unlawful for any investment adviser to enter into, extend or renew any investment advisory contract unless it provides in writing:

(1) That the investment adviser shall not be compensated on the basis of a share of capital gains upon or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of the client;

(2) That no assignment of the contract may be made by the investment adviser without the consent of the other party to the contract; and

(3) That the investment adviser, if a partnership, shall notify the other party to the contract of any change in the membership of the partnership within a reasonable time after the change.

(d) Subparagraph (c)(1) does not prohibit an investment advisory contract which provides for compensation based upon the total value of a fund averaged over a definite period, or as of definite dates or taken as a definite date. "Assignment," as used in subparagraph (c)(2), includes any direct or indirect transfer or hypothecation of an investment advisory contract by the assignor or of a controlling block of the assignor's outstanding voting securities by a security holder of the assignor; provided, however, if the investment adviser is a partnership, no assignment of an investment advisory contract is considered to result from the death or withdrawal of a minority of the members of the investment adviser, or from the admission to the investment adviser of one or more members who, after admission, will be only a minority of the members and will have only a minority interest business. The Secretary of State may by rule adopt exemptions from subparagraphs (c)(1), (2) and (3) where such exemptions are consistent with the public interest and within the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter.

(e) It is unlawful for any investment adviser to take or have custody of any securities or funds of any client if

(1) The Secretary of State by rule prohibits custody; or

(2) In the absence of rule, the investment adviser fails to notify the Secretary of State that he has or may have custody.

(f) The Secretary of State may by rule or order adopt exemptions from subparagraph (a)(3) and subparagraphs (c)(1), (c)(2) and (c)(3) where such exemptions are consistent with the public interest and within the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter.

§ 75-71-701. Appointment of secretary of state as agent for service of civil process; manner of service; notice to defendant; affidavit of compliance [Repealed effective January 1, 2010, see note].

Every applicant for registration under this chapter and every issuer which proposes to offer a security in this state through any person acting on an agency basis in the common-law sense shall file with the Secretary of State, in such form as he by rule prescribes, an irrevocable consent appointing the Secretary of State or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against him or his successor, executor or administrator which arises under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. A person who has filed such a consent in connection with a previous registration or notice filing need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the Secretary of State, but it is not effective unless (1) the plaintiff, who may be the Secretary of State in a suit, action or proceeding instituted by him, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the Secretary of State, and (2) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

When any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, and he has not filed a consent to service of process under Section 75-71-701 and personal jurisdiction over him cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct shall be considered equivalent to his appointment of the secretary of state or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against him or his successor, executor or administrator which grows out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, with the same force and validity as if served on him personally. Whenever it appears to the Secretary of State that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, he may, in his discretion, seek any or all of the following remedies:

(1) Issue a cease and desist order, with or without a prior hearing against the person or persons engaged in the prohibited activities, directing them to cease and desist from further illegal activity;

(2)(a) Issue an order in the case of an issuer of registered securities, broker-dealer, investment advisor, agent, investment adviser representative, or other person who violated this chapter, imposing an administrative penalty up to a maximum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for each offense and each violation shall be considered as a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings; to be paid to the Secretary of State and requiring reimbursement to the Secretary of State for all costs and expenses incurred in the investigation of the violation(s) and in the institution of administrative proceedings, if any, as a result thereof;

(b) For the purpose of determining the amount or extent of a sanction, if any, to be imposed under subparagraph (2)(a) of this section, the Secretary of State shall consider, among other factors, the frequency, persistence, and willfulness of the conduct constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule promulgated thereunder or an order of the Secretary of State, the number of persons adversely affected by the conduct, and the resources of the person committing the violation; or

(3) Bring an action in chancery court to enjoin the acts or practices to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. In addition, upon a proper showing by the Secretary of State the court may enter an order of rescission, restitution or disgorgement directed to any person who has engaged in any act constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder or the court may impose a civil penalty up to a maximum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for each offense and each violation shall be considered as a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings. ## § 75-71-717. Liability to buyers for illegal or fraudulent sales or offers [Repealed effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Any person who (1) offers or sells a security in violation of Section 75-71-117(a), 75-71-301 or 75-71-401, or of any rule or order under Section 75-71-113 which requires the affirmative approval of sales literature before it is used, or of any condition imposed under Section 75-71-405(d) or 75-71-417, or (2) offers or sells a security by the use of any written or oral communication which contains any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading (the buyer not knowing of the untruth or omission), and who does not sustain the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the untruth or omission, is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at eight percent (8%) per year from the date of payment, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, less the amount of any income received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it and interest at eight percent (8%) per year from the date of disposition.

(b) No buyer may sue under this section if, before suit is commenced, the buyer has received a written offer stating the respect in which liability under this section may have arisen and fairly advising the buyer of his rights; offering to repurchase the security for cash payable on delivery of the security equal to the consideration paid, together with interest at six percent (6%) from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security or, if the buyer no longer owns the security, offering to pay the buyer upon acceptance of the offer an amount in cash equal to the damages computed in accordance with subsection (a); and stating that the offer may be accepted by the buyer at any time within thirty (30) days of its receipt; and the buyer has failed to accept such offer in writing within the specified period.

II. Under former Section 75-71-25.

7. Evidence.
8. Amount of recovery.

I. In General.

1. Generally.

In a suit filed by members of a limited liability company against current and former officers and directors of a corporation or its successors in interest alleging federal and state securities law violations and fraud relating to a registration statement, the circuit court did not err in denying the directors' and officers' motion to dismiss as the members' complaint adequately pleaded a cause of action under both Miss. Code Ann. § 75-71-717 and fraud by alleging in their complaint that the corporation made multiple written and oral communications which contained material misstatements and omissions of material facts regarding the corporation's business operations, including but not limited to the financial implications of a purchase price adjustment dispute, and that they relied on these communications in deciding to purchase the corporation's stock. The issue of causation and whether the disclosures were sufficient were questions of fact for the jury, and the members adequately pleaded that the officers and directors acted with the intent required to support a cause of action for fraud. Qualcomm Inc. v. Am. Wireless License Group, LLC, 980 So. 2d 261 (Miss. 2007).

Even if an investment decision is induced by fraud which is relied upon by a plaintiff, recovery is not permitted if the proximate cause of the monetary loss is other than the fraud alleged. Russell v. Southern Nat'l Foods, Inc., 754 So. 2d 1246 (Miss. 2000).

An affirmative intent to deceive must be shown or, at the very least, intentional or deceptive conduct must be shown. Russell v. Southern Nat'l Foods, Inc., 754 So. 2d 1246 (Miss. 2000).

In deciding whether investor reasonably relied on misrepresentations made by insurance carrier and its subsidiary in connection with sale of security, court should consider sophistication and expertise of investor in financial and securities matters, existence of long-standing business or personal relationships between parties, access of investor to relevant information, existence of fiduciary relationship, defendant's concealment of fraud, investor's opportunity to detect any fraud, whether investor initiated stock transaction or sought to expedite same, and general or specific nature of misrepresentations. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Securities laws are not designed to be insurance plan for cost of securities purchased in reliance upon material misstatements of fact or omissions to state material facts. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Section 75-71-717(a)(2) creates independent cause of action and need not be construed in conjunction with § 75-71-501. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Section 75-71-725 provides statute of limitations for liability created under § 75-71-717(2). Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Language of §§ 75-71-725 and 75-71-717 clearly demonstrates that claim may be brought solely pursuant to § 75-71-717. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Both Sections 75-71-717(a)(2) and 75-71-501 contain implicit requirement of reasonable reliance, consistent with federal Rule 10b-5 of Securities Act of 1934. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

2. Damages.

Provided there is privity, rescission damages are allowed in a securities fraud case. Allyn v. Wortman, 725 So. 2d 94 (Miss. 1998).

3.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

II. Under former Section 75-71-25.

6. In general.

An officer of a corporation was properly held liable under this section [Code 1972, § 75-71-25] where he participated in the sale of an unauthorized stock by making false and fraudulent misrepresentations to induce others to purchase the stock. First Mobile Home Corp. v. Little, 298 So. 2d 676 (Miss. 1974).

Under the Blue Sky Law the principal is liable if the surety is liable. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Wood, 213 Miss. 499, 57 So. 2d 141 (1952).

Where application and permit which was issued pursuant to the issue of a bond by surety under the Blue Sky Law provided that this covered the sale of preferred stock "and none other" and the bond issued provided that it covered the sale by corporation of "its stock," and the sales of the common stock were induced by showing the bond to respective buyers, this bond covered the sale of any stock of the corporation. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Wood, 213 Miss. 499, 57 So. 2d 141 (1952).

Buyer of stock was not entitled to recover against corporation under Blue Sky Law for fraud in sale thereof, where there was no proof that corporation ever qualified under Blue Sky Law. Mississippi Power Co. v. May, 173 Miss. 580, 161 So. 149 (1935), error overruled, 173 Miss. 592, 161 So. 755 (1935).

Purchaser of investment bonds having right of action for misrepresentation by seller under statute could proceed against principal without joining surety. Irving v. Bankers' Mtg. Co., 169 Miss. 890, 151 So. 740 (1934).

Buyer's suit to rescind against brokers under Blue Sky Law must be brought under section relating to "dealers," not under that relating to "investment companies." White v. Stewart, 166 Miss. 694, 145 So. 747 (1933).

Investment companies cannot contract to limit authority of agents in sale of investment securities and thus defeat purpose of statute permitting rescission of contract for misrepresentations. Bankers' Mtg. Co. v. McMullen, 165 Miss. 382, 141 So. 331 (1932); Irving v. Bankers' Mtg. Co., 169 Miss. 890, 151 So. 740 (1934).

Violation of Blue Sky Law constitutes no defense to negotiable instrument in hands of innocent purchaser for value without notice. Riddle v. Tallahatchie Home Bank, 160 Miss. 141, 133 So. 128 (1930).

7. Evidence.

the evidence showed, inter alia, that he had failed to tell plaintiffs that the investment involved a high degree of risk, that he had promised a guaranteed return of eight percent per annum, and that he had claimed the investment could be cashed in at any time with a small discount; nor did the statute of limitations begin to run at the time they received the prospectus, so as to bar the suit, where the evidence established that the security agent knew or should have known that even if plaintiffs undertook to peruse the prospectus, they would not be able to comprehend its contents due to a lack of education; the trial court properly found that plaintiffs were not entitled to relief against the corporate general partner and the individual general partners where they did not participate in the sale of the security to plaintiffs or induce them to make the purchase; the action would be remanded to the trial court for a determination of reasonable attorneys' fees, as authorized by statute. Seaboard Planning Corp. v. Powell, 364 So. 2d 1091 (Miss. 1978).

Statute respecting misrepresentations in sale of investment securities abrogates parol evidence rule to extent of permitting proof of misrepresentation. Bankers' Mtg. Co. v. McMullen, 165 Miss. 382, 141 So. 331 (1932); Irving v. Bankers' Mtg. Co., 169 Miss. 890, 151 So. 740 (1934).

8. Amount of recovery.

Misrepresentation by corporate officers corporate securities offered for sale were owned by an estate, and thus were available for sale due to the fortuity of a death was a misrepresentation of material fact, since there was a substantial likelihood that a reasonable investor would have considered the true ownership important in deciding on his cause of action with respect to the transaction, and thus, these corporate officers were civilly liable to buyer under Code 1972, § 75-71-25, and such buyer was entitled to recover the full purchase price of the securities and reasonable attorney's fees against these defendants whose liability arose under such statute; however, dealer who "fronted" the transaction, although actively involved in consummating the challenged securities transactions, incurred no § 75-71-25 liability since he personally made no misrepresentation of material fact to buyer. Johnson v. Yerger, 612 F.2d 953 (5th Cir. 1980).

The fact that plaintiffs in a securities fraud action did not post a bond did not preclude them from full recovery under this section. Felts v. National Account Sys. Ass'n, 469 F. Supp. 54 (N.D. Miss. 1978).

In an action for securities fraud, the trial court properly found a registered security agent to be guilty of fraud where the evidence showed, inter alia, that he had failed to tell plaintiffs that the investment involved a high degree of risk, that he had promised guaranteed return of eight percent per annum, and that he had claimed the investment could be cashed in at any time with a small discount; nor did the statute of limitations begin to run at the time they received the prospectus, so as to bar the suit, where the evidence established that the security agent knew or should have known that even if plaintiffs undertook to peruse the prospectus, they would not be able to comprehend its contents due to a lack of education; the trial court properly found that plaintiffs were not entitled to relief against the corporate general partner and the individual general partners where they did not participate in the sale of the security to plaintiffs or induce them to make the purchase; the action would be remanded to the trial court for a determination of reasonable attorneys' fees, as authorized by statute. Seaboard Planning Corp. v. Powell, 364 So. 2d 1091 (Miss. 1978).

Recovery for losses to the purchasers of all stocks sold by misrepresentation includes interest and attorneys' fees, but the recoveries against the surety should not exceed the amount of the bonds. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Wood, 213 Miss. 499, 57 So. 2d 141 (1952).

One who before enactment of 1930 Blue Sky Law was induced to exchange investment bond having cash value for defendant's bond by false representation that buyer could obtain cash surrender value of bond exchanged with interest at any time was entitled to recover such cash surrender value with interest and reasonable attorney's fees. Irving v. Bankers' Mtg. Co., 169 Miss. 890, 151 So. 740 (1934).

One induced to purchase investment securities by misrepresentations of material facts may rescind contract and recover amount paid and attorney's fees. Bankers' Mtg. Co. v. McMullen, 165 Miss. 382, 141 So. 331 (1932).

Every person who directly or indirectly controls a seller liable under Section 75-71-717, every partner, officer or director of such a seller, every person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, every employee of such a seller who materially aids in the sale, and every broker-dealer or agent who materially aids in the sale are also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the seller, unless the nonseller who is so liable sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

1. Controlling persons.

In a suit filed by members of a limited liability company against current and former officers and directors of a corporation or its successors in interest alleging federal and state securities law violations and fraud related to a registration statement, the circuit court did not err in denying the directors' and officers' motion to dismiss as the members' complaint adequately pleaded a cause of action under both Miss. Code Ann. § 75-71-717 and fraud by alleging in their complaint that the corporation made multiple written and oral communications which contained material misstatements and omissions of material facts regarding the corporation's business operations, including but not limited to the financial implications of a purchase price adjustment dispute, and that they relied on these communications in deciding to purchase the corporation's stock. Further, the members adequately alleged in their complaint that the officers and directors were in control of the corporation at the time the misstatements and omissions of material fact were made. Qualcomm Inc. v. Am. Wireless License Group, LLC, 980 So. 2d 261 (Miss. 2007).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Language of §§ 75-71-725 and 75-71-717 clearly demonstrates that claim may be brought solely pursuant to § 75-71-717. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Rather than borrowing from cases involving federal Rule 10b-5 to create limitations period for § 75-71-501, more appropriate limitations period is that set forth in § 75-71-725; similarity between § 75-71-501 and Rule 10b-5 of Securities

Act of 1934 does not mean that court can apply federal judicially-created statute of limitations to state statute. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Having determined that § 75-71-725 is most applicable limitations period, court found on basis of particular facts that genuine issue of material fact remained concerning whether exercise of reasonable diligence on part of plaintiff would have discovered violation, for purposes of determining beginning of running of limitations period. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Section 75-71-725 provides statute of limitations for liability created under § 75-71-717. Geisenberger v. John Hancock Distribs., Inc., 774 F. Supp. 1045 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

(12) A description of any pending litigation, action, or proceeding to which the issuer is a party and that materially affects its business or assets, and any litigation, action, or proceeding known to be contemplated by governmental authorities;

(13) A copy of any prospectus, pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, or other sales literature intended as of the effective date to be used in connection with the offering and any solicitation of interest used in compliance with Section 75-71-202(17)(B);

(14) A specimen or copy of the security being registered, unless the security is uncertificated; a copy of the issuer's articles of incorporation and bylaws or their substantial equivalents, in effect; and a copy of any indenture or other instrument covering the security to be registered;

(15) A signed or conformed copy of an opinion of counsel concerning the legality of the security being registered, with an English translation if it is in a language other than English, which states whether the security when sold will be validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable and, if a debt security, a binding obligation of the issuer;

(16) A signed or conformed copy of a consent of any accountant, engineer, appraiser, or other person whose profession gives authority for a statement made by the person, if the person is named as having prepared or certified a report or valuation, other than an official record, that is public, which is used in connection with the registration statement;

(17) A balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within four (4) months before the filing of the registration statement; a statement of income and a statement of cash flows for each of the three (3) fiscal years preceding the date of the balance sheet and for any period between the close of the immediately previous fiscal year and the date of the balance sheet, or for the period of the issuer's and any predecessor's existence if less than three (3) years; and, if any part of the proceeds of the offering is to be applied to the purchase of a business, the financial statements that would be required if that business were the registrant; and

(18) Any additional information or records required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter.

(c) Conditions for effectiveness of registration statement. A registration statement under this section becomes effective thirty (30) days, or any shorter period provided by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, after the date the registration statement or the last amendment other than a price amendment is filed, if:

(1) A stop order is not in effect and a proceeding is not pending under Section 75-71-306;

(2) The administrator has not issued an order under Section 75-71-306 delaying effectiveness; or

(3) The applicant or registrant has not requested that effectiveness be delayed.

(d) Delay of effectiveness of registration statement. The administrator may delay effectiveness once for not more than ninety (90) days if the administrator determines the registration statement is not complete in all material respects and promptly notifies the applicant or registrant of that determination by telephone, facsimile, or electronic means and promptly confirms this notice by a record. The administrator may also delay effectiveness for a further period of not more than thirty (30) days if the administrator determines that the delay is necessary or appropriate and promptly notifies the applicant or registrant of that determination by telephone, facsimile, or electronic means and promptly confirms this notice by a record.

(e) Prospectus distribution may be required. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require as a condition of registration under this section that a prospectus containing a specified part of the information or record specified in subsection (b) be sent or given to each person to which an offer is made, before or concurrently, with the earliest of:

(1) The first offer made in a record to the person otherwise than by means of a public advertisement, by or for the account of the issuer or another person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer that is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by the person as a participant in the distribution;

(2) The confirmation of a sale made by or for the account of the person;

(3) Payment pursuant to such a sale; or

(4) Delivery of the security pursuant to such a sale.

§ 75-71-305. Securities registration filings [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Who may file. A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, a person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a broker-dealer registered under this chapter.

(b) Filing fee. A person filing a registration statement shall pay a filing fee as set forth in Section 75-71-310. This fee shall be nonrefundable except as provided in Section 75-71-310.

(c) Status of offering. A registration statement filed under Section 75-71-303 or 75-71-304 must specify:

(1) The amount of securities to be offered in this state;

(2) The states in which a registration statement or similar record in connection with the offering has been or is to be filed; and

(3) Any adverse order, judgment, or decree issued in connection with the offering by a state securities regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a court.

(d) Incorporation by reference. A record filed under this chapter or the predecessor act within five (5) years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the record is currently accurate.

(e) Nonissuer distribution. In the case of a nonissuer distribution, information or a record may not be required under subsection (i) or Section 75-71-304, unless it is known to the person filing the registration statement or to the person on whose behalf the distribution is to be made or unless it can be furnished by those persons without unreasonable effort or expense.

(f) Escrow and impoundment. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require as a condition of registration that a security issued within the previous five (5) years or to be issued to a promoter for a consideration substantially less than the public offering price or to a person for a consideration other than cash be deposited in escrow; and that the proceeds from the sale of the registered security in this state be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount from the sale of the security either in this state or elsewhere. The conditions of any escrow or impoundment required under this subsection may be established by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, but the administrator may not reject a depository institution solely because of its location in another state.

(g) Form of subscription. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require as a condition of registration that a security registered under this chapter be sold only on a specified form of subscription or sale contract and that a signed or conformed copy of each contract be filed under this chapter or preserved for a period specified by the rule or order, which may not be longer than five (5) years.

(h) Effective period. Except while a stop order is in effect under Section 75-71-306, a registration statement is effective for one (1) year after its effective date, or for any longer period designated in an order under this chapter during which the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempted transaction by or for the account of the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer that is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken as a participant in the distribution. For the purposes of a nonissuer transaction, all outstanding securities of the same class identified in the registration statement as a security registered under this chapter are considered to be registered while the registration statement is effective. If any securities of the same class are outstanding, a registration statement may not be withdrawn until one (1) year after its effective date. A registration statement may be withdrawn only with the approval of the administrator.

(i) Periodic reports. While a registration statement is effective, a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require the person that filed the registration statement to file reports, not more often than quarterly, to keep the information or other record in the registration statement reasonably current and to disclose the progress of the offering.

(j) Posteffective amendments. A registration statement may be amended after its effective date. The posteffective amendment becomes effective when the administrator so orders. If a posteffective amendment is made to increase the number of securities specified to be offered or sold, the person filing the amendment shall pay a registration fee calculated in the manner specified in Section 75-71-310, with respect to the additional securities proposed to be offered. A posteffective amendment relates back to the date of the offering of the additional securities being registered if, within one (1) year after the date of the sale, the amendment is filed and the additional registration fee is paid.

§ 75-71-306. Denial, suspension, and revocation of securities registration [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Stop orders. The administrator may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, a registration statement if the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

(1) The registration statement as of its effective date or before the effective date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, an amendment under Section 75-71-305(j) as of its effective date, or a report under Section 75-71-305(i), is incomplete in a material respect or contains a statement that, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, was false or misleading with respect to a material fact;

(2) This chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or a condition imposed under this chapter has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering, by the person filing the registration statement; by the issuer, a partner, officer, or director of the issuer or a person having a similar status or performing a similar function; a promoter of the issuer; or a person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer; but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer; or by an underwriter;

(3) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of a permanent or temporary injunction of a court of competent jurisdiction or an administrative stop order or similar order issued under any federal, foreign, or state law other than this chapter applicable to the offering, but the administrator may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this subsection (a) more than one (1) year after the date of the order or injunction on which it is based, and the administrator may not issue an order under this subsection (a) on the basis of an order or injunction issued under the securities act of another state unless the order or injunction was based on conduct that would constitute, as of the date of the order, a ground for a stop order under this section;

(4) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities that are unlawful where performed;

(5) With respect to a security sought to be registered under Section 75-71-303, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by Section 75-71-303(b)(4);

(6) The applicant or registrant has not paid the filing fee, but the administrator shall void the order if the deficiency is corrected; or

(7) The offering:

(A) Will work or tend to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(B) Has been or would be made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions, or other compensation, or promoters' profits or participations, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options; or

(C) Is being made on terms that are unfair, unjust, or inequitable.

(b) Enforcement of subsection (a)(7). To the extent practicable, the administrator by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter shall publish standards that provide notice of conduct that violates subsection (a)(7).

(c) Institution of stop order. The administrator may not institute a stop order proceeding against an effective registration statement on the basis of conduct or a transaction known to the administrator when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within thirty (30) days after the registration statement became effective.

(d) Summary process. The administrator may summarily revoke, deny, postpone, or suspend the effectiveness of a registration statement pending final determination of an administrative proceeding. Upon the issuance of the order, the administrator, in accordance with Section 75-71-611, shall promptly notify each person specified in subsection (e) that the order has been issued, the reasons for the revocation, denial, postponement, or suspension, and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a request in a record from the person the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a hearing is not requested and none is ordered by the administrator, within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing for each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend the order until final determination.

(e) Procedural requirements for stop order. A stop order may not be issued under this section without:

(1) Appropriate notice, in accordance with Section 75-71-611, to the applicant or registrant, the issuer, and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered;

(2) An opportunity for hearing; and

(3) Findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the administrative hearing procedures set forth in the rules.

(f) Modification or vacation of stop order. The administrator may modify or vacate a stop order issued under this section if the administrator finds that the conditions that caused its issuance have changed or that it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(B) A broker-dealer registered as a broker-dealer under this chapter or not required to be registered as a broker-dealer under this chapter;

(C) An institutional investor;

(E) A bona fide preexisting customer whose principal place of residence is not in this state and the person is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or not required to be registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is registered under the securities act of the state in which the customer maintains a principal place of residence;

(F) A bona fide preexisting customer whose principal place of residence is in this state but was not present in this state when the customer relationship was established, if:

(ii) Within forty-five (45) days after the customer's first transaction in this state, the person files an application for registration as a broker-dealer in this state and a further transaction is not effected more than seventy-five (75) days after the date on which the application is filed, or, if earlier, the date on which the administrator notifies the person that the administrator has denied the application for registration or has stayed the pendency of the application for good cause;

(G) Not more than three (3) customers in this state during the previous twelve (12) months, in addition to those customers specified in subparagraphs (A) through (F) and under subparagraph (H), if the broker-dealer is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or not required to be registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is registered under the securities act of the state in which the broker-dealer has its principal place of business; and

A broker-dealer or issuer does not violate this subsection if the broker-dealer or issuer did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the suspension, revocation, or bar. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may set an earlier effective date or may defer the effective date until noon on the forty-fifth day after the filing of any amendment completing the application.

(d) Registration renewal. A registration is effective until midnight on December 31 of the year for which the application for registration is filed. Unless an order is in effect under Section 75-71-412, a registration may be automatically renewed each year by filing such records as are required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, by paying the fee specified in Section 75-71-410, and by paying costs charged by the designee of the administrator for processing the filings.

(a) Succession. A broker-dealer or investment adviser may succeed to the current registration of another broker-dealer or investment adviser or a notice filing of a federal covered investment adviser, and a federal covered investment adviser may succeed to the current registration of an investment adviser or notice filing of another federal covered investment adviser, by filing as a successor an application for registration pursuant to Section 75-71-401 or 75-71-403 or a notice pursuant to Section 75-71-405 for the unexpired portion of the current registration or notice filing.

(b) Organizational change. A broker-dealer or investment adviser that changes its form of organization or state of incorporation or organization may continue its registration by filing an amendment to its registration if the change does not involve a material change in its financial condition or management. The amendment becomes effective when filed or on a date designated by the registrant in its filing. The new organization is a successor to the original registrant for the purposes of this chapter. If there is a material change in financial condition or management, the broker-dealer or investment adviser shall file a new application for registration. A predecessor registered under this chapter shall stop conducting its securities business other than winding down transactions and shall file for withdrawal of broker-dealer or investment adviser registration within forty-five (45) days after filing its amendment to effect succession.

If the registrant learns that the broker-dealer, issuer, investment adviser, or federal covered investment adviser has not filed the notice, the registrant may do so.

(b) Transfer of employment or association. If an agent registered under this chapter terminates employment by or association with a broker-dealer registered under this chapter and begins employment by or association with another broker-dealer registered under this chapter; or if an investment adviser representative registered under this chapter terminates employment by or association with an investment adviser registered under this chapter; or a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 75-71-405 and begins employment by or association with another investment adviser registered under this chapter or a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 75-71-405; then upon the filing by or on behalf of the registrant, within thirty (30) days after the termination, of an application for registration that complies with the requirement of Section 75-71-406(a) and payment of the filing fee required under Section 75-71-410, the registration of the agent or investment adviser representative is:

(1) Immediately effective as of the date of the completed filing, if the agent's Central Registration Depository record or successor record or the investment adviser representative's Investment Adviser Registration Depository record or successor record does not contain a new or amended disciplinary disclosure within the previous twelve (12) months; or

(2) Temporarily effective as of the date of the completed filing, if the agent's Central Registration Depository record or successor record or the investment adviser representative's Investment Adviser Registration Depository record or successor record contains a new or amended disciplinary disclosure within the preceding twelve (12) months.

(c) Withdrawal of temporary registration. The administrator may withdraw a temporary registration if there are or were grounds for discipline as specified in Section 75-71-412 and the administrator does so within thirty (30) days after the filing of the application. If the administrator does not withdraw the temporary registration within the thirty-day period, registration becomes automatically effective on the thirty-first day after filing.

(d) Power to prevent registration. The administrator may prevent the effectiveness of a transfer of an agent or investment adviser representative under subsection (b)(1) or (2) based on the public interest and the protection of investors.

(e) Termination of registration or application for registration. If the administrator determines that a registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to act as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, or is the subject of an adjudication of incapacity or is subject to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian, or cannot reasonably be located, a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require the registration be canceled or terminated or the application denied. If a proceeding is pending, withdrawal becomes effective when and upon such conditions as required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter. The administrator may institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under Section 75-71-412 within one (1) year after the withdrawal became effective automatically and issue a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective if a proceeding is not pending.

(1) A broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this chapter and an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this chapter shall make and maintain the accounts, correspondence, memoranda, papers, books, and other records required by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter;

(2) Broker-dealer records required to be maintained under paragraph (1) may be maintained in any form of data storage acceptable under Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 USC Section 78q(a)) if they are readily accessible to the administrator; and

An audit or inspection may be made at any time and without prior notice. The administrator may copy, and remove for audit or inspection copies of, all records the administrator reasonably considers necessary or appropriate to conduct the audit or inspection. The administrator may assess a reasonable charge for conducting an audit or inspection under this subsection.

(a) Disciplinary conditions-applicants. If the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (d) authorizes the action, an order issued under this chapter may deny an application, or may condition or limit registration of an applicant to be a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, and, if the applicant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, director, or person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control, of the broker-dealer or investment adviser.

(7) Is insolvent, either because the person's liabilities exceed the person's assets or because the person cannot meet the person's obligations as they mature, but the administrator may not enter an order against an applicant or registrant under this subsection (d) without a finding of insolvency as to the applicant or registrant;

(8) Refuses to allow or otherwise impedes the administrator from conducting an audit or inspection under Section 75-71-411(d) or refuses access to a registrant's office to conduct an audit or inspection under Section 75-71-411(d);

(9) Has failed to reasonably supervise an agent, investment adviser representative, or other individual, if the agent, investment adviser representative, or other individual was subject to the person's supervision and committed a violation of this chapter or the predecessor act or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or the predecessor act within the previous ten (10) years;

(10) Has not paid the proper filing fee within thirty (30) days after having been notified by the administrator of a deficiency, but the administrator shall vacate an order under this subsection (d) when the deficiency is corrected;

(11) After notice and opportunity for a hearing, has been found within the previous ten (10) years:

(A) By a court of competent jurisdiction to have willfully violated the laws of a foreign jurisdiction under which the business of securities, commodities, investment, franchises, insurance, banking, or finance is regulated;

(B) To have been the subject of an order of a securities regulator of a foreign jurisdiction denying, revoking, or suspending the right to engage in the business of securities as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser representative, or similar person; or

(C) To have been suspended or expelled from membership by or participation in a securities exchange or securities association operating under the securities laws of a foreign jurisdiction;

(12) Is the subject of a cease and desist order issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission or issued under the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance laws of a state;

(13) Has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance business within the previous ten (10) years; or

(14) Is not qualified on the basis of factors such as training, experience, and knowledge of the securities business. However, in the case of an application by an agent for a broker-dealer that is a member of a self-regulatory organization or by an individual for registration as an investment adviser representative, a denial order may not be based on this subsection if the individual has successfully completed all examinations required by subsection (e). The administrator may require an applicant for registration under Section 75-71-402 or 75-71-404 who has not been registered in a state within the two (2) years preceding the filing of an application in this state to successfully complete an examination.

(e) Examinations. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may require that an examination, including an examination developed or approved by an organization of securities regulators, be successfully completed by a class of individuals or all individuals. An order issued under this chapter may waive, in whole or in part, an examination as to an individual and a rule adopted under this chapter may waive, in whole or in part, an examination as to a class of individuals if the administrator determines that the examination is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(f) Summary process. The administrator may suspend or deny an application summarily; restrict, condition, limit, or suspend a registration; or censure, bar, or impose a civil penalty on a registrant before final determination of an administrative proceeding. Upon the issuance of an order, the administrator shall promptly notify each person subject to the order that the order has been issued, the reasons for the action, and that within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a request in a record from the person the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a hearing is not requested and none is ordered by the administrator within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend the order until final determination.

(g) Procedural requirements. An order issued may not be issued under this section, except under subsection (f), without:

(1) Appropriate notice to the applicant or registrant;

(2) Opportunity for hearing; and

(3) Findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the administrative hearing procedures set forth in the rules.

(h) Control person liability. A person that controls, directly or indirectly, a person not in compliance with this section may be disciplined by order of the administrator under subsections (a) through (c) to the same extent as the noncomplying person, unless the controlling person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct that is a ground for discipline under this section.

(i) Limit on investigation or proceeding. The administrator may not institute a proceeding under subsection (a), (b), or (c) based solely on material facts actually known by the administrator unless an investigation or the proceeding is instituted within one (1) year after the administrator actually acquires knowledge of the material facts.

§ 75-71-509. Civil liability [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act. Enforcement of civil liability under this section is subject to the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998.

(b) Liability of seller to purchaser. A person is liable to the purchaser if the person sells a security in violation of Section 75-71-301 or, by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, the purchaser not knowing the untruth or omission and the seller not sustaining the burden of proof that the seller did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care, could not have known of the untruth or omission. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

(1) The purchaser may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the security, less the amount of any income received on the security, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the purchase, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees determined by the court, upon the tender of the security, or for actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).

(2) The tender referred to in paragraph (1) may be made any time before entry of judgment. Tender requires only notice in a record of ownership of the security and willingness to exchange the security for the amount specified. A purchaser that no longer owns the security may recover actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).

(3) Actual damages in an action arising under this subsection (b) are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the purchase, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees determined by the court.

(c) Liability of purchaser to seller. A person is liable to the seller if the person buys a security by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, the seller not knowing of the untruth or omission, and the purchaser not sustaining the burden of proof that the purchaser did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care, could not have known of the untruth or omission. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

(1) The seller may maintain an action to recover the security, and any income received on the security, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees determined by the court, upon the tender of the purchase price, or for actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).

(2) The tender referred to in paragraph (1) may be made any time before entry of judgment. Tender requires only notice in a record of the present ability to pay the amount tendered and willingness to take delivery of the security for the amount specified. If the purchaser no longer owns the security, the seller may recover actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).

(3) Actual damages in an action arising under this subsection (c) are the difference between the price at which the security was sold and the value the security would have had at the time of the sale in the absence of the purchaser's conduct causing liability, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the sale of the security, costs and reasonable attorney's fees determined by the court.

(d) Liability of unregistered broker-dealer and agent. A person acting as a broker-dealer or agent that sells or buys a security in violation of Section 75-71-401(a), 75-71-402(a), or Section 75-71-506 is liable to the customer. The customer, if a purchaser, may maintain an action for recovery of actual damages as specified in subsection (b)(1) through (3), or, if a seller, for a remedy as specified in subsection (c)(1) through (3).

(e) Liability of unregistered investment adviser and investment adviser representative. A person acting as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative that provides investment advice for compensation in violation of Section 75-71-403(a), Section 75-71-404(a), or Section 75-71-506 is liable to the client. The client may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the advice, interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees determined by the court.

(f) Liability for investment advice. A person that receives directly or indirectly any consideration for providing investment advice to another person and that employs a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud the other person or engages in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit on the other person, is liable to the other person. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

(1) The person defrauded may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the advice and the amount of any actual damages caused by the fraudulent conduct, interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the fraudulent conduct, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees determined by the court, less the amount of any income received as a result of the fraudulent conduct.

(2) This subsection (f) does not apply to a broker-dealer or its agents if the investment advice provided is solely incidental to transacting business as a broker-dealer and no special compensation is received for the investment advice.

(g) Joint and several liability. The following persons are liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as persons liable under subsections (b) through (f):

(1) A person that directly or indirectly controls a person liable under subsections (b) through (f), unless the controlling person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist;

(2) An individual who is a managing partner, executive officer, or director of a person liable under subsections (b) through (f), including an individual having a similar status or performing similar functions, unless the individual sustains the burden of proof that the individual did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist;

(3) An individual who is an employee of or associated with a person liable under subsections (b) through (f) and who materially aids the conduct giving rise to the liability, unless the individual sustains the burden of proof that the individual did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist; and

(4) A person that is a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative that materially aids the conduct giving rise to the liability under subsections (b) through (f), unless the person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which liability is alleged to exist.

(h) Right of contribution. A person liable under this section has a right of contribution as in cases of contract against any other person liable under this section for the same conduct.

(i) Survival of cause of action. A cause of action under this section survives the death of an individual who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(j) Statute of limitations. A person may not obtain relief:

(1) Under subsection (b) for violation of Section 75-71-301, or under subsection (d) or (e), unless the action is instituted within one (1) year after the violation occurred; or

(2) Under subsection (b), other than for violation of Section 75-71-301, or under subsection (c) or (f), unless the action is instituted within the earlier of two (2) years after discovery of the facts constituting the violation or five (5) years after the violation.

(k) No enforcement of violative contract. A person that has made, or has engaged in the performance of, a contract in violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, or that has acquired a purported right under the contract with knowledge of conduct by reason of which its making or performance was in violation of this chapter, may not base an action on the contract.

(l) No contractual waiver. A condition, stipulation, or provision binding a person purchasing or selling a security or receiving investment advice to waive compliance with this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter is void.

(m) Survival of other rights or remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this chapter are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist, but this chapter does not create a cause of action not specified in this section or Section 75-71-411(e).

(1) The purchaser of a security, seller of a security, or recipient of investment advice receives in a record, before the action is instituted:

(A) An offer stating the respect in which liability under Section 75-71-509 may have arisen and fairly advising the purchaser of a security, seller of a security, or recipient of investment advice of that person's rights in connection with the offer, and any financial or other information necessary to correct all material misrepresentations or omissions in the information that was required by this chapter to be furnished to that person at the time of the purchase of the security, sale of the security, or receipt of the investment advice;

(B) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(b), an offer to repurchase the security for cash, payable on delivery of the security, equal to the consideration paid, and interest at six percent (6%) from the date of the purchase, less the amount of any income received on the security, or, if the purchaser no longer owns the security, an offer to pay the purchaser upon acceptance of the offer damages in an amount that would be recoverable upon a tender, less the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, and interest at eight percent (8%) interest from the date of the purchase in cash equal to the damages computed in the manner provided in this subparagraph;

(C) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(c), an offer to tender the security, on payment by the seller of an amount equal to the purchase price paid, less income received on the security by the purchaser and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the sale; or if the purchaser no longer owns the security, an offer to pay the seller upon acceptance of the offer, in cash, damages in the amount of the difference between the price at which the security was purchased and the value the security would have had at the time of the purchase in the absence of the purchaser's conduct that may have caused liability and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the sale;

(E) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(e), an offer to reimburse in cash the consideration paid for the advice and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of payment; or

(F) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 75-71-509(f), an offer to reimburse in cash the consideration paid for the advice, the amount of any actual damages that may have been caused by the conduct, and interest at the legal rate of interest from the date of the violation causing the loss;

(2) The offer under paragraph (1) states that it must be accepted by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice within thirty (30) days after the date of its receipt by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice or any shorter period, of not less than three (3) days, that the administrator, by order, specifies;

(3) The offeror has the present ability to pay the amount offered or to tender the security under paragraph (1);

(5) The purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice that accepts the offer under paragraph (1) in a record within the period specified under paragraph (2) is paid in accordance with the terms of the offer.

§ 75-71-601. Administration [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Administration. The administrator shall administer this chapter.

(b) Unlawful use of records or information. It is unlawful for the administrator or an officer, employee, or designee of the administrator to use for personal benefit or the benefit of others records or other information obtained by or filed with the administrator that are not public under Section 75-71-607(b). This chapter does not authorize the administrator or an officer, employee, or designee of the administrator to disclose the record or information, except in accordance with Section 75-71-602, 75-71-607(c), or 75-71-608.

(c) No privilege or exemption created or diminished. This chapter does not create or diminish a privilege or exemption that exists at common law, by statute or rule, or otherwise.

(d) Investor education. The administrator may develop and implement investor education initiatives to inform the public about investing in securities, with particular emphasis on the prevention and detection of securities fraud. In developing and implementing these initiatives, the administrator may collaborate with public and nonprofit organizations with an interest in investor education. The administrator may accept a grant or donation from a person that is not affiliated with the securities industry or from a nonprofit organization, regardless of whether the organization is affiliated with the securities industry, to develop and implement investor education initiatives. This subsection does not authorize the administrator to require participation or monetary contributions of a registrant in an investor education program.

Editor's Note — Laws of 2009, ch. 528, § 3, provides:

“SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1, 2010.”

Chapter 71 of Title 75 has been set out twice. This chapter is effective from and after January 1, 2010. For the chapter as effective until January 1, 2010, see the preceding chapter, also numbered Chapter 71.

§ 75-71-602. Investigations and subpoenas [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Authority to investigate. The administrator may:

(1) Conduct public or private investigations within or outside of this state which the administrator considers necessary or appropriate to determine whether a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the adoption of rules and forms under this chapter;

(2) Require or permit a person to testify, file a statement, or produce a record, under oath or otherwise as the administrator determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning a matter to be investigated or about which an action or proceeding is to be instituted; and

(3) Publish a record concerning an action, proceeding, or an investigation under, or a violation of, this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter if the administrator determines it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(b) Administrator powers to investigate. For the purpose of an investigation under this chapter, the administrator or its designated officer may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, seek compulsion of attendance, take evidence, require the filing of statements, and require the production of any records that the administrator considers relevant or material to the investigation.

(c) Procedure and remedies for noncompliance. If a person does not appear or refuses to testify, file a statement, produce records, or otherwise does not obey a subpoena as required by the administrator under this chapter, the administrator may apply to the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi, or a court of another state to enforce compliance. The court may:

(1) Hold the person in contempt;

(2) Order the person to appear before the administrator;

(3) Order the person to testify about the matter under investigation or in question;

(4) Order the production of records;

(5) Grant injunctive relief, including restricting or prohibiting the offer or sale of securities or the providing of investment advice; and

(6) Grant any other necessary or appropriate relief.

(d) Application for relief. This section does not preclude a person from applying to the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi, or a court of another state for relief from a request to appear, testify, file a statement, produce records, or obey a subpoena.

(e) Use immunity procedure. An individual is not excused from attending, testifying, filing a statement, producing a record or other evidence, or obeying a subpoena of the administrator under this chapter or in an action or proceeding instituted by the administrator under this chapter on the ground that the required testimony, statement, record, or other evidence, directly or indirectly, may tend to incriminate the individual or subject the individual to a criminal fine, penalty, or forfeiture. If the individual refuses to testify, file a statement, or produce a record or other evidence on the basis of the individual's privilege against self-incrimination, the administrator may apply to the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi, to compel the testimony, the filing of the statement, the production of the record, or the giving of other evidence. The testimony, record, or other evidence compelled under such an order may not be used, directly or indirectly, against the individual in a criminal case, except in a prosecution for perjury or contempt or otherwise failing to comply with the order.

(f) Assistance to securities regulator of another jurisdiction. At the request of the securities regulator of another state or a foreign jurisdiction, the administrator may provide assistance if the requesting regulator states that it is conducting an investigation to determine whether a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate a law or rule of the other state or foreign jurisdiction relating to securities matters that the requesting regulator administers or enforces. The administrator may provide the assistance by using the authority to investigate and the powers conferred by this section as the administrator determines is necessary or appropriate. The assistance may be provided without regard to whether the conduct described in the request would also constitute a violation of this chapter or other law of this state if occurring in this state. In deciding whether to provide the assistance, the administrator may consider whether the requesting regulator is permitted and has agreed to provide assistance reciprocally within its state or foreign jurisdiction to the administrator on securities matters when requested; whether compliance with the request would violate or prejudice the public policy of this state; and the availability of resources and employees of the administrator to carry out the request for assistance.

§ 75-71-603. Civil enforcement [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Civil action instituted by administrator. If the administrator believes that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or that a person has, is, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business that materially aids a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, the administrator may maintain an action in chancery court to enjoin the act, practice, or course of business and to enforce compliance with this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter.

(b) Relief available. In an action under this section and on a proper showing, the court may:

(1) Issue a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or declaratory judgment;

(2) Order other appropriate or ancillary relief, which may include:

(A) An asset freeze, accounting, writ of attachment, writ of general or specific execution, and appointment of a receiver or conservator, that may be the administrator, for the defendant or the defendant's assets;

(B) Ordering the administrator to take charge and control of a defendant's property, including investment accounts and accounts in a depository institution, rents, and profits; to collect debts; and to acquire and dispose of property;

(C) Imposing a civil penalty of the amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation; an order of rescission, restitution, or disgorgement directed to a person that has engaged in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or the predecessor act or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or the predecessor act; and

(D) Ordering the payment of prejudgment and postjudgment interest; or

(3) Order such other relief as the court considers appropriate.

(c) No bond required. The administrator may not be required to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this chapter.

§ 75-71-604. Administrative enforcement [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Issuance of an order or notice. If the administrator determines that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially aid an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, the administrator may:

(1) Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act, practice, or course of business or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with this chapter;

(2) Issue an order denying, suspending, revoking, or conditioning the exemptions for a broker-dealer under Section 75-71-401(b)(1)(D) or (F) or an investment adviser under Section 75-71-403(b)(1)(C); or

(3) Issue an order:

(A) Under Section 75-71-204;

(B) Imposing a civil penalty in the case of an issuer of registered securities, broker-dealer, investment adviser, agent, investment adviser representative, or other person who violated this chapter;

(C) Barring or suspending the person from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser registered in this state; or

(D) Requiring the person to pay restitution for any loss or disgorge any profits arising from the violation, including interest.

(b) Summary process. An order under subsection (a) is effective on the date of issuance. Upon issuance of the order, the administrator shall promptly serve each person subject to the order with a copy of the order and a notice that the order has been entered, in accordance with Section 75-71-611. The order must include a statement of any civil penalty or other administrative remedy to be imposed under subsection (a) or costs of investigation the administrator will seek, a statement of the reasons for the order, and notice that, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a request in a record from the person, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the administrator within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order, including the imposition of a civil penalty or other administrative remedy to be imposed under subsection (a) or requirement for payment of the costs of investigation if a civil penalty or costs were sought in the statement accompanying the order, becomes final as to that person by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

(c) Procedure for final order. If a hearing is requested or ordered pursuant to subsection (b), a hearing must be held pursuant to the administrative hearing procedures set forth in the rules. A final order may not be issued unless the administrator makes findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the administrative hearing procedures set forth in the rules. The final order may make final, vacate, or modify the order issued under subsection (a).

(d) Civil penalty. In a final order under subsection (c), the administrator may impose a civil penalty in an amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation and each violation shall be considered a separate offense in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings.

(e) Costs. In a final order, the administrator may charge the actual cost of an investigation or proceeding for a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter.

(f) Filing of certified final order with court; effect of filing. If a petition for judicial review of a final order is not filed in accordance with Section 75-71-609, or the petition is denied by the court, the administrator may file a certified copy of the final order with the clerk of a court in the jurisdiction where enforcement will be sought. The order so filed has the same effect as a judgment of the court and may be recorded, enforced, or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of the court.

(g) Enforcement by court; further civil penalty. If a person does not comply with an order under this section, the administrator may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order and collect administrative civil penalties and costs imposed under the final order. The court may not require the administrator to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this section. If the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount set forth in Section 75-71-613 for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstances.

§ 75-71-605. Rules, forms, orders, interpretative opinions, and hearings [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Issuance and adoption of forms, orders, and rules. The administrator may:

(1) Issue forms and orders and, after notice and comment, may adopt and amend rules necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter and may repeal rules, including rules and forms governing registration statements, applications, notice filings, reports, and other records;

(2) By rule, define terms, whether or not used in this chapter, but those definitions may not be inconsistent with this chapter; and

(3) By rule, classify securities, persons, and transactions and adopt different requirements for different classes. Offers to other persons as described in Section 75-71-202(13)(C) exempted by rule adopted under this chapter or order issued under this chapter may be conditioned by rule or order and any rule adopted as provided in Section 75-71-203 to provide an additional exemption from registration may include conditions on such exemption.

(b) Findings and cooperation. Under this chapter, a rule or form may not be adopted or amended, or an order issued or amended, unless the administrator finds that the rule, form, order, or amendment is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and is consistent with the purposes intended by this chapter. In adopting, amending, and repealing rules and forms, Section 75-71-608 applies in order to achieve uniformity among the states and coordination with federal laws in the form and content of registration statements, applications, reports, and other records, including the adoption of uniform rules, forms, and procedures.

(c) Financial statements. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the administrator may require that a financial statement filed under this chapter be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States and comply with other requirements specified by rule adopted or order issued under this chapter. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may establish:

(1) Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the form and content of financial statements required under this chapter;

(2) Whether unconsolidated financial statements must be filed; and

(3) Whether required financial statements must be audited by an independent certified public accountant.

(d) Interpretative opinions. The administrator may provide interpretative opinions or issue determinations that the administrator will not institute a proceeding or an action under this chapter against a specified person for engaging in a specified act, practice, or course of business if the determination is consistent with this chapter. A rule adopted or order issued under this chapter may establish a reasonable charge for interpretative opinions or determinations that the administrator will not institute an action or a proceeding under this chapter.

(e) Effect of compliance. A penalty under this chapter may not be imposed for, and liability does not arise from conduct that is engaged in or omitted in good faith believing it conforms to a rule, form, or order of the administrator under this chapter.

(f) Presumption for public hearings. A hearing in an administrative proceeding under this chapter must be conducted in public unless the administrator for good cause consistent with this chapter determines that the hearing will not be so conducted.

§ 75-71-606. Administrative files and opinions [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Public register of filings. The administrator shall maintain, or designate a person to maintain, a register of applications for registration of securities; registration statements; notice filings; applications for registration of broker-dealers, agents, investment advisers, and investment adviser representatives; notice filings by federal covered investment advisers that are or have been effective under this chapter or the predecessor act; notices of claims of exemption from registration or notice filing requirements contained in a record; orders issued under this chapter or the predecessor act; and interpretative opinions or no action determinations issued under this chapter.

(b) Public availability. The administrator shall make all rules, forms, interpretative opinions, and orders available to the public.

(c) Copies of public records. The administrator shall furnish a copy of a record that is a public record or a certification that the public record does not exist to a person that so requests. A rule adopted under this chapter may establish a reasonable charge for furnishing the record or certification. A copy of the record certified or a certificate by the administrator of a record's nonexistence is prima facie evidence of a record or its nonexistence.

(b) Nonpublic records. The following records are not public records and are not available for public examination under subsection (a):

(3) A record that is not required to be provided to the administrator or filed under this chapter and is provided to the administrator only on the condition that the record will not be subject to public examination or disclosure;

(4) A nonpublic record received from a person specified in Section 75-71-608(a);

(5) Any social security number, residential address unless used as a business address, and residential telephone number unless used as a business telephone number, contained in a record that is filed; and

(6) A record obtained by the administrator through a designee of the administrator that a rule or order under this chapter determines has been:

(A) Expunged from the administrator's records by the designee; or

(B) Determined to be nonpublic or nondisclosable by that designee if the administrator finds the determination to be in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(c) Administrator discretion to disclose. If disclosure is for the purpose of a civil, administrative, or criminal investigation, action, or proceeding or to a person specified in Section 75-71-608(a), the administrator may disclose a record obtained in connection with an audit or inspection under Section 75-71-411(d) or a record obtained in connection with an investigation under Section 75-71-602.

§ 75-71-608. Uniformity and cooperation with other agencies [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Objective of uniformity. The administrator may, in its discretion, cooperate, coordinate, consult, and, subject to Section 75-71-607, share records and information with the securities regulator of another state, Canada, a Canadian province or territory, a foreign jurisdiction, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the United States Department of Justice, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, a self-regulatory organization, a national or international organization of securities regulators, a federal or state banking or insurance regulator, and a governmental law enforcement or regulatory agency to effectuate greater uniformity in securities matters among the federal government, self-regulatory organizations, states, and foreign governments.

(b) Policies to consider. In cooperating, coordinating, consulting, and sharing records and information under this section and in acting by rule, order, or waiver under this chapter, the administrator shall, in its discretion, take into consideration in carrying out the public interest the following general policies:

(1) Maximizing effectiveness of regulation for the protection of investors;

(2) Maximizing uniformity in federal and state regulatory standards; and

(3) Minimizing burdens on the business of capital formation, without adversely affecting essentials of investor protection.

(c) Subjects for cooperation. The cooperation, coordination, consultation, and sharing of records and information authorized by this section includes:

§ 75-71-609. Judicial review [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Petition for judicial review of order; venue; scope of review. Any person aggrieved by a final order of the administrator may obtain a review of the order in the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County, Mississippi, by filing in court, within sixty (60) days after the entry of the order, a written petition praying that the order be modified or set aside in whole or in part. A copy of the petition shall be forthwith served upon the administrator and thereupon the administrator shall certify and file in court a copy of the filing and evidence upon which the order was entered. When these have been filed, the court has exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, enforce or set aside the order, in whole or in part. The findings of the administrator as to the facts, if supported by competent material and substantial evidence, are conclusive.

(b) Adduction of additional evidence. If either party applies to the court for leave to adduce additional material evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the administrator, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken before the administrator and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such conditions as the court considers proper. The administrator may modify his findings and order by reason of the additional evidence and shall file in court the additional evidence together with any modified or new findings or order.

(a) Sales and offers to sell. Sections 75-71-301, 75-71-302, 75-71-401(a), 75-71-402(a), 75-71-403(a), 75-71-404(a), 75-71-501, 75-71-506, 75-71-509, and 75-71-510 do not apply to a person that sells or offers to sell a security unless the offer to sell or the sale is made in this state or the offer to purchase or the purchase is made and accepted in this state.

(b) Purchases and offers to purchase. Sections 75-71-401(a), 75-71-402(a), 75-71-403(a), 75-71-404(a), 75-71-501, 75-71-506, 75-71-509, and 75-71-510 do not apply to a person that purchases or offers to purchase a security unless the offer to purchase or the purchase is made in this state or the offer to sell or the sale is made and accepted in this state.

(c) Offers in this state. For the purpose of this section, an offer to sell or to purchase a security is made in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, if the offer:

- (1) Originates from within this state; or
- (2) Is directed by the offeror to a place in this state and received at the place to which it is directed.

(d) Acceptances in this state. For the purpose of this section, an offer to purchase or to sell is accepted in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, if the acceptance:

- (1) Is communicated to the offeror in this state and the offeree reasonably believes the offeror to be present in this state and the acceptance is received at the place in this state to which it is directed; and
- (2) Has not previously been communicated to the offeror, orally or in a record, outside this state.

(e) Publications, radio, television, or electronic communications. An offer to sell or to purchase is not made in this state when a publisher circulates or there is circulated on the publisher's behalf in this state a bona fide newspaper or other publication of general, regular, and paid circulation that is not published in this state, or that is published in this state but has had more than two-thirds (2/3) of its circulation outside this state during the previous twelve (12) months or when a radio or television program or other electronic communication originating outside this state is received in this state. A radio or television program, or other electronic communication is considered as having originated in this state if either the broadcast studio or the originating source of transmission is located in this state, unless:

- (1) The program or communication is syndicated and distributed from outside this state for redistribution to the general public in this state;
- (2) The program or communication is supplied by a radio, television, or other electronic network with the electronic signal originating from outside this state for redistribution to the general public in this state;
- (3) The program or communication is an electronic communication that originates outside this state and is captured for redistribution to the general public in this state by a community antenna or cable, radio, cable television, or other electronic system; or

(4) The program or communication consists of an electronic communication that originates in this state, but which is not intended for distribution to the general public in this state.

§ 75-71-611. Service of process [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

(a) Signed consent to service of process. A consent to service of process complying with this section required by this chapter must be signed and filed in the form required by a rule or order under this chapter. A consent appointing the administrator the person's agent for service of process in a noncriminal action or proceeding against the person, or the person's successor or personal representative under this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter after the consent is filed, has the same force and validity as if the service were made personally on the person filing the consent. A person that has filed a consent complying with this subsection in connection with a previous application for registration or notice filing need not file an additional consent.

(b) Conduct constituting appointment of agent for service. If a person, including a nonresident of this state, engages in an act, practice, or course of business prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter and the person has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection (a), the act, practice, or course of business constitutes the appointment of the administrator as the person's agent for service of process in a noncriminal action or proceeding against the person or the person's successor or personal representative.

(c) Procedure for service of process. Service under subsection (a) or (b) may be made by providing a copy of the process to the office of the administrator, but it is not effective unless:

(1) The plaintiff, which may be the administrator, promptly sends notice of the service and a copy of the process, return receipt requested, to the defendant or respondent at the address set forth in the consent to service of process or, if a consent to service of process has not been filed, at the last known address, or takes other reasonable steps to give notice; and

(2) The plaintiff files an affidavit of compliance with this subsection (c) in the action or proceeding on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within the time that the court, or the administrator in a proceeding before the administrator, allows.

(d) Service in administrative proceedings or civil actions by administrator. Service pursuant to subsection (c) may be used in a proceeding before the administrator or by the administrator in a civil action in which the administrator is the moving party.

(e) Opportunity to defend. If process is served under subsection (c), the court, or the administrator in a proceeding before the administrator, shall order continuances as are necessary or appropriate to afford the defendant or respondent reasonable opportunity to defend.

§ 75-71-612. Severability clause [Effective January 1, 2010, see note].

§ 75-72-109. Fraudulent, deceptive and manipulative acts prohibited.

No person shall engage in any fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices in connection with a tender offer. Fraudulent, deceptive and manipulative acts or practices include, without limitation:

(a) Solicitation of any offeree for acceptance or rejection of a tender offer, or acquisition of any equity security of a subject company pursuant to a tender offer, that is not effective or exempt under Sections 75-72-101 through 75-72-121.

(b) Publication or use in connection with the tender offer of any untrue statement of a material fact or omitting to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, but not including the mailing by a subject company to the record or beneficial owners of its equity securities or solicitation materials published and furnished to the subject company for transmittal to its security holders by the bidder.

(c) The direct or indirect purchase, or the making of any arrangement to purchase, any security that is the subject of a tender offer (or any other security which is immediately convertible into or exchangeable for such security), otherwise than pursuant to such tender offer, from the date such tender offer is first published or sent or given to security holders until the expiration of the period, including any extensions thereof, during which securities tendered pursuant to such tender offer may, by the terms of such offer, be accepted or rejected; provided, however, that if such person is the owner of another security which is immediately convertible into or exchangeable for the security which is the subject of the offer, his subsequent exercise of his right of conversion or exchange with respect to such other security shall not be prohibited and this section shall not prohibit the purchase of any security pursuant to a stock option plan approved by security holders.

(d) Hold such tender offer open for less than twenty (20) business days from the date such tender offer is first published or sent or given to security holders; provided, however, that a tender offer by the issuer of the class of equity securities being sought, or by an affiliate of such issuer, which is not made in anticipation of or in response to another person's tender offer for securities of the same class, shall be held open for not less than fifteen (15) business days from the date such tender offer is first published or sent or given to security holders.

(e) Failure to offer the same or substantially equivalent consideration to all offerees pursuant to a tender offer.

(f) Failure to make the offer available to all holders of the class of equity securities subject to the tender offer, except that a bidder shall not be prohibited from making a tender offer which is not extended to security holders residing in jurisdictions having laws which render such tender offer unlawful or which the bidder in good faith determines may render such tender offer unlawful.

§ 75-72-111. Withdrawals or variations of offers.

(1) A bidder shall provide that any equity securities of a subject company deposited or tendered pursuant to a tender offer may be withdrawn by or on behalf of any person who has deposited securities pursuant to the tender offer:

(a) at any time until the expiration of fifteen (15) business days from the date of such tender offer was first published or sent or given to security holders; and (b) on the date and until the expiration of ten (10) business days following the date of another bidder's tender offer is first published or sent or given to security holders for securities of the same class, provided that the bidder has received notice or otherwise has knowledge of the commencement of such other tender offer and, provided further, that withdrawal may only be effected with respect to securities which have not been accepted for payment in the manner set forth in the bidder's tender offer prior to the date such other tender offer is first published or sent or given to security holders; and (c) at any time after sixty (60) days from the date the original tender offer was first published or sent or given to security holders. The time periods for withdrawal rights pursuant to this section shall be computed on a concurrent, as opposed to a consecutive, basis.

(2) If a bidder makes a tender offer for less than all the outstanding equity securities of any class, and if the number of securities deposited or tendered pursuant thereto, within ten (10) days after the offer is first published or sent or given to security holders, or at the written election of the bidder any period which exceeds such ten (10) days and/or any period which exceeds ten (10) days from the date that notice of an increase in the consideration offered is first published or sent or given to offerees, is greater than the number the offeror has offered to accept and pay for, the securities shall be accepted pro rata, disregarding fractions, according to the number of securities deposited or tendered by each offeree.

(3) If a bidder varies the terms of a tender's offer before its expiration date by increasing the consideration offered to the offerees, the bidder shall pay the increased consideration for all equity securities accepted whether the securities have been accepted by the bidder before or after the variation in the terms of the offer.

(4) No bidder shall make a tender offer at any time when an injunctive proceeding that has not been finally determined has been brought by the secretary of state against the bidder for violation of Sections 75-72-101 through 75-72-121 unless the bidder shall disclose the pendency of that proceeding in the bidder's disclosure statement filed under Section 75-72-101 through 75-72-121 and in the tender offer materials first published or sent or given to offerees.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where the affidavit and proof showed that the alleged offense of obtaining food and lodging with intent to defraud was committed in 1914 and the prosecution was not commenced until 1918, the accused being within the jurisdiction of the court, not hiding, nor absconding, nor fleeing from justice, the prosecution was barred by limitation. Steele v. State, 121 Miss. 540, 83 So. 725 (1920).

The liability of the innkeeper of any inn, whether individual, partnership or corporation, for the loss of or injury to personal property placed by his guests under his care other than that described in Section 75-73-5 shall be that of a depository for hire. Provided, however, that in no case shall such liability exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each trunk and contents; twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each valise and contents, and five dollars ($5.00) for each box, bundle or package and contents so placed under his care, unless he shall have consented in writing with such guest to assume a greater liability; except that nothing herein shall prevent any guest of any hotel or inn from recovering at common law the actual value of the contents of any trunk, valise, box or package which, after being given into the care or custody of the hotel or innkeeper or placed in the rooms of a hotel or inn, shall be lost by or through theft, or the negligence, carelessness or omission of any hotel or innkeeper or his servant or employee, and not by or through the carelessness, negligence or omission of such guest.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Bell-hop, who reported for work drunk, was told to stay in dressing room until he sobered up, had his uniform removed by hotel manager, put on his civilian clothes and negligently started fire after lighting cigarette, was not servant of hotel, but mere licensee when he started fire, and his negligence was not negligence of hotel. Kerr v. Hudson Hotel Co., 204 Miss. 396, 37 So. 2d 630 (1948).

Prima facie presumption of negligence on part of hotel-keeper is created when guest shows delivery of his baggage and personal property into hotel room in good order and their subsequent loss; but on proof by hotel-keeper that loss was caused by fire, burden again shifts to guest to prove defendant hotel-keeper's negligence. Kerr v. Hudson Hotel Co., 204 Miss. 396, 37 So. 2d 630 (1948).

By virtue of this statute, liability of hotel for loss of goods of guest must be founded, if at all, upon failure to exercise that ordinary care required of bailee for hire. Kerr v. Hudson Hotel Co., 204 Miss. 396, 37 So. 2d 630 (1948).

By virtue of the provisions of this section, the liability of a hotel to the guest of certain companies, tendering an annual banquet and dance to their employees at the hotel, for damages to his car which an attendant allowed a stranger to take from the hotel's free parking lot, must be founded, if at all, upon a failure to exercise that ordinary care required of a bailee for hire as to the safety of the car in question, unless the hotel was merely a gratuitous bailee and liable only for gross negligence. Edwards Hotel Co. v. Terry, 185 Miss. 824, 187 So. 518 (1939).

Hotel was liable under common law for suitcase lost by negligence of porter. Edwards House v. Davis, 124 Miss. 485, 86 So. 849 (1921).

§ 75-73-9. Obtaining board and lodging with intent to defraud.

(1) Any person who shall, for himself or as the agent or representative of another or as an officer of a corporation, obtain food, lodging, money, property or other accommodations of a value less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) at any hotel, motel, motor hotel, motor lodge, inn, boarding or eating house with intent to defraud the owner or keeper thereof, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding one (1) year, or both; but any person who shall, for himself or as the agent or representative of another or as an officer of a corporation, obtain food, lodging, money, property or other accommodations of a value of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) or over at any hotel, motel, motor hotel, motor lodge, inn, boarding or eating house with intent to defraud the owner or keeper thereof shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or imprisoned in the State Penitentiary for a term of one (1) year, or both. In case of a second and subsequent conviction of the offense described, regardless of the value of the food, lodging, money, property or other accommodations obtained, the punishment shall be by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for a term of not exceeding two (2) years.

(2) No person shall remain in a hotel or motel where his term or stay has expired if the person has been given a separate written notice of his agreed departure date and checkout time at the time he registered in the hotel or motel, the person has signed such notice acknowledging his departure time, and the person has been given written notice at least three (3) hours prior to the time required to leave the hotel or motel room. Willful violations of this subsection shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and each violation shall be a separate offense. This subsection shall not apply in case of serious medical emergency requiring the room's continued use.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where the affidavit did not charge and the evidence did not tend to establish that defendant obtained food and lodging from a hotel with the intent to defraud it, conviction thereon was erroneous. Easterling v. State, 194 So. 289 (Miss. 1940).

The intent to defraud is a material part of the crime involved under this statute, and the omission thereof is fatal to the indictment or affidavit. Easterling v. State, 194 So. 289 (Miss. 1940).

This and the following section are to be construed together in determining whether there is fraudulent intent of a guest. Robinson v. State, 135 Miss. 774, 100 So. 377 (1924).

§ 75-73-11. Proof of fraudulent intent; what constitutes prima facie evidence.

Proof that lodging, food, money, property, or other accommodations were obtained by false pretense or by false or fictitious show or pretense of any baggage or other property, that the person refused or neglected to pay for such food, lodging or other accommodations, or that he absconded without paying or offering to pay for such food, lodging or other accommodations, or that he surreptitiously removed or attempted to move his baggage, or that he made, drew, issued, and delivered to the owner or keeper of any hotel, motel, motor hotel, motor lodge, inn, boarding or eating house, any check, draft or order on any bank or other depository in payment of food, lodging, money, property, or other accommodations, and has no funds or has insufficient funds on deposit to his credit in such bank or depository with which such check, draft, or order may be paid in full, and all other checks, drafts, or orders upon such funds then outstanding, shall be deemed prima facie proof of the fraudulent intent mentioned in Section 75-73-9. Provided, however, that this section shall not apply in cases where there has been an agreement for extension of credit made at the time or before the lodging, food, money, property, or other accommodations have been furnished.

Editor’s Note — The Mississippi Gaming Control Act was enacted by Laws of 1990 Ex Sess, ch. 45, and codified predominately as a new chapter 76, in title 75. For a complete list of sections affected by Laws of 1990 Ex Sess, ch. 45, see the Statutory Tables volume.

Laws of 2005, 5th Ex Sess, ch. 16, § 8, provides:

“SECTION 8. Every entity possessing a gaming license, as defined in Section 75-76-5, that reconstructs, constructs, repairs or renovates properties affected by Hurricane Katrina is urged and encouraged to set aside at least twenty percent (20%) of such reconstruction, construction, repair or renovation contracts for expenditure with small business concerns owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, and is urged and encouraged to set aside at least thirty percent (30%) of such contracts for expenditure with other Mississippi domiciled businesses. The term “socially and economically disadvantaged individuals” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term under Section 8(d) of the Small Business Act (15 USCS, Section 637(d)) and relevant subcontracting regulations promulgated pursuant thereto; except that women shall be presumed to be socially and economically disadvantaged individuals for the purposes of this section.”

1. Public Trust Tidelands lease.

Despite the approval of the Mississippi Gaming Commission of a site for gaming, the Secretary of State’s decision to deny the Public Trust Tidelands lease was made within the discretion granted to him; the Secretary of State had the final decision-making authority concerning the proposed Public Trust Tidelands lease, and the Secretary of State had the responsibility of preserving the Public Trust Tidelands for the people of the State of Mississippi. Columbia Land Dev., LLC v. Sec’y of State, 868 So. 2d 1006 (Miss. 2004).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Any arrest made by a Mississippi Gaming Commission agent for assault, larceny, etc., is as a private citizen as it was the intent of the legislature to only give gaming enforcement agents the authority to enforce violations of the Gaming Control Act and the Charitable Bingo Law. Patton, Jan. 14, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0708.

§ 75-76-3. Construction of Gaming Control Act; legislative findings and declarations.

(1) The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to legalize any form of gaming which is prohibited under the Mississippi Constitution or the laws of this state. All legal gaming which is conducted in this state and which is otherwise authorized by law shall be regulated and licensed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, unless the Legislature specifically provides otherwise. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as encouraging the legalization of gambling in this state.

(2) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that lotteries and gaming both consist of the material element of chance. The Legislature is prohibited from legislating upon lotteries and permitted by virtue of its inherent powers to legislate upon gaming as the occasion arises. The Legislature derives its power to legislate upon gaming or gambling devices from its inherent authority over the morals and policy of the people and such power shall not be considered to conflict with the constitutional prohibition of lotteries.

(3) The Legislature hereby finds, and declares it to be the public policy of this state, that:

(a) Regulation of licensed gaming is important in order that licensed gaming is conducted honestly and competitively, that the rights of the creditors of licensees are protected and that gaming is free from criminal and corruptive elements.

(b) Public confidence and trust can only be maintained by strict regulation of all persons, locations, practices, associations and activities related to the operation of licensed gaming establishments and the manufacture or distribution of gambling devices and equipment.

(c) All establishments where gaming is conducted and where gambling devices are operated, and manufacturers, sellers and distributors of certain gambling devices and equipment must therefore be licensed, controlled and assisted to protect the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the inhabitants of the state.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that gaming licensees, to the extent practicable, employ residents of Mississippi as gaming employees and other employees in the operation of their gaming establishments located in this state.

(5) No applicant for a license or other affirmative commission approval has any right to a license or the granting of the approval sought. Any license issued or other commission approval granted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter is a revocable privilege, and no holder acquires any vested right therein or thereunder.

(6) The Legislature recognizes that Section 98 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 prohibits the conducting of any lottery in this state and that, while not defining the term "lottery," Section 98 clearly contemplates, as indicated by specific language contained therein, that a lottery involves the sale of tickets and a drawing in order to determine the winner. The Legislature also recognizes that Section 98 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 directs the Legislature to provide by law for the enforcement of its provisions. Therefore, in carrying out its duties under the Constitution and effectuating the intent of Section 98, the Legislature hereby finds that a lottery, as prohibited by the Constitution, does not include all forms of gambling but means any activity in which:

(a) The player or players pay or agree to pay something of value for chances, represented and differentiated by tickets, slips of paper or other physical and tangible documentation upon which appear numbers, symbols, characters or other distinctive marks used to identify and designate the winner or winners; and

(b) The winning chance or chances are to be determined by a drawing or similar selection method based predominately upon the element of chance or random selection rather than upon the skill or judgment of the player or players; and

(c) The holder or holders of the winning chance or chances are to receive a prize or something of valuable consideration; and

(d) The activity is conducted and participated in without regard to geographical location, with the player or players not being required to be present upon any particular premises or at any particular location in order to participate or to win.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Affidavit of employee of long distance carrier, stating that maximum usual retail value of long distance phone time was $.45 per minute, was irrelevant to determining whether $2 cards that entitled buyers to three minutes of long distance time through a competing carrier, plus a chance to win money prizes, constituted a lottery on basis that buyers allegedly paid consideration for chance to win prizes; affidavit had no bearing on per-minute price charged by carrier that supplied long distance time to company selling the cards. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Treasured Arts, Inc., 699 So. 2d 936 (Miss. 1997).

Cards that were sold for $2, entitling buyers to three minutes of calling time with a particular long distance carrier, plus the chance to win monetary prizes from a "scratch-and-win" game, did not constitute a "lottery" so as to be prohibited under state law; seller paid long distance carrier $.66 for each minute of calling time which it purchased, thus showing that card buyers were not paying additional consideration for chance to win prizes, and fact that game portion of card could be obtained free through the mail was further evidence that consideration was not paid for chance to win prizes. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Treasured Arts, Inc., 699 So. 2d 936 (Miss. 1997).

Under statute, gaming is revocable privilege, not a right, and therefore, applicant cannot be prejudiced by denial of site request. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Game.
3. Slot machines.
4. Construction with other laws.

1. In general.

School board, which leased land to casino operator, had standing to appeal decision by Mississippi Gaming Commission to deny preliminary site approval for gaming operations; by virtue of board's participation in site approval hearings and its joining with casino operator in timely appeal, board met statutory definition of party, and $180 million that school board stood to earn from casino operator's lease on property gave it a “colorable interest” in proceedings. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Board of Educ., 691 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 695 So. 2d 601 (Miss. 1997).

Despite statute generally allowing appeal of final decisions of Mississippi Gaming Commission (MGC), property owner did not have statutory right to appeal site request denial of MGC that was within its statutory authority; site approval was prerequisite to license, and therefore, owner was in same position of applicant for license, who specifically was precluded from appealing MGC's denial, limiting, conditioning or restricting of a license. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

2. Game.

Gaming Commission did not have jurisdiction over a dispute involving a casino's promotional drawing because the drawing was not a “game” as defined by the Gaming Control Act, for: (1) although the number of entries for the drawing was based upon the amount of play at the casino, the drawing tickets themselves cost nothing and were given to players simply upon showing valid ID; and (2) the drawing was not played with cards, dice, or any gambling device. Ameristar Casino Vicksburg, Inc. v. Duckworth, 990 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 2008).

3. Slot machines.

A machine was a slot machine where (1) it dispensed a two-minute emergency long distance calling card, good only for one call no matter the time actually used, (2) with each card, the purchaser also received a game piece, which had a bar code on the back that was read by the machine as the card was being dispensed, (3) the display on the machine then simulated a slot machine by spinning nine squares, (4) after a few moments, the display showed the same combination of squares as on the game piece, (5) again simulating a slot machine, the machine lit up and played music if the patron was a winner, and (6) a cashier at the store verified the winning card and then paid the prize money, which could be in the amount of one dollar up to $500. State Gaming Comm'n v. Six Elec. Video Gambling Devices, 792 So. 2d 321 (Miss. Ct. App. 2001).

Where the elements of consideration and chance are present, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-76-5(ff) requires only that machines possess the “potential for reward” to be considered a slot machine subject to seizure and destruction under Miss. Code Ann. § 97-33-7(1). Mississippi Gaming Comm'n. v. Henson, 800 So. 2d 110 (Miss. 2001).

A machine operated at a truck stop was a slot machine where the machine operated as follows: (1) for one dollar, the machine dispensed a two-minute emergency long distance calling card, good only for one call no matter the time actually used, (2) with each card, the purchaser also received a game piece which had a bar code on the back that was read by the machine as it was dispensed, (3) the display on the machine then simulated a slot machine by spinning nine squares, (4) after a few moments, the display showed the same combination of squares as on the game piece, (5) again simulating a slot machine, the machine lit up and played music if the patron was a winner, and (6) a cashier at the store verified the winning card and then paid the prize money, which could be in the amount of one dollar up to five hundred dollars. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Six Elec. Video Gambling Devices & Gene Gullick, — So. 2d —, 2001 Miss. App. LEXIS 13 (Miss. Ct. App. Jan. 9, 2001).

4. Construction with other laws.

The definition of a "slot machine" contained in § 75-76-5(ff) is applicable to § 97-33-7, which prohibits the possession or use of slot machines. State Gaming Comm'n v. Six Elec. Video Gambling Devices, 792 So. 2d 321 (Miss. Ct. App. 2001).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Mississippi Gaming Commission was authorized to make decisions concerning site suitability and did not exceed its statutory authority where substantial evidence supported the commission's finding that a certain site was unsuitable for gaming. Miss. Gaming Comm'n v. Pennebaker, 824 So. 2d 552 (Miss. 2002).

Despite statute generally allowing appeal of final decisions of Mississippi Gaming Commission (MGC), property owner did not have statutory right to appeal site request denial of MGC that was within its statutory authority; site approval was prerequisite to license, and therefore, owner was in same position of applicant for license, who specifically was precluded from appealing MGC's denial, limiting, conditioning or restricting of a license. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

Supreme Court has judicial review of any action by the Mississippi Gaming Commission that exceeds its statutory authority. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

§ 75-76-39. Hearing on exclusion or ejection.

(1) Within thirty (30) days after service by mail or in person or sixty (60) days after the last publication, the person named may demand a hearing before the commission and show cause why he should have his name taken from such a list. Failure to demand a hearing within the time allotted in this section precludes the person from having an administrative hearing but in no way affects his right to petition for judicial review as provided in paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section.

(2) Upon receipt of a demand for hearing, the commission shall set a time and place for the hearing. This hearing must not be held later than thirty (30) days after receipt of the demand for the hearing, unless the time of the hearing is changed by agreement of the commission and the person demanding the hearing.

(3) If, upon completion of the hearing, the commission determines that:

(a) The regulation does not or should not apply to the person so listed, the commission shall notify all persons licensed of its determination.

(b) Placing the person on the exclusion or ejection list was proper, the commission shall make and enter in its minutes an order to that effect. This order is subject to review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

The commission may revoke, limit, condition, suspend or fine an individual licensee or licensed gaming establishment in accordance with the laws of this state and the regulations of the commission if that establishment or any individual licensee affiliated therewith knowingly fails to exclude or eject from the premises of the licensed establishment any person placed on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected.

Any person who has been placed on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected from any licensed gaming establishment is guilty of a misdemeanor if he thereafter enters the premises of a licensed gaming establishment without first having obtained a determination by the commission that he should not have been placed on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, it is unlawful for any person to:

(a) Lend, let, lease or otherwise deliver or furnish any equipment of any gambling game, including any slot machine, for any interest, percentage or share of the money or property played, under guise of any agreement whatever, without having first procured a state gaming license.

(b) Lend, let, lease or otherwise deliver or furnish, except by a bona fide sale or capital lease, any slot machine under guise of any agreement whereby any consideration is paid or is payable for the right to possess or use that slot machine, whether the consideration is measured by a percentage of the revenue derived from the machine or by a fixed fee or otherwise, without having first procured a state gaming license.

(c) Furnish services or property, real or personal, on the basis of a contract, lease or license, pursuant to which that person receives payments based on earnings or profits or otherwise from any gambling game without having first procured a state gaming license.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) do not apply to any person:

(a) Whose payments are a fixed sum determined in advance on a bona fide basis for the furnishing of services or property.

(b) Who furnishes services or property under a bona fide rental agreement or security agreement for gaming equipment.

(c) That is a wholly owned subsidiary of:

(i) A corporation or limited partnership holding a state gaming license; or

(ii) A holding company or intermediary company, or publicly traded corporation, that has registered pursuant to this chapter and which has fully complied with the laws applicable to it.

(d) Who is licensed as a distributor and who rents or leases any equipment of any gambling game under a bona fide agreement where the payments are a fixed sum determined in advance and not determined as a percentage of the revenue derived from the equipment or slot machine.

Receipts or rentals or charges for real property, personal property or services do not lose their character as payments of a fixed sum or as bona fide because of provisions in a contract, lease or license for adjustments in charges, rentals or fees on account of changes in taxes or assessments, escalations in the cost-of-living index, expansions or improvement of facilities, or changes in services supplied. Receipts of rentals or charges based on percentage between a corporate licensee or a licensee who is a limited partnership and the entities enumerated in paragraph (c) are permitted under this subsection.

(3) The commission may, upon issuance of its approval or a finding of suitability, exempt a holding company from the licensing requirements of subsection (1).

(4) The executive director may require any person exempted by the provisions of subsection (2) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) to provide such information as he may require to perform his investigative duties.

(5) The executive director may require a finding of suitability, and the commission may require the licensing, of any person who:

(a) Owns any interest in the premises of a licensed establishment or owns any interest in real property used by a licensed establishment whether he leases the property directly to the licensee or through an intermediary.

(b) Repairs, rebuilds or modifies any gaming device.

(c) Manufactures or distributes chips or gaming tokens for use in Mississippi.

(6) If the commission finds a person described in subsection (5) unsuitable, a licensee shall not enter into any contract or agreement with that person without the prior approval of the executive director. Any other agreement between the licensee and that person must be terminated upon receipt of notice of the action by the commission. Any agreement between a licensee and a person described in subsection (5) shall be deemed to include a provision for its termination without liability on the part of the licensee upon a finding by the commission that the person is unsuitable. Failure expressly to include that condition in the agreement is not a defense in any action brought pursuant to this section to terminate the agreement.

§ 75-76-61. Persons with power to exercise influence over licensee required to be licensed; termination of agreements upon failure to obtain license.

(1) Except for persons associated with licensed corporations or limited partnerships and required to be licensed, each employee, agent, guardian, personal representative, lender or holder of indebtedness of a gaming licensee who, in the opinion of the commission, has the power to exercise a significant influence over the licensee's operation of a gaming establishment shall be required to apply for a license.

(2) A person required to be licensed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall apply for a license within thirty (30) days after the executive director requests that he do so.

(3) If an employee required to be licensed under subsection (1):

(a) Does not apply for a license within thirty (30) days after being requested to do so by the executive director, and the commission makes a finding of unsuitability for that reason, or

(b) Is denied a license, or

(c) Has a license revoked by the commission, the licensee by whom he is employed shall terminate his employment in any capacity in which he is required to be licensed and shall not permit him to exercise a significant influence over the operation of the gaming establishment upon being notified by registered or certified mail of that action.

(4) A gaming licensee or an affiliate of the licensee shall not pay to a person whose employment has been terminated pursuant to subsection (3) any remuneration for any service performed in any capacity in which he is required to be licensed, except for amounts due for services rendered before the date of receipt of notice of the action by the commission. Any contract or agreement for personal services or for the conduct of any activity at the licensed gaming establishment between a gaming licensee or an affiliate of the licensee and a person terminated pursuant to subsection (3) is subject to termination. Every such agreement shall be deemed to include a provision for its termination without liability on the part of the licensee or registered holding company upon a finding by the commission that the person is unsuitable to be associated with a gaming enterprise. Failure expressly to include that condition in the agreement is not a defense in any action brought pursuant to this section to terminate the agreement.

(5) A gaming licensee or an affiliate of the licensee shall not, without the prior approval of the executive director, enter into any contract or agreement with a person who is found unsuitable or who is denied a license or whose license is revoked by the commission or with any business enterprise under the control of that person after the date of receipt of notice of the action by the commission. Every contract or agreement for personal services to a gaming licensee or an affiliate or for the conduct of any activity at a licensed gaming establishment shall be deemed to include a provision for its termination without liability on the part of the licensee or registered holding company upon a finding by the commission that the person is unsuitable to be associated with a gaming enterprise. Failure expressly to include such a condition in the agreement is not a defense in any action brought pursuant to this section to terminate the agreement.

(6) Without prior approval of the executive director a gaming licensee or an affiliate of the licensee shall not employ any person in a capacity for which he is required to be licensed if he has been found unsuitable, or has been denied a license, or has had his license revoked by the commission, after the date of receipt of notice of the action by the commission.

(7) As used in this section, "affiliate" means a person who, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, a licensee.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990 Ex Sess, ch. 45, § 31, eff from and after passage (approved June 29, 1990).

§ 75-76-63. Other persons subject to findings of suitability and licensing; termination of agreements upon finding of unsuitability or failure to obtain license.

(1) The executive director may require a finding of suitability, and the commission may require the licensing, of any person who furnishes services or property to a gaming licensee under any arrangement pursuant to which the person receives payments based on earnings, profits or receipts from gaming. The executive director may require any such person to comply with the requirements of this chapter and with the regulations of the commission. If the commission determines that any such person is unsuitable, the executive director may require the arrangement to be terminated.

(2) If the premises of a licensed gaming establishment are directly or indirectly owned or under the control of the licensee therein, or of any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the licensee, the executive director may require the application of any person for a determination of suitability to be associated with a gaming enterprise if the person:

(a) Does business on the premises of the licensed gaming establishment;

(b) Does business with the licensed gaming establishment as a junket representative or ticket purveyor; or

(c) Provides any goods or services to the licensed gaming establishment for a compensation which the executive director finds to be grossly disproportionate to the value of the goods or services.

(3) If the commission determines that the person is unsuitable to be associated with a gaming enterprise, the association must be terminated. Any agreement which entitles a business other than gaming to be conducted on the premises, or entitles a person to conduct business with the licensed gaming establishment as set forth in paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (2) of this section, is subject to termination upon a finding of unsuitability of the person associated therewith. Every such agreement must be deemed to include a provision for its termination without liability on the part of the licensee upon a finding by the commission that the person associated therewith is unsuitable to be associated with a gaming enterprise. Failure expressly to include that condition in the agreement is not a defense in any action brought pursuant to this section to terminate the agreement.

(4) If the application is not presented to the executive director within thirty (30) days following demand or the unsuitable association is not terminated, the executive director may pursue any remedy or combination of remedies provided in this chapter.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990 Ex Sess, ch. 45, § 32, eff from and after passage (approved June 29, 1990).

§ 75-76-65. Conducting tournaments or contests in which persons pay fee for privilege of participating for prizes.

(1) A person shall not receive any consideration, direct or indirect, for conducting a tournament or contest in which persons pay a fee for the privilege of participating and in which prizes are awarded to winners, on behalf of or in conjunction with a gaming licensee, unless he has registered with the executive director in the manner prescribed by the commission and supplies such information as the executive director requires or unless he is an officer or employee of the licensee.

(2) Any person who conducts a tournament or contest on behalf of or in conjunction with a gaming licensee may be required by the commission to be licensed by it as well as registered with the executive director. Any person so required must apply for a license within thirty (30) days after the decision of the commission requiring him to obtain a license.

(3) If any person required to be licensed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section:

(a) Does not apply for a license within thirty (30) days after the decision of the commission that he must be licensed, and the commission finds him unsuitable for that reason; or

(b) Is denied a license, the gaming licensee with whom he is associated shall terminate that association upon notification from the commission by registered or certified mail of its action.

§ 75-76-67. Application for license or finding of suitability; qualifications; disqualifications; qualifications for license to operate gaming establishment; statements relevant to licensing or suitability finding absolutely privileged; licensing of corporations and limited partnerships.

(1) Any person who the commission determines is qualified to receive a license or be found suitable under the provisions of this chapter, having due consideration for the proper protection of the health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the inhabitants of the State of Mississippi and the declared policy of this state, may be issued a state gaming license or found suitable. The burden of proving his qualification to receive any license or be found suitable is on the applicant.

(2) An application to receive a license or be found suitable shall not be granted unless the commission is satisfied that the applicant is:

(a) A person of good character, honesty and integrity;

(b) A person whose prior activities, criminal record, if any, reputation, habits and associations do not pose a threat to the public interest of this state or to the effective regulation and control of gaming, or create or enhance the dangers of unsuitable, unfair or illegal practices, methods and activities in the conduct of gaming or the carrying on of the business and financial arrangements incidental thereto; and

(c) In all other respects qualified to be licensed or found suitable consistent with the declared laws of the state.

(3) No person shall be granted a license or found suitable under the provisions of this chapter who has been convicted of a felony in any court of this state, another state, or the United States; and no person shall be granted a license or found suitable hereunder who has been convicted of a crime in any court of another state or the United States which, if committed in this state, would be a felony; and no person shall be granted a license or found suitable under the provisions of this chapter who has been convicted of a misdemeanor in any court of this state or of another state, when such conviction was for gambling, sale of alcoholic beverages to minors, prostitution, or procuring or inducing individuals to engage in prostitution.

(4) A license to operate a gaming establishment shall not be granted unless the applicant has satisfied the commission that:

(a) He has adequate business probity, competence and experience, in gaming or generally; and

(b) The proposed financing of the entire operation is:

(i) Adequate for the nature of the proposed operation; and

(ii) From a suitable source. Any lender or other source of money or credit which the commission finds does not meet the standards set forth in subsection (2) may be deemed unsuitable.

(5) An application to receive a license or be found suitable constitutes a request for a determination of the applicant's general character, integrity and ability to participate or engage in, or be associated with gaming. Any written or oral statement made in the course of an official proceeding of the commission or the executive director or any witness testifying under oath which is relevant to the purpose of the proceeding is absolutely privileged and does not impose liability for defamation or constitute a ground for recovery in any civil action.

(6) The commission may, in its discretion, grant a license to a corporation which has complied with the provisions of this chapter.

(7) The commission may, in its discretion, grant a license to a limited partnership which has complied with the provisions of this chapter.

(8) No limited partnership, except one whose sole limited partner is a publicly traded corporation which has registered with the commission, or business trust or organization or other association of a quasi-corporate character is eligible to receive or hold any license under this chapter unless all persons having any direct or indirect interest therein of any nature whatsoever, whether financial, administrative, policymaking or supervisory, are individually qualified to be licensed under the provisions of this chapter.

(9) The commission may, by regulation, limit the number of persons who may be financially interested and the nature of their interest in any corporation or other organization or association licensed under this chapter, and may establish such other qualifications of licenses as the commission, in its discretion, deems to be in the public interest and consistent with the declared policy of the state.

§ 75-76-75. Continuation of existing operations pending ruling on applications; executive director to investigate applicants; time for making recommendation on application; new application not barred by recommendation of denial of application.

(2) Within a reasonable time after filing of an application and such supplemental information as the commission or the executive director may require, the executive director shall commence the investigation of the applicant and shall conduct such proceedings in accordance with applicable regulations as the commission may deem necessary.

(3) If a person has applied for a position which cannot be held pending licensure or approval by the commission, the executive director shall use his best efforts to make a recommendation to the commission concerning the application not longer than nine (9) months after the application and supporting data are completed and filed with the executive director. § 75-76-77. Executive director to present recommendations to commission; commission action on recommendations; failure of commission to act; written decision required when application denied.

(1) The executive director shall present his recommendation upon an application to the commission at the next meeting of the commission.

(2) The commission may, after considering the recommendation of the executive director, issue to the applicant named, as a natural person, and to the licensed gaming establishment, as a business entity, under the name or style therein designated, a state gaming license, or may deny the same. The commission may limit the license or place such conditions thereon as it may deem necessary in the public interest. The commission may, if it considers necessary, issue a probationary license. No state gaming license may be assigned either in whole or in part.

(3) After the issuance of the license, it shall continue in effect upon proper payment of the state license fees and any other fees, taxes and penalties, as required by law and the regulations of the commission, subject to the power of the commission to revoke, suspend, condition or limit licenses.

(4) The commission may further limit or place such conditions as it may deem necessary in the public interest upon any registration, finding of suitability or approval for which application has been made.

(5) After the executive director has made a recommendation for denial of an application, the commission, after considering the recommendation of the executive director, may:

(b) Remand the matter to the executive director for such further investigation and reconsideration as the commission may order; or

(c) By unanimous vote of the members present, grant the application for a license, registration, finding of suitability or approval.

(7) If the commission desires further investigation be made or desires to conduct any hearings, it shall, within thirty (30) days after presentation of the recommendation of the executive director, so notify the applicant and set a date for hearing. Final action by the commission must be taken within one hundred twenty (120) days after the recommendation of the executive director has been presented to the commission. (8) The commission has full and absolute power and authority to deny any application for any cause it deems reasonable. If an application is denied, the commission shall prepare and file its written decision upon which its order denying the application is based.

§ 75-76-79. Unlawful to operate any form of manufacture, selling or distribution of gaming device without required licenses; exceptions; manufacturer's or distributor's licenses; application of Sections 75-76-199 through 75-76-265; effect of finding of unsuitability; license fees; findings of suitability; inspections of gaming devices and associated equipment; inspection fees.

(1)(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection, it is unlawful for any person, either as owner, lessee or employee, whether for hire or not, to operate, carry on, conduct or maintain any form of manufacture, selling or distribution of any gaming device for use or play in Mississippi or for distribution outside of Mississippi without first procuring and maintaining all required federal and state licenses.

(b) A lessor who specifically acquires equipment for a capital lease is not required to be licensed under this section.

(c) The holder of a state gaming license or the holding company of a corporate licensee may, within two (2) years after cessation of business or upon specific approval by the executive director, dispose of by sale in a manner approved by the executive director, any or all of its gaming devices, including slot machines, without a distributor's license. In cases of bankruptcy of a state gaming licensee or foreclosure of a lien by a bank or other person holding a security interest for which gaming devices are security in whole or in part for the lien, the executive director may authorize the disposition of the gaming devices without requiring a distributor's license.

(d) Any person whom the commission determines is a suitable person to receive a license under the provisions of this section may be issued a manufacturer's or distributor's license. The burden of proving his qualification to receive or hold a license under this section is at all times on the applicant or licensee.

(e) Every person who must be licensed pursuant to this section is subject to the provisions of Sections 75-76-199 through 75-76-265, unless exempted from those provisions by the commission.

(f) The commission may exempt, for any purpose, a manufacturer, seller or distributor from the provisions of Sections 75-76-199 through 75-76-265, if the commission determines that the exemption is consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(g) As used in this section, "holding company" has the meaning ascribed to it in Section 75-76-199.

(2) If the commission determines that a manufacturer or distributor is unsuitable to receive or hold a license:

(a) No new gaming device or associated equipment manufactured by the manufacturer or distributed by the distributor may be approved;

(b) Any previously approved device or associated equipment manufactured by the manufacturer or distributed by the distributor is subject to revocation of approval if the reasons for the denial of the license also apply to that device or associated equipment;

(c) No new device or associated equipment manufactured by the manufacturer or distributed by the distributor may be sold, transferred or offered for use or play in Mississippi; and

(d) Any association or agreement between the manufacturer or distributor and a licensee must be terminated, unless otherwise provided by the commission. An agreement between such a manufacturer or distributor of gaming devices or associated equipment and a licensee shall be deemed to include a provision for its termination without liability on the part of the licensee upon a finding by the commission that the manufacturer is unsuitable to be associated with a gaming enterprise. Failure to include that condition in the agreement is not a defense in any action brought pursuant to this section to terminate the agreement.

(3) Failure of a licensee to terminate any association or agreement with a manufacturer or distributor of gaming devices or associated equipment after receiving notice of a determination of unsuitability, the denial of a license or failure to file a timely application for a license, is an unsuitable method of operation.

(4) There is hereby imposed and levied on each applicant for a manufacturer's, seller's or distributor's license under this section an annual license fee in the following amount:

(a) For the issuance or continuation of a manufacturer's license, One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

(b) For the issuance or continuation of a seller's or distributor's license, Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

This fee is to be paid by the applicant to the State Tax Commission on or before the filing of the application for a manufacturer's, seller's or distributor's license by the applicant. Upon such payment the Chairman of the State Tax Commission shall certify to the executive director that such fee has been paid by the applicant.

(5) A manufacturer or distributor of associated equipment who sells, transfers or offers the associated equipment for use or play in Mississippi may be required by the executive director to file an application for a finding of suitability to be a manufacturer or distributor of associated equipment.

Any person who directly or indirectly involves himself in the sale, transfer or offering for use or play in Mississippi of associated equipment who is not otherwise required to be licensed as a manufacturer or distributor may be required by the executive director to file an application for a finding of suitability to be a manufacturer or distributor of associated equipment.

If an application for a finding of suitability is not submitted within thirty (30) days after demand by the executive director, he may pursue any remedy or combination of remedies provided in this chapter.

(6) The executive director and his employees may inspect every gaming device which is manufactured, sold or distributed:

(a) For use in this state, before the gaming device is put into play.

(b) In this state for use outside this state, before the gaming device is shipped out of this state.

The executive director may inspect every gaming device which is offered for play within this state by a licensee.

The executive director may inspect all associated equipment which is manufactured, sold or distributed for use in this state before the equipment is installed or used by a gaming licensee.

In addition to all other fees and charges imposed by this chapter, the executive director may determine an inspection fee with regard to each manufacturer, seller or distributor which must not exceed the actual cost of inspection and investigation. Upon such determination, the executive director shall certify to the Chairman of the State Tax Commission the amount of the inspection fee and the name and address of the applicant. Upon such certification the State Tax Commission shall proceed to assess and collect such inspection fee from the applicant.

§ 75-76-103. Reasons for investigations by executive director; complaint by executive director; commission to appoint hearing examiner; review by commission; order of commission; automatic revocation of license or finding of suitability upon felony conviction.

(1) The executive director shall make appropriate investigations:

(a) To determine whether there has been any violation of this chapter or of any regulations adopted thereunder.

(b) To determine any facts, conditions, practices or matters which it may deem necessary or proper to aid in the enforcement of any such law or regulation.

(c) To aid in adopting regulations.

(d) To secure information as a basis for recommending legislation relating to this chapter.

(2) If after any investigation the executive director is satisfied that a license, registration, finding of suitability, or prior approval by the commission of any transaction for which approval was required or permitted under the provisions of this chapter should be limited, conditioned, suspended or revoked, he shall initiate a hearing by filing a complaint with the commission and transmit therewith a summary of evidence in his possession bearing on the matter and the transcript of testimony at any investigative hearing conducted by or on behalf of the executive director to the licensee.

(3) Upon receipt of the complaint of the executive director, the commission shall review all matter presented in support thereof and shall appoint a hearing examiner to conduct further proceedings.

(4) After such proceedings as may be required by this chapter the hearing examiner may recommend that the commission take any or all of the following actions:

(a) Limit, condition, suspend or revoke the license of any licensed gaming establishment or the individual license of any licensee without affecting the license of the establishment;

(b) Limit, condition, suspend or revoke any registration, finding of suitability, or prior approval given or granted to any applicant by the commission;

(c) Order a licensed gaming establishment to keep an individual licensee from the premises of the licensed gaming establishment or not to pay the licensee any remuneration for services or any profits, income or accruals on his investment in the licensed gaming establishment; and

(d) Fine each person or entity or both, who was licensed, registered or found suitable or who previously obtained approval for any act or transaction for which commission approval was required or permitted, not more than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) for each separate violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the regulations of the commission which is the subject of an initial complaint and not more than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) for each separate violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the regulations of the commission which is the subject of any subsequent complaint.

(5) The hearing examiner shall prepare a written decision containing his recommendation to the commission and shall serve it on all parties. Any party that disagrees with the hearing examiner's recommendation may ask the commission to review the recommendation within ten (10) days of service of the recommendation. The commission may hold a hearing to consider the recommendation whether there has been a request to review the recommendation or not.

(6) If the commission decides to review the recommendation, it shall give notice of that fact to all parties within thirty (30) days of the recommendation and shall schedule a hearing to review the recommendation. The commission's review shall be de novo but shall be based upon the evidence presented before the hearing examiner. The commission may remand the case to the hearing examiner for the presentation of additional evidence upon a showing of good cause why the evidence could not have been presented at the previous hearing.

(7) If the commission decides not to review the recommendation within thirty (30) days, the recommendation becomes the final order of the commission.

(8) If the commission limits, conditions, suspends or revokes any license or imposes a fine, or limits, conditions, suspends or revokes any registration, finding of suitability, or prior approval, it shall issue its written order therefor after causing to be prepared and filed the hearing examiner's written decision upon which the order is based.

(9) Any such limitation, condition, revocation, suspension or fine so made is effective until reversed upon judicial review, except that the commission may stay its order pending a rehearing or judicial review upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper.

(10) Judicial review of any such order or decision of the commission may be had in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(11) A license or finding of suitability for any individual is automatically revoked if such person is convicted of a felony in any court of this state, another state, or the United States or if such person is convicted of a crime in any court of another state or the United States which, if committed in this state, would be a felony. Any appeal from such conviction shall not act as a supersedeas to the revocation required by this subsection.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Jurisdiction.

In a case in which a gambler alleged that a county, a deputy sheriff, a casino company, and a casino exercised dominion and control over his property, i.e., the money that was represented by the casino chips he undisputedly won, which were inconsistent with his ownership rights because they would not cash in his chips unless and until he handed over his driver's license to the casino, his trespass to chattels and conversion claims were not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Mississippi Gaming Commission pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-76-103 and 75-76-157(2). The gambler alleged that he never agreed to hand over his ID to the casino and they would not have received and copied it but for the actions of the county sheriff's department taking his ID from him. Grosch v. Tunica County, — F. Supp. 2d —, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 89364 (N.D. Miss. July 2, 2008).

§ 75-76-105. Emergency orders of commission.

The commission may issue an emergency order for suspension, limitation or conditioning of a license, registration, or finding of suitability or may issue an emergency order requiring a licensed gaming establishment to keep an individual licensee from the premises of the licensed gaming establishment or not to pay such licensee any remuneration for services or any profits, income or accruals on his investment in the licensed gaming establishment in the following manner:

(a) An emergency order may be issued only when the commission believes that:

(i) Any person has willfully failed to report, pay or truthfully account for and pay over any license fee or tax imposed by the provisions of this chapter or willfully attempted in any manner to evade or defeat any such license fee, tax or payment thereof;

(ii) Any person has cheated at any gambling game;

(iii) There has been a violation of subsection (1) of Section 75-76-57;

(iv) Such action is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, morals, good order or general welfare.

(b) The emergency order must set forth the grounds upon which it is issued, including a statement of facts constituting the alleged emergency necessitating such action.

(c) An emergency order may be issued only with the approval of and upon signature by not less than two (2) members of the commission.

(d) The emergency order is effective immediately upon issuance and service upon the licensee or resident agent of the licensee or, in cases involving registration or findings of suitability, upon issuance and service upon the person or entity involved or resident agent of the entity involved. The emergency order may suspend, limit, condition or take other action in relation to the license of one or more persons in an operation without affecting other individual licensees or the licensed gaming establishment. The emergency order remains effective until further order of the commission or final disposition of the case.

(e) Within five (5) days after issuance of an emergency order, the executive director shall cause a complaint to be filed and served upon the person or entity involved. Thereafter, the person or entity against whom the emergency order has been issued and served is entitled to a hearing before the commission and to judicial review of the decision and order of the commission thereon.

§ 75-76-107. Requirements of complaint; service of complaint upon respondent; answer of respondent; failure to answer or appear; time and place of hearing; notice.

(1) The complaint referred to in this chapter must be a written statement of charges which must set forth in ordinary and concise language the acts or omissions with which the respondent is charged. It must specify the statutes and regulations which the respondent is alleged to have violated but shall not consist merely of charges raised in the language of the statutes or regulations.

(2) Upon the filing of the complaint, the executive director shall serve a copy of the complaint upon the respondent either personally or by registered or certified mail at his address on file with the executive director.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the respondent must answer within twenty (20) days after the service of the complaint. In his answer the respondent:

(a) Must state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted.

(b) Must admit or deny the facts alleged in the complaint.

(c) Must state with respect to which allegations he is without such knowledge or information as to form a belief concerning their truth. Such allegations shall be deemed denied.

(d) Must affirmatively set forth any matter which constitutes an avoidance or affirmative defense.

(e) May demand a hearing. Failure to demand a hearing constitutes a waiver of the right to a hearing and to judicial review of any decision or order of the commission, but the commission may order a hearing even if the respondent so waives his right.

(4) Failure to answer or to appear at the hearing constitutes an admission by the respondent of all facts alleged in the complaint. The commission may take action based on such an admission and on other evidence without further notice to the respondent. If the commission takes action based on such an admission, it shall include in the record which evidence was the basis for the action.

(5) The commission shall determine the time and place of the hearing as soon as is reasonably practical after receiving the respondent's answer. The executive director shall deliver or send by registered or certified mail a notice of hearing to all parties at least ten (10) days before the hearing.

(1) Prior to a hearing before a hearing examiner, and during a hearing upon reasonable cause shown, the hearing examiner shall issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum at the request of a party. All witnesses appearing pursuant to subpoena, other than parties, officers or employees of the State of Mississippi or any political subdivision thereof, are entitled to receive fees and mileage in the same amounts and under the same circumstances as provided by law for witnesses in civil actions in the circuit courts. Witnesses entitled to fees or mileage who attend hearings at points so far removed from their residences as to prohibit return thereto from day to day are entitled, in addition to witness fees and mileage, to the expense allowance authorized for state officers and employees for each day of actual attendance and for each day necessarily occupied in traveling to and from the hearings. Fees, subsistence and transportation expenses must be paid by the party at whose request the witness is subpoenaed. The commission may award as costs the amount of all such expenses to the prevailing party.

(2) The testimony of any material witness residing within or without the State of Mississippi who will be unavailable to testify at the hearing may be taken by deposition in the manner provided by the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure.

§ 75-76-111. Proceedings at hearing before hearing examiner; rules relating to evidence and witnesses; official notice of certain information; affidavits.

(1) At all hearings before a hearing examiner other than investigative hearings:

(a) Oral evidence may be taken only upon oath or affirmation administered by the hearing examiner.

(b) Every party has the right to:

(i) Call and examine witnesses;

(ii) Introduce exhibits relevant to the issues of the case, including the transcript of testimony at any investigative hearing conducted by or on behalf of the commission or the executive director;

(iii) Cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matters relevant to the issues of the case, even though the matter was not covered in a direct examination;

(iv) Impeach any witness regardless of which party first called him to testify; and

(v) Offer rebuttal evidence.

(c) If the respondent does not testify in his own behalf, he may be called and examined as if under cross-examination.

(d) The hearing need not be conducted according to technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses. Any relevant evidence may be admitted and is sufficient in itself to support a finding if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule which might make improper the admission of such evidence over objection in a civil action.

(e) The parties or their counsel may by written stipulation agree that certain specified evidence may be admitted even though such evidence might otherwise be subject to objection.

(2) The hearing examiner may take official notice of any generally accepted information or technical or scientific matter within the field of gaming and of any other fact which may be judicially noticed by the courts of this state. The parties must be informed of any information, matters or facts so noticed and must be given a reasonable opportunity, on request, to refute such information, matters or facts by evidence or by written or oral presentation of authorities, the manner of such refutation to be determined by the commission.

(3) Affidavits may be received in evidence at any hearing in accordance with the following:

(a) The party wishing to use an affidavit must, not less than ten (10) days before the day set for hearing, serve upon the opposing party or counsel, either personally or by registered or certified mail, a copy of the affidavit which he proposes to introduce in evidence together with a notice as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection.

(b) Unless the opposing party, within seven (7) days after such service, mails or delivers to the proponent a request to cross-examine the affiant, his right to cross-examine the affiant is waived, and the affidavit, if introduced in evidence, must be given the same effect as if the affiant had testified orally. If an opportunity to cross-examine an affiant is not afforded after request therefor is made in accordance with this paragraph, the affidavit may be introduced in evidence but must be given only the same effect as other hearsay evidence.

(c) The notice referred to in paragraph (a) must be substantially in the following form:

The accompanying affidavit of (here insert name of affiant) will be introduced as evidence at the hearing set for the _____ day of _____, 2_____. (Here insert name of affiant) will not be called to testify orally, and you will not be entitled to question him unless you notify the undersigned that you wish to cross-examine him. To be effective your request must be mailed or delivered to the undersigned on or before seven (7) days from the date this notice and the enclosed affidavit are served upon you.

§ 75-76-117. Contempt of hearing.

If any person in proceedings before the hearing examiner or the commission disobeys or resists any lawful order, or refuses to respond to a subpoena, or refuses to take the oath or affirmation as a witness, or thereafter refuses to be examined, or is guilty of misconduct during the hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the proceeding, the commission may certify the facts to the circuit court in and for the county where the proceedings are held. The court shall thereupon issue an order directing the person to appear before the court and show cause why he should not be punished as for contempt. The court order and a copy of the statement of the commission must be served on the person cited to appear. Thereafter the court has jurisdiction of the matter, and the same proceedings must be had, the same penalties may be imposed and the person charged may purge himself of the contempt in the same way as in the case of a person who has committed a contempt in the trial of a civil action before a circuit court.

Copies of the decision and recommendation must be served on the parties personally or sent to them by registered or certified mail.

(2) The commission may, upon motion made within ten (10) days after service of a hearing examiner's decision and recommendation, or upon its own motion within thirty (30) days of the date of the decision and recommendation, order a hearing before the commission upon such terms and conditions as it may deem just and proper to review the decision and recommendation. After hearing, the commission may reverse, modify or affirm the hearing examiner's decision. If the commission decides not to review the hearing examiner's decision and recommendation within thirty (30) days of the hearing examiner's decision, that decision shall become the final order of the commission.

(1) Any person aggrieved by a final decision or order of the commission may obtain a judicial review thereof in the circuit court of the county in which the petitioner resides or has his or its principal place of business.

(2) The judicial review must be instituted by filing a petition within twenty (20) days after the effective date of the final decision or order. A petition may not be filed while a petition for rehearing or a rehearing is pending before the commission. The petition must set forth the order or decision appealed from and the grounds or reasons why petitioner contends a reversal or modification should be ordered.

(3) Copies of the petition must be served upon the executive director and all other parties of record, or their counsel of record, either personally or by certified mail.

(4) The court, upon a proper showing, may permit other interested persons to intervene as parties to the appeal or as friends of the court.

(5) The filing of the petition does not stay enforcement of the decision or order of the commission, but the commission itself may grant a stay upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Mississippi Gaming Commission's denial of preliminary gaming site approval, a licensing decision, was appealable, since judicial review of denial of license or any part thereof is necessary to determine whether Commission has exceeded its authority. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Board of Educ., 691 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 695 So. 2d 601 (Miss. 1997).

School board, which leased land to casino operator, had standing to appeal decision by Mississippi Gaming Commission to deny preliminary site approval for gaming operations; by virtue of board's participation in site approval hearings and its joining with casino operator in timely appeal, board met statutory definition of party, and $180 million that school board stood to earn from casino operator's lease on property gave it a "colorable interest" in proceedings. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Board of Educ., 691 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 695 So. 2d 601 (Miss. 1997).

Despite statute generally allowing appeal of final decisions of Mississippi Gaming Commission (MGC), property owner did not have statutory right to appeal site request denial of MGC that was within its statutory authority; site approval was prerequisite to license, and therefore, owner was in same position of applicant for license, who specifically was precluded from appealing MGC's denial, limiting, conditioning or restricting of a license. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

§ 75-76-123. Record on review; filing with reviewing court.

(1) Upon written request of petitioner and upon payment of such reasonable costs and fees as the commission may prescribe, the complete record on review, or such parts thereof as are designated by the petitioner, must be prepared by the commission.

(2) The complete record on review must include copies of:

- (a) All pleadings in the case;
- (b) All notices and interim orders issued by the hearing examiner or the commission in connection with the case;
- (c) All stipulations;
- (d) The decision and order appealed from;
- (e) A transcript of all testimony, evidence and proceedings at the hearing;
- (f) The exhibits admitted or rejected; and
- (g) Any other papers in the case.

The record on review may be shortened by stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings.

(3) The record on review must be filed with the reviewing court within thirty (30) days after service of the petition for review, but the court may allow the commission additional time to prepare and transmit the record on review.

SOURCES: Laws, 1990 Ex Sess, ch. 45, § 62, eff from and after passage (approved June 29, 1990).

Cross References — Right of gaming employee whose work permit has been revoked to judicial review in manner prescribed by sections 75-76-121 through 75-76-127, see § 75-76-137.

§ 75-76-125. Motion requesting taking of additional evidence by commission; modification of decision or order by commission; standard of review; grounds for reversing decision or order of commission.

(1) The reviewing court may, upon motion therefor, order that additional evidence in the case be taken by the commission upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem just and proper. The motion must not be granted except upon a showing that the additional evidence is material and necessary and that sufficient reason existed for failure to present the evidence before the hearing examiner or the commission. The motion must be supported by an affidavit of the moving party or his counsel showing with particularity the materiality and necessity of the additional evidence and the reason why it was not introduced in the administrative hearing. Rebuttal evidence to the additional evidence must be permitted. In cases in which additional evidence is presented, the commission may modify its decisions and orders as the additional evidence may warrant and shall file with the reviewing court a transcript of the additional evidence together with any modifications of the decision and order, all of which become a part of the record on review.

(2) The review must be conducted by the court sitting without a jury, and must not be a trial de novo but is confined to the record on review.

(3) The reviewing court may affirm the decision and order of the commission, or it may remand the case for further proceedings or reverse the decision if the substantial rights of the petitioner have been prejudiced because the decision is:

- (a) In violation of constitutional provisions;
- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the commission;
- (c) Made upon unlawful procedure;
- (d) Unsupported by any evidence; or
- (e) Arbitrary or capricious or otherwise not in accordance with law.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Supreme Court affords great deference to administrative agency in interpreting its own regulations; however, that deference will be of no material force where agency action is contrary to statutory language. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Board of Educ., 691 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 695 So. 2d 601 (Miss. 1997).

§ 75-76-127. Supreme Court review of circuit court decision; availability of judicial review of particular decisions or orders of commission; availability of writs or equitable proceedings.

(1) Any party aggrieved by the final decision in the circuit court after a review of the decision and order of the commission may appeal to the Supreme Court in the manner and within the time provided by law for appeals in civil cases. The Supreme Court shall follow the same procedure thereafter as in appeals in civil actions and may affirm, reverse or modify the decision as the record and law warrant.

(2) The judicial review by the circuit and Supreme Courts afforded in this chapter is the exclusive method of review of the commission's actions, decisions and orders in disciplinary hearings. Judicial review is not available for actions, decisions and orders of the commission relating to the denial of a license or to limited or conditional licenses. Extraordinary common law writs or equitable proceedings are available except where statutory judicial review is made exclusive or is precluded or where the use of those writs or proceedings is precluded by specific statute.

Supreme Court has judicial review of any action by the Mississippi Gaming Commission that exceeds its statutory authority. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

Court that was without jurisdiction to hear merits of appeal from site request denial of Mississippi Gaming Commission (MGC) was without jurisdiction to hear motion by casino to intervene. Casino Magic Corp. v. Ladner, 666 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 1995).

WORK PERMITS

SEC.

- 75-76-131. Executive Director to maintain records on all gaming employees; work permits for gaming employees; denial; appeals; confidentiality of records; expiration of permit; notice.
- 75-76-133. Communication or document of applicant or licensee absolutely privileged; privileged not waived; disclosure of privileged information prohibited.
- 75-76-135. Summary suspension of work permit.
- 75-76-137. Revocation of work permit; grounds; issuance of work permit to person whose permit was revoked or not renewed; judicial review of revocation.
- 75-76-139. Applicants to make full and true disclosure of all information.
- 75-76-141. Confidentiality of information relating to termination of gaming employee; exceptions.

§ 75-76-131. Executive Director to maintain records on all gaming employees; work permits for gaming employees; denial; appeals; confidentiality of records; expiration of permit; notice.

(1) The executive director shall:

- (a) Ascertain and keep himself informed of the identity, prior activities and present location of all gaming employees in the State of Mississippi; and
- (b) Maintain confidential records of such information.

(2) No person may be employed as a gaming employee unless he is the holder of a work permit issued by the commission.

(3) A work permit issued to a gaming employee must have clearly imprinted thereon a statement that it is valid for gaming purposes only.

(4) Application for a work permit is to be made to the executive director and may be granted or denied for any cause deemed reasonable by the commission. Whenever the executive director denies such an application, he shall include in the notice of the denial a statement of the facts upon which he relied in denying the application.

(5) Any person whose application for a work permit has been denied by the executive director may, not later than sixty (60) days after receiving notice of the denial or objection, apply to the commission for a hearing before a hearing examiner. A failure of a person whose application has been denied to apply for a hearing within sixty (60) days or his failure to appear at a hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be an admission that the denial or objection is well founded and precludes administrative or judicial review. At the hearing, the hearing examiner appointed by the commission shall take any testimony deemed necessary. After the hearing the hearing examiner shall within thirty (30) days after the date of the hearing announce his decision sustaining or reversing the denial of the work permit or the objection to the issuance of a work permit. The executive director may refuse to issue a work permit if the applicant has:

(a) Failed to disclose, misstated or otherwise attempted to mislead the commission with respect to any material fact contained in the application for the issuance or renewal of a work permit;

(b) Knowingly failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the regulations of the commission at a place of previous employment;

(c) Committed, attempted or conspired to commit any crime of moral turpitude, embezzlement or larceny or any violation of any law pertaining to gaming, or any crime which is inimical to the declared policy of this state concerning gaming;

(d) Been identified in the published reports of any federal or state legislative or executive body as being a member or associate of organized crime, or as being of notorious and unsavory reputation;

(e) Been placed and remains in the constructive custody of any federal, state or municipal law enforcement authority;

(f) Had a work permit revoked or committed any act which is a ground for the revocation of a work permit or would have been a ground for revoking his work permit if he had then held a work permit; or

(g) For any other reasonable cause.

The executive director shall refuse to issue a work permit if the applicant has committed, attempted or conspired to commit a crime which is a felony in this state or an offense in another state or jurisdiction which would be a felony if committed in this state.

(6) Any applicant aggrieved by the decision of the hearing examiner may, within fifteen (15) days after the announcement of the decision, apply in writing to the commission for review of the decision. Review is limited to the record of the proceedings before the hearing examiner. The commission may sustain or reverse the hearing examiner's decision. The commission may decline to review the hearing examiner's decision, in which case the hearing examiner's decision becomes the final decision of the commission. The decision of the commission is subject to judicial review.

(7) All records acquired or compiled by the commission relating to any application made pursuant to this section and all lists of persons to whom work permits have been issued or denied and all records of the names or identity of persons engaged in the gaming industry in this state are confidential and must not be disclosed except in the proper administration of this chapter or to an authorized law enforcement agency. Any record of the commission which shows that the applicant has been convicted of a crime in another state must show whether the crime was a misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, felony or other class of crime as classified by the state in which the crime was committed. In a disclosure of the conviction, reference to the classification of the crime must be based on the classification in the state where it was committed.

(8) A work permit expires unless renewed within ten (10) days after a change of place of employment or if the holder thereof is not employed as a gaming employee within the jurisdiction of the issuing authority for more than ninety (90) days.

(9) Notice of any objection to or denial of a work permit by the executive director as provided pursuant to this section is sufficient if it is mailed to the applicant's last known address as indicated on the application for a work permit. The date of mailing may be proven by a certificate signed by the executive director or his designee that specifies the time the notice was mailed. The notice is presumed to have been received by the applicant five (5) days after it is deposited with the United States Postal Service with the postage thereon prepaid.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

All gaming employees must obtain work permit from gaming commission; regulation of gaming employees has been preempted by state law, and city does not have authority to enact ordinance requiring gaming employees to obtain work permit from city. Hewes, Sept. 16, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0686.

Gaming Control Act does not prohibit employment of convicted felons in positions not requiring work permit; such positions are limited to those indirectly related to operation of gaming establishment, such as valet parking attendants, maintenance, and kitchen staff. Stewart, Oct. 15, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0778.

Miss. Code Section 75-76-131(2) requires all "gaming employees" to hold work permits issued by Mississippi Gaming Commission. McAdams, May 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0327.

§ 75-76-133. Communication or document of applicant or licensee absolutely privileged; privileged not waived; disclosure of privileged information prohibited.

(1) Any communication or document of an applicant or licensee which is required by:

(a) Law or the regulations of the commission; or

(b) A subpoena issued by the commission to be made or transmitted to the commission or the executive director or his employees, is absolutely privileged and does not impose liability for defamation or constitute a ground for recovery in any civil action.

(2) If such a document or communication contains any information which is privileged, that privilege is not waived or lost because the document or communication is disclosed to the commission or the executive director or his employees.

(3) Notwithstanding the powers granted to the commission and the executive director by this chapter:

(a) The commission, the executive director and his employees shall not release or disclose any privileged information, documents or communications provided by an applicant without the prior written consent of the applicant or licensee or pursuant to a lawful court order after timely notice of the proceedings has been given to the applicant or licensee.

(b) The commission and the executive director shall maintain all privileged information, documents and communications in a secure place accessible only to members of the commission and the executive director and his employees.

(c) The commission shall adopt procedures and regulations to protect the privileged nature of information, documents and communications provided by an applicant or licensee.

§ 75-76-135. Summary suspension of work permit.

(1) The commission may issue an order summarily suspending a person's work permit upon a finding that the suspension is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, morals, good order or general welfare. The order becomes effective when served upon the permit holder.

(2) The order of summary suspension must state the facts upon which the finding of necessity for the suspension is based. For purposes of this section, the order shall be deemed a complaint.

(3) An order of summary suspension must be signed by at least two (2) members of the commission.

(4) The person whose work permit is summarily suspended:

(a) Has a right to a hearing on the order. The commission shall schedule a hearing within five (5) days after receipt of the person's notice of defense.

(b) Must file a notice of defense within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the emergency order. Failure to timely file this notice waives his rights to a hearing before the commission and to judicial review of the final decision.

(5) All affirmative defenses must be specifically stated in the notice of defense, and unless an objection is stated to the form or manner of the order, all objections to the form of the complaint shall be deemed waived.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the procedures for a disciplinary action in Sections 75-76-103 through 75-76-119, inclusive, must be followed.

§ 75-76-137. Revocation of work permit; grounds; issuance of work permit to person whose permit was revoked or not renewed; judicial review of revocation.

(1) If any gaming employee is convicted of any violation of this chapter or if in investigating an alleged violation of this chapter by any licensee the executive director or the commission finds that a gaming employee employed by the licensee has been guilty of cheating, the commission shall, after a hearing as provided in Sections 75-76-103 through 75-76-119, inclusive, revoke the employee's work permit.

(2) The commission may revoke a work permit if it finds after a hearing as provided in Sections 75-76-103 through 75-76-119, inclusive, that the gaming employee has failed to disclose, misstated or otherwise misled the commission with respect to any fact contained within any application for a work permit, or subsequent to being issued a work permit:

(a) Committed, attempted or conspired to do any of the acts prohibited by this chapter;

(b) Knowingly possessed or permitted to remain in or upon any licensed premises any cards, dice, mechanical device or any other cheating device whatever the use of which is prohibited by statute or ordinance;

(3) A work permit shall not be issued to a person whose work permit has previously been revoked pursuant to this section or to whom the issuance or renewal of a work permit has been denied, except with the unanimous approval of the commission members.

(4) A gaming employee whose work permit has been revoked pursuant to this section is entitled to judicial review of the commission's action in the manner prescribed by Sections 75-76-121 through 75-76-127, inclusive.

(1) The Attorney General, at the request of the executive director or the commission, may institute a civil action in any court of this state against any person subject to this chapter, to restrain a violation of this chapter.

(2) The court shall give priority over other civil actions to an action brought pursuant to this section.

(3) An action brought against a person pursuant to this section shall not preclude a criminal action or administrative proceeding against that person.

§ 75-76-147. Proceedings or actions to enforce provisions of Gaming Control Act and Section 97-19-55 under certain circumstances; referral of matter to district attorney or Attorney General.

(1) The commission or the executive director shall initiate proceedings or actions appropriate to enforce the provisions of this chapter and may recommend that a district attorney or the Attorney General prosecute any public offense committed in violation of any provision of this chapter, or in violation of Section 97-19-55 when the offense involves the use of a casino marker issued to a licensed gaming establishment.

(2) If an investigation indicates probable cause for belief that a violation of this chapter, or a violation of Section 97-19-55 when the offense involves the use of a casino marker issued to a licensed gaming establishment, has occurred, the commission or the executive director shall refer the matter and the evidence gathered during the investigation to the district attorney having jurisdiction, with a request that such violation be prosecuted (a) by presentation to the grand jury if it appears that a felony violation has occurred, or (b) either by presentation to the grand jury or by filing a criminal affidavit if it appears that a misdemeanor violation has occurred.

(4) If the commission or the executive director, after reviewing a district attorney's declination to prosecute, disagrees with the decision of such district attorney, the commission or the executive director may then refer the request for criminal prosecution to the Attorney General. In conducting any such prosecution, the Attorney General shall have all powers of a district attorney, including the power to issue or cause to be issued subpoenas or other process, and the right to enter the grand jury room while the grand jury is in session and to perform services with reference to the work of the grand jury.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Jurisdiction.

1. In general.

Gaming Commission did not have jurisdiction over a dispute involving a casino's promotional drawing because the drawing was not a "game" as defined by the Gaming Control Act, for: (1) although the number of entries for the drawing was based upon the amount of play at the casino, the drawing tickets themselves cost nothing and were given to players simply upon showing valid ID; and (2) the drawing was not played with cards, dice, or any gambling device. Ameristar Casino Vicksburg, Inc. v. Duckworth, 990 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 2008).

The Gaming Commission had exclusive jurisdiction over an action alleging that the plaintiff was due additional winnings from a casino because, even though he wanted to bet $20,000 per hand in a series of mini-baccarat games, casino personnel would only let him bet $5000 at a time since (1) although the plaintiff asserted that his claim was based on common law tort or contracts, such claims based on gambling were barred at common law, and (2) the claim fell squarely within the statutory definitions of a "gaming debt" and "alleged winnings." Grand Casino Tunica v. Shindler, 772 So. 2d 1036 (Miss. 2000).

Slot machine player's failure to petition executive director of Gaming Commission for reconsideration of her dispute with licensee casino regarding payment of jackpot in annual installments deprived circuit court of jurisdiction to hear her complaint. Cook v. Mardi Gras Casino Corp., 697 So. 2d 378 (Miss. 1997).

2. Jurisdiction.

In a case in which a gambler alleged that a county, a deputy sheriff, a casino company, and a casino exercised dominion and control over his property, i.e., the money that was represented by the casino chips he undisputedly won, which were inconsistent with his ownership rights because they would not cash in his chips unless and until he handed over his drivers license to the casino, his trespass to chattels and conversion claims were not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Mississippi Gaming Commission pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. §§ 75-76-103 and 75-76-157(2). The gambler alleged that he never agreed to hand over his ID to the casino and they would not have received and copied it but for the actions of the county sheriff's department taking his ID from him. Grosch v. Tunica County, — F. Supp. 2d —, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 89364 (N.D. Miss. July 2, 2008).

(1) Whenever a licensee refuses payment of alleged winnings to a patron, the licensee and the patron are unable to resolve the dispute to the satisfaction of the patron and the dispute involves:

(a) At least Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), the licensee shall immediately notify the executive director; or

(b) Less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), the licensee shall inform the patron of his right to request that the executive director conduct an investigation.

The executive director shall conduct whatever investigation is deemed necessary and shall determine whether payment should be made.

(2) The executive director shall mail written notice to the commission, the licensee and the patron of his decision resolving the dispute within thirty (30) days after the date the executive director first receives notification from the licensee or a request to conduct an investigation from the patron.

(3) Failure to notify the executive director or patron as provided in subsection (1) is grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to Sections 75-76-103 through 75-76-119, inclusive.

(4) The decision of the executive director is effective on the date the aggrieved party receives notice of the decision. The date of receipt is presumed to be the date specified on the return receipt.

(5) Notice of the decision of the executive director shall be deemed sufficient if it is mailed to the last known address of the licensee and patron. The date of mailing may be proven by a certificate signed by an employee of the executive director that specifies the time the notice was mailed. The notice is presumed to have been received by the licensee or the patron five (5) days after it is deposited with the United States Postal Service with the postage thereon prepaid.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Administrative remedies.

1. In general.

Gaming Commissioner's failure to issue decision on jackpot winner's complaint against licensee casino within 30 days as required by statute did not waive statutory exhaustion requirement that motion for reconsideration be filed before judicial review was sought where statute did not impose any consequence for noncompliance. Cook v. Mardi Gras Casino Corp., 697 So. 2d 378 (Miss. 1997).

Statutory time limit for action by Gaming Commission on complaint of patron of licensee is merely directory rather than mandatory and any failure by Commission to reach decision within that time frame does not divest Commission entirely of its exclusive jurisdiction over claim. Cook v. Mardi Gras Casino Corp., 697 So. 2d 378 (Miss. 1997).

Decision on patron's complaint against licensee casino was not rendered invalid by fact that it was issued by deputy director, who was also interim executive director of Gaming Commission, rather than regularly appointed director. Cook v.

Mardi Gras Casino Corp., 697 So. 2d 378 (Miss. 1997).

Mailing notice of Gaming Commission's decision to only patron's attorney did not excuse patron's failure to move for reconsideration of case; failure to mail notice by registered or certified mail was harmless where it was undisputed that patron's attorney actually received notice. Cook v. Mardi Gras Casino Corp., 697 So. 2d 378 (Miss. 1997).

2. Administrative remedies.

Dismissal of the claimant's action against the casino was affirmed because the claimant failed to exhaust his administrative remedies under the Mississippi Gaming Control Act, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-76-1 through 75-76-313, before filing his suit in with the circuit court; since the claimant first sought recourse with the Mississippi Gaming Commission (MGC), he became subject to the dictates of the Act, and failed to file a petition with the MGC requesting a hearing to reconsider the decision that the casino drawings were in accordance with the Mississippi Gaming Commission rules and regulations. Burse v. Harrah's Vicksburg Corp., 919 So. 2d 1014 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

§ 75-76-161. Resolution of claim by patron; appeal of decision of executive director to commission; hearing.

(1) Within twenty (20) days after the date of receipt of the written decision of the executive director, the aggrieved party may file a petition with the commission requesting a hearing to reconsider the decision.

(2) The petition must set forth the basis of the request for reconsideration.

(3) If no petition for reconsideration is filed within the time prescribed in subsection (1) of this section, the decision shall be deemed final action on the matter and is not subject to reconsideration by the executive director or review by the commission or to review by any court.

(4) The party requesting the hearing must provide a copy of the petition to the other party.

(5) Within fifteen (15) days after service of the petition, the responding party may answer the allegations contained therein by filing a written response with the commission.

(6) The commission shall appoint a hearing examiner who shall schedule a hearing and may conduct the hearing at such times and places, within or without the State of Mississippi as may be convenient, except that notice of the date, time and place of the hearing must be provided to both parties. The commission may review the hearing examiner's decision as provided in Section 75-76-119.

Failure to pay within that time is grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to Sections 75-76-103 through 75-76-119, inclusive.

(2) If a licensee intends to file a petition for judicial review of the commission's decision pursuant to Sections 75-76-167 through 75-76-173, inclusive, the licensee must first deposit in an interest-bearing account in a financial institution an amount equal to the amount in dispute. The licensee shall pay the full amount of the patron's claim, including interest, within twenty (20) days after a final, nonappealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction so directs.

(3) The licensee may withdraw the amount deposited in the financial institution upon:

(a) Payment of the full amount of the patron's claim, plus interest, if the licensee has given notice to the commission of the payment; or

(b) A final determination by the court that the licensee is not required to pay the claim.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Miss. Code Ann. § 75-76-165 did not transform the jackpot winner's jackpot of twenty periodic payments into a single, lump-sum payment; rather, the statute provides that the winner must be paid the "claim," i.e. the legitimate winner's claim, with interest, within twenty days of a nonappealable order from the appellate court, and that the claim would be paid in 20 equal annual installments. Kelly v. Int'l Games Tech., 874 So. 2d 977 (Miss. 2004).

§ 75-76-167. Resolution of claim by patron; judicial review of decision of commission; petition for review.

(1) Any person aggrieved by a final decision or order of the commission made after hearing by the commission pursuant to Sections 75-76-159 through 75-76-165, inclusive, may obtain a judicial review thereof in the circuit court of the county in which the dispute between the licensee and patron arose.

(2) The judicial review must be instituted by filing a petition within twenty (20) days after the effective date of the final decision or order. The petition must set forth the order or decision appealed from and the grounds or reasons why petitioner contends a reversal or modification should be ordered.

(3) Copies of the petition must be served upon the executive director and all other parties of record, or their counsel of record, either personally or by certified mail.

(4) The court, upon a proper showing, may permit other interested persons to intervene as parties to the appeal or as friends of the court.

(5) The filing of the petition does not stay enforcement of the decision or order of the commission, but the commission itself may grant a stay upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper.

Cross References — Requirement that licensee deposit amount in dispute in order to file for judicial review of decision in favor of patron's claim for winnings, see § 75-76-165.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Judicial review.

Regardless of whether the statute confers jurisdiction or connotes venue, the proper course of action when a Gaming Commission decision is appealed to the wrong court is to transfer the action to the proper court since, otherwise, a claim could be inadvertently filed in the wrong court, subsequently dismissed, and then time-barred in the proper court. Thomas v. Isle of Capri Casino, 781 So. 2d 125 (Miss. 2001).

§ 75-76-169. Resolution of claim by patron; judicial review; record on review.

(1) Upon written request of petitioner and upon payment of such reasonable costs and fees as the commission may prescribe, the complete record on review, or such parts thereof as are designated by the petitioner, must be prepared by the commission.

(2) The complete record on review must include copies of:

- (a) All pleadings in the case;
- (b) All notices and interim orders issued by the hearing examiner or the commission in connection with the case;
- (c) All stipulations;
- (d) The decision and order appealed from;

(e) A transcript of all testimony, evidence and proceedings at the hearing;

(f) The exhibits admitted or rejected; and

(g) Any other papers in the case.

The original of any document may be used in lieu of a copy thereof. The record on review may be shortened by stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings.

(3) The record on review must be filed with the reviewing court within thirty (30) days after service of the petition for review, but the court may allow the commission additional time to prepare and transmit the record on review.

§ 75-76-171. Resolution of claim by patron; judicial review; taking of additional evidence; standard of review; grounds for reversal of decision of commission.

(1) The reviewing court may, upon motion therefor, order that additional evidence in the case be taken by the commission upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem just and proper. The motion must not be granted except upon a showing that the additional evidence is material and necessary and that sufficient reason existed for failure to present the evidence at the hearing before the hearing examiner or the commission. The motion must be supported by an affidavit of the moving party or his counsel showing with particularity the materiality and necessity of the additional evidence and the reason why it was not introduced in the administrative hearing. Rebuttal evidence to the additional evidence must be permitted. In cases in which additional evidence is presented to the commission, the commission may modify its decisions and orders as the additional evidence may warrant and shall file with the reviewing court a transcript of the additional evidence together with any modifications of the decision and order, all of which become a part of the record on review.

(2) The review must be conducted by the court sitting without a jury and must not be a trial de novo but is confined to the record on review.

(3) The reviewing court may affirm the decision and order of the commission, or it may remand the case for further proceedings or reverse the decision if the substantial rights of the petitioner have been prejudiced because the decision is:

(a) In violation of constitutional provisions;

(b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the commission;

(c) Made upon unlawful procedure;

- (d) Unsupported by any evidence; or
- (e) Arbitrary or capricious or otherwise not in accordance with law.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Standard of review.
2. Violation of substantial rights.
3. Unsupported by evidence.

1. Standard of review.

The proper standard of review in casino patron disputes is the unsupported by any evidence standard of review, rather than the substantial evidence standard. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Freeman, 747 So. 2d 231 (Miss. 1999).

2. Violation of substantial rights.

Where a casino failed to immediately contact the Mississippi Gaming Commission about a payout dispute, manipulated the slot machine, and destroyed evidence, it violated the patron's substantial rights under Mississippi gaming laws, and the commission's ruling denying the jackpot to the patron was arbitrary and capricious. Grand Casino Biloxi v. Hallmark, — So. 2d —, 2001 Miss. LEXIS 295 (Miss. Oct. 31, 2001).

In an action alleging that the plaintiff was due additional winnings from a casino because, even though he wanted to bet $20,000 per hand in a series of mini-baccarat games, casino personnel would only let him bet $5000 at a time, the plaintiff was not entitled to reversal of the Gaming Commission's decision for the casino as the decision did not violate any of the principles enumerated in subsection (3). Grand Casino Tunica v. Shindler, 772 So. 2d 1036 (Miss. 2000).

In an action in which a casino patron claimed that she won a jackpot while playing a slot machine, there was no violation of the substantial rights of the plaintiff when the casino failed to notify the executive director that there was a dispute over alleged winnings where the relevant casino employees testified that they thought the plaintiff was satisfied that she did not win the jackpot and that, therefore, no dispute existed. Mississippi Gaming Comm'n v. Freeman, 747 So. 2d 231 (Miss. 1999).

3. Unsupported by evidence.

The evidence was sufficient under the "unsupported by any evidence" standard, Miss. Code Ann. § 75-76-171(3)(d), to deny the claimant the wide area primary progressive jackpot; data extracted from the machine conclusively established the true outcome of the game was Triple Bar-Blank-Blank, a losing combination, and activation of the secondary notification system resulted from an erroneous setting of the progressive bit in the evaluation process. Pickle v. IGT, 830 So. 2d 1214 (Miss. 2002).

§ 75-76-173. Resolution of claim by patron; judicial review; appeal to Supreme Court of decision of circuit court; judicial review provided as exclusive method of review; costs of record on review.

(1) Any party aggrieved by the final decision in the circuit court after a review of the decision and order of the commission may appeal to the Supreme Court in the manner and within the time provided by law for appeals in civil cases. The Supreme Court shall follow the same procedure thereafter as in appeals in civil actions and may affirm, reverse or modify the decision as the record and law warrant.

(2) The judicial review by the circuit and Supreme Courts afforded in this chapter is the exclusive method of review of the commission's actions, decisions and orders in hearings held pursuant to Sections 75-76-159 through 75-76-165, inclusive.

(3) The party requesting judicial review shall bear all of the costs of transcribing and of transmitting the record on review.

§ 75-76-175. Acceptance of credit instruments by licenses.

(1) A credit instrument accepted on or after June 29, 1991, is valid and may be enforced by legal process.

(2) A licensee or a person acting on the licensee's behalf may accept an incomplete credit instrument which:

(a) Is signed by a patron; and

(b) States the amount of the debt in figures.

and may complete the instrument as is necessary for the instrument to be presented for payment.

(3) A licensee or person acting on behalf of a licensee:

(a) May accept a credit instrument that is dated later than the date of its execution if that later date is furnished at the time of the execution of the credit instrument by the patron.

(b) May not accept a credit instrument which is incomplete, except as authorized by subsection (2) of this section.

(c) May accept a credit instrument that is payable to an affiliated company or may complete a credit instrument in the name of an affiliated company as payee if the credit instrument otherwise complies with this subsection and the records of the affiliated company pertaining to the credit instrument are made available to the executive director upon request.

(4) This section does not prohibit the establishment of an account by a deposit of cash, recognized traveler's check, or any other instruments which is equivalent to cash.

(5) Any person who violates the provisions of this section is subject only to the penalties provided in Sections 75-76-103 through 75-76-119, inclusive.

(6) The commission may adopt regulations prescribing the conditions under which a credit instrument may be redeemed or presented to a bank for collection or payment.

(a) Four percent (4%) of all the gross revenue of the licensee which does not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) per calendar month;

(b) Six percent (6%) of all the gross revenue of the licensee which exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) per calendar month and does not exceed One Hundred Thirty-four Thousand Dollars ($134,000.00) per calendar month; and revenue of the owner. The lessee is liable to the owner for his proportionate share of such license fees.

(3) If the amount of license fees required to be reported and paid pursuant to this section is later determined to be greater or less than the amount actually reported and paid by the licensee, the Chairman of the State Tax Commission shall:

(a) Assess and collect the additional license fees determined to be due, with interest thereon until paid; or

(1) For the purposes of this chapter, except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the computation of gross revenue must include the face value of any credit instrument accepted on or after June 29, 1991, if, within five (5) years after the last day of the month following the month in which the instrument was accepted by the licensee, the executive director determines that:

(a) The instrument was not signed by the patron or otherwise acknowledged by him in a written form satisfactory to the executive director;

(e) The licensee has not produced the instrument within a reasonable time after a request by the executive director for the instrument unless it:

(i) Is in the possession of a court, governmental agency or financial institution;

(ii) Has been returned to the patron upon his partial payment of the instrument and the licensee has obtained a substitute credit instrument for the remaining balance;

(a) Induce a partial payment;

(b) Compromise a dispute;

(c) Retain a patron's business for the future; or

(d) Obtain a patron's business if:

(i) An agreement is entered into to discount the face amount of a credit instrument before it is issued to induce timely payment of the credit instrument; and

(ii) The percentage of discount of the instrument is reasonable as compared to the prevailing practice in the industry.

§ 75-76-195. License fee based on gross revenues of licensee imposed by municipalities and counties; penalty for failure to pay fee.

(1) In addition to any state gaming license fees or taxes, from and after August 1, 1990, (a) a municipality may impose a fee upon a licensee located within the municipality for conducting, carrying on or operating any gambling game, slot machine or other game of chance based upon all the gross revenue of the licensee derived from his establishment within the municipality, and (b) a county may impose a fee upon a licensee located within the unincorporated area of the county for conducting, carrying on or operating any gambling game, slot machine or other game of chance based upon all the gross revenue of the licensee derived from his establishment within the unincorporated area of the county, as follows:

(ii) Six-tenths percent (.6%) of all the gross revenue which exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) per calendar month and does not exceed One Hundred Thirty-four Thousand Dollars ($134,000.00) per calendar month; and

(iii) Eight-tenths percent (.8%) of all the gross revenue of the licensee which exceeds One Hundred Thirty-four Thousand Dollars ($134,000.00) per calendar month.

(2) Whenever a municipality or county imposes a fee under this section, it shall not become effective until the first day of the month following the month in which the municipality or county adopts the ordinance imposing the fee.

(3) All revenue received from any game or gaming device which is leased for operation on the premises of licensee-owner to a person other than the owner thereof or which is located in an area or space on such premises which is leased by the licensee-owner to any such person must be attributed to the owner for the purposes of this section and be counted as part of the gross revenue of the owner. The lessee is liable to the owner for his proportionate share of such fees.

(a) Assess and collect the additional fees determined to be due, with interest thereon until paid; or

(b) Refund any overpayment, with interest thereon, to the licensee.

Interest must be computed, until paid, at the rate of one percent (1%) per month from the first day of the month following either the due date of the additional fees or the date of overpayment.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Local governing authorities may impose fees upon gaming licensees conducting business within city limits based upon gross revenues derived from casino, but it is responsibility of State Tax Commission to assess and collect such fees, and to distribute them to local governing authorities. Rafferty, August 27, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0161.

§ 75-76-197. Distribution of fees collected under provisions of section 75-76-195.

On or before the fifteenth day of each month, the gross revenue fees collected under the provisions of Section 75-76-195 during the preceding month shall be paid and distributed as follows:

(a) Fees designated as "local government fees" remitted by licensees who are located within an incorporated municipality shall be distributed:

(i) To such municipal corporation in the proportion that the population of the municipal corporation bears to the entire population of the county in which the municipal corporation is located, according to the most recent federal census; and

(ii) To the county in which the municipal corporation is located in the proportion that the population of the county outside of that municipal corporation bears to the entire population of the county, according to the most recent federal census.

(b) Fees designated as "local government fees" remitted by licensees who are not located within an incorporated municipality shall be distributed to the county in which the licensee is located.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Under legislation authorizing governing authorities of City to impose fee on cruise vessel that docks within City and on which legal gaming is conducted, expenditure of monies collected for public safety purposes within municipality could be provided for through budgeting process; however, legislation contemplates direct distribution of monies to municipal school district to be expended by school board, as well as direct distribution to county which, in turn, would be responsible for expending monies for public safety and educational purposes. Bardwell, July 15, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0503.

There are no statutory provisions in Gaming Control Act instructing county as to how it should utilize funds distributed under Section 75-76-197; County is not required to place funds received into general fund. Gex, Feb. 16, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0810.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Intent to defraud.

In a prosecution under subsection (c), evidence was sufficient to show intent to defraud where (1) all parties conceded that fraud took place at a blackjack table, and the dealer himself admitted that he did, in fact, knowingly commit fraud against his casino, and (2) the dealer and the defendant were brothers-in-law, but testimony established that they both falsely represented that they were not even acquainted. Dumas v. State, 806 So. 2d 1009 (Miss. 2000).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Defendant's conviction for conspiracy to violate Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) arising from alleged scheme to defraud Mississippi casino did not violate ex post facto clause to extent that underlying offenses occurred prior to Mississippi's enactment of statutes that prohibited cheating at gambling games and marking or altering of gaming equipment or devices, given absence of showing that cheating at gambling was legal in Mississippi prior to statutes' enactment. United States v. Vaccaro, 115 F.3d 1211 (5th Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 522

U.S. 1047, 118 S. Ct. 689, 139 L. Ed. 2d 635 (1998).

Convictions for substantive Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) violations were supported by evidence showing defendants' involvement in enterprise, that enterprise operated cheating scheme at Mississippi casino, and that defendants facilitated cheating, one by placing marked cards on table for play and other by organizing cheating crews. United States v. Vaccaro, 115 F.3d 1211 (5th Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 522 U.S. 1047, 118 S. Ct. 689, 139 L. Ed. 2d 635 (1998).

§ 75-76-309. Manufacture, sale or distribution of gaming materials intended for illegal use prohibited; altering equipment prohibited; instructing others in cheating prohibited.

(1) It is unlawful to manufacture, sell or distribute any cards, chips, dice, game or device that is intended to be used to violate any provision of this chapter.

(2) It is unlawful to mark, alter or otherwise modify any associated equipment or gaming device in a manner that:

(a) Affects the result of a wager by determining win or loss; or

(b) Alters the normal criteria of random selection, which affects the operation of a game or which determines the outcome of a game.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to instruct another in cheating or in the use of any device for that purpose, with the knowledge or intent that the information or use so conveyed may be employed to violate any provision of this chapter.

(1) In addition to any other penalty provided in this chapter, any person who violates any provision of Sections 75-76-301 through 75-76-313, shall be punished:

(a) For the first offense, by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for not more than two (2) years, or by a fine of not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) For a second or subsequent violation of any of these provisions, by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for not more than ten (10) years, and may be further punished by a fine of not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

(2) In addition to any other penalty provided in this chapter, any person who attempts, or two (2) or more persons who conspire, to violate any provision of Sections 75-76-301 through 75-76-313 each shall be punished by imposing the penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section for the completed crime, whether or not he personally played any gambling game or used any prohibited device.

If any person shall commit or attempt to commit a violation of any provision of Sections 75-76-301 through 75-76-313, any officer, employee or agent of a licensee or any law enforcement officer, acting in good faith and upon probable cause based upon reasonable grounds therefor, may question such person in a reasonable manner for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not such person should be charged with a violation of Sections 75-76-301 through 75-76-313. The questioning of a person by an officer, employee or agent of a licensee or by a law enforcement officer shall not render the licensee, its officer, its employee or its agent, or a law enforcement officer, civilly liable for slander, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, unlawful detention or otherwise in any case where the licensee's officer, employee or agent, or the law enforcement officer, is acting in good faith and upon reasonable grounds to

§ 75-77-1. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter the following words and phrases have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Current model" means a model listed in the wholesaler's, manufacturer's or distributor's current sales manual or any supplements thereto;

(b) "Current net price" means the price listed in the supplier's price list or catalogue in effect at the time the contract is cancelled or discontinued, less any applicable trade and cash discounts;

(c) "Retailer" means any person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of selling and retailing farm implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment, outdoor power equipment, attachments or repair parts and shall not include retailers of petroleum products;

(d) "Inventory" means farm implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment, consumer products, outdoor power equipment, attachments and repair parts;

(e) "Supplier" means any manufacturer, wholesaler, wholesale distributor, or any purchaser of assets or stock of any surviving corporation resulting from a merger or liquidations, any receiver or assignee, or any trustee of the original manufacturer, wholesaler or distributor; and

Cross References — "Good cause" defined, see § 75-77-2.

§ 75-77-2. Cancellation of retail agreement.

(1) No supplier, directly or through an officer, agent or employee, may terminate, cancel, fail to renew or substantially change the competitive circumstances of a retail agreement without good cause. "Good cause" shall mean failure by a retailer to comply with requirements imposed upon the retailer by the retail agreement if such requirements are not different from those imposed on other retailers similarly situated in this state. In addition, good cause exists whenever:

(a) There has been a closeout on sale of a substantial part of the retailer's assets related to the equipment business, or there has been a commencement of a dissolution or liquidation of the retailer;

(b) The retailer has changed its principal place of business or added additional locations without prior approval of the supplier, which shall not be unreasonably withheld;

(c) The retailer has substantially defaulted under a chattel mortgage or other security agreement between the retailer and the supplier, or there has been a revocation or discontinuance of a guarantee of a present or future obligation of the retailer to the supplier;

(d) The equipment retailer has failed to operate in the normal course of business for seven (7) consecutive days or has otherwise abandoned the business;

(e) The retailer has pleaded guilty to or has been convicted of a felony affecting the relationship between the retailer and the supplier;

(f) The retailer transfers an interest in the dealership, or a person with a substantial interest in the ownership or control of the dealership, including an individual proprietor, partner or major shareholder, withdraws from the dealership or dies, or a substantial reduction occurs in the interest of a partner or major shareholder in the dealership. However, good cause does not exist if the supplier consents to an action described in this subsection.

(2) Except as otherwise provided herein, a supplier shall provide a retailer with at least ninety (90) days written notice of termination, cancellation or nonrenewal of the retail agreement and a sixty (60) day right-to-cure the deficiency. If the deficiency is cured within the allotted time, the notice is void. In the case where cancellation is enacted due to market penetration, a reasonable period of time shall have existed where the supplier has worked with the dealer to gain the desired market share. The notice shall state all reasons constituting good cause for action. The notice is not required if the reason for termination, cancellation or nonrenewal is a violation under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section.

§ 75-77-3. Supplier shall repurchase inventory maintained by retailer upon termination of contract.

Whenever any retailer enters into an agreement, evidenced by a written or oral contract, with a supplier wherein the retailer agrees to maintain an inventory of parts and to provide service and the contract is terminated, then the supplier shall repurchase the inventory as provided in this chapter. The retailer may keep the inventory if he desires. If the retailer has any outstanding debts to the supplier, then the repurchase amount may be setoff or credited to the retailer's account.

§ 75-77-4. Prohibited activities of supplier.

No supplier shall:

(a) Coerce any retailer to accept delivery of equipment, parts or accessories which the retailer has not ordered voluntarily, except as required by any applicable law, or unless parts or accessories are safety parts or accessories required by a supplier;

(b) Condition the sale of additional equipment to a retailer on a requirement that the retailer also purchase other goods or services, except that a supplier may require the retailer to purchase those parts reasonably necessary to maintain the quality of operation in the field of the equipment used in the trade area;

(c) Coerce a retailer into refusing to purchase equipment manufactured by another supplier;

(d) Terminate, cancel or fail to renew or substantially change the competitive circumstances of the retail agreement based on the results of a natural disaster, including a sustained drought or high unemployment in the dealership market area, labor dispute or other similar circumstances beyond the retailer's control.

§ 75-77-5. Repurchase price; costs of handling, packing and loading.

The supplier shall repurchase that inventory previously purchased from him and held by the retailer on the date of termination of the contract. The supplier shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of the current net price of all new, unsold, undamaged and complete farm implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment, outdoor power equipment and attachments, and ninety percent (90%) of the current net price on new, unused and undamaged and superseded repair parts. The supplier shall pay the retailer ten percent (10%) of the current net price on all new, unused and undamaged repair parts returned to cover the cost of handling, packing and loading. The supplier shall have the option of performing the handling, packing and loading in lieu of paying the ten percent (10%) for these services. The supplier shall purchase at its amortized value any specific data processing hardware and software and telecommunications equipment that the supplier required the retailer to purchase within the past five (5) years. The supplier shall also repurchase, at seventy-five percent (75%) of the net cost, specialized repair tools purchased in the previous three (3) years and, at fifty percent (50%) of the net cost, specialized repair tools purchased in the previous four (4) through six (6) years pursuant to the requirements of the supplier and held by the retailer on the date of termination. Such specialized repair tools must be unique to the supplier's product line and must be in complete and resalable condition. Farm implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment and outdoor power equipment used in demonstrations, including equipment leased primarily for demonstration or lease, shall also be subject to repurchase under this law at its agreed depreciated value, provided such equipment is in new condition and has not been abused.

§ 75-77-6. Rules for warranty claim submitted to supplier by retailer.

This section applies to a warranty claim submitted by a retailer:

(a) Claims filed for payment under warranty agreements shall either be approved or disapproved within thirty (30) days of receipt by the supplier. All claims for payment shall be paid within thirty (30) days of their approval. When any such claim is disapproved, the supplier shall notify the retailer within thirty (30) days stating the specific grounds upon which the disapproval is based. If a claim is not specifically disapproved within thirty (30) days of receipt, it shall be deemed approved and payment by the supplier shall be within thirty (30) days.

(b) If after termination of a contract the retailer submits a claim to the supplier for warranty work performed prior to the effective date of the termination, the supplier shall accept or reject the claim within thirty (30) days of receipt.

(c) Warranty work performed by the retailer shall be compensated in accordance with the reasonable and customary amount of time required to complete the work, expressed in hours and fractions thereof, multiplied by the retailer's established customer hourly retail labor rate, which shall have previously been made known to the supplier.

(d) Expenses expressly excluded under the supplier's warranty to the customer shall not be included nor required to be paid on requests for compensation from the retailer for warrant work performed.

(e) All parts used by the retailer in performing warranty work shall be paid to the retailer in the amount equal to the retailer's net price for parts used, plus a minimum of fifteen percent (15%). The percentage additive is to reimburse the retailer for reasonable costs of doing business in performing warranty service on the suppliers behalf, including, but not limited to, freight and handling costs incurred.

(f) The supplier has the right to adjust for errors discovered during audit, and if necessary, to adjust claims paid in error.

(g) The retailer shall have the right to accept the manufacturer's reimbursement terms and conditions in lieu of the provisions of this section.

SOURCES: Laws, 2001, ch. 495, § 37, eff from and after Jan. 1, 2002.

§ 75-77-7. Transfer of title and right of possession to repurchased inventory.

Upon payment of the repurchase amount to the retailer, the title and right of possession to the repurchased inventory shall transfer to the supplier. Annually, at the end of each calendar year, after termination or cancellation, the retailer's reserve account for recourse, retail sale or lease contracts shall not be debited by a supplier or lender for any deficiency unless the retailer or his heirs have been given at least seven (7) business days' notice by registered U.S. mail, return receipt requested, of any proposed sale of the equipment financed and an opportunity to purchase the equipment. The former retailer or his heirs shall be given quarterly status reports on any remaining outstanding recourse contracts. As the recourse contracts are reduced, any reserve account funds shall be returned to the retailer or his heirs in direct proportion to the liabilities outstanding.

SOURCES: Laws, 1977, ch. 419, § 4; Laws, 1997, ch. 318, § 6, eff from and after July 1, 1997.

§ 75-77-9. Certain items need not be repurchased.

The provisions of this chapter shall not require the repurchase from a retailer of:

(a) Any repair part which, because of its condition, is not resalable as a new part;

(b) Any inventory which the retailer desires to keep, provided the retailer has a contractual right to do so;

(c) Any farm implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment, outdoor power equipment and attachments which are not current models or which are not in new, unused, undamaged, complete condition, provided that the equipment used in demonstrations or leased as provided in Section 75-77-5 shall be considered new and unused;

(d) Any repair parts which are not in new, unused, undamaged condition;

(e) Any farm implements, machinery, utility and industrial equipment, outdoor power equipment or attachments which were purchased more than thirty-six (36) months prior to notice of termination of the contract;

(f) Any inventory which was ordered by the retailer on or after the date of termination of the contract.

§ 75-77-11. Civil liability for failure or refusal to repurchase.

If any supplier shall fail or refuse to repurchase and pay the retailer for any inventory covered under the provisions of this chapter within sixty (60) days after shipment of such inventory, he shall be civilly liable for one hundred percent (100%) of the current net price of the inventory, plus any freight charges paid by the retailer, the retailer's attorney's fees, court costs and interest on the current net price computed at the legal interest rate from the sixty-first day after date of shipment.

SOURCES: Laws, 1977, ch. 419, § 6; Laws, 1997, ch. 318, § 8, eff from and after July 1, 1997.

§ 75-77-13. Rights of heirs of retailer.

(1) In the event of the death of the retailer or the majority stockholder of a corporation operating as a retailer, the supplier shall, at the option of the heir or heirs, repurchase the inventory from the heir or heirs of the retailer or majority stockholder as if the supplier had terminated the contract. The heir or heirs shall have one (1) year from the date of the death of the retailer or majority stockholder to exercise their options under this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall require the repurchase of any inventory if the heir or heirs and the supplier enter into a new contract retail agreement to operate the retail dealership.

(2) A supplier shall have ninety (90) days in which to consider and make a determination on a request by a family member to enter into a new retail agreement to operate the retail dealership. As used herein "family member" means a spouse, child, son-in-law, daughter-in-law or lineal descendant of the dealer or principal owner of the dealership. In the event the supplier determines that the requesting family member is not acceptable, the supplier shall provide the family member with a written notice of its determination with the stated reasons for non-acceptance. This section does not entitle an heir, personal representative or family member to operate a dealership without the specific written consent of the supplier.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a supplier and a dealer have previously executed an agreement concerning succession rights prior to the dealer's death and, if such agreement has not been revoked, such agreement shall be observed even if it designates someone other than the surviving spouse or heirs of the decedent as the successor.

§ 75-77-15. Security interests in inventory unaffected; repurchases not subject to bulk sales law; inspection of parts packed for shipment.

The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to affect in any way any security interest which the supplier may have in the inventory of the retailer, and any repurchase hereunder shall not be subject to the provisions of the bulk sales law. The retailer and supplier shall furnish representatives to inspect all parts and certify their acceptability when packed for shipment. Failure of the supplier to provide a representative within sixty (60) days shall result in automatic acceptance by the supplier of all returned items.

SOURCES: Laws, 1977, ch. 419, § 8; Laws, 1997, ch. 318, § 10, eff from and after July 1, 1997.

§ 75-77-16. Cause of action for civil relief against supplier.

(1) A retailer may bring an action for civil damages in a court of competent jurisdiction against any supplier found violating any of the provisions of Sections 75-77-1 through 75-77-15, Mississippi Code of 1972, and may recover damages sustained as a consequence of the supplier's violations together with all costs and attorney fees.

(2) The retailer shall be entitled to injunctive relief against unlawful termination, cancellation, nonrenewal or substantial change of competitive circumstances of the retail agreement. The remedies in this section are in addition to any other remedies permitted by law.

(b) "Commissioner" means the Mississippi Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce.

(c) "Pulpwood" means any timber product delivered to a receiving facility in short-length form, eight (8) feet or less, and intended for use as a raw material in the manufacture of pulp and pulp products.

(d) "Pulpwood cutter-hauler" or "cutter-hauler" means any person engaging in or continuing to engage in this state in the business of severing and carrying pulpwood.

(f) "Facility operator" means any person who owns, operates or manages a pulpwood receiving facility as herein defined. ### § 75-79-7. General powers and duties of commissioner of agriculture and commerce.

It shall be the function and duty of the commissioner to:

(a) Issue licenses to operators of pulpwood receiving facilities determined to qualify under the provisions of this chapter, and revoke or suspend licenses previously issued by the commissioner in any case where the licensee is determined to have violated any of the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Establish standard procedures and promulgate regulations for the measurement of pulpwood offered for sale, both by weight and by volume, in a manner consistent with the Mississippi Weights and Measures Law of 1964, as amended (Section 75-27-1 et seq.). Such standard provisions and regulations shall require that all pulpwood receiving facilities shall give every cutter-hauler a ticket which shall state at the minimum (i) the name of the cutter-hauler; (ii) the name of the landowner from which the wood was severed or the name of the owner of the timber; (iii) the county or county code in which the timber was severed; and (iv) the number of cords or, in the event of weighing, the gross weight on the truck of the cutter-hauler. In the event that neither the cutter-hauler nor the landowner nor the owner of the timber is the person to be paid for such pulpwood, the ticket shall also contain the name of the payee. The ticket shall be prepared upon delivery and acceptance of a load of pulpwood and shall be made available for inspection by the cutter-hauler if the cutter-hauler so desires. All cutter-haulers have the right to inspect the ticket before unloading of the pulpwood. However, where such wood is measured on scales, the ticket shall be issued at the time of the weighing and shall state the gross weight of the wood and truck and the tare weight of the truck after unloading to determine the net weight of the wood; the number of cords is not required on tickets so weighed. The pulpwood facility shall keep a copy of such ticket on file for subsequent inspection by the State Tax Commission and the Department of Agriculture and Commerce for a period not less than three (3) years. The facility operator shall maintain on the facility premises, at a minimum, the following information on the cutter-hauler and the payee for the pulpwood if the payee is someone other than the cutter-hauler: (i) name; (ii) social security number or employer identification number, or both; (iii) address; and (iv) the corresponding identification code used on the scale ticket. The facility operator is required to obtain, in good faith, such information from the cutter-hauler who is liable for the accuracy of this information.

(c) Conduct periodic inspections no less than once every six (6) months, and establish and carry out other procedures designed to insure that licensees will comply with the provisions of this chapter.

(d) Receive, investigate and take appropriate action with respect to any charge or complaint filed with the commissioner to the effect that any pulpwood receiving facility operator has violated any provision of this chapter.

(e) Randomly weigh, at his discretion, any agricultural product being delivered throughout the state to determine the accuracy of the bill of lading. If the weight exceeds or falls below the amount of weight reported on the bill of lading by five percent (5%) or more, then the commissioner shall report the discrepancy, in writing, to the Director of the Agriculture and Livestock Theft Bureau. Such agricultural products shall be weighed on certified scales approved by the Weights and Measures Division of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Pursuant to Miss. Code Sections 75-85-1 et seq., person who transacts business in city or county for less than six months in each year must obtain transient vendor's license, unless business is specifically exempted by Miss. Code Section 75-85-3. Fortenberry, Feb. 18, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0082.

If these business are located within a City for a period of time less than six months out of the year, then a transient vendor's license is required under Sections 75-85-1 et seq. If these businesses are located within the city for a period greater than six months out of the year, even if the specialized vending vehicles move around within the city, then no transient vendor's license is required. Polk, March 29, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0128.

The owner of a permanent business located in Mississippi outside of the City of Ridgeland who transacts business at one or more locations in the City of Ridgeland for less than six months of the year is a transient vendor within the meaning of the statute. Mills, Dec. 10, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0661.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Salesmen who travel from state to state selling books by sample or brochure for future delivery are exempt from transient vendor license. Mullins, June 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0432.

A company which has a district office in Memphis and which sells dairy and food products by truck to individuals in Mississippi falls within the exemption from the transient vendors' license fees. Stanford, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0864.

Foreign corporation that sells cheese, crackers, gift baskets, candy, cakes, and processed meats at mall during holiday season must obtain transient vendor's license; corporation does not come under dairy products exemption because inventory includes items other than cheese. Johnson, Sept. 24, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0737.

Miss. Code Section 75-85-3(d) specifically exempts, from transient vendor's license requirement, "fairs and convention center activities conducted primarily for amusement or entertainment"; whether specific business is "fair or convention center activity" is factual question; however, it does not appear that business consisting of carnival type rides, games and food stands used to promote grocery stores or shopping centers falls within conventional definition of "fair". Fortenberry, Feb. 18, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0082.

Vendor who is transacting business for less than six months of year must obtain transient vendor's license unless falling within one of specific exclusions listed in Miss. Code Section 75-85-3. Duckworth, Apr. 21, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0257.

Miss. Code Section 75-85-3 exempts vendor who has permanent place of business in Mississippi, Mississippi sales tax number, and privilege license. Duckworth, Apr. 21, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0257.

If a vendor at the flea market is doing business for less than six months of the year, the vendor must obtain a transient vendor's license unless the business falls within a specific exemption set forth in Section 75-85-3, such as the exemption for sales of crafts or items made by hand set forth in Section 75-85-3(1)(g) or the exemption for agricultural products set forth in Section 75-85-3(1)(i). Johnson, November 8, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0667.

A vendor who otherwise meets the definition of a transient vendor and who engages in the sale of prepared foods such as barbeque or hot tamales from a roadside stand, is not exempt from the requirement of a transient vendor license by Section 75-85-3(i), regardless of whether the final products are prepared with dairy, seafood or agricultural products grown in Mississippi. Joseph, Apr. 26, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0195.

(1) A transient vendor who desires to transact business in a county or municipality in this state shall apply for and obtain a license in each county and in each municipality in which the vendor desires to transact business. A license issued by a county authorizes a transient vendor to transact business outside of the municipalities in the county, and a license issued by a municipality authorizes a transient vendor to transact business within the municipality. The license application shall be filed with the county tax collector or municipal tax collector, as the case may be, and must include:

(a) The name and permanent address of the transient vendor making the application;

(b) A statement describing the kind of business to be conducted, the length of time for which the applicant desires to transact the business, and the proposed location of the business;

(c) The name and permanent address of the applicant's registered agent or office; and

(d) Proof that the applicant has acquired all other required city, county and state permits and licenses. Such proof shall include a Mississippi sales tax number and, if the transient vendor desires to transact business in a municipality, such number shall include such municipality's sales tax diversion code.

(2) If the applicant is an association or a corporation, the applicant must also include the names and addresses of the members of the association or the officers of the corporation. If the applicant is a corporation, the application must state the date of incorporation and the state in which it was incorporated. If the applicant is a corporation organized under the laws of another state, the applicant must state the date on which the corporation qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation in this state.

§ 75-85-11. Registered agent for transient vendor; tax collector as agent for service of process.

(1) Each applicant for a transient vendor license shall designate a registered agent on the license application. The registered agent must be a resident of the county or municipality for which the license is sought and shall be the agent on whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the licensee may be served. The registered agent must agree in writing to act as the agent. The license applicant shall file a copy of the agreement with the license application.

(2) The county tax collector and the municipal tax collector shall maintain an alphabetical list of all transient vendors in the county or municipality, as the case may be, and the names and addresses of their registered agents.

(3) If a transient vendor who does business in a county or municipality fails to have or to maintain a registered agent in that county or municipality or if the designated registered agent cannot be found at the stated permanent address, the county tax collector or municipal tax collector, as the case may be, is the agent of the transient vendor for service of process, notices or demands. Service on the tax collector is made by delivering to his office duplicate copies of the process, notice or demand. If such a process, notice or demand is served on the tax collector, he shall immediately forward one (1) copy by registered or certified mail to the permanent address of the transient vendor.

(4) This section does not limit or otherwise affect the right of any person to serve a process, notice or demand in any other manner authorized by law.

§ 75-85-13. License fee; bond requirements.

(1) Each applicant for a transient vendor license shall include a license fee set by the governing authority of the county or municipality not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) with the application, which fee shall be deposited in the general fund of the county or municipality that issues the license. The applicant shall also execute a cash bond or a surety bond issued by a corporate surety authorized to do business in this state in an amount that is the lesser of either Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) or five percent (5%) of the wholesale value of any merchandise or service to be offered for sale by the applicant. The surety bond shall be issued in favor of the state and shall be conditioned upon payment of: (a) all taxes due from the applicant to the state or to a political subdivision of the state; (b) any fines assessed against the applicant or the applicant's agents or employees for a violation of this chapter; and (c) any judgment rendered against the applicant or the applicant's agents or employees in a cause of action commenced by a purchaser of merchandise or services not later than one (1) year after the date the merchandise or services were sold by the applicant.

(2) The transient vendor shall maintain the bond during the period that the vendor conducts business in the county or municipality and for a period of one (1) year after the termination of the business. After the transient vendor furnishes satisfactory proof to the county tax collector or municipal tax collector, as the case may be, that the vendor has satisfied all claims of purchasers of merchandise from or services offered by the vendor and that all sales taxes and other applicable taxes have been paid, the bond shall be released.

I. Under Current Law.

II. Under Former § 27-15-57.

6. In general.

Where a corporation pays an annual privilege tax to a city on account of operation of an ice cream factory in that city and as a result acquires the privilege of selling its manufactured goods at wholesale from refrigerated trucks, the corporation is not exempt from paying the transient vendor or dealer's tax to the state for selling its goods in other counties outside of that city. Stone v. Seale-Lily Ice Cream Co., 52 So. 2d 486 (Miss. 1951).

A dealer who maintained his main plant valued at more than $3000 in a certain county could be required to pay only $10 for each county wherein he sold fresh fruit and vegetables, even though sale and distribution in some counties was made from a branch plant assessed at less than $3000 to which produce was sent from the main plant for its better temporary preservation. Cockrell v. Raspberry, 202 Miss. 312, 32 So. 2d 119 (1947).

The opening sentence of this section 9649(1), Code 1942 (Laws 1940, ch 120), designating a tax on transient vendors as a "state-wide" tax, which under the fixed legislative policy would bar municipalities from collecting a part of the tax, the retention of an old provision that municipalities could also collect such a tax, and the enactment of another section at the concluding portion of the Act (see Code 1942, § 9694), expressly negating the authority of municipalities to levy a tax on state-wide privilege taxes, resulted in a doubt as to the proper construction of the Act, which should be resolved in favor of the taxpayer, since taxation is never to be allowed under a statute of doubtful interpretation. Craig v. Walker, 191 Miss. 424, 2 So. 2d 806 (1941).

It being immaterial who pays a particular privilege tax so long as it is paid when due, it was immaterial that the formal recital of a privilege tax license issued under this statute was that it was issued to the employer firm or company for the agent named therein, instead of stating that it was issued to the agent himself and naming therein the firm or company for which he was thereby licensed to do the work. Craig v. Walker, 191 Miss. 424, 2 So. 2d 806 (1941).

Elimination of the word "natural" before the word "person" as contained in a former enactment of this section [§ 9649(1), Code 1942] is of no consequence, since the definitions of transient vendor in this and the former section are the same and restrict the term to persons who themselves actually peddle, or sell, or deliver goods, etc. Craig v. Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., 190 Miss. 360, 200 So. 446 (1941).

The liability for the privilege taxes imposed by former enactment of this section 9649(1), Code 1942 (Laws 1935, extra session, chap. 26, § 225; Laws 1936, chap. 154, § 225), was not upon a partnership engaged in the wholesale fruit and vegetable business but upon its agents, the drivers of its trucks, who actually peddled the produce. Gully v. Joseph, 183 Miss. 662, 184 So. 818 (1938).

7. Purpose.

This statute was designed to encourage dealers in fresh fruits and vegetables to establish built-in refrigeration plants in the state. Cockrell v. Rasberry, 202 Miss. 312, 32 So. 2d 119 (1947).

The purpose of this statute is that there should be a joint identification of the agent and his employer in the license, and this having been done, the state is not to be permitted to again collect the tax, with penalties, upon what at best is a technicality, unsupported by substantial merits, as where the tax is imposed upon the firm and the privilege licenses issued to it, naming the particular agent or transient vendor for whom the particular license was issued, instead of issuing the license to the agent or vendor himself. Craig v. Walker, 191 Miss. 424, 2 So. 2d 806 (1941).

8. Applicability.

This section applies only to the individual actually peddling the goods and not to the person by whom he is employed so to do; and, accordingly, a corporation being of itself unable to peddle goods, is not liable for the tax imposed hereunder. Craig v. Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., 190 Miss. 360, 200 So. 446 (1941).

§ 75-85-19. Penalties for violation of chapter.

Any person who knowingly or intentionally operates a transient business without a valid license as provided by this chapter or who knowingly or intentionally advertises, offers for sale, or sells any merchandise or services in violation of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than six (6) months, or be both fined and imprisoned. Such person may also be proceeded against by suit, and the tax collector may seize and sell any property of the person liable for the tax and penalty in the same manner as property of taxpayers delinquent for the payment of ad valorem taxes due on personal property may be distrained and sold.

Upon the entry of the order, the administrator shall promptly notify the party against whom the order has been entered that the order has been entered and the reasons therefor. The administrator shall also inform the party against whom the order has been entered that a written request for a hearing on the matters set forth in the order must be filed with the adminis-

(7) The administrator may issue rules, regulations or orders prescribing the terms and conditions of all transactions and contracts covered by the provisions of this chapter which are not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission as granted by the Commodity Exchange Act, exempting and conditionally or unconditionally or otherwise implementing the provisions of this chapter for the protection of purchasers and sellers of commodities.

(2) Upon entry of a notice of intent or summary order, the administrator shall promptly notify the party against whom the notice of intent or summary order is entered that the notice of intent or summary order has been entered and the reasons therefor. The administrator shall also inform the party against whom the notice or summary order is entered that a written request for a hearing on the matters set forth in the notice of intent or summary order must be filed with the administrator within thirty (30) calendar days from receipt of a certified copy of the notice of intent or summary order.

(4) Upon receipt of the petition for review, the administrator shall certify and file in the court a copy of the order and the transcript or record of the evidence upon which it was based. (5) If either the aggrieved party or the administrator applies to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court, that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the administrator or other good cause, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken by the administrator under such conditions as the court considers proper.

(6) If new evidence is ordered taken by the court, the administrator may modify the findings and order by reason of the additional evidence and shall file in the court the additional evidence together with any modified or new findings or order.
